

First Strong 32

Chapter 32 - roll!

Seeing the excitement are some smart people, can you not understand the current situation?

Before the boss wanted to make a big profit, it was almost a strong sell. Now that he has found a big loss, he has to force it to sell.

When it comes to hundreds of thousands of things, no one dares to make a round of persuasion, and let them go to the side to watch the fun.

“Que Bo boss is angry and angry, turning his face and not accepting the account.”

“Hey, he is a big profiteer, and he doesn’t recognize people.”

“Hey, whisper. This kid is also, since the secret is a success, it’s just a matter of leaving people. It’s good to make a big fortune.”

“After all, young, can’t control it, and want to put it on hold! It’s good, it’s stupid!”

They lowered their voices and talked, and Shen Lang heard them one by one. He had a incense burner in his hand and did not go to the boss’s money.

“Want to buy it back? Take 150,000, and I will increase the price later.”

“Buy your mom! Is the deal successful? Is it a bill for you to open a bill? You want him to grab something!”

Qu boss, the old man, broke out with great energy after his anger, and his neck was blind, and he couldn’t wait to come up with the waves.

“Snapped—!”

The slap in the palm of his hand was on his face. Not only did his voice disappear, but the crowd of low-pitched onlookers quickly quieted down.

“Old things, a little old to live on a dog, don’t know the civilized language?”

Although it is based on the ability to leak, but after all, making a big profit, Qu boss really wants to buy it back, cheaper to accept. But the old man turned his face directly. If he came up, he would not admit the transaction. If he had to reclaim it in a thousand and five, he would not have a good temper.

And a “your mom, fucking” directly made him angry, and he was rude.

“How can you beat people? You still fight the old man! If the boss has a long and two short, I can’t eat you!”

The middle-aged man who had been drinking tea with Qu Laotou immediately yelled at Shen Lang, and the clerk quickly came over to help.

Shen Lang suppressed the power, and this slap only made him pain, but did not hurt him. However, when Qu Bo’s friend heard the words, he was already covering his face. He immediately fell to the clerk and fell into a serious injury.

“Everyone gave me a testimony... I am a young man, still hit me so hard, and still lick my old things, dog things... Is there any reason!”

Qu boss’s legs twitched, and he trembled and licked his heart, as if he couldn’t stand the heart.

“Let’s go!” The bodyguards, who didn’t have two minutes to go, saw things develop to this point. They quickly pulled the waves and then took out the phone and called the driver to get ready.

“Want to go! Leave things behind!”

The middle-aged man took the first step, blocked the direction of the door, stopped their way, and reached out to let the swell of the incense burner.

A look at this posture, surrounded by the lively, including the Liao boss, have retreated to the side, the clerk is also busy holding the boss to go to the side.

The bodyguard said one step forward: “Uncle, you have to make a point. Everyone has seen it. He sold the incense burner to us. It’s useless to see his eyesight. If he is worth the money, he will turn his face? Then you buy someone else at a low price. Out of high prices, others...”

“Who do you think you are!”

The bodyguard is telling the truth. I didn’t expect this middle-aged man to be directly on the front, and the * kicked in the bodyguard! Immediately let him say nothing, bent over and squatted.

The middle-aged man sneered a sneer, then straightened his hand and grabbed it into the incense burner in the hands of Shen Lang!

When the middle-aged man stopped in front of him, Shen Lang was only slightly frowning, and did not mean to do it. He did not expect him to kick the bodyguard directly!

Although he was not familiar with Yue Zhennan, he was followed by him. When he was beaten in front of him, he was shot to him!

Shen Lang just succumbed to the boss, he saw that he was a young man, and he was greatly restrained. Now, this middle-aged man who is first-handed is not so good at talking, and he just went out!

“Roll!”

The middle-aged man felt that Shen Lang was only a middle school student. He also dared to have a hard-top to help others. After kicking the bodyguard on one foot, he thought that Shen Lang did not dare to move. At this moment, the hand directly caught the incense burner.

But he did not think that the suffocation of Shen Lang and the bodyguard did not have any relationship at all. Once Shen Lang took the shot, it was not the bodyguard that could be compared.

The abdomen was suddenly smashed, and he had not had time to feel the pain. When he heard the “rolling”, the whole person had already flew out to the back!

He was originally at the gate of Jubaoju, and now he flew out directly to the outside, and fell to the center of the street outside on his back!

Just this is... was it hit by the train?

He only had such a thought, and then he felt that the entire abdomen seemed to be broken and displaced.

Jubaoju lively inside, it's scary!

This young man is an outsider from the county. They are the head snakes. They thought that the incense burner would be taken back. I didn't expect such a reversal.

Kicking people out of the way! If they have just witnessed it, they can't believe it if someone makes a guarantee.

“Boss! Boss!”

Several screams rang, and some people ran over and reached the middle-aged man on the street.

“Boss! Who dares to move you?”

“Come on!”

The street roared, so that the clerk guests in other shops went out to the door to see the excitement.

“It's them! It's finished...”

“It turned out that that is the legendary Dai boss!”

“Who is the boss?”

“Don’t you know how to wear the boss? Xiaonanmen’s boss Antique Street is covered by him. You think about it, there are always some excitement when buying low, selling, and leaking. When the fire was blushing, the alarm was too late to deal with it. It was all worn by the old man.”

Listening to everyone’s arguments, Shen Lang realized that this middle-aged man was not a friend, but the entire antique street was his cover!

It is understandable that the protection fee has been collected to deal with some troubles. But just in this situation, it is obvious that you are clamoring for power and you must be  him! This helps Qu boss to go back, it is estimated that he will also give him tens of thousands of benefits?

Not to mention the outside situation, they usually drink tea or play cards in different stores, and they will come out with a sigh of relief.

The noise just here has already made people listen to the accident. When they came out, they were kicked down on the street, and all the younger brothers were angry.

“Can you still go?” Shen Lang reached out and patted the shoulder of the bodyguard, and the energy infiltrated into the past, immediately alleviating the pain of his knees.

“Alright...” The bodyguard had just been unable to make a sound, and now it feels greatly slowed down. “You, you...”

He didn’t know that he had just helped him, but he took the lead and flew out, and he saw it with his own eyes! Don’t say a big man, that is, a child standing still and letting him groan, can’t be so far away.

Looking at Shen Lang again, he did not consciously awe.

Shen Lang did not say much, and stepped out of Jubaoju.

The outside Dai Dai was so painful that he couldn’t speak. He just pointed his fingers and pointed at the waves. Under the screaming and shouting, he soon ran over six people and immediately surrounded them!
