

First Strong 294

Chapter 294 - Killed to Yunzhou!

Wu Bowen sneered directly, then walked over and kicked Wang Jun's body, kicking him from the knees and kicking it on the floor.

"You are a dog thing! If it is not on your father's face, if it is my son, I must interrupt your leg!"

Wang Jun flashed a trace of grievances in his eyes, but his mouth still pleaded: "Wu Lao, I am wrong! I am still too young... This gentleman, I am sorry, no matter who the money is, the responsibility should be I am coming, I recognize Wu Lao's handling and should compensate you for five million!"

Shen Lang shook his head: "Old Wu, you just hit him and yell at him. Actually, I want to save him? You are an old man. There is no strength in kicking a kick. If you change me to kick, you can His internal organs kicked."

Wang Jun listened to the mistake, but isn't it? Although Wu Bowen kicked him down, it was just a push, and the skin trauma was not counted. If he wanted to be stiff, he would not even fall.

Wu Bowen was said to have broken his heart and immediately got up. In any case, he and Wang Jun are both their own people. Even if they are cut off, they can't help but save the army.

"Unfortunately this kid is to hate you. I feel that you are a working old ghost, dare to kick him this little boss, back to the dog must bite Lu Dongbin, tell his father that your bad words are dying!"

In the words of Shen Lang, Wu Bo warmed up and smiled: "It doesn't matter... I am not a part-time job! When I am older, I am called Wu Lao, I really think that I am a big expert! It is also time to retire. It's time."

"I have retired, what else is this kid?" Shen Lang smiled: "It's better for me to help you throw him downstairs, not to count on your head, but to kill such a shitless person, right. I am not a problem."

“No, no,” Wu Bo warmly stopped, and then seriously bowed to Shen Lang: “Toss out the old face today, I hope you give a face, let go of Wang Jun. He is really young and ignorant...”

When I said this, he felt that it was a bit strange. He looked up and saw the face of Shen Lang before he understood it.

Compared with Shen Lang, Wang Jun is at least ten years old, can you call young and ignorant?

“His father, Wang Sihai, still has the grace of knowing me. I am willing to take everything on me and change him to be safe.”

Shen Lang looked at him a little surprised, and then understood.

Wu Bowen is a traditional person. He is proud of his old-fashioned and old-fashioned. That is all he has true skills. For ordinary young people, he is not able to. But he is also young, and he was once appreciated by others to have the status of today.

Therefore, even if Wang Jun had already hurt his self-esteem, he was willing to finally return Wang Enhai's enlightenment once.

Shen Lang didn't see it. When he raised his hand, he pulled the army on the ground to the ceiling. When he couldn't move, he couldn't call for help, and then fell to the ground!

“Reassured, throwing a skin injury, just let him suffer a bit of long-term memory, do not forget the old man you have an ambulance.”

Worried Wu Bowen turned into a bitter smile.

“Tonight's trade fair, dare to continue to invite me?” Shen Lang jokingly said.

When he was invited, Wu Bowen did not know that he was a self-cultivator, and he thought that there was a family power behind him.

Wu Bo warmly said: “Of course, of course! That is certain, they are nothing, just a little thing, I will report it to the boss of Wang, he will understand. Including this, I will handle it!”

He pointed to the information of the hotel owner.

Shen Lang nodded and recognized him.

“My Wu Bo warm is also not aware of Mount Tai, I did not expect that you are actually a high-fidelity person, but also screaming at the little brother, squatting!” Wu Bo warm a little embarrassed. “Really old!”

The last time I saw ginseng, I couldn’t see it. I didn’t expect to see people.

After this, the two people also became the most familiar with the first strong because of Wang Jun became familiar with Many, Wu Bowen said the situation of the fair in detail with Shen Lang.

It was a coincidence that he did not marry him. Qingtian Pharmaceuticals organizes such a trade fair. In fact, apart from a very small number of powerful and wealthy, most of them serve the self-cultivator. Emeralds like medicinal herbs or raw materials are often bought without money, not sold at will.

However, under the question of Shen Lang, he also revealed the scale and grade of the previous trade fair.

The result was a little disappointing, because the last time he sold the ginseng to Qingtian Pharmaceuticals, they were ready to find a buyer this time, which should be very popular.

This means that the level of other items is not high, so he can’t change his mouth.

Wu Bowen was of course disappointed. He also hoped that Shen Lang could go out and pick up a lot of good things to make the fair more successful. However, I have seen the strength of Shen Lang, and I know that people can’t look up. They can only express that when they organize higher-level trade fairs, they invite Shen Lang.

Shen Lang does not matter, originally killed, just to breathe a sigh of relief, and did not expect to buy anything. Now that the problem is solved, he is ready to travel to Yunzhou!

The time for the sloppy appointment has arrived, and the parents have videotaped about it. They are all painful and weeping. Now they know that he is no longer an ordinary person. He does not interfere with him more. He just needs to be safe.

Shen Lang confirmed the safety of his parents and he was relieved. He agreed on the New Year's Eve war, and he did not say to his parents to meet the New Year.

On the way to Yunzhou, Shen Lang was also on the number to see the WeChat group of information.

These two days are very lively and there are a lot of chats. Because Shen Lang ran after the announcement, everyone can only discuss what he said "the top of Yunzhou".

Is it the top of the Yunhu Park Ferris wheel that they fought last time?

Or is it the roof of the highest building in Yunzhou?

Or the highest mountain in Yunzhou?

Finally, it is said that the Chu family heard the news that Chu Mofeng will appear at the noon of New Year's Eve, and will appear on the top of Biyun Peak in Yunzhou on time!

This allows everyone to have a definite position. Even if there is no communication, the Chu family has identified Biyunfeng, and Shenlang can only go there. Moreover, in the foothills, it is less than the accidental injury and impact on ordinary people in the city.

It's time to go to New Year's Eve, and some people are starting to rush to Yunzhou.

Real-life masters, of course, also play against each other, but they will all be at the same level, but also in a small scope. Being so open, for the entire world of comprehension, it is a very rare century war!

I missed this time, but I don't know when it's still lively. So the elders will not hold on to it, but at least the young people in the group are very excited to go on the road.

They also have a question, will Shen Lang be cool?

After all, he is just a young man. There is no reputation for the reputation of the reputation, there is no cost to cool. If you let Chu Mofeng adjust the tiger away from the mountain, he himself will enter the Chu family, then it is fun!

Shen Lang smiled back and said: "I will not be as mean as Chu! This trip to Yunzhou is only for the old dog of Tuchu!"

The young people on the road did not retreat and practice. Of course, they were more active in chatting. Suddenly they saw such a reply and they were all excited.

Shen Lang, this is really going to fight the wind!
