

First Strong 311

Chapter 311 - Help arrange

Shen Lang took Yue Zhennan and Mo Qi, and directly drove the gods to the boat, and then flew away, so that everyone in the Ye family was stunned.

Ye Shiguang and others were busy to lift Ye Long, and Ye Long waved his hand.

The pressure of others suddenly disappeared, as if the strength was drained, but he was relaxed a lot, and now he is concerned about the state of leaves and bamboo.

Shen Lang is on the way back and forth, basically does not take up much time, in Yejia is also, so when the gods return to the Yuefu Garden, Yue Gang is still hot in the tea that was just for the sun!

I just watched them disappear, and now I will see them back. Yue Gang couldn't help but feel a tremble. He didn't think of "Wen Jiu Hua Xiong". Could it be that Shen Lang really killed everyone?

Yue Gang piled up and smiled and ushered them into the living room.

"So come back so soon? Let's have a bar and we can start the meal right away."

This has just been seated, not waiting for Yue Zhennan to tell the father about the details, there are Yue Qiang Yue Sheng and so on, they are holding the phone in their hands.

"Big brother! There are circumstances, Ye family does not know what to do intrigue, is to let us live in the New Year is not ah ..." Yue Sheng came in and smashed.

When I saw a few of them in Yuezheng South and Shenlang, I was quiet.

"Zhennan is back."

"It turns out that Mr. Shen is coming."

Their expressions are very unnatural. Obviously, since last year, they have not had a good impression on Shen Lang and Yan Yuenan.

“I am owed to you, I am owed to you. I belong to the Yue family. I will ask you to come back. It’s just that Yue Baichuan Yue Bailun has no choice, sorry!”

Before they talked about it, Shen Lang was very chilling, but it turned out that it was not just Mingzhe’s protection, but the weakest were the most likely to be hurt, so now it is generous to apologize to them.

“This...we...the gentleman is polite...”

The attitude of Shen Lang was what they did not expect, and it was cramped.

“Strong Uncle, Victory Uncle, are they going to return the Yue family’s industry? This is after Lang Lang’s past, Ye Long personally apologized and immediately issued an order, and several others will follow up. It should be completed tonight. Everyone will be a little busy.”

During the talks, another phone call came over. They began to realize that this is not a ghost of Ye Family. It is really because of Shen Lang, the situation of Pingxi has to change again!

This time they are not excited, but they are victorious!

At the beginning, Shen Lang tried to force the five families in the Yue family to force the Yue family to rise. At that time, they were very excited. But there is another situation that will soon appear. Now, once again, they have not dared to expect too much.

Things have already happened. Yue Gang has nothing to say, arrange them, let them do the job of handover. Since Shen Lang came forward and helped them to return all of them, Yue Jia always couldn’t take it!

This New Year's dinner, that is, at Yue Gang's home, did not allow more people from the entire Yue family to come over.

Before Zhang Luo's dinner, Yue Zhennan also told Shen Lang about his situation in the past year, mainly in the practice of the palace of the king's grave.

There is a good environment with abundance, plus in the underground palace, there is no entertainment, no social, work, entertainment, etc., that is, bathing and the like are also free, eating is also a simple solution, almost equal to Close the death.

The cultivation time of such a day has reached ten hours, which is several times that of normal home cultivation. Coupled with Shen Lang and the family's experience, he also has a sense of crisis, as well as the Lingshi left by Shen Lang.

In the past year and a half, he has just broken through the realm of the Yuan Dynasty, and has already broken through the medium term. Now it is almost impossible to enter the late Yuan Dynasty.

For Yue Zhennan, it can also be regarded as "knowing that it is not a blessing". Otherwise, if he is practicing normally, he will not be able to enter the middle of the Yuan Dynasty for a few years.

Mo Qi is now a self-cultivator, and they are a little surprised, and Mo Qi will be so respectful to Shen Lang. Shen Lang is also very good at him. He also made Yue Gang and his son curious, but did not ask much.

It is related to the fact that the Shennan couple lived, and Shen Lang and Mo Qi did not say much.

After the death of Yue Baichuan brothers, Yue Gang is not only a contemporary owner, but also the oldest. After eating the New Year's Eve, some young juniors in Yuejia will come to celebrate the New Year.

And core members such as Yue Qiang Yue Sheng must also report back to him. They are constantly being disturbed during the meal.

It was a bit uncomfortable at the beginning, but it was found to be true. The industry that originally belonged to Yuejia, one by one, sent it back and asked them to hand over, so that their mood changed.

Although it was tiring by the waves, although it will not be reversed in the future, it is hard to say, but it has been a little overwhelming for a year and a half. Let them also eat and drink very happy, and solve them quickly.

Shen Lang is in the room of Yuezhen South and Moqi to Yuezhen South. Of course, he doesn't have so much time to talk about the old gossip, pointing to the key!

He first directly shot, helping to promote Yuezhennan to the late Yuanyuan, so that as long as the leaves of the early days of the virtual environment are not shot, the entire Pingxiyue Town can be able to live in the town.

But his meaning is also very obvious, Yue Zhennan self-confessed the younger brother, can not follow him. The gap has already been opened, and following him, he needs his care and support all the way. Even so, the gap will still grow bigger and bigger.

Although Yue Zhennan is quite sorry, it is also accepted. He and Shen Lang met for more than two months, but it changed his destiny. This year's retreat time, let him feel the help of Shen Lang all the time, the feelings are very deep.

But the most worrying thing is the safety of Shen Lang. Now that he is sure to return safely, and he has already become famous, he is also very pleased.

Yue Zhennan also invited Mo Qi to stay in Yuejia. The identity is different. Of course, the treatment is completely different. But if one more comprehension, let Yuejia have more power. Moqi can also see that Shen Lang is inconvenient to open, so as not to appear to command him, so let him decide, he can have today, relying on Shen Lang, and later cultivation requires more resources, relying on one person is also difficult, so after considering, it is also I promised it quickly, but it is a familiar place anyway.

When the next floor was ready to leave, Yue Gang sent a wooden box, saying that Ye Shiguang personally sent it.

Open it, there are twenty Lingshi, and a piece of paper, which shows that it is a sincerity of the five.

It can be seen that after the compensation last year, they have already been struggling a lot, and the five can only make up 20 pieces of Lingshi.

Shen Lang directly split into two, ten for Yue Zhennan, and ten for Mo Qi.

This also makes Yue Gangyue Town South once again discover that Shen Lang pays attention to Mo Qi.

Then Shen Lang went back to the hotel, let Yue Zhennan go to see him tomorrow, go to see the river together, in the Pingxi side, still let the Yue family take care of the river.

Chapter 312 - Goodbye classmates

Shen Lang did not contact the rivers first, because avoiding explaining so much on WeChat, it would be nice to simply say a few words directly at the scene.

Because the students from the university in the field are coming back for the New Year, some people organize a party at the beginning of the year, the address is a restaurant near the county.

Shen Lang and Yue Zhennan said about the situation of the river, so when he came back to Shen Lang, he also made some preparations in advance.

Mo Qi did not follow them anymore, only the two of them went back.

I thought that at the beginning, Yuezhennan had several driving trips to and from the city and the county. Now, once again, this road is all the same, so that he is also secretive, and he also vows to make himself Extraordinary efforts to strive to catch up with the pace of the waves.

With the improvement of his strength, he is not satisfied with the hegemony in Pingxi, not to mention the world, at least he can go out.

Although Yuezhennan came over in advance, but the road conditions are still insufficient, he calculated according to the time he used to go. Today, on the first day of the year, many friends and relatives went out to play, and the passing villages went to Licao County. It is a lot of people, and the speed is not fast.

When I came to the restaurant, it was already 12 noon, which was the time agreed by the party.

But the class reunion is that everyone can contact the feelings, and it is rare to have the opportunity to tell the old, not to pick up the meal, but to come in advance.

After Yue Zhennan stopped the car, let Shen Lang wait a moment, then quickly got off the bus and ran over to open the door for him.

This makes Shen Lang a bit speechless.

He has never been polite with Yue Zhennan before, whether he just met or is familiar with it later, Yue Zhennan is also a distance to keep friends. Even after discovering that he is very strong, there is no such thing as shackles.

For example, driving him to send him is normal, helping to open the door and closing the door, it is obviously deliberate. Now the intention of this guy is also very clear, that is, I want to force Shen Lang to lift the sedan chair.

They gathered at the table upstairs, but because there were other people who didn't come over, or had a familiar private chat, there were also a few students who ate and chatted in front of the store.

When I saw the luxury car in Yuezhennan South stopped, some people joked and said, "Isn't our classmates developed?"

Waiting to see a talented person Yuezhennan South get off, have been dismissed, this is obviously not a classmate. But then, I found out that this person's fart was running and opened the door, it was actually a driver!

The same is a luxury car, driving on its own and having a driver to open, the posture is forced to be different.

Several of them looked at the curiosity and wanted to see who they were. I didn't expect to feel a bit familiar, but I couldn't remember who I was.

"Which one? It seems to have been seen, it seems to be very well mixed."

“Hey, maybe this senior is renting a car to hire someone to force it?”

Just when they were low-pitched, they saw Shen Lang walked in front of them and greeted them.

“You, you are...”

“Are you a higher senior than us?”

A few people are jealous, people recognize them, but they don’t remember who else they are. Instead, they still say that people are forced to press.

“Rely! Sure enough, we can’t look down on our poor academic performance. It will take a long time for you to recognize me.”

In fact, these relationships are also general. Shen Lang thinks that there will be no more intersections in his life, so he still laughs at them and then goes upstairs.

A few more embarrassing, is this our class?

They looked at each other and then immediately looked at the “driver.”

“Hey! Big Brother, just that... What is the big brother calling?” Someone immediately asked Yue Zhennan.

Yue Zhennan knew that the effect of the force was out, almost laughed, but still kept a serious face: “That is Mr. Shen Lang Shen.”

“Shen Lang!” Several people screamed.

At this time, the upstairs also remembered the scream: “Shen Lang?!”

There were a lot of people upstairs, watching the waves go up, and soon someone recognized the waves, and it boiled up for a while.

“You are not...not dead...cough! They said you are missing.”

“I heard what your family is... is it true?”

“Do you know where the rain is going?”

“She is so powerful, should she be admitted to Beiqing University?”

Everyone was questioning around Shen Lang. This classmate who had disappeared for a year and a half was originally forgotten by most people. But suddenly, let the news of the rumors have a gossip value, and I want to inquire about the first-hand information.

Shen Lang smiled and they dealt with it. Before he came up, the gods had already understood the situation upstairs. At this moment, he also said hello to the place where the river was.

When the river saw Shen Lang, it was also very exciting. He had been worried about the situation of Shen Lang. He was still inquired yesterday. Today, I also want to ask everyone about it. I did not expect that Shen Lang actually appeared.

But when he reacted, Shen Lang was surrounded by people and he did not squeeze.

After dealing with a few sentences, Shen Lang went directly to the river.

“It’s good to see you okay, some past things are gone, look to the future!”

The river did not ask so many gossips. He went to understand it. He knew that the factory of Shenlangjia was indeed an accident. His parents also glanced at it, so he was a stable one.

Shen Lang smiled and said nothing.

“Where are you now? It is said that you have not gone to the big journal?”

Just when they were chatting, someone greeted him: “Shen Lang, come over, Teacher Wang is here!”

Teacher Wang, the class teacher, sat in the chief’s side, and there were some good students to accompany him. The sensation caused by the sudden waves, they all looked in the eyes, and he actually did not say hello to the teacher, as if they did not see the same, so that they did not feel good.

“Oh.” Shen Lang waved his hand and said that he had said hello and continued to chat with Jianghe: “Every time I go to college, I am now mixing something else I can still mix it. What about you? I see Chat recorded and got a little bit of your situation.”

He won’t be here for too long, so he said directly to Jiang Heming that there is no turning.

The river is a bit awkward, but after a few years of classmates, everyone knows each other well, the results of slag, the family has no relationship with the background, but can only be mixed food.

“It is driving.”

At this time, Teacher Wang came over and smiled: “Shenlang classmates, I used to be a little strict with you. You won’t blame me? Look, you are finally admitted to a good university.”

“That’s not your credit.” Shen Lang faintly returned to him, because Wang’s attitude toward Dong Wenbin’s cover-up made him very disgusted. If he was just an ordinary person, he could only be bullied.

Teacher Wang’s strong smile condensed. The attitude of Shen Lang’s attitude just made him dissatisfied, and he was pretending to be generous. The teacher in charge of the class came to say hello to the students. In the back, everyone would not say that he had problems with his life. He would only say Shen Lang.

I did not expect Shen Lang to give face!

Chapter 313 - Deaf, repay

“Mr. Wang has to look after dozens of classmates, and certainly there are places that cannot be taken care of. But we all have today, mainly teachers’ teachings.”

“Await a teacher and a cup later.”

In fact, no matter how you used to be in school, it has been a year and a half. Everyone has seen it. The big gatherings of the New Year are basically respectful to the teachers.

It doesn’t have to be said that the academic performance is good. It is really like and grateful. The poor learning is often active, and the emotional intelligence is good at engaging in the atmosphere. It’s really rare to have a vengeful revenge like Shen Lang and hard to go back.

For their rounds, Shen Lang did not follow the steps and said a few words to Mr. Wang. He will not forgive!

Other poor students can forgive, because it is only a poor grade, whether it is born or not, mainly because of its own reasons. However, Shen Lang was oppressed by Dong Wenbin before, and Mr. Wang was repeatedly maintained because of his father Dong Dawei’s relationship. This is something that others have not received. Of course, he will not be as light as others.

When this came out, Jianghe felt very embarrassed and also rounded up: “Don’t say that, the old class still likes all of our students.”

“Yes, I said it is not rigorous enough, and the results are poor and poor at home. Like Dong Wenbin, even if the learning is not good, the character is still super bad, and Teacher Wang likes it.”

Originally, Teacher Wang was pretending to be a generous greeting, occupying a moral high point. I did not expect that Shen Lang would not give face under everyone’s round, and the more direct it was, the more direct it was to Dong Wenbin, and his face was black. It is.

“That is, in the end, it was a classmate, the deceased was big, and there were any grudges that passed.”

“And what about the teacher?”

Shen Lang looked like Teacher Wang, and her heart was very happy. When he was in school, he had passed through Teacher Wang. Of course, there is no scruples now.

In fact, in addition to his own anger, he is also for others. A person's character or habit is not changed at will. As long as he can continue to take the class, there will be a little power on the acre of three points, and there will be someone who will have the power.

Wealthy families tend to have good relationships such as red envelopes, gifts, and treats. In addition to being more good at business, it is also because time is precious, and it costs money to buy time.

If the family condition is not good, then the comparison will not come, but even if there is time, willing to chat with the teacher or something, the teacher's time is precious!

Because whoever gives more benefits is more taken care of, this environment is so low, there is nothing to say, but the minimum bottom line has to be held!

Just like the previous Shen Lang's poor performance and not being valued, he did not complain; Dong Wenbin, they are not punished if they are not self-study, late, early leave, and he has nothing to say. But bullying other students, extortion and extortion, these people also closed their eyes and even favored, and they crossed the line.

What was embarrassing before was private. Today is to be embarrassed to the teacher in public, so that he has a deep impression, so as to avoid the unfair treatment of the poor students who are poor.

“Let's go, I have something to talk to you.” Shen Lang ignored everyone's persuasion, and ignored Mr. Wang next to him, directly to the river.

“Don’t, know that you have a relationship with the river, but everyone hasn’t seen it for a long time.”

“Yeah, come here, everyone cares about you.”

“Everyone is a classmate. It’s hard to get together once a year. It will be getting harder and harder in the future.”

Some students took Mr. Wang back to the original seat, and several others took the Shen Lang and prevented him from leaving.

Shen Lang does not want to entertain, but I also know that they are really enthusiastic, and there is no need to marry him. Perhaps it is because there is no urgent matter for the New Year’s Day. Anyway, they have come over, at least after eating.

As this is good, Shen Lang did not go straight, Yue Zhennan came up, he came up with an aluminum alloy box.

“Boss!” This guy played a full set of performances. He came over to Shen Lang and took the box with his hands. The voice of the “boss” was not small, and everyone’s attention was attracted.

But it was hard to say anything at this time. He took the box and handed it to the river.

“Brother, I used to be blackmailed and reluctantly left a little bit of money to buy rice. Thank you for your frequent assistance. This New Year gift is a treat to me.”

The river began to smash, I didn’t know anything, and when I heard him say this, I couldn’t help laughing.

“Rely! What do I think? Just a few dollars, as for? Take it back! Don’t recognize me after the development, please drink beer!”

I really don't have much money. Sometimes I give him a dish. Sometimes I can help him to make a dish. It is also a piece of eight, and all of them may be hundreds of pieces.

Shen Lang is in his hands, and he said: "There is not much money, but the help is priceless. Let me feel the warmth of my friends! Forget it, they are all men. If you don't say these words, accept it. !"

The other students next to me also applauded. Many of them are aware of it. They are afraid that Dong Wenbin is afraid of getting into trouble. They are at most helping to comfort a few words. Only the river is a real helper.

Teacher Wang's face is hot...

"Receive! Accept!"

"Open and see what Shen Lang sent."

"Hey, is it a box of kidney treasures?"

"Be sure to check out this gift full of basics!"

Under the guise of the people, the river is also laughing and ready to open, Shen Langben wants to stop, Yue Zhennan has come forward to help him open the button.

The river opened the box on the table and immediately became dumbfounded.

The busy classmates gathered together were also dumbfounded.

The students who didn't see it outside, saw that the reaction was a bit wrong, and they were rushing to see it.

"What is it? What is it?"

"Let me see!"

The river came back and looked at Shen Lang: “This is... really?”

“Of course can be sent to verify at any time.” Yue Zhennan answered next to it.

Shen Lang also nodded slightly.

This is why Shen Lang wanted to stop it. He privately persuaded him that it is even harder for the rivers to accept in front of so many people. It is a pity that Yue Zhennan wants to let Shen Lang force it, and it opens directly.

“Is this... the legendary gold bar?”

“The gold bars are still bricks.”

“Shen Lang, you are really rich! You are not going to make a tomb?”

After the people were shocked, they also reacted and shouted. The people who didn’t see it later were heard of gold bars.

This is Yuezhennan responsible for packaging, aluminum alloy small box, inside the foam pad, there are five gold bars in the middle recess!

Chapter 314 - Out of the limelight

The physical gold collected by Chu Mofeng was previously made. It used the old Sima two (one pound 600 grams, one pound sixteen two, one two two 37.5 grams), one dozen two 375 grams.

In the box, there are five gold bars, which add up to nearly two kilograms. At present, the price of gold is at least five or six hundred thousand.

The students at the scene, even if they walked out of the county to go to the big city to go to college, but only a year or two, they have seen the gold jewelry, which are all gold jewelry. This is the first time I saw the gold bars of the two pounds.

They don't know much about the price of gold, but if they have bought gold jewelry at home or in their classmates, they know that they will have to go through a few thousand grams. These gold bars count, at least know the value of hundreds of thousands.

Think of Jianghe just to buy food for Shenlang, this is a thousand times return!

Some of them are relatively market-minded. At this moment, they have already regretted it very much. They secretly licked their thighs and knew that Shenlang would develop. Why didn't they ask him to eat? How much money is spent on the canteen meal? Now, just give a gold bar and make a big profit.

"Is this true? Will it not float?"

"Where did you get so many gold bars, come here..."

There is some pantothenic acid that can't help but question it.

The river's gaze came over. He didn't say it, but he was a little worried. What is the situation of Shen Langjia, he is very clear, plus a big fire last year, so that his parents are gone, so many compensations seem to have enterprises and the government together, where will suddenly be so rich.

Shen Lang nodded to him, indicating no problem.

At this time, Yue Zhennan took a few contracts and let the river sign.

The river is a little hesitant. He doesn't want to accept these golds, but now others are questioning Shen Lang. If he doesn't accept it, it seems that he is also worried about the origin of gold. It is not enough.

So he hesitated a little, and he made a big stroke. According to Yue Zhennan, he signed the names one by one.

“This one is well received. After that, this equity of Li Cao Yuntong Company belongs to you.” Yue Zhennan introduced it with kindness.

Shen Lang secretly white eyes, knowing that this is another opportunity to force him, deliberately let everyone know that this contract is the equity of Li Cao Yuntong Company.

“What, what?” The river was inexplicable and widened its eyes.

He just signed, and thought that the amount of gold was relatively large, and he needed a signing ceremony. He didn’t expect it to be the equity contract of the transportation company he was driving now!

At this time, Yue Zhennan looked at it a bit, then recruited, and soon there was a fat man, and he ran over.

“Mr. Yue.” The fat man came over and said hello to Yue Zhennan, and handed the cigarette.

Yue Zhennan did not pick up his cigarette, but showed him the contract. “To introduce to you, our company has transferred 10% of the shares, which is Mr. Jiang He.”

“Yes, yes. Mr. Jiang is really young and promising! No, I should call Jiang boss!” The fat man warmly shook hands with the river.

The river is in a state of stagnation. If others don’t know, can he still know?

This fat man is the manager of the transportation company Huang!

He is just a driver. He has a captain and a director. He usually can’t talk to Huang.

Manager Huang certainly did not recognize him...

“Jiang Boss is still driving in your company’s micro-service private visit. After that, he still wants to drive in the first line, or in another position, you will discuss it again. Don’t look at the young people, it will be bad, or else the company will go up and down. Changed, it is not a problem.”

Shen Lang faintly told a sentence.

Manager Huang didn't know his identity, but he would look at it and see that Yue Zhennan was just standing next to Shen Lang. He knew that the coming was definitely bigger and he promised even more.

“Don't dare, don't dare, I am sure that the company will do its best for the bosses!”

In fact, he is inexplicable, do not know why so sudden changes.

He is the manager of Li Cao Yuntong Company. The major shareholders include the county, and a local big boss. There is also a transportation company in Pingxi accounting for 30% of the shares.

Early this morning, the major shareholders of Pingxi discussed with the major shareholders of Lie Cao Yuntong, saying that they would transfer 10% of the shares to another new shareholder. Then the boss informed him and asked him to come over here at noon.

Although Manager Huang did not know how to discuss it, he understood that Pingxi had given the company a lot of business, and that the county can promise on the first day of the year, which shows the determination and influence of the other party. Where did he dare to neglect, and quickly came over as agreed.

He did not recognize Yue Zhennan, only know that this is the shareholder representative of Pingxi Transportation Company.

When I heard that Jianghe, who had just owned 10% of the company's shares, had already been driving in the company's micro-service privately, he was also a bit worried. Would it be a dissatisfaction with his general manager?

Some students who have a relationship in the county have also recognized the identity of Manager Huang. It is also amazing for this change.

If gold is fake and used to force it, this young man (Yue Zhennan) is also hired to act, not surprising. However, the general manager of Li Cao Yuntong Company is unlikely to run over the first day of the year to coordinate with their acting!

When I look at Shen Lang, everyone thinks that he is full of mysterious aura.

When the math is good, it starts to be calculated. The profit of Li Cao Yuntong Company should be no less than a few million a year. This 10% equity is equal to at least hundreds of thousands of dividends every year!

Many female classmates began to repent and did not care about Shen Lang before. If you become his girlfriend, it's cool now! Parents are both dead, young and old, perfect!

Someone immediately checked it out. If there was no surging, he added his WeChat and added it. He was ready to contact him.

Some people also saw that climbing the waves, there will be many competitors, and the rivers are not bad. Although they may not have seen the rivers driving before, but now they are the shareholders of the transportation company, the identity is completely different.

“You will contact us more in the future, go!” Shen Lang waved his hand and sent the manager Huang away.

Manager Huang owes a stern message, he can't say it, and there will be tremendous pressure in front of this young man. Probably this is the momentum of the children of the family?

Shen Lang looked at the river and was a little embarrassed, patted his shoulder: “You can drive, understand the customer, manage what, you can. When you grow up, do it yourself. He will help you!”

Yue Zhennan smiled and exchanged contact with him.

From the five gold bars, to the 10% equity transfer of Lisa Express, the river seems to be a dream.

However, Shen Lang, who only wanted to return privately with the river, also grabbed the limelight of all the students, including the rivers.

At this time, I was admitted to a prestigious university. I watched the girls screaming and swaying, and could not help but succeed. Teacher Wang is always embarrassed. It is also regretting!

Shen Lang can be so generous to a classmate. If he cares about love at that time, should he also send him some gold bars? Dong Dawei's red envelope is nothing compared to it!

Chapter 315 - High altitude practice

Originally, everyone thought that they were all classmates. When they came, they wouldn't leave, but now that Shen Lang is so popular, no one dares to pull him. Look at this situation, just a business is hundreds of thousands of millions, and really do not have time to dinner with them.

This matter is only known to Mo Qi, including the Yue family are squatting, the more people know the less secure. But the play that I have to do is still to be done. If he does not visit it at all, it is doubtful.

After paying homage, Shen Lang left from Licao County and asked Yue Zhennan to send him to the airport.

In Yuezhennan's view, he did not want to touch the scene and did not want to remember the death of his parents. He heard that he was going to Zheng Yumeng, and he was very supportive.

In his view, Zheng Yumeng is also a confidant that Shen Lang can rest assured. If they can be together, of course it is better.

On the way to the airport, Shen Lang found Xie You's WeChat, and then sent him a message to the past, saying that he would visit Xie's family in recent days.

When I arrived at the airport, Shen Lang took out the fake passport information, and the visas were all completed. Yue Zhennan helped him to buy the ticket. Today's New Year's Day, although there are quite a few trips, it is not full.

He is flying by plane, but it is a lot of people busy!

The Yue family does not have to say that to re-accept the business, it is necessary to balance the relationship with several other mediations, and it is also the time to test Yue Gang's wisdom. Now Yuejia has two comprehensions, Yuezhenan and Moqi, who are already able to stand on the ground, but Ye Family still has a leafy bamboo that is still in the virtual world. Naturally, it can't be careless.

The river is also not only to deal with the problems of the family, but also to re-plan the profession, and the manager Huang is also visiting.

But they are in the best direction, and Xie is the enemy!

Xie Daolin did not eat mutton, white provoked a sheep, and of course he was very upset about the rumors. But in his capacity, of course, he does not bother to disclose anything. And it is the circulation of some juniors, can he still go to confront each other?

Because before Shen Lang's shot on the Chu family, there is a regularity, that is, to first understand the information of the Chu family, and then to target the ordinary identity, or just the level of the super-martial warrior, so that the opportunity can be quickly killed, saving time. And there is no risk.

If you want to start with Xie, it is very likely to be the same routine!

Therefore, from the beginning of New Year's Eve, everyone has been informed of the family, must be careful, try not to go out alone. The more important the identity, the more security awareness.

This time, until the first day, Xie You received a warning message from Shen Lang.

Of course, he quickly reported it, and then Xie's family took it more seriously. Whether it is an important core elite or an old, weak, and a young woman, they stayed at home and were not allowed to go out to avoid an accident.

It is the core children of the second generation like Xie Xun, who dare not guarantee their own safety. They are also mainly in the middle and late stages of the virtual reality. Before Shen Lang, so many people in the Chu family were killed, including Chu Yuxiong, including Chu Mofeng!

Throughout the Xie family, if you are sure of dealing with Shen Lang, there is only one Xie Dao Ling.

He saw the scene of Shen Lang's shot, and understood that it was a sneak attack by the magic weapon of the gods. Avoiding him from behind, it is also not his opponent.

Can he be a master of the whole family, can't be the bodyguard of the whole family?

Even if these are family members, including his own descendants, he alone cannot protect everyone.

When the Xiejia dog is restless, Shen Lang is already on the way to the other side of the ocean.

This time I have to fly more than ten hours. In addition to going to visit my parents, he also wants to try a guess!

The fourth weight of "Yin Yang Bo Ruozhen" has never been broken. I wanted to see if I can break through in the battle. As a result, Qiu Shuijian has been used successfully, and I successfully killed Chu Mofeng, and I have not suffered any losses. Not much battle gains.

When I used to create "Yin and Yang Bozhengzheng", it was when he reached the peak. The whole process was familiar, but he did not go back and practiced it from scratch. Therefore, it is necessary to practice now and practice.

But the general direction of cultivation is there. For example, after breaking through the fourth weight, the biggest feature is that it can absorb the power of the universe!

Now the earth's aura is more full than before, but with the myriad stars of the vast universe, the energy of the entire planet is not enough. Once you can absorb the power of the stars, it is the effect of a thousand miles.

He did not break through to the fourth, and he could not do this. But he has a conjecture. If it is said that the air is higher, is it more able to sense the energy of the universe?

This is an experience that was not previously available. It used to be at most a mountain, but only a few kilometers. And now the plane is flying at a high altitude above 10,000 meters.

The domestic is still a short-distance. It takes a long time for the flight to climb in the front. Then, after a short flight at high altitude, it will start to land slowly. For two hours, it may be less than one-third of the time to fly at high altitude.

Therefore, he now needs to experience this international flight. There are more than ten hours in the whole journey. It takes two hours to climb and land, and there is still a lot of time to stay at high altitude.

Yuezhennan helped him buy the tickets for the first class. In front of him, he kept silent training and closed his eyes. After the plane climbed to the height of 10,000 meters, he began to try.

This is no longer a god, but to try the gods out, let the gods go above the plane!

It is difficult to do with Shen Lang's current strength, but he used methods to make up for the shortcomings of the realm. He relied on the strength of his heart and the rich experience to ensure that he would not have problems.

But still very dangerous!

Because this is not a quiet sit-in but on a high-speed mobile aircraft! Once you can't get it back, you will turn your body into a vegetative person and let the gods become ghosts.

However, Shen Lang not only has the experience of past life, but also the modern knowledge of this world!

For example, at the airport, he searched for some knowledge about aviation, geography, climate and so on. In addition to the speed of the aircraft, the current flight must also consider the speed of the Earth's rotation, as well as the wind speed driven by rotation.

These specific calculations, of course, require professional scientists to use computer simulations, but after he has this awareness, he will be alert and maintain a certain degree of stability.

Yuanshen senses this different environment and is a novel experience for Shenlang.

This is totally different from the ground. It is so high that the ground is already far away. Looking up at the stars, it is as close as possible. “The dangerous building is a hundred feet high, and the hand can pick the stars.” This is tens of thousands of feet high!

After repeated attempts, he began to understand and get used to the current state, and began to balance better, and this began to sense the power of the stars!

Chapter 316 - Amazing discovery

Undoubtedly, at the height of 10,000 meters, the speed of sensing the power of the stars is far better than the ground.

Originally, the current state of Shen Lang should be very difficult, but now this special environment has made him have a clearer understanding of the operation of the universe, and he has a clear perception of the power of the stars.

After a period of time, after grasping, Shen Lang did not wait any longer, and recovered the Yuanshen, directly on the plane, and began to try to absorb the power of the stars!

In his current realm, the rate of absorption is still relatively slow, and the environment is also unstable. However, just because his current realm is not high enough, just absorb a little bit of the power of the stars, the effect is very obvious!

After the effect, Shen Lang has confidence in this attempt, and it doesn't matter whether it is fast or slow.

One hour, two hours...

A few hours have passed, but the Shenlang is a sudden shock!

It's not a problem with the power of the stars, but a feeling of awkward aura!

Aura comes from below, and because it is very thin at 10,000 meters. At this height, he can still feel such awkward aura, and it can be seen how strong the source is!

What is even more surprising is that this is not a flash!

The average international flight can reach a speed of about one thousand kilometers, a slow speed of 900 kilometers, and a speed of 1,100 kilometers. According to this calculation, every second, the actual distance below has passed two or three hundred meters.

If it is a flash, it may be that there is a place where the aura is very full, which is not too special. But it has continued, it means that it is not one place, but a whole piece has such awkward aura!

Shen Lang did not rush to absorb greed. After all, he could not maintain it for a long time. After he was shocked, he immediately recovered his consciousness and began to calculate it silently.

In the end, this feeling has been maintained for about a dozen seconds. It is roughly calculated that there is a sea area of five kilometers below, with such awkward aura.

He immediately zoomed in on the flight route map on the display to find out the latitude and longitude of the current aircraft, and took out the phone to take a comparison of several different magnifications as a reference. (A lot of international flights are not limited to mobile phones, and some also provide wifi)

On a large scale, this is a sea area in the center of the Pacific Ocean, which is basically undevelopable. He wants to find out that the cost and the project will be relatively large, but since there is such a discovery, it is still recorded, and maybe there are conditions to investigate.

When I was awakened to memories of my previous life, Shen Lang began to cultivate and found a problem. Now the earth's aura is more intense than it was hundreds of years ago.

At that time, he knew nothing about the current and hundreds of years of comprehension. He also guessed that because of the development of science and technology civilization, no one has ever cultivated the truth, and the time has allowed the planet to rehabilitate.

But by now, it is obvious that the proportion of comprehensions may be less, but the absolute number is not necessarily small. In the past, it should have been such a state, that is, it is not the change of the Earth itself after regular recuperation.

Just discovered, let Shen Lang have a bold guess!

Perhaps at the bottom of the ocean in the middle of the Pacific Ocean, there is an unexplored giant spiritual mine that overflows from the aura, and then slowly disperses as the energy is conserved!

The five-kilometer range is of course a very large environment, but when it comes to the entire planet, it is a drop in the bucket.

However, the place that has just been experienced is not only a large area, but also a strong aura. If it is so long and even, it is really possible to change the planet.

The distance of just five kilometers is the diameter distance. If it is round, the area is about 20 square kilometers. The extensive area can be 7,300 square kilometers in one year and 730,000 square kilometers in one hundred years.

What I just felt has been diluted because of the high altitude, but it can be so strong. If it is from the source, it is at least a hundred times more common. In this way, about seven hundred years can double the aura of all parts of the world.

Of course, in fact, in addition to the calculation will certainly have a large error, there are more variables, such as the environment will affect the storage of Aura, will not be completely uniform, and the more the aura, the more the comprehension will absorb, etc. .

But from another point of view, this is just a route. In the Pacific Ocean, when you hit a circle with a diameter of five kilometers, the probability is much smaller!

So it is more likely that there is more than one place like this! Perhaps in the depths of the ocean, there are many such places, some big and small, some strong and weak, and the overall long-term agility can complete the aura of the whole earth.

These are just temporary speculations of Shen Lang. Whether it is really true or not, or what the situation is, there is still a chance to visit in person in the future.

Now he is still recovering his mind and continues to go back to the power of practicing the stars.

In addition to this interruption, Shenlang absorbed almost ten hours of star power before and after!

The ten-hour harvest is more effective than his retreat for ten days, and it is already mastered the skill. After the aircraft begins to lower the height, it does not affect the absorption.

But the distance is the fourth, always a little bit worse!

If it was said that it was a bad trip, Shen Lang could still wait patiently for the opportunity. But with the power of the stars absorbed by these more than ten hours, it is enough for him to be able to break through the fourth weight.

It may be like the last press of the switch, the gap seems to be the tiny hair, so that the waves can not help but a little anxious, want to break through before the plane!

Just when he was a little anxious, he felt a hand on his body!

In fact, it is clear in science that someone on the plane meets you, nothing more than a flight attendant or a passenger next to him. Not a crowded economy class, the chances of passengers being very small.

Because of this environment, and everyone is sleeping, Shen Lang dared to concentrate on cultivation.

But knowing it is one thing It's another thing to really meet!

Why do you want to be quiet in cultivation, why you should retreat at a critical time, or even arrange for people to guard, because the outside world's abrupt interference will cause great tremors for people under the state of cultivation.

This is the case with ordinary people. If you take a picture in a normal state, you will look back or look up, but if you take a photo while you are doing something, you may be scared.

Under the huge earthquake of Shen Lang, I immediately felt the power of the body and the power of the stars that were being absorbed!

Fortunately, he still had the mentality of the previous life, and immediately abandoned the external interference, and quickly went to divert and stabilize himself.

But this is like a flood. It could have been stable, but once there is a break, there will be a chain reaction.

After discovering this sign, Shen Lang decided to fight!

Since it is impossible to break through again and again, it is better to let the chaos come once, but keep it without losing control. Even if the unsuccessful afterwards, the body will be damaged, and it is also an experience.

Chapter 317 - breakthrough! Blonde

At that time, the time was greatly lengthened. The deep waves of concentrated spirit almost used one second as an hour. All the strength of the collision and the power of the stars rushed in the body, letting them go. It is also necessary to keep them out of control, and the operation must be highly accurate.

Fortunately, he was able to break through the line, and the line was also broken because of stability. Now the laissez-faire of the out-of-control edge has immediately left the original “stable”, almost one or two seconds later. Shen Lang broke through the fourth heavy!

Almost at the same time, he was completely out of control!

Originally, he was playing the tightrope and kept on the edge of losing control. After breaking the fourth weight, everything changed, and he had not had time to adapt, or in this state, he could not control the fourth. Heavy body.

The most direct change is that after breaking through the fourth weight, the speed of absorbing the power of the stars is greatly accelerated, and the power of more stars suddenly flows, so that his original control can not be restrained.

It's like driving a car to the highest speed. With technology and experience, it barely keeps it still crashing, but suddenly, the horse's horsepower has increased several times and it has lost control.

At this time, he suddenly felt a pain in his neck, and then he felt a chilly breath!

He has lost control, and this chilly breath is also like the power of the stars, quickly pouring into the body!

This made him uncomfortable, but at this time, it played a calming and cooling effect. After a while, with the absorption of the chilly atmosphere, the body was confused and discomfort, which led to the absorption of the power of the stars.

This gave Shen Lang a chance to control. He still had some understanding of the situation after the fourth weight. He quickly regained control of the body, the power of all the stars, and the unexpected chilly atmosphere. All pressed down.

It is too late to refine these, but we must first understand the situation.

If only someone in the outside world touched his shoulder, it would not be a big deal. After he was shocked, he could continue. But just a trace of pain, as well as this large amount of chilly breath, is obviously not normal.

After the recovery, Shen Lang opened his eyes, and the knowledge quickly spread out, and the situation of the entire flight was clear.

Then he frowned.

Everyone on the plane woke up, not only in the first class, including everyone in the economy class. At this time, many people are in the control window, and many people are grateful to pat the chest or draw a cross.

The flight attendants he thought were also sitting on the seat belts, not that they came over to shoot his shoulders.

In the seat next to him, she was sitting on a blonde, but now she came out halfway and hooked his neck!

This is the place where he frowns. It is not a sudden encounter. Her lips are stuck on his neck and he can feel the moisture, but it is not his cheap kiss, but he bites his neck. One bite!

Shen Lang shoulders a move, immediately shocked the blonde back to her seat, and then his eyes stared at the past.

The little mouth she had just closed, the fangs flashed away.

When Shen Lang boarded the plane, the blonde was already seated. Even in the winter, it was very hot and she showed her graceful figure. But she wore a big sunglasses and curled up against the window.

When he looked at the past, the blonde opened a thin blanket and covered herself.

This seems to be like a wolf, and Shen Lang did not look at her. Later, he kept his eyes closed and knew that the other person, like other travelers, was sleeping with a blanket, and there was no special concern.

I didn't expect it to be a vampire around me!

This really made Shen Lang secretly shocked. Under such a state, he also concentrated on cultivation, it is too dangerous and risky. This is also because of the particularity of the vampire. If it is a self-cultivator, he will be aware of it.

“You don't want to explain it? Believe it or not, I killed you?”

With a wave of hands, Shen Lang immediately formed an invisible hood around their two seats, separating their voices from others.

At this moment, the blonde has already taken off the big sunglasses, and the blanket is not covered. Not only the body is exposed, but also her face can be clearly observed. Blonde white skin, full face five-dimensional three-dimensional, very typical Western beauty.

“Are you practicing?...Sorry, I have no intention of disturbing. Although I found out, I have not made any offense all the way. On the contrary, I am careful, I am afraid that you are harmful to me...”

“Just...the sudden magnetic field chaos energy around the plane flew, the plane was almost out of control and fell a few kilometers. I suspect it is related to your practice, so let you calm down, but you did not wake up. In order not to fall Machine, I have no choice but to interrupt in this way...”

“Obviously you know my identity, but please be assured that it is not as legendary that being bitten by us will become a vampire.”

After hearing her explanation, Shen Lang’s consciousness was quickly linked.

When she said that the magnetic field energy was chaotic, it should be that when he was anxious to hit the fourth heavy weight, it would not affect the plane’s loss of control. He had no thoughts and time to pay attention.

In such a state, the weight loss of the plane is not a big deal for his touch. The artificial shot of the shoulder was amazed by him. Perhaps she also said something like calmness, but he was left with the wrong mistake.

The loss of control of a large number of stars will probably make the problem even more serious. After breaking through the fourth weight, it will absorb more stars and deepen the problem. It is also possible to have a few kilometers of falling.

This blond vampire is using the way of biting him, forcing him to interrupt the cultivation, and wanting to come to the chilly atmosphere that is absorbed later, it should be filled with her energy. At this time, in his soundproof cover. In addition, the vague looming broadcast notice, said that the air layer encountered has passed, the aircraft has no problem, is returning to the normal route, so that everyone can feel at ease.

Combined with the induction that everyone is awakened, and the rest of the life of the robbery, Shen Lang can prove that she did not lie.

“You can’t make me a vampire, but you make me very dangerous! You, it will be very dangerous!” Shen Lang said coldly.

For the special existence of vampires, he has no general misunderstandings and fears. Because he had seen too many special existences in previous lives, even the vampires of the West, he also saw the most famous Count of Dracula last year.

His words are warnings, because she makes him very dangerous, and now it is very dangerous to become her, he is likely to kill her at any time!

The blond vampire is laughing bitterly: "I am already weak... I just bite you, I don't mean to attack you, so I didn't * your blood, but you sucked me up."

"..." Shen Lang a glimpse.

Chapter 318 - Blood donation

Shen Lang remembered the feeling just now, the neck blood vessels are naturally bitten, but there is really no feeling of losing blood. And her sucking should be the chilly breath he inhaled.

Looking at her now, it is really weak. It also proves that she is for the safety of all, not to attack him, or to lick his blood, and the waves are also set to be wary.

"How can you recover?"

Looking at Shen Lang's attitude is a little better, the blond vampire has also relaxed a bit, not so heart-warming.

"It should be fine, just take a break."

Shen Lang touched the wound that she had bitten, basically no bleeding. He quietly worked hard and fixed it quickly.

Just because everyone was frightened, and just just woke up, I didn't have time to notice that she rushed over Shen Lang. Now it slowly eases down, and other people are talking to each other.

Shen Lang sounded a bit, but still can be seen, so after that, she used to wear sunglasses and covered herself.

Just now her starting point is good. If the plane continues to fall and finally crashes, even if Shen Lang does not die, it will be very serious if he encounters interference such as explosion impact in the cultivation state.

So she can save him, and because of her relationship, let him break through the fourth weight, and rely on her chilly atmosphere to keep calm.

This is equivalent to owing a person!

If the other party asks for a return, it can be done refreshingly. The other party does not care, and the more he wants to pay off.

“Because you are a vampire, the blood should be the fastest way to recover. You know, my blood is not comparable to the average person.”

Shen Lang came here, grabbed a finger and broke one, and then handed it to her.

In fact, he still has a drop of blood from Count Dracula, which should be better for vampires. However, that is a token of a gift from a friend. Shen Lang certainly will not send it out. He lost a little blood himself, and he couldn't count anything.

The blonde under the sunglasses was a little surprised, but she did not expect that Shen Lang actually wanted her to * the blood.

She licked her tongue unconsciously, but she still didn't immediately swear.

“You know... this is a big stimulus for us, I might not be able to hold it, just in case...”

She was actually trying to hold back. Although she did not deliberately * blood, she still had a * entrance when she was bitten.

Now if she is allowed to suck, it will inevitably * up.

“Then control!”

There are not so many sinking waves, the fingers have been bitten, and the blood has come out. After that, I put my finger directly into her mouth.

The smell of blood made her take a breath, but immediately let herself control.

Shen Lang can clearly feel her bite, let the blood quickly rush out from the finger, if it is not restricted to the blood vessels, it will really be a lot of blood loss. It's no wonder that their vampires can quickly * people out in a short time, and sure enough, there is a set for bloodsucking.

After she tried to control, she took two more breaths, but it was much more relaxed than the first one, not so much blood.

“Okay. Thank you!”

She licked a little blood on her lips. Although she was obviously disappointed, she managed to take the fingers of Shen Lang.

In order to divert her attention, she immediately wiped her fingers with a paper towel.

Because the blood of the finger is overdraft, after stopping, it is a wound, and no blood is present.

Just this scene, looked at by a flight attendant, of course, do not know their specific situation, I think she is the finger of sucking the waves, it is undoubtedly a very hint of that. However, they have seen more flights on the plane, and there is nothing strange about it.

“Your blood... I need to take a break.” After she apologized, she closed her eyes and rested.

Shen Lang is a stranger to seeing the situation after Count Dracula sucked the blood of the golden giant. He has now broken through the fourth weight of “Yin and Yang Bo Ruozen”, which is completely different. It is different from the blood composition of the Golden Giant, but it is also very precious.

This female vampire is obviously not as good as the Count of Dracula. This blood of the repairing strong may be difficult for her to adapt to, or to make up for it.

Shen Lang also closed his eyes and raised his spirits. He did not enter the state of cultivation any more, which affected the aircraft and was not good.

Successfully broke through the fourth weight, letting one of his wishes be put down. Now if you go back and face Xie Dao Ling, you don't need to run. Even if it is a confrontation, it is not unsure!

After the fourth weight, and the third weight is a big hurdle, basically all his abilities will have a big leap, including the use of spells, and the magic weapon like Qiushuijian and Shenxingzhou can also play a bigger role. effect.

“What do you call?” After a while, the blonde came over and asked.

Shen Lang looked at her: “Shen Lang.”

Shen Lang shook her hand and let her hand go.

In his opinion, just her personality has been replaced. His blood is obviously very useful, but for a while, her temperament has recovered a lot.

“You are the superpower of the East?” she asked again.

“Superpower? How are you divided now?” Shen Lang originally had no interest in chatting, but looking at her comprehension, she also wanted to know how the West is now divided.

After all, he has never been to the West in the past, and now many of the East have changed.

“Of course we are special” Dorothy smiled. “But for the super-powers, the general classification is now from c-level to level...”

According to her remarks, Shen Lang basically has a general impression. The c-level should be the equivalent of the current domestic comprehension. Specifically, it is divided into “c-“, “c”, “c+” and “c++”, which is equivalent to the early mid-term and the peak. Above is the b level, which is probably equivalent to the virtual world. It is also a level above the virtual world, which is equivalent to the real world.

There is still pr super, the corresponding will be a stronger comprehension than the real world, what is called in the country, Shen Lang is not clear.

She just talked about the superpowers in the West, and there is not much detail about the special existence of vampires.

When Shen Lang looked at her, she wanted to ask, what count of Dracula counts in their vampires. In the entire Western superpower system, what level is equivalent.

But in the end, I still didn't ask it, everyone just knew it. The friendship with the Count of Dracula, which was created in a special environment, is different now.

Chapter 319 - Heroes save the opportunity of beauty

When she got off the plane, Dorothy took the initiative to follow up. She found that the foreign language level of Shen Lang was average, so he took the initiative to help him and told him about the general immigration procedures.

Shen Lang did not reject her kindness, but that's all. There is no more in-depth questioning where she is going, not saying where to go.

Although his passport and visa are true, his information is fake, so after the normal immigration procedures, under the examination of the Immigration staff, it is also over.

At the time of export, someone waved at him and walked over.

Or before Dorothy, she had a different passage from foreigners, and she came out first. At this time, he still wore big sunglasses, and he wore a windbreaker on his body, which blocked his graceful figure, but he was still graceful.

"I will take you with you. You are not familiar with the environment, and you have trouble communicating with the taxi driver." Dorothy offered the invitation.

Shen Lang instinct has a sense of alert, her identity is special, his identity is also special, this is not a love scene at first sight, so close, really there is no other intention?

"No, I have friends to pick me up." Shen Lang refused, then signaled Dorothy to go out and go out.

"Is it really someone to pick up? Or are you polite?" Dorothy did not believe it, and walked side by side with Shen Lang. "You can rest assured, I will not be like you."

“Oh.” Shen Lang smiled a little, how would he be afraid of her?

It’s just that he came to see his parents, and he didn’t want to be extravagant. Whether it’s a foreign superpower or a special existence like her, it’s not going to involve so much.

“I promise that after I get to the place, I will park in advance, I will never be pestering you, and I will not run around with you.”

“Thank you.”

If you don’t smile, you can’t take it for you if you’re nervous and you’re alert.

Look at him like this, Dorothy is a little bit guilty: “That’s it, can you exchange a contact? Use your WeChat, so that next time I go to your country, there is still a chance to contact.”

Dorothy took out her mobile phone and took off her sunglasses. It looks very sincere.

Dorothy was nodded with satisfaction.

“I’m going to guess, your friend should be a man, then go to your Chinatown?” She teased, perhaps this is a common way.

This time I have already arrived at the exit, and Shen Lang’s knowledge has sensed the bleakness – or Zheng Yumeng.

“My friend is here.” After that, he stepped faster and walked over.

Dorothy was busy with it and looked up in front.

Zheng Yumeng also saw Shen Lang, and immediately rushed over with excitement, grabbed his arm and helped him with his luggage.

Shen Lang also saw from her reaction that she was Zheng Yumeng instead of desolate.

Dorothy paused next to it and looked at Zheng Yumeng with surprise. In appearance, this is a young and beautiful girl, dressed in a dress, is a brand name, not the same as she imagined to pick up the waves.

“How can it be boring? Isn’t there a blonde girl?” Shen Lang saw that she didn’t leave, she introduced it: “My friend Miss Zheng, this is Dorothy.”

“Dorothy? Dorothy!”

Zheng Yumeng carefully looked at the blonde and wanted to see what her relationship with Shen Lang was. It was really only known on the plane, or accompanied by it.

“All right.” Dorothy smiled: “Since your friend came to pick you up, I don’t need to send you. Goodbye, contact me if you are bored!”

After talking about her chic wave, she went outside.

“Master, you can! The level of picking up the girl is long!” Zheng Yumeng smiled and patted the shoulders of Shen Lang.

Shen Lang slightly white eyes: "What Dorothy? Why can she say that?"

Zheng Yumeng 嘤嘤 嘤嘤 一一 ::::::::::: “ “ “ “ “ “ “ “ 忘记 忘记 忘记 忘记 忘记 忘记 忘记
忘记 忘记 忘记 忘记 忘记 忘记!

Little Master... This name makes Shen Lang feel like he is calling a little monk, Xiaoya, plus Lange, even more weird, let him cross his eyes.

“Oh! It is like this. The name she told you, Dorothy, is translated, but in fact it was translated by Cantonese in the past. The pronunciation is similar in Cantonese. The difference in Mandarin reading is relatively large. The translation of the country should be Dorothy. “”

“Oh.” Shen Lang did not notice this. She probably grew up abroad. Many overseas Chinese are from Guangdong and Hong Kong.

“But this is also fine. Dorothy and Dorothy are very different. They can all be heard as female names. There are also some famous Cantonese translations. The gaps in Mandarin are very different, such as Vacheron Constantin and Constantine. “”

“What is that?” Shen Lang said that she did not understand.

Zheng Yu Meng was speechless, and this was reflected. The little brother of Langge came out of a small place. He used to be unable to afford Vacheron Constantin.

“Beckham and Messi know? Cantonese translation is ‘humble’, according to the written in the national language is ‘Bi Xian’; ‘Mexi’, read in the national language is ‘Mes’ ... Ha Haha, I don’t think it’s the same person, is there?”

Seeing Zheng Yumeng’s joy, Shen Lang nodded: “The two know, but the translation of Beckham and Metz is the first time I heard it.”

When they spoke, they had already walked out. It was snowy and snowy outside. Looking at the Shenlang wearing thin, Zheng Yumeng wanted to ask him if he was cold or cold, but he saw his eyes looking to the front and he looked at the past.

Not far from the front, Dorothy, who came out earlier than them, was blocked by three men at the moment.

They should have already talked, and they are facing each other.

“Hey! Blondes are in trouble, little master, it’s time for your hero to save the beauty!” Zheng Yumeng smiled and teased.

“Let’s see it in the past.” Shen Lang nodded Hey, it seems to be some little punks, this should have allowed me to run errands, but I can’t grab the opportunity of Master Hero to save the beauty. . ”

Zheng Yumeng smiled and said that she would stand by.

Shen Lang smiled faintly, did not say anything, even if the same body, and has reached a high level of strength, but Zheng Yumeng in the repair of the final situation is far worse. If it is bleak, even if you don’t see a special vampire Dorothy, you can at least see that the three men are all self-cultivators.

Or use their Western name – superman.

Shen Lang saw it at a glance. One of the three men is B-class, and the other two should be C++. It is also equivalent to an initial period of emptiness, and two peaks of returning to the Yuan.

This is really nothing to him, but he does not know the level of Dorothy. (Retry)

There is no way to do this kind of technology. Try to modify it to see if it will resynchronize.

Chapter 320 - Don't want to be nosy

The images of their four confrontations, even if they don’t understand the specific situation, can be guessed one by one when they look far. The average person is circumventing, or not close to the past.

So Shen Lang, the two of them went over and let them notice immediately.

Dorothy looked at the side of her face, and then waved her hand to Shen Lang, indicating that she did not need help.

“Get on the bus!”

The three men, who are in confrontation with her, wait for the opportunity, she just got a little distraction, and immediately let the B-level superman find the opportunity to shoot, while saying that he has reached out and grabbed the peach Le Si’s shoulder.

The other two C++ supers are immediately blocked from different directions.

Shen Lang looks at their posture, it is clear that Dorothy's identity is clear, and it is a targeted method of copying, so that her fast advantage can not be played.

But the speed of the vampires still exceeded their expectations. Even if it was a sneak attack, even if it was a package, Dorothy instantly evaded from their encirclement and retreated to the front of Shen Lang and Zheng Yumeng.

"I don't want to entangle with you in public – roll!"

Dorothy said that the voice of this speech is very low, but it contains a majesty.

Seeing this scene, Zheng Yumeng opened his mouth with surprise, and this was carefully observed. The original three are not punks. This blonde is not an ordinary person!

"You must go first, it is my little private matter, there is no problem." Dorothy turned back and said to Shen Lang with apologetic apologetic.

Shen Lang nodded and said nothing.

Just Zheng Yumeng said that it is a hero's chance to save the United States. He will take the initiative to come over. In fact, he wants to see it clearly.

Because he is a bit skeptical, Dorothy will be blocked when he appears at the airport, and waiting to let him see it, would it be so smart? Is this certain that it is not aimed at his "hero saves the beauty"?

He also had the act of saving the hero from the hero. Zheng Yumeng next to him is an example, but she first met her, she intended to take him as a shield, and he did not mind because she knew that she was a descendant of Zheng Man.

It is unlikely that Dorothy will set up a meeting for him first, because he is temporarily going to the airport, and the ticket that Yuezhennan is buying now. But if she knew that someone had blocked him, then she said that she would send him enthusiasm, including delaying waiting for him to appear, and it is possible to deliberately do it.

Shen Lang did not say anything, Zheng Yumeng did not say anything, immediately pointed to the direction of her parking, let Shen Lang follow her.

“Is this your friend? Since you don’t cooperate, let your friends take a trip with us!”

The B-level superman, speaking to Dorothy, is a wave of hands, let two C++-level superpowers catch Shen Lang and Zheng Yumeng!

Shen Lang is very speechless, isn’t that looking for death? I don’t want to be idle, but you come to the forefront!

Next to Zheng Yu Meng is eager to try, I really want to fight. Because she is looking at the realm of higher and higher, the ability is getting stronger, but there is no real chance. The last time in Yunnan, the battle was desolation.

But Shen Lang was stretching her hand and pulling her to the other side.

He is just a passer-by, but Zheng Yumeng grew up living here. Her family’s business is also here. If she is photographed or looking for something, she may not be very good to her.

At the same time, his other hand swayed as if it were just shaking the snow flakes falling to the shoulders.

The two C++ superpowers who rushed to them were stopped, and the whole person was frozen in the air. They could not rush forward and could not retreat backwards, as if they had become humanoid sculptures.

The B-level super-powers found that something was wrong. It seems that the judgment was wrong. These two yellow-looking people who seem to have no ability are not incapable, but more than what he can see!

But it is already late!

The two people who had just frozen had flew out and slammed into it, and they hit him on the body, so that he couldn't reach the defense, and he slammed back a few steps to the back, only to hold the two people in a stable position.

When he stood firm, he discovered that it was not two people but three people!

There is another one that is awesome!

When two people were thrown out by the sinking waves, she quickly chased them up, as if they were attached to one of them, and had already bitten his neck. In the time when he had not screamed, Quickly sucked up most of the blood!

“Roll! Don't force me to kill!”

After finishing the B-level powerhouse who had just reacted, she went up to Shen Lang and Zheng Yumeng.

Shen Lang and Zheng Yumeng did not go far, and what happened just now, he was completely at ease.

However, his doubts about Dorothy still have not been eliminated.

What can you explain? Explain that she is indifferent to her mouth, not forced to do so, do not directly  people?

Or is it a group of people, deliberately using the bitterness?

Think about it carefully, it is not impossible for her to set up a game!

Because on the flight, she has already discovered that Shenlang has cultivated, and there is wifi in the cabin, which can be connected to the ground and prepared in advance.

Even if it is later established after the meeting, it is still possible. For example, Shen Lang's entry is a lot of trouble, and she has time to call. And if this is the one who came to pick her up, it would be too easy to cooperate with the acting.

“Sorry, let you... Of course, you won’t be scared. In short, I am sorry... I have the opportunity to invite you to dinner!”

Dorothy quickly finished, and then accelerated to go forward.

Zheng Yumeng saw her follow up, thinking that she wanted Husband and Tiger, and followed them to avoid each other. I did not expect to apologize.

“She is a bit strange.” At this point, she still did not find Dorothy is a vampire, only thought it was a comprehension.

They went to the same parking lot.

When Shen Lang and Zheng Yumeng walked into the parking lot at normal speed, they saw that Dorothy had already got on a car, a man who had a meticulously combed hair, closed the door for her, and then drove in the past.

“Who is she in the end? How do I feel like a gang woman? Or is it... daughter?” Zheng Yumeng took Shen Lang to her car still groaning.

For her head, Shen Lang did not respond, directly to the co-pilot.

“How is it arranged?”

“Go to my house and show you my grandfather!” Zheng Yumeng said excitedly.

“Your grandfather?” Shen Lang frowned slightly.

“Haha, don’t have any opinions. I didn’t tell you with my desolation sister. In fact, my uncle is living with my grandfather. Otherwise I am afraid that they are not used to it, and no one will talk and sullen.”

“Yeah.” Although Shen Lang promised a voice, it was a bit disapproving.

Zheng Yuqing is not a business, even if it is a business. But in the end is a big family elder, the momentum, and the parents of his small place, is not a class at all, can be blamed together, they are not used to, or even a cramped!
