

First Strong 297

Chapter 297 - 1 injury master

“The thief! Don’t delay the time again. After three moves, I will let you survive without asking for death!” Chu Mofeng said that he raised his hand.

Between the time and the time, in the center of the peak, some of the stones that were originally there, all flew open, and the pressure was relatively close, and the pressure was naturally felt, and the natural retreat to the onlookers.

“In your three moves, I don’t attack, don’t defend, as long as you can hit me.” Chu Mofeng said proudly.

“Cut! You are all old, and you are blowing something. If you are dead later, what can you do with your Chu family? Do you want me first, and ask me not to kill you?”

Shen Lang continued his words to stimulate him, but his feet have begun to step, and he is already looking for an opportunity to attack.

This made the Canoe more convinced that he was trying to stimulate the Chu Mo, and also hoped that he would not die, cope well, and when necessary, there is nothing to lose.

If he is here, Xiao Yan will be sad...

Chu Mofeng was unmoved, watching him coldly, like watching the clown’s eyes.

The waves are moving!

The shivering waves that were slowly stepping on suddenly suddenly formed like a meteor across the sky. Before the moment when everyone did not see it clearly, they had already arrived in front of Chu Mofeng, and quickly punched Chu to the wind. The heart part hits away!

Chu Mofeng mouth with a sneer.

How did Chu Yuxiong die? He knew very well that he was buried after he came back. It was really a very short period of time, hitting the heart in a row and exploding the heart. The sword behind it just made up a double insurance.

In his realm, just looking at the injury of Chu Yuxiong, coupled with the understanding of Yunhu Park, has been able to calculate the situation of the night to 7788.

It is the realm of Shen Lang. He also calculated that he can hit Chu Yuxiong. It is not based on absolute strength, but on creating opportunities to fight fast. Moreover, Shen Lang should use the method of breaking the limit, so that he can become stronger in a short time, and at the same time ignore the two losses of Chu Xiangxiong attack!

There was no news in the next twenty days. Originally, he also suspected that even if Shen Lang was rescued, he should have been half-dead, and he could not recover for a year and a half.

I didn't expect to dare to come out and challenge him again!

From the dawn of the wind and the wind, he observed the Shenlang, and he was surprised at the degree of recovery of the Shenlang. It seems to have completely recovered. It is not like signs of injury or sequelae.

Of course, he can also analyze that it is raining and saving the sinking waves, but he is afraid to fall into the river. He has not provoked more enemies for the time being, so he pretends not to know. Today, I fell to the raft and watched the excitement, which made him more convinced.

Looking at Shen Lang now, it is estimated that the ice palace used what good things to save him.

The Chu family is like this now. He is inconvenient to fight with the Ice Palace, but it is a reasonable and fair light!

I just said that the three strokes are for the sake of image and demeanor. On the other hand, it is also a trap for him. He is trying to induce Shen Lang to attack him in the same way.

He is not a Chu domain, but also a virtual world and a real world. That is a big gap!

The crit that can kill Chu Yuxiong is a bit of a horrible force for him!

He wants to avenge his son and nephew, and my grandchildren take revenge. In particular, Chu Yuxiu died too much. With his strength, he should not die at all. As a result, he will be exposed by Shen Lang and let the whole world laugh at it!

He will now use the same method, when the Shen Lang hits his heart, through the vitality of the earthquake, directly smashing the broken arm!

It is not attacking and defending, but hitting him and being secretly countered. This can not blame him for his words, but also prove his strength...

It's too late to say it, but it's just a moment!

Everyone's eyes are wide, and I can't wait to see them all at a close angle. I hope that I can shoot them with a high-speed camera and then play them back in slow motion to see them clearly and enjoyably.

When Shen Lang's fist is going to attack the Chu Mofeng, his heart is already like steel, and his vitality has already gathered. Just waiting for the moment of contact with Shen Lang, it will erupt in the past and directly put the waves. The arm and even the entire body are hit hard!

At this time, everyone faintly saw a flash of cold!

Originally a distance of one foot and a half feet, it should have been the rapid impact of Shen Lang in the heart of Chu Mofeng, but this time it turned into a sharp sword in his hand, and suddenly penetrated Chu Mo The chest of the wind!

“Fuck-!”

De Gao looked at the predecessor's high-profile style of Chu Mofeng, and could not help but burst into a thick mouth, and then fiercely slammed into the brain of Shen Lang!

Shen Lang quickly retreated and did not dare to try to save the real world. When he retreated, he also took out the autumn water sword in his hand, and when he was twitching, his hand also turned!

In an instant, his body has been separated from the Chu Mofeng by more than ten meters.

Chu Mofeng did not chase it right away, but quickly sealed the wound.

After Shen Lang arrived in Yunzhou, he has already demonstrated dozens of methods of sneak attack. He now has a huge gap in absolute strength and can only rely on raids.

Just now, Chu Xiangxiong was beaten to the heart, just to stimulate him. At the height of the speed, he took the Qiushui sword that had been sheathed in the ring and took it.

However, Chu Mofeng is a super strong person who survives the real world. Even if he did not leave him with a reaction time, he also resisted it. He had to slam the strength of Shen Lang and became a resistance to the sword. Will be pushed away! And strengthen the defense of the heart part that was originally like steel.

Unfortunately, the time is too short, too late to retreat, and Shen Lang uses the autumn water sword, if it is an ordinary sword, it really can't stab into his body.

But even so, it was pushed a few points, so Qiu Shuijian pierced, but did not pierce the heart.

The experience and reaction of Shen Lang is not covered. It is designed. When the sword is retreated, the wrist is turned, the sword is stirred, and the heart is drawn to the heart.

However, Chu Mofeng was too strong. When he shot the head of Shen Lang in the palm of his hand, the other hand had been pressed and pressed on the chest, making the body more tough from the outside. Coupled with luck, Shen Lang barely stirred up, but could not break his heart.

If it is not fast enough, the next moment will be taken directly by him.

“Hey, isn't it going to make three moves? The result is a slap in the face, or else I will be killed directly!”

Shen Lang mouth said, people have quickly approached again, Qiu Shuijian has sketched a sword net directly to the past, and blocked a few feet around the Chu Mofeng.

“roll—!”

Chu Mofeng relied on a sizzling sound wave, and actually directly dispelled Shenlang’s sword net!

This hand is actually very dazzling, but it is displayed in his realm and will not surprise anyone present.

For Shen Lang, except for the rafting, he expected that he could have a miracle. No one else was optimistic. As a result, he suddenly became a sword and pierced the Chu Mofeng chest. This has already shocked everyone. Now!
