

First Strong 48

Chapter 48 - stalker

After eating the meal, Shen Lang did not let Yue Zhennan send it back to the school. Instead, he chose to walk back and said that he was full and walked away.

Yuezhennan originally had to pick up and drop off to save him time. Seeing that Shen Lang decided, he did not insist. He is also eager to go back and bring this “Baobao Relic Soup” back to the family to see if it is really good.

When Shen Lang came out of Huayue Hotel, he walked along the street and walked slowly to the river. But instead of going back to renting a place, I went along the place where no one was going.

Standing on the edge of the embankment, he looked at the river in front and stretched out.

“With that long, you can come out.”

No one responded to him and no one came out.

Shen Lang turned back and looked at the bamboo bush.

After he stared for a moment, a man came out from behind the bamboo bush.

This is a man of about 50 years old. After he came out, he stepped closer and stood still. It was about five or six meters away from Shenlang. He looked at him carefully.

When Shen Lang walked out of the school, he found this person!

At the time, Dong Wenbin, who was behind him, did not pay attention to it at all, but he paid great attention to this uninvited guest. After going to the car in Yuezhennan South, he noticed that this person had followed an electric car and followed it to the Huayue Hotel.

Don't let Yue Zhennan's car be sent back to school, just want to confirm whether he is following him or not.

As a result, he walked to “digest”, and the other party kept the distance, followed by no hurry, until here.

“You are a sinking wave.”

The other party is not a question, obviously investigating and confirming his identity.

Shen Lang did not ask “who are you”, but a faint reply: “I know who you are.”

Although I don’t know what the name is, he did guess the identity of the other party!

“Who is your master?” The man was not surprised and asked his question directly.

“You are the master of Ye Fan.”

Shen Lang directly said it was broken. For a short time, he has been a lot of offended people, but there are not many people who can have this strength.

Although it was found that the tracking is separated by distance, they have not played against each other until now, but from the breath of the other side, it can be perceived that this is far better than Ye Fan, and Ye Fan is the strongest one he has ever played against.

In combination with Bai Shenghua, Ye Fan’s master is a self-cultivator, and the answer is self-evident.

“I ask again, you know the palm of your hand, who is your master?”

Shen Lang sneered: “How? I am afraid of accidentally injuring the same door? The area is overcast! It is not a great exercise.”

Hearing this, the eyes of the man who had been calm had flashed his eyes and passed a fierce temper.

“It is not easy to practice your work. I have spared the sin of your disrespect. I will not say that I am bullying and letting your master come out!”

“As far as you are worthy?” Shen Lang snorted: “The area is overcast, and the disciples who have been taught have left a swaying cover door. Also meet with my master?”

The face of the man changed slightly: “The big words are not swearing! Ye Fan is not good at learning, not a sinister palm!”

Shen Lang shook his head slightly: “Is it inferior to the art, or is it impossible for Master to teach? If he does not leave the door, even if I am defeated and defeated, it will not be completely abolished!”

“Who is your master? Where did you learn the yin palm? Actually, there is no cover...”

In the case of Shen Lang, he was very uncomfortable to listen to, but he understood that if he was not a person who knew the palm of his hand, he did not know and could not find the door.

What makes him feel harsh is that Shen Lang seems to say that the palm of the hand can not leave the door!

how can that be?

“The rumor didn’t cover the door...” Shen Lang whispered a little, then strangely asked: “It’s not surprising that your apprentice only has that achievement, but you also keep the cover door?”

“You can try it!” The man sneered, and he came from a sly identity, and now he wants to do it.

If you are angry and angry, it is equal to indirect recognition. Shen Lang suddenly: “Understood... It looks like you are not learning all, and you missed the palm of your hand.”

“What do you mean?” This time he was not only annoyed, but he was embarrassed.

“The yin palm, but the practice is the martial arts, but it will leave the door defect in the life gate. The Yangshuo palm of the supporting practice is to make up the cover of the yin palm. Now it seems that it is not Ye Fan’s art. Not refined, you have not learned all here!”

Shen Lang shook his head and pointed out that it was quite a bit embarrassing.

When he was introduced to the past, he also practiced. At the beginning, he left the cover door. After the training of the supporting Yangshuo palm, it was the complete yin palm. The Yangshuo palm is only a saying, and it is part of the palm of the hand. It is not a system alone.

“You, you...this is impossible!” The man was shocked for the first time, and he did not expect to hear such a statement.

It is a secret to keep the shackles in the palm of your hand. Only the people who cultivated know it, and they will never leak it. This is related to their own loopholes.

Therefore, Shen Lang can recognize the palm of the hand and can break the door of Ye Fan. In his view, it must have been learned from the yin palm. Even if he was not the same person, his master had a lot of connections. Before he figured it, he didn’t do it.

But now I heard this, but it subverted his cognition!

This kid is a bit of a beggar?

Or is it true that they have a complete sulky palm without a cover?

The yin palm is very powerful, and there are very few people. It is not strange to have a part of the loss in the process of circulation. However, there should be such information, and it is impossible for them to know nothing about it.

“I said how to run here, it was a ambush helper!”

A sound sounded up, letting Shen Lang and Ye Fan’s eyes turn together.

A person is approaching from afar, but it is the Mr. Mo Qi who is enshrined by the Yue family!

Shen Lang was speechless Master Ye Fan was waiting for him at the school gate, so he attracted his attention all the way. After eating out, it was also. Mo Qi should be followed up from Huayue. He is keeping a farther distance. He did not notice him behind Master Ye Fan.

Master Ye Fan was slightly frowning. He kept his vigilance throughout the whole process. He discovered that there were still people behind him. He thought it was the accomplices of Shen Lang, and led him to the front and back.

“This is your master?” After Mo Qi approached, he glanced at Master Ye Fan. “That is a natural power, but it is deliberately letting people underestimate. Today I am coming to fight with you!”

He also has self-knowledge. These days, he has been well-trained and carefully analyzed. He felt that he had underestimated the enemy, and if he was fair, he was sure to win. But if this old is the master of Shen Lang, he must have beaten two, so he said that he would fight with Shen Langtang.

“I am not his master.” I found that it was not a helper of Shen Lang. Instead, I was looking for trouble. Master Ye Fan decisively cut the line and retreated several meters.

He is naturally not afraid of Mo Qi, this is to see the shots of Shen Lang with your own eyes!
