

THE FIRST STRONG

Chapter 5 - Impossible goal

“Nothing.” Shen Lang replied casually.

Originally he was going to go back to the classroom, but he thought that even if he didn't help, the rain would have this heart, even if it was because of the squad leader's responsibility, it would be hard to get.

In the past few years, Dong Wenbin, they bullied him, everyone knows. But for fear of getting into trouble, no one dares to help, but the classmates who have a good relationship with him can only curse afterwards, and help him when he is cooking.

“Thank you!”

After a sincere thank you, he entered the school building.

The rain fell and turned around, looking at the back of Shen Lang, slightly frowning, and turned his head and glanced at the playground.

Looking at Shen Lang like this, she is estimated to have been extorted money by Dong Wenbin, and she would not have thought that Dong Wenbin was miserable. But she just shook her head a little, no more blending.

When she walked to the classroom, she heard many people screaming. Stepping into it, I saw Shen Lang standing in front of the podium.

The rain is slightly different, this boy's performance is relatively poor, but in fact people are working hard, not like the tricky students who deliberately stand up and seduce the crowd, what is wrong with today?

When I saw her coming in, everyone was quiet.

Shen Lang looked at it, just nodded to her. Pick up the chalk and write on the blackboard.

“One week: the first twenty; two weeks: the top ten; three weeks, the top three; four weeks: first.”

Looking at the words he wrote, everyone is clamoring for it, there are also sparse applause, whistling, and the table is also...

Obviously, it's not too big to watch the excitement. I feel that Shen Lang has been stimulated and sees this as a joke.

And a few boys who have a good relationship with him, their faces are very embarrassing, and even want to go up and pull him down.

When the rain fell, I immediately understood the noise, and it should be that Shen Lang said this goal.

She did not say anything, and she was completely impossible to achieve this goal. In the three years of high school, everyone's level has been basically determined. According to play and luck, there is a normal floating, but it is generally not biased.

If Shen Lang is not working hard, the last two months of crazy spelling, may have a bright change, but also rushed to the top thirty.

He has already worked very hard, which means that there is a problem with talent.

Now with this goal, there is only one way to achieve it – cheating!

After falling rain, I coughed and interrupted all kinds of spurs.

“Shenlang students have a heart, everyone should learn and encourage.”

Then she looked at Shenlang with helplessness: “If you have progress, you don’t have to be too good.”

Shen Lang glanced at it and went straight to the back seat.

Everyone is watching his jokes, and it’s a very subtle reminder to him. But he didn’t care. He decided to get the results up and he could definitely get it!

It will be publicly announced in this way, in fact, it is deliberately giving everyone a psychological preparation, so as not to let him leaps and bounds so that everyone can doubt him.

“Are you okay?” The river at the same table whispered a question.

Like the question of falling rain, the simple sentence contained a concern, and Shen Lang returned a good-hearted smile, and did not say much.

Obviously familiar with his river, I do not believe that he can achieve the goal, but even a familiar friend, Shen Lang can not explain more to him.

“Rely, you don’t want to attract the attention of a fallen rain before graduation?” Jianghe whispered a few words.

Their two scores are not much different. The river does not love learning, but how hard it was before Shen Lang, he knows better than anyone else. Of course, I think that his unusual behavior has been another intention. When I watched the rain, I followed it and guessed it.

Which boy is not intentionally or unintentionally trying to attract the attention of the rain!

Shen Lang did not say anything, began to look down at the book.

Others have always thought of squatting, boring and hard reviewing life, it is rare to have a little different fun, but seeing Shen Lang has restored the usual hard-working appearance, there is nothing to say.

It's always true that you're working hard, but he's limited in talent and can only wait for the results to give everyone a little more fun.

At the height of high school, throwing away creative inventions, poetry and art, etc., if it is academic achievement, in fact, it has not yet reached the point of talent. It's just that the average person is afraid of hardship, does not like to study, and so on.

The degree of work before Shen Lang, normally, the top ten of the class is no problem. He has always scored a good result in his post, and he is not directly proportional to his efforts. Everyone, including himself, will feel that he is not talented.

In fact, he spent a lot of mental energy on the supply of the former Yuanshen, which caused half the effort. Now, not only does this burden not exist, but also begins to cultivate the "yin and yang wave if it is true", so that his whole person will change greatly, and then there will be more changes, and learning is not a problem at all.

For example, memorizing, I can't remember ten times in the past ten times, but I can't remember it instead of "not remembering." It doesn't need to be back dozens of times now, maybe it will be remembered after a while.

Dong Wenbin did not come in the morning. Everyone was used to their behavior. No one thought much.

In the last lesson, Lin Yun Li Rong returned. They are also sitting behind, always looking at the waves with bad eyes~ ~ This makes the rivers and other students who don't know the inside story, they suspect that Dong Wenbin, they have to bully the waves, maybe they want to grab him. The cost of living is a little anxious.

Shen Lang has not been robbed before, and sometimes it is divided into several parts, such as the river, where the body was robbed, how much can still have rice to eat.

Today's Shen Lang, continually reading and reviewing the book, in the morning, let him master the knowledge points of the previous hard work and learning.

In the class, Lin Yun Li Rong came to the side of Shen Lang and blocked his way.

"Dong Boss wants to see you. If you don't want to alarm your parents, it's best to take a look with us." Lin Yun said with a small voice.

Li Rong was next to him and used his eyes to push others back.

Everyone knows that the two of them are Dong Wenbin's dog legs, and they are afraid that they will be troubled by Dong Wenbin every day.

Everyone was in a hurry to eat, and soon the classroom was empty, leaving Shen Lang and the two of them calmly packed up.

Falling rain is also paying attention to this situation, but she is only a little late to leave, several boys have no hands-on behavior in the classroom, she can not say anything, and she can not always look at the waves.

After the rain fell, Li Rong did not care.

"You are finished! This time you are dead!" said the book on the table of Shen Lang was pushed to the ground, and another shot on the table.

Before Dong Wenbin was beaten, let them vote for the rat, always felt wronged, and later was swear by Dong Wenbin, this time has already thought about cleaning up the waves in the classroom.

Just when his palm was just on the table, Shen Lang's manual, holding a ballpoint pen, was struggling on the back of his hand!
