

First Strong 39

Chapter 39 - Calm

The first foot is to kick the coffee table. After being pressed, the second foot is kicking forward!

The superb warrior also showed his strength. When he reached out and held the palm of his hand, he held down the coffee table. After feeling that Shen Lang continued to kick, his palm continued to force, and pressed the coffee table.

The confrontation between the two forces caused the tea table feet to make a clear honing sound on the carpet, and the strong mahogany also made a scream.

It is much harder to press the coffee table that is rushing from the side. The main white, Bai Shenghua, is directly facing the coffee table, then in the blink of an eye, it was still slammed up, and immediately felt a sharp pain.

When the super-wu people pressed, they felt the difficulty. When they pressed their hands, the whole person pressed on the coffee table and swept out from the air. With the support of both palms, the feet kicked to Shen Lang!

When Bai Shenghua felt the pain, the coffee table also sounded overwhelmed and stopped moving forward.

For kicking the feet in front of him, Shen Lang did not have a hard time with him this time. Just indirect confrontation has already made him feel that this person's strength is still above Mo Qi!

He gave the body a side to the side, and the right hand quickly grabbed the ankle, then yanked it back, and picked up the superb warrior who kicked hard and fell out!

The super-wu people just felt the power of Shen Lang. This kick does not expect much effect. On the one hand, it is the force of the whole body to press down the coffee table. On the other hand, it is self-seeking to push the waves back a few steps. Before the coffee table, you can block a safe distance for Bai Shenghua, and you can play it with ease.

But I didn't expect the power of Shen Lang to be so big that he could throw him out like a doll!

He was not thrown down, he had already twisted his body in the air and fell to the ground, and then saw a scene that made him angry!

“court death!”

When Shen Lang threw him out at the shot, he kicked his foot on the coffee table!

This time, he was thrown away in the back. He couldn't wait for the rescue. When he landed, he could only watch the coffee table hit the legs of Bai Shenghua again!

Just the second foot, the coffee table has been put on the legs, so that Bai Shenghua can hardly move, and now, once again the gravity is applied, he almost felt the sound of broken leg bones...

Shen Lang also felt that this extraordinary warrior had moved the real fire, and the man had not yet approached, and the hurricane that had pulled out a palm had already arrived behind him!

He immediately bent over and copied, grabbed the mahogany coffee table with one hand, and slammed it to the back.

This extraordinary warrior, beside Bai Shenghua, enjoys excellent treatment. He also has strong self-confidence and can be protected by one person alone. As a result, some people can now face his face and abandon the boss's legs. Can you not be angry?

In addition to anger, even more shocked!

If you can't immediately control people, just come back again, it will be enough to kill the boss on the spot, then he will lose face!

He rushed over to the full palm, although the large coffee table was blocked, but the entire mahogany coffee table was also split directly into several pieces.

He didn't dare to care about it at all, but he was afraid after a while! If Shen Lang just ignored his attack, he would directly put the coffee table on the boss's head... Then he can hurt the person and the boss is finished!

In such a critical situation, he immediately launched a series of storm-like attacks, and rushed between Shen Lang and Bai Shenghua, can not give Shen Lang a little attack.

Shen Lang is very calm and very serious.

He has a wealth of combat experience, but now it is limited by strength and body, and can play limited. For the extraordinary warriors who are in contact, whether it is Ahu or Mo Qi, he relies on the hard-hitting of “Da Shou Mi Long Xiang Shen Gong”.

Now, with this person, I really see the means of the extraordinary warrior, and let him have a clearer understanding of the specific conditions of the six paragraphs and seven paragraphs.

Shen Lang discovered that even if the person is in a fast-moving situation, each shot is still with a strong hurricane, which is to avoid the one foot, can make the skin faint and painful!

I can imagine the effect of hitting, not to say that the person is pierced, the bones are interrupted, and the internal organs are intensively created!

Even if he has just cultivated the “King Kong is not bad spirit”, he does not dare to try hard, he must be careful.

“stop!”

“Raining...”

Hearing that Bai Shenghua shouted “stopping”, neither of them stopped, but they heard “forgiveness” and there was a voice that clearly fell to the ground. Both people were surprised and quickly retreated, maintaining a safe distance. Look at Bai Shenghua again.

“Boss! You are... I can kill this beast!”

The anger of the super-martial warrior is hard to suppress, others are here, and his boss is begging for enmity! Isn't this a hit on his face?

Bai Shenghua was sweating. He had a comminuted fracture under his knees. Now he collapsed. He even pulled the bones and smashed the bones. He also had a severe nerve ligament, which made him almost shocked.

He heard his hand and he raised his hand and waved it.

“Ye Fan... don’t blame you, I admit defeat...”

“Boss!” This is called Ye Fan’s anger and anger, it is difficult to accept this attitude. Although he did not protect well, he has not lost yet!

Bai Shenghua resisted without crying, and did not faint in the past, barely explained.

“...you have not lost, but you are the seven-segment of the extraordinary warrior, the master of the high hand... can hurt me in front of you...”

“I’m sorry! I am a light enemy!” Ye Fan only felt the burning pain on his face.

Yes! He is a seven-segment super-armed warrior. He is a master of high-handed hands. He is generally a so-called master. He can step on the sling, but now it is a heavy blow to his employer in front of him. What a shame!

Bai Shenghua shook his head: “Even if you can protect me for twenty-four hours, my family?”

When I said this, I immediately let Ye Fan live.

He consciously will not lose to Shen Lang but want to kill is not so easy. If the other party is determined to kill the boss, he really can only be on guard for 24 hours, and he has only one person.

Bai Shenghua’s pleading for mercy has surprised Shen Lang. According to the saying, such dignity should be regarded as more important than life. It will not be defeated by a pair of legs.

Hearing what he said now, he understood his fears.

This made Shen Lang frown. He is a man of great grievances. Bai Shenghua first found someone to kill him. He came to revenge. Not to mention whether his family is here, even if he is face to face, he will not be innocent.

After Bai Shenghua persuaded Ye Fan, he gritted his teeth and smiled at Shen Lang: "I am suspicious, I am doing something wrong, and now I am also heavily punished... Of course, I am not asking you to forgive me... Seeking mercy, I hope I can buy it back!"

In the end, one side was stunned, less than a minute before and after, and the average person was still raging on the street. He had already seen the situation and calmly analyzed the consequences and forced himself to make pain but perhaps the best choice.

He will not give sympathy, nor dare to hope for the sympathy of others, so he will talk directly about the transaction.
