Chapter 44 - More than me

Shen Lang saw the quotations of various medicinal materials on the website of Qiongzhitang yesterday. Not to mention all of them, I know a lot about it.

This small box contains a ginseng.

The price of ginseng in Qiongzhitang varies from one gram to one gram to one tens of gram. But he didn't buy much, and he bought the cheapest, because in his recipe for refining, ginseng is only one of them, and it doesn't need much.

Unless it is a high-year old mountain ginseng, it would not be worth the big price. But in the current market, the wild old ginseng of high years is very rare, and it belongs to the market without price, and the possession will not be sold.

This ginseng, from his price, should be about ten grams a gram, and the weight is probably between one and two.

In other words, the ginseng sent by Han Manager is worth between 5,000 and 10,000, which is equivalent to giving him a benefit of 1% to 2%!

The value of this ginseng, or the advantage of this, Shen Lang does not care much now, but seeing this thing, but inspired him.

His father will not come back until the New Year, and now he is preparing for his mother. But the treasure is still too difficult to drink, and it will be thrown if you try it for no reason.

Ginseng is not the same, even if you don't take medicine, take it to your mother and drink it. It is also beneficial.

However, this thing is suddenly taken back, it is not easy to explain, I have to think of a reason, otherwise the mother will worry about what he is doing bad things.

I didn't sleep all night, and Shen Lang was still spiritual. I ate some breakfast outside and went back to school.

His appearance was a small one that caused the students to watch. An honest student like him will not take a few vacations in one semester. Now I still have classes in the morning. I suddenly don't come in the afternoon. I didn't come the next day. I really can't help but wonder if Dong Wenbin is looking for it. People hit.

When Shen Lang was naturally seated, the river immediately came over and asked: "You have nothing to do in these two days?"

"I am a little personal." Shen Lang nodded to him to show his gratitude and gave him a positive look, indicating no problem.

The relationship between the rivers and rivers made him unconsciously look at the rain, and there was no intersection except for the previous one. As a squad leader, she should find that there is one person missing, but are there any concerns?

There is no such thing as a conscience. The rain is a serious problem.

It didn't take long for the class teacher, Mr. Wang, to come to the class. After a patrol, he went straight to Shenlang's side and knocked on the table, indicating that he would not influence other people and go out for a trip.

Shen Lang followed him directly. Teacher Wang did not take him back to the office, but stood at the corner of the corridor.

"What happened to you? Honestly?"

"What is going on?" Shen Lang shrugged: "Isn't someone already looking for a leave?"

His attitude directly caused Wang to anger, but he still suppressed his anger, and he said: "What I asked is the leave of absence! Why don't you just take time off with me?"

Shen Lang did not answer. At that time, it was said casually. As a result, Yue Zhennan took over the past.

He didn't say anything, fell in the eyes of Teacher Wang, and he was guilty. He immediately sneered: "Shen Lang, can you bear it! Go directly to the director to help you with your leave, and say that the principal is confessing, learn to take the leadership to pressure me." My class teacher is in your eyes, is it a fart?"

Shen Lang is really helpless. He can guess a general, but he does not know the process of taking time off. Now I heard that the principal is the director of the office. It is estimated that Yue Zhennan is calling with Yao Houpu.

"I didn't mean it." He didn't explain much.

Seeing that he couldn't explain it, Teacher Wang asked another question: "Why do you want to ask the director for leave?"

"You go to the director!" Shen Lang did not breathe a word.

"..." Teacher Wang said nothing.

The director asked him for a leave of absence. Of course, it was a matter of confessing a sentence, let alone the principal's confession. How can he question the relationship between the director and Shen Lang? If the director asked him to go to the principal?

It's just that he thought for two days and felt that it was impossible for Shen Lang to have a relationship with the principal or the director. Otherwise, he would be taken care of in the past few years.

Therefore, on the one hand, he wants to take out the evil spirit of taking the leadership to him, and at the same time, he wants to find out what is going on.

"You have this attitude, there is a problem!"

"Then go to the principal together?" Look at him like this, let Shen Lang a little funny.

"..." Teacher Wang was once again stunned, and the director could not ask, let alone the principal.

“You, you... don’t let me catch you cheating!” Putting aside a word, Teacher Wang left.

Shen Lang shook his head and returned to the classroom.

Just after Mr. Wang’s anger and disappointment, he did not dare to attack anything. Because of the relationship between the principal and the director, even the principal, it is estimated that Yue Zhennan is looking for Yao Houpu and Yao Houpu is telling the driver a phone call!

He once again felt the importance of power.

Of course, with his last world, power is the most important. However, the current strength is not enough to stand out from the crowd, or in this red dust, you must make good use of power.

Power, money, and connections... These can also be regarded as a kind of comprehensive strength that can be transformed!

With the origin of Shen Lang, it is extremely difficult to contact the power. Even if Yao Houpu is a life-saving, it will be gone.

But the Yue family is different!

Yuejia does not owe money to others. Everyone is a transaction. As long as he has the value that Yuejia attaches to, he can use the power of Yuejia to some extent!

Thinking of this, Shen Lang immediately had a plan. I didn’t read any books. I immediately used the mobile phone to go online and set some things.

At noon, I received a call from Yue Zhennan.

“Shen, brother, hehe... I feel like I can’t call your brother, you should call your brother...”

“Hey! Is it going to give me money?” Shen Lang directly interrupted his words.

“Yes!” Yue Zhennan smiled a bit, he has become accustomed to Shen Lang’s attitude towards him. “Bai Qiye found me, transferred 5 million, and asked me to give you.”

“Good.” Shen Lang said a faint sentence.

“I didn’t transfer it to you right away I am afraid that you are being targeted. Two million the day before yesterday, there are five million today. It is too abnormal for your account. Don’t be mistaken for money laundering, so I am looking for a relationship, let your bank to upgrade you to a gold card VIP account, it will be convenient later...”

“Doing a good job, is there anything else?”

Yuezhen South was speechless for a while, and Laozi worked hard to find a relationship to help you settle these troubles, so you got a “doing a good job” comment? Me me! I am your horse?

But he immediately felt that this was quite familiar. After thinking about it, he remembered that he usually talked to others like this, which made him even more bitter.

“There is time to come over and give you some benefits.”

Yuezhen Nanyi: “What good?” Then I found that Shen Lang had already hung up his phone!

Lying in the trough! This kid is too arrogant, even worse than me! Do you know who to talk to? But... what benefits?

The “benefit” of the day before yesterday, but let him get the praise of the elders of the family in the past two days!
