

First Strong 41

Chapter 41 - 5 million redemption

Shen Lang looked back, did not chase the past, puncture the door, Ye Fan is not considered to be a waste of people, but the housekeeping skills are destroyed by the palms, and the roots themselves are also greatly damaged. After you have raised it, you will be restored to the level of one or two.

Although it is a bit uncomfortable to solve the problem with money, he is only starting now, that is, lack of money!

Bai Shenghua smiled and reluctantly explained: "You misunderstood... Ye Fan... In addition to being very powerful... Of course, you are even better. He also has a powerful master, who is not a super-martial, but a self-cultivator!"

When he said this, he still had a bit of awe in his eyes, and he quickly added a few words.

"Of course, I am not using the comprehension to suppress you. I don't want you to be too stiff. After all, you have no grudges. It is my problem. But I can't let you let it go, so I am willing to trade and pay for him. Redemption."

Shen Lang secretly laughed, this really took care of his emotions, afraid that any point would anger him.

"His master is a self-cultivator? What level?"

The information of the comprehension has made him feel refreshed. This may not be known to Yue Zhennan.

Bai Shenghua shook his head: "I don't know... my level is still out of reach, I only know that it is very powerful. So, I don't want you..."

Speaking of Shen Lang, in fact, of course, is afraid of Ye Fan's commandment, will be tired of him.

Now they are both in the house, and Bai Shenghua is even more embarrassed. With the strength of Shen Langzhan, one finger can destroy him. Now that he is not sure about the redemption of the transaction, he does not dare to slack off.

“Mr. Shen, I solemnly apologize to you again! This is the punishment I should have. I am willing to pay and willing to pay 5 million yuan! Of course, plus one million of Ye Fan.”

He has been analyzing, Shen Lang let go of Ye Fan, should accept his price. Now that he has reported five million, he is not sure if he will be accepted.

Compared with his life, even if he has more money, he is willing to pay.

“You want to kill me, I am killing you is revenge; he is the same. But I do not extort you, nor do I have trouble with my family. You are willing to pay for a redemption, I can accept it. You two lives, two million.” ”

Shen Lang finally said directly to the redemption of the transaction, let Bai Shenghua listen carefully, listening to a bit strange.

Although he took the initiative to open five million, he made a good plan to ask for his half-home, and even to replace him. As long as he can leave a life, he can only accept it. I did not expect that as long as two million!

“One yard, one yard, and sure enough!” Bai Shenghua praised, and then sincerely said: “Two million I am too embarrassed, not as good as a total of five million, please accept it!”

Suspicious, he still can't believe that Shen Lang will kill him behind him, give him a little more money, and be safe.

Can Shen Lang 岂 not see his mind?

“Alright. But I don't want you, I will cure your legs.”

“No, no, don't bother you, this is my self-confidence, I will go to the hospital for treatment.” Bai Shenghua said.

“I want to be clear.” Shen Lang glanced at him. “Go to the hospital and your legs will be abolished, even to amputation.”

“You really...” Bai Shenghua just felt the serious injury to his leg. After a while, he realized that his legs could not last for a long time. He thought about going to the hospital quickly. Now, when he heard this, it was also aroused. A glimmer of hope.

“Money, you gave me through Yue Zhennan, I don’t know who to ask.”

When he heard the name of Yue Zhennan, Bai Shenghua could not help but smash, and then he saw Shen Lang reach out to his head. He had been struggling to support him without a crash, and he was stunned when he was bounced.

Shen Lang pulled him up on the sofa, checked the injuries of the two calves, and then directly injected a vitality!

This is the essence of his cultivation, and the effect is of course extraordinary. As with the time he used to temper the body, this allows the wound to be repaired quickly, allowing necrotic tissue to regenerate.

The key to selling the two million yuan to the Yue family is to inject the vitality. Now it has collected 3 million Baishenghua, which is used here. And with the slow absorption above the note jade, the effect of this direct injection is of course more obvious.

After a while, Shen Lang stopped injecting and then woke up Bai Shenghua.

“Basically saved, follow up on your own hospital treatment.”

The white man who just woke up, the whole person was still sluggish for a while.

He knew very well that Shen Lang had fainted him. He didn’t want him to know what treatment he used. Now he doesn’t know how long it has been.

But the problem is that he does not feel the pain of the wound now!

Before he was hit hard, he fell to the ground and almost felt his legs are necrotic. He insisted that his legs were not his own. Is it still like this now?

He used his heart to feel the calf and found a tingling tingling sensation. Although it was small, it seemed like there were countless needles.

This made him breathe a sigh of relief! Can feel the pain, indicating that the worst results have not yet been reached. Maybe... is there really a way to keep it!

What did Bai Shenghua want to say, and found that Shen Lang had got up and left, did not dare to neglect, and even dared not move, he could only quickly find out the mobile phone for help.

Shen Lang has been made in no mood, but he is not allowed to stay in Pingxi City. After receiving the call from the manager of Qiongzhitang, he still rushed over.

In the warehouse of Qiongzhitang, I met the manager of the contact Han.

Manager Han is very excited because of a big business to find a door, don't mind working overtime so late. I was very polite to call, and I was not impatient. But now I can see people clearly, and let him directly disappoint!

This young man with a bit of messy hair, wearing a school uniform like a high school or a vocational school, is not like a big customer.

Professionalism, so that he did not directly show disappointment, but still could not help but ask from the side.

"You... is Mr. Shen who is in contact with me?"

He expects that customers will not have time to come over and let people represent them first.

Shen Lang saw his problem and frowned slightly: "Are you not selling it to me, or are you afraid that I have no money?"

“No, no I don’t have this meaning...” Han manager smiled a bit and immediately said: “But before we talked about it, it is worth 500,000 medicines, that... we have to accept the rules. 200,000 deposits.”

When he said this, he sighed in his heart, disappointed and helpless. Whether it is a prank or a help, the 200,000 deposit is enough to scare the young man out!

But he can’t take risks. This business can’t be done, it’s just nothing, and the problem is over.

“Mobile phone.” Shen Lang did not talk nonsense, took out the phone directly.

“what?”

“Transfer to you.”

Before the wave, Cary did not have much money, but before Yue Zhennan could transfer 2 million to him, let him understand that mobile payment is very developed.

The manager of Han, who took out the mobile phone, was dubious, and when he saw the direct payment of 200,000, the whole person was incredibly stunned.

Lying in the trough! Brothers, if you have money, don’t be so low-key. It almost hurts my dog’s eyes to see people low... Not right, I almost made a mistake.
