Chapter 50 - Return to the Yuanjing, Lingshi

“My name is Ye Shiguang.” Ye Fan’s master took the initiative to say the name.

This is a gesture, just like Shen Lang did not deserve to let his master come out, Ye Shiguang also felt that Shen Lang did not deserve to know his name.

It’s not the same now. If the defects of the yin palm can really make up for it, it is undoubtedly very important, even a great thing.

If it is his apprentice, he will break his leg for the sake of selling the secrets of the exercises. But now it is something that wants others, but it is happy to see Shen Lang doing this. As for whether or not the Master will interrupt his leg afterwards, it will not matter him.

“What do you want?” Ye Shiguang asked directly, he must fight the iron and not let Shen Lang have a prudent chance.

“money.....”

“You want money?” Ye Shiguang was very surprised.

Shen Langbaiyan, “Money, and money can buy things, of course I will not ask you. Although I feel that the palm of the hand is normal, but it is also a good practice, it is very important for you, so, It depends on what you deserve to come out.”

Ye Shiguang nodded. If Shen Lang asked for money, he would doubt whether he was a liar.

This thing is really priceless, and it is impossible to buy it. It is understandable to exchange other things that are more suitable for him.

“Three top remedies, you can have three chances to save lives...”

“No need.”

Shen Lang directly refused. He did not believe that Ye Shiguang could get a good remedy in his hand. Perhaps the effect was not as good as his “Baobao Relief Soup”.

Besides, he remembers that there are all kinds of Dan Fang, what you really need, you can do it yourself. This is not what he needs most now.

Shen Lang’s refusal made Ye Shiguang frown and thought about it.

“You shouldn’t want to change other exercises, don’t want remedies, what else do you want? Do you want to change weapons?”

Shen Lang shook his head, not the same as the previous life. In modern society, the general weapon is also a display, and can not be carried with you.

And they can’t have any magic weapon, then what weapons are in his view, that is, broken copper.

Ye Shiguang looked at him deeply and said slowly: “Shen Lang, if you lied to me, I will make you regret it!”

“What is a transaction? It is a win-win situation for each. You can give me something that I am satisfied with, what do I lie to you?” Shen Lang shrugged.

“Well... I will give you a spiritual stone!” Ye Shiguang seemed to have the courage to open the price.

Shen Lang slightly glimpsed: “A Lingshi?”

Ye Shiguang quickly looked around and determined that no one had come over, and this took out one thing and held it in the palm of his hand.

Shen Lang approached the past and recognized it. This is really a spiritual stone!

Although in terms of quality, it can only be regarded as the elementary stone, but it is indeed a spar with a strong aura. This spar is formed in millions of years, and the energy is accumulated by the years and rivers.

Just as Ye Shiguang took it out now, there was only a slight spill, and the harvest was generally undetectable. But when you cultivate, it is a very fast level to absorb the aura.

This thing was limited in his previous life, so it is comparable to hard currency in the realm of comprehension. It can trade a lot of things that can't be bought with money.

It should be said that it is getting less and less. Now that Ye Shiguang can come up with one, it really surprised him.

"It's still too little? You should know the value of this thing!" Ye Shiguang said a little dissatisfied.

Ye Shiguang can come out, indicating that at least the primary Lingshi still has a lot. Will it be related to the current concentration of the Earth's aura? Is it because of the exploitation of a new Lingshi deposit?

Shen Lang pressed the doubts in his heart and smiled lightly: "One is too little, five!"

"You are crazy!" Ye Shiguang directly repudiated.

"This thing is for me, just like ordinary people get gold. One person can use it limited. But what you want is like knowledge, not only you can use it, everyone in your division, sons and grandchildren. Future generations can all benefit. Which is more cost-effective?"

"..." Ye Shiguang was blocked.

He has to admit that if Shen Lang's complete practice, then what Yangshuo palm can complete the problem of the yin palm, the most direct is to get a guarantee of security, and not a person, is all yin You can benefit from the palm of your hand. It's true that it's passed down for generations!

"I can't get five... even the monks who are returning to the Yuan Dynasty may not be able to get it."

“Going to the Yuan?” Shen Lang caught a fresh word.

“On the nine paragraphs of the Extraordinary Warrior, it is the monk who returned to the Yuanjing, and will be called the comprehension... You don’t know?” Ye Shiguang said with a sigh of relief, and then looked at Shen Lang with some doubt.

In his view, Shen Lang is definitely a mysterious and powerful teacher, and naturally it should be clear.

Shen Lang shook his head: “I heard that Ye Fan’s master is a self-cultivator, and he should be a monk who belongs to the Yuanjing, but you...”

Just Ye Shiguang said that even the monks who belonged to the Yuanjing may not be able to figure it out, indicating that he has not yet reached the Yuanjing!

“I can only be regarded as a super-martial warrior in the nine-segment. I am tempted to build a foundation and return to the Yuan Dynasty. I am still one step away...” When Ye Shiguang said this, he was still slightly annoyed.

Not to mention the secular people, that is, in the super-wu people, the nine paragraphs are difficult to reach the top. But he took the step, so that he is only a warrior, and can not be recognized as a monk.

Shen Lang nodded secretly, and his predictions were similar. The self-cultivator now said that he has reached the level of building a foundation. The realm of “guiyuan” is a contemporary statement. Should there be a higher realm?

He didn’t have any more words. Ye Shiguang was only a super-martial warrior in the nine-segment. He didn’t say jealousy, and even the temptation was greatly reduced.

“I am not Ye Fang’s master, I am his uncle.”

When Ye Shiguang said this, looked at Shen Lang with a deep impression. He did not say whether Ye Fan’s master or father was a monk who returned to Yuanjing.

“I don’t think you can do this master. Go back and discuss it! Five Lingshi, this price is not high.”
Shen Lang smiled: “If it is sold to your opponent, I believe that ten Lingshi are willing to buy What?”

Ye Shiguang’s face changed and he could get the secret of their cover. Even if the opponent can’t use it, he will definitely buy it at a high price. They will be more passive.

“You threaten me?”

“I am reminding you that compared with the real strength, the other is nothing, isn’t it?”

Ye Shiguang silently has to admit that everything is based on strength.

After Shen Lang finished, he took out his mobile phone: “Leave a contact method! Go back and discuss it. I will also help you write the exercises. Don’t follow me and investigate, will you find out what?”

He is a mystery, but Ye Shiguang is listening to his heart. If there is a strong teacher, it will definitely not be found, but it may be irritating!
