

First Strong 51

Chapter 51 - Then burst the miracle!

Every week, there is a quiz test. The teacher collects papers from famous schools around the country and is used to expose students to the mock exam.

On weekends, the students make up the class, and the teacher is not idle. They should review the test papers and then score on Monday.

When the results of the last week came out, Shen Lang surprised everyone in the class, but most people still felt that it was an impossible miracle. After Dong Wenbin directly questioned them, they also felt the possibility of cheating. Very big.

Teacher Wang even approved Shen Lang alone. Even if he could not produce evidence, he did not clarify anything. As a result, Shen Lang did not come to class in the afternoon. Dong Wenbin said that they had no face to come to class after being exposed.

When I waited for the exam on Friday, Mr. Wang, as he said, everyone stared at the waves! In addition to greeting other teachers, he himself also monitors the waves from the window from time to time.

This atmosphere does not need to be said, but the students also feel it. At that time, all the exams were taken afterwards, but they were waiting to see the excitement. I wanted to see if this time the Shenlang was closely monitored, and there was still a miracle.

Today, Teacher Wang wants to announce the results. Everyone is not expecting how to do it. What I want to know most is how Shen Lang is doing.

Everyone who has a good grade every time, once a test, everyone will feel that it is playing abnormally; the second time is bad, the last big leap, this time back to very poor, no one will think that the last time is extraordinary It is.

One week: the first twenty;

Two weeks: the top ten;

Three weeks, the top three;

Four weeks: first!

Shen Lang's original goal was turned over and discussed. I entered the top 20 in a week and I did it last week. This week's goal, but to enter the top ten!

Even if it is not cheating, in the case of miracles, the top 20 is possible, but to enter the top ten, it is not an extraordinary play. It is the best person in the class, basically stable. It also changes the order of several names.

Can Shen Lang get into it this time?

When Mr. Wang came to class, everyone intentionally or unconsciously turned their eyes to Shen Lang.

Dong Wenbin, a few of them, is ready for gloating. This time, I don't have to plant it. The teacher has been very strict. They don't believe that Shen Lang can make a miracle again.

There are only two people in the class, one is the rain that has always been indifferent, and the other is Shen Lang who is reading the book with peace of mind.

"Shen Lang, are you sure? Not that buddies are not optimistic about you, the top ten is really too..."

The river has been whispering, he has begun to worry about the aftermath of this defeat for Shen Lang.

"The first ten." Shen Lang casually returned a sentence.

"The top ten? The top ten!"

The river directly eyes, if this is said to fall out, or to stabilize several of the first few students to say it, everyone is not so good, it is really calm, it is the strength of force.

This is said by Shen Langzui, even if it is a good friend, he also feels that it is pretending to be forced... No, it can't be counted, it's just bragging B!

"Last week, our papers were much harder than before. Although everyone's performance is not very good, I can see that the students have worked hard..."

When Teacher Wang said that he encouraged the words, everyone was a little intolerant and wanted to skip this paragraph and announce the results directly. The key is to look at the results of Shen Lang!

"The first classmate is still our drop-off classmate. This time, although the topic is more difficult, but the students are still playing at a high level."

For the ranking of the rain, everyone has no reaction, there is no suspense.

The goal of this wave is the top ten. After the announcement, the suspense will not last for so long.

Quite a few people think that Shen Lang was cheating last time. This time he will return to the original shape; some people think that they can still enter the top 20, which is already a miracle. Only a few people, such as rivers and rivers, hope that Shen Lang can really explode a miracle again, even if it can not enter the top ten, close to the top ten is also a pleasant counter-attack.

Everyone is excited to wait for the results. As long as he has finished the first ten without a wave, it is equal to the result. His specific achievements and rankings are already secondary.

But what everyone didn't think was that after finishing the second place, Teacher Wang paused for a few seconds, and then read the third place in a complicated tone.

"Third place... is a fast-moving class of Shen Lang. This time the test is very difficult, but Shen Lang's classmates are super-level..."

Everyone is waiting for the name of the top ten without the waves, that is, the class of rivers and rivers looking forward to the miracle of the miracle, did not think that it will burst to the third place!

This has just been said, everyone talked about the frying of the nest, and did not care to listen to the words behind Mr. Wang.

“Third place! Shenlang third place? I did not hear it wrong?”

“I am going crazy! How is this possible?”

“How could he be third? Your third place, I believe, he can’t possibly be third!”

“There must be something wrong, I bet he has done this set of papers in advance!”

“You look at the reaction of the old class, and he doesn’t believe that Shen Lang can get this level.”

Dong Wenbin, who was originally prepared to gloat in the dark, was far better than Shen Lang’s own goal and directly let them smash. I don’t think the lines are good enough. I don’t know how black it is.

Classmates are talking about it, and the top ten or so top camps have no effect on them last time. This time is also very calm, do not believe that it can hit the top ten, the result is very ugly at this moment.

From the last 19, Shen Lang has skyrocketed more than a dozen. He crossed the top ten goal and directly entered the top three. This is equal to the other ten people in the top ten. Even if they play normally, the rankings must be moved backwards. .

It’s not a big move to move one, the key is too much!

A sling student can miraculously rush into the middle or even the middle and upper reaches, nothing. Now they have stepped on the top students of these upstream, and they have become top-notch ones, so what makes them so embarrassed!

Their faces are ugly, but for the sake of grace, the abdomen is also endless to say that they are at the same table, and their friends are holding them up.

This time is the rain, and I was surprised to see Shen Lang.

Under the hot discussion, Mr. Wang simply did not read the results of the latter, but said loudly to Shen Lang.

“Shen Lang students, you have made two rapid progress, there must be some secrets! Please come to the stage to share with the students, so that everyone can get better results.”

In fact, after the statistics were published, Teacher Wang was very entangled. This is the third in the whole class, and it is really able to pull the average score by one person.

But this “miracle” is too unscientific. He can’t believe that this is true, including other teachers.

This time they prepared enough to supervise Shen Lang, but did not find any cheating!

There is no evidence, no clues, and it’s uncomfortable to be stunned. This is already depressing. Shen Lang has no good attitude towards him. How can he be happy?

Now I invite you to come to power. It seems to be a party. In fact, there is also the meaning that Shen Lang explained to everyone.
