

First Strong 541

Chapter 541 - she is not here

The voice is very familiar, it is the ice palace of the ice palace.

Shen Lang was not hidden, and it was so close, naturally she was aware of it.

As her voice came, people followed and flew out, outside the magical array of the valley.

With the strength of Shen Lang and Desolation, the ordinary Ice Palace disciples are not able to sense. It was also very clear that the people who came to the boat were very strong, and did not arrange for someone to come over. She came out personally.

“I haven’t seen it for more than half a year. Has the palace owner always been good?”

Shen Lang smiled and said hello, took a step directly, and came to her.

Desolation naturally follows, but keep a little distance, not to his side.

“I thought it was a thief. It turned out that you are a master of Shen Lang!”

The boat was not salty and not light, and there was a saying: “Is there a far-reaching welcome! I don’t know what to do?”

Shen Lang smiled and said: “What do you say? Of course not to come to you!”

He came for the rain, and the boat was naturally known, and he asked the words deliberately.

But this kid said so directly that she was not looking for her, or let her glance at a bit uncomfortable, and then took a look at the bleak behind.

“Shen Master is famous in the world, even the League of Masters has been sweeping and looting. I am a small family in the ice palace. It is really a panic. I don’t know what you want.”

“...”

Shen Lang is a bit speechless, even if everyone's relationship is not so familiar, I have seen it several times, and it is a friendly side. As for the sarcasm!

“Okay, no kidding, I am looking for the rain.”

“She...” The boat was slightly hesitant.

“I know, you are telling me that she is retreating. Then I will talk to the seniors of the river, I believe she is willing to see me.”

Shen Lang has this self-confidence. Luohe is their master and their aunt's grandmother. The last time they met, they were very friendly.

Not to mention the gift from the two waves of falling snow to the two snow spirits, will not refuse him.

And his intentions this time, I believe that the river will also be in favor. After all, how can she love her, and she can't empty her family to pile up the rain.

Taking a risk with Shen Lang is a good opportunity.

The boat was shaken and shook his head. “Not at the retreat. She is not in the ice palace!”

Shen Lang was a little surprised, staring at her carefully and looking to see if she was deliberate.

However, in the eyes of the canoe, I did not see any meaning of the whole, completely serious attitude.

The light canoe looked a bit complicated and looked at Shen Lang.

“You have a big trouble in Qingchuan, let her know and worry about it. Once I wanted to go to Tianshan Jianzong to find you... There is no signal here, I can't understand the latest movement, so she went out.”

Silence is silent.

Falling rain will be like this, he believes, because when he was fighting in Yunzhou and Chu family, she was at home, after knowing it, he did not hesitate to use the flying magic weapon to rush to Yunzhou!

Now that her strength is stronger, and his enemies are stronger, it is normal to want to keep up with the information.

“Haha, kidding. Of course not for you!”

The canoe suddenly laughed, and then continued: “The rain is the ice palace, go to Haishan City, and participate in the five-year exchange conference.”

“Comprehensive exchange meeting?”

Shen Lang has no concept at all for this.

In the five-year period, when he stepped into the realm of comprehension, he was encountering a middle year, and no one would discuss this aspect.

Although there was an exchange conference this year, Tianshan Jianzong has been in the Western Region and rarely participated in such activities. Yan Zun naturally did not discuss with him.

Seeing that he was completely puzzled, he was helpless and could only introduce him briefly.

There are also various kinds of events in the realm of comprehension. The scope of influence varies from one class to another.

Like the Chaowu Heroes Association held in Pingxi in the past, it is a relatively low level. For the conferences that select and cultivate true talents, it is the extraordinary warriors.

It is also because of its low level that many families and sects can exert influence.

The trade fairs such as Tangyuan tend to circulate various resources. They are not available every year, and they can be added from time to time.

Nowadays, the convention of exchange of truths that the canoe said is a very high-profile event.

Because this is not a simple meeting of young disciples exchanged by various sects, but a grand meeting of exchanges between the East and the West!

In five years, some young people can grow up and they can change a group of rookies.

In the face of exchange events around the world, it is also possible to promote the incentives for regionalism.

For example, the most general division of the East-West camp, and then to the different countries and regions, or because of the national, faith and culture and other traditional friendship alliance countries camp.

The world has already entered the information age of the global village. If you want to communicate, you have already been close to the world.

However, the problem of comprehension is related to resources. Although it has not yet reached the point where resources are exhausted and you are dead, the competition is far better than the secular.

Therefore, the view of the portal is also comparable to the secret between countries.

Usually, everyone does not communicate. The foreign inquiries are strictly confidential and far from being as transparent as sports. This five-year exchange meeting is an opportunity to explore each other.

At the exchange meeting, of course, no one will completely break out the family, just want to test the details of the other side, but they have to compete for their own face.

So from the beginning, a constraint was made, and the age limit is thirty years old!

It is not that the self-cultivators and superpowers who are over 30 years old cannot communicate, but are forum-style or private theoretical exchanges. They really look at their respective attitudes.

Communication under the age of 30, speaking straightforward, is the competition!

Through the competitive way, the strength of young monks can be demonstrated, and each other can try to figure out the situation of others over the years.

To be a young master includes both my talent, including the guidance of famous teachers, and the amount of resources.

Just like the secular sports competition, in most cases, it is still a peaceful struggle for big countries. Except for some countries that are not peaceful or special, athletes are hard to make a living in order to change their family life.

Behind every champion is millions or even tens of millions of funds to support, venues, equipment, research needs money, coaches, medical, nutrition, sparring and other teams need money.

The same is true in the realm of comprehension. Just like Shen Lang, who has mastered the best experience of the best exercises, he does not have a lot of resources and can't go to the present.

Zheng Yumeng's talent is unique, and he has not grown much in the past ten years, and even died at the age of twenty. Shen Lang gave all-round support such as exercises, resources, etc., in order to rocket-like soaring.

Through the contest of young people, it is also possible to calculate the power behind it, and then calculate whether the overall strength change behind it is rising or falling.

And of course, this also affects the right to speak around the world!

Chapter 542 - Palace master

The right to speak is a general concept. In popular terms, it is the division of the site.

For example, in the small place in Pingxi, Yeja, Daxuanmen, Linghequan and so on, they took control of the entire site.

Their right to speak is embodied in the Pingxi comprehension resources of the Tomb of the King, and the Yue family who lost the right to speak can only make up for the financial power in the secular, in order to make up for it and gain a certain right to speak.

Similarly, the Chu family is the same in Yunzhou and Xieja in Tiandong.

That is their territory, where they have absolute right to speak.

Other forces want to take a share, and we must measure it. But if the external forces are strong enough, there is no way to be involved. – For example, the Chu family intervened in Pingxi.

When it comes to the East and West countries, it is no longer just a single martial art family, but also has a regional sense of community.

For example, our comprehensions want to go to a certain country in the West to grab resources. It is necessary to look at the strength of the superpowers in that country. It is only one or two, and it is useless. Other powerful ones will unite to drive away.

Above the exchange conference, it is time to show the strength of each country through young people.

If a small country is rich in Lingshi or other comprehension resources, and there is no strong power to protect it, it will naturally be plundered by the superpowers of other countries.

Under this circumstance, it will increasingly affect the pattern of power in various countries.

Therefore, for this exchange of truth exchanges, all countries attach great importance to it, and the representatives sent by them are basically the best geniuses at the same time.

The canoe was explained by a long story, but Shen Lang completely understood the story behind it.

Dig the ground, divide the pork!

Most people may want to maintain a balance, but if they are more powerful, they will want to have the opportunity to get more resources in foreign countries.

“Because it is a young monk under the age of 30, according to the regulations. So...”

The canoe paused for a moment, then sighed: “You were very hopeful to be a seed player, but you are too unruly, and now it is more irritating. No one dares to recommend you, afraid of getting out of control!”

Shen Lang snorted: “I am a representative? I still want to see if I have the mood to go!”

“If you can shine on the exchange meeting, it is the world’s face, the real name is everywhere, the world is famous. And there will be rich rewards...”

The canoe couldn’t be said. Shen Lang said that there were one or two thousand medium-spirited stones, and there were many inner dans. They also looted the master league.

I don’t know how many resources I have, but will I still see the reward?

“Let the rain go as a representative, you have not gone? Is it that you have no confidence in strength, or is it more than thirty years old?”

Shen Lang asked questions.

The canoe was not so angry, he gave him a look.

“What time is it for me? I am the owner of the Ice Palace contemporary palace. The next game is to bully the foreign devils!”

Shen Lang smiled and did not raise her with her.

She should be less than 30 years old, and she can be considered a genius.

I haven't been concerned about the heroic list before. On the one hand, because the Ice Palace is very mysterious, most people don't know much. On the other hand, women may have concerns about their age, so others don't know how many years she is.

When Shen Lang saw her last time, she still had to guess her strength and whether she had survived. Now it is clearly distinguishable, she is the level of the initial state of existence.

At her age, it was a very good one. Those who are like Chu Mofeng, Xie Dao Ling, and Yan Zun are all at the beginning of their lives.

But people are more popular than people, she has a more talented cousin falling rain!

Falling rain is also an unmatched growth rate, to the same age, or in recent years, she is probably second only to Shen Lang and Zheng Yumeng.

On the gift of talent, the two of them are wizards. Shen Lang is far from being able to compare with them. It relies on the arrogance of experience, exercises and massive resources.

“So...she is in the seamounts now? Are the seniors in the river?”

Since the rain is not there, Shen Lang will not enter the ice palace.

The canoe nodded and said: “They all go first, I am the palace owner, there are still some things to deal with...”

Having said that, she paused and then sent an invitation.

“You... if you are not familiar, you can go with me.”

“No, I am not going with you.” Shen Lang shook his head directly.

The face of the canoe was immediately ugly.

Not to mention the face of her imperial palace, as a woman, it is quite embarrassing to be rejected.

“Then please!”

Her tone was cold, and the waves were slightly strange, and then she immediately woke up.

“Don’t misunderstand, I don’t go with you. It’s because I am now provoking the Master League. What kind of lord they may attack me at any time. If you walk with me, it will make you dangerous.”

Upon hearing this explanation, the face of the canoe was only looked good.

“It doesn’t matter. Last time I was in Tiandong, I couldn’t help you anything. Instead, I got stuck in it. It was even if you were tired. It would be a bit of a slap in the Master League.”

She is so kind, so Shen Lang is a little embarrassed to refuse.

“Well, then I will go with you. I am now the chief elder of the Tianshan Jianzong, and I will not lose your face of the palace with you!”

Shen Lang said with a joke.

But this has made the canoe unsuccessful.

Last year, this kid was just a seriously injured monk who had been seriously injured, playing tricks from her hands, or relying on conspiracy and magic.

At that time, she was killed, and she could not think that Shen Lang would grow to the present level in less than a year.

Tang Banshan, who has survived the peak of the realm, was killed by him. Even if he had no identity background, he would be more prominent than her.

“thank you.”

“Well? Why do you say that?”

Shen Lang heard her suddenly thank you, a bit inexplicable.

“How did you get to today I won’t ask more, and there must be your adventures. The general strength of the people will skyrocket and the mentality will be unbalanced. The most common is the upstart’s face, not everything.”

“But you don’t. Although the beauty around you is constant, but the little sister is still as usual. You give her a gift to Xue Lingguo, and it is also very helpful to her. I thank you on her behalf, and also represent the ice palace and the family. thank you!”

Frankly speaking, if there is no trace of embarrassment to this cousin, it is a fake. But as the palace owner, she has a big picture. The more the rain falls, the more the ice palace and the family will benefit.

Although her own limelight was suppressed, it did help her.

“You’re welcome.” Shen Lang smiled.

Last time, he was sincerely dedicated to the Ice Palace as part of the resources brought back by the death forest. It was a reward for receiving shelter. I didn’t expect to be in a hurry and scam him to all.

Although the matter has passed, the impression is that it will not change. He now has far more resources than the original, but he is willing to help the individual and will not give gifts to the Ice Palace.

Chapter 543 - About Haishan

Since the rain is not there, Shen Lang did not enter the ice palace, or waited for the canoe in the nearby hills.

These days are desolate identities, in order to prepare for the battle at all times, and to stabilize the realm of the late real world.

I am thinking about it now, and I don't need to fight for the time being. While waiting outside, the desolation and active switch to Zheng Yumeng.

Originally, she was the strongest of her gods. She can switch at will, and it will be powerful later. Zheng Yumeng can also, and both of them can switch freely.

Zheng Yumeng, who suddenly woke up, found that he was on the iceberg and could not help but breathe a sigh of relief.

“What is the situation?” She quickly looked around and asked quickly.

When Shen Lang heard it, he knew that Fuliang had not discussed with him and switched back to Zheng Yumeng.

“This is in the Tianshan...”

Shen Lang probably said something about her after the switch that night, let her have an understanding.

Zheng Yumeng listened and exclaimed. He did not expect that Shen Lang actually killed the Tang Banshan, and did not expect that the desolation would help her break through the real situation.

“You two... you should try more communication and see if you can share what you remember, so you don't need to repeat it again.”

This point is also said to have been with the bleak.

“Is it annoying?” Zheng Yumeng smiled and pulled his arm: “You usually have no chance to tell me a lot.”

Shen Lang gave a blank look: “Now is this time, what kind of situation did you last time?”

Last time she switched to the bleak during the battle, if it was not bleak, the experience was quickly and well controlled, and it was not a problem.

She thinks this is also the reason, and it is not clear who is the enemy who is his own person.

“Well, we will try. But...”

Zheng Yumeng got closer to his ear and said softly: “Do you want to share the memories of our two?”

“...”

Shen Lang is a little sweaty, only to remind one: “The Ice Palace is mainly out, you pay attention to it, don’t let people feel like a change.”

“What happened then.”

The canoe was not so fast, but it was not good for them to wait for a long time. Then they went back and made relevant arrangements immediately.

When she came out, she was alone.

“Let’s go! Time is still abundant, don’t worry.”

After that, she chose to fly gliding between the mountains.

Shen Langben didn’t want to waste time, but she said that there was plenty of time, and she left it first, and she followed Yang Yumeng with a leap.

So naturally it is slower than the flying magic weapon, but in the snowy mountains of Tianshan, you don’t need to be scrupulous to be seen by ordinary people, you can fly and enjoy it, but it also tastes quite good.

All the way to the east, there is a need for accommodation and transportation on the road, they are responsible for the boat.

The Ice Palace actually has no disciples and forces in the world, but she still settles.

Shen Lang did not politely with her, but when staying, it was not good to have a room with Zheng Yumeng.

For Zheng Yumeng's identity, he never asked a question about the boat, nor did he ask Shen Lang to chase her cousin and have other female companions.

At the time of Qiangjialing, not only Zheng Yumeng, but also Dorothy, are all open to Shenlang. Before in Qingchuan Tangyuan, this is also an anecdote.

I can guess if I want to come to her. I know that when I ask, I am embarrassed.

After leaving the unmanned snowfield, the phone has information. Shen Lang also learned the latest status of the Master League through the message of Feng Wuji.

On the other side of Qingchuan Tangyuan, there were agents who were responsible for the reconstruction of the aftermath. They were very low-key and did not make any public declarations, nor did they provoke anything.

The ally, there is still no news, everyone feels that this is the key to the low-key of the Master League headquarters.

After such a situation, in addition to the masters of the Department, other monks who have joined the Masters League are relatively indifferent and did not participate.

After all, many of them just hang a name, and they have not gained much benefit, and it is impossible to sell for the Master League.

Qiao Shuyu also mentioned the matter of the exchange of truth, saying that he would go on behalf of Qiao's family and ask about their three agreed things. Will there be any changes in the time?

Before Shen Lang refused the proposal to hide in the dead forest in advance, but it would not be hidden in thousands of miles.

Therefore, he directly said that not only will he go to the death forest as scheduled, but he will also go to the sea-mountain exchange meeting!

Before Shen Lang stayed in Tianshan Jianzong, Qiao Shuyu was completely understandable.

The size of the Tianshan Mountains is so large that it is very difficult to find out which one to hide. Even if you stay in the Tianshan Jianzong, you can have the advantage of geographical advantage.

But he is not only coming out, but also going to the most popular monk exchange meeting in the near future. Isn't this asking for trouble?

However, it is only a little speechless. For the daring of Shen Lang, he has already seen it, so he meets in Haishan to discuss in detail.

Before the boat arrived in Haishan, the hotel has been arranged.

Shen Lang and her come together, of course, also arranged by her.

Haishan is a coastal city with no airport and needs to travel by car.

The rehearsal exchange meeting was held at the Golden Dragon Bay Beach Resort. The specific issue was that a martial art in Haishan was responsible for the cooperation.

The resort has long been packaged, and during the conference, it will not be accessible to ordinary tourists. It is the service staff, they are also on holiday, replacing their reliable people.

In addition, some monks came over in advance and jointly put together a cover to cover the entire resort. In order to avoid any big movements here, it will be monitored by the relevant departments, and it is not expected to be discovered by others nearby.

The resort can be responsible for reception, but if you don't want to live with the rest of the resort, you can also arrange your own hotel, which depends on your personal preferences.

The hotel that is arranged in the canoe is in the city. Their ice palace dislikes and other martial art families are hustle and bustle, as far as possible to avoid.

The realm of comprehension is generally in places where there is no smoke, such as Biyun Peak in Yunzhou. Therefore, when you live, you can avoid being with others in the busy city.

After entering Haishan, Shenlang can feel a lot of monks gathered. There are some other monks in the hotel where they stayed. Everyone is not bothered and they are wary of each other.

After check-in, the canoe said that the rain and the river were not in the hotel. They started first, but did not arrive here first.

Shen Lang did not care. There was no need to lie to him in the raft. He was not in a hurry to see the rain soon.

Joe Shuyu also arrived, asking about where Shen Lang stayed, or letting Shen Lang go to his hotel.

Shen Lang hesitated, but told his hotel that he lived, waiting for Joe Shuyu to visit.

He came over this trip, in addition to the canoe, there is also the wind and no Ji and Joe Shu Yu said, before the official appearance, it is actually a low-key.

However, Joe Gongzi can't be low-key. The place where he lives is inevitably the best hotel in Haishan. There will be many sects to stay, and there will be many people who will pay attention to him. Going to him is also easier to spread out.

Chapter 544 - Get back

The hotel chosen by the canoe is of course one of the best in the area. And these monks who can come here to participate in the exchange meeting, there are not a few who will lose money.

In addition to some of the practice of perseverance, do not care about the outside of the enjoyment, generally try to arrange well.

After they have arranged it, it is already dinner time.

Everyone also discussed, not going out to find local specialties, just dine at the hotel's restaurant.

When they settled down, there were no private rooms, and there were many people dining in the restaurant.

At a glance, Shen Lang discovered that most of the guests dining were monks and some were foreigners.

The combination of the three of them came in, which attracted the attention of the monks.

In such an environment, in addition to the familiar partners, the other monks are cautious.

The three of them were not ordinary people at first glance, especially in the canoe. When they came out, they put on a veil, which was even more special.

When they ordered a meal, some people ridiculed each other, young people, middle-aged people.

“That kid is not too light, actually with two beautiful women.”

“How do you know that there are two beautiful women? That wearing a veil, maybe it is to cover the ugly?”

“Isn't it? It's very good to look at the figure, and the veil should be a mysterious pretend.”

“Would you like to take a look at it in the past?”

“Hey, why don't you go?”

The proportion of beauty in the realm of cultivation is still relatively high. The change of physical temperament in cultivation will affect the appearance. Some of them can directly correct the appearance through the exercises.

And like the big family, they have more choices, and the choice of wives will not find ugly, and the genes will not be bad from generation to generation.

But in addition to the proportional problem, there is a more important cardinal problem!

The number of comprehensions is far from being comparable to the secular population, and the chances of encountering beautiful women are small. Just as the chances of encountering a beautiful woman in a big city are much larger, in addition to being more fashionable and dressing up, the population base will also cause this feeling.

Therefore, it cannot be said that these monks are so inferior. They actually see a lot of beautiful women, and even play more, but there are not many women who are also the self-cultivators.

And they will make their jokes unscrupulous, naturally because of the age of Shen Lang.

Without seeing the strength of Shen Lang, they don't know people. The instinct thinks that this is the descendant of which school, and there is nothing to worry about.

With Shen Lang's current limelight, it's true that no one should know him.

But after all, it is not a star in the world. Stars are trying to "exposure" through all means, appearing in front of you as much as possible, letting you know them.

Comprehensions are different, and they are less fanciful. Although there are many limes in Shen Lang, there are only a handful of public appearances.

It is also open in Biyunfeng, Qiangjialing, Tianshan Jianzong and the recent Tangyuan. Others are small-scale.

At that time, Biyunfeng was mainly young people who went to the onlookers. The overall level was not high. The following levels were a lot higher. But no matter which time, I used a mobile phone to shoot at him.

Because this is rude, in addition to the public figures such as the stars who eat, in the secular daily, you are stealing from someone who doesn't know you, and others have to cut you.

What's more, Shen Lang is the name that has been killed all the way. Young people are afraid of him. They are not interested in this age.

Therefore, only people who have seen him on the spot can recognize it, and there are not many photos flowing out.

This time, the conference of comprehension exchanges is not only the country but also all over the world. There are a lot of people who don't know Shen Lang, and it's not unusual.

Of course, I have seen Shen Lang on the scene. I am surprised that he dares to come here. For those who are not open-eyed and are not familiar with themselves, naturally no one will remind them.

They only saw Shen Lang in public, Shen Lang did not know them, and had not yet reached the level of greetings.

The canoe fell slightly, but did not say anything, speed up the order.

Zheng Yumeng didn't care about anything. Her current realm is also high. For some people, it is overlooked. If there is anything uncomfortable, just repair them directly, and never think about it.

Those who are ridiculous are just a little bit of a wretched mind, and self-identification will not really bother.

But there is a foreigner who understands their whispers and then someone reveals disdain.

“It's all incompetent people!”

After a foreigner said it, after raising his eyebrows to give a few others a look, he stood up directly.

After they accelerated the speed and ordered the dishes, the waiter left, and the foreigner went straight.

The sarcasm of the foreigners has already been heard. It was a bit embarrassing, and I felt that I was thrown into a foreigner.

However, it is a bit embarrassing to see that this foreigner has to go through the past. Whether it is successful or not, this behavior is a provocation against them.

Everyone paid attention to it for a while, but they were all concerned, and no one came to stop it.

After all, other people have not done anything yet, there is no reason to block, and if the hero saves the beauty, it is also necessary to wait until the beauty is in danger, so that people can be moved.

“Hey! Two beautiful ladies, you are so beautiful, my friends want to know you guys...”

The foreigner showed a smile, and looked up with enthusiasm, directly ignoring the nearby waves.

“Of course, I know it’s very impolite and impolite. So I also said them, but can I take a photo with you on behalf of everyone?”

He shrugged, a very real look.

“Many of us are very rare to come here. I heard that your country is very warm and hospitable. It is really a group photo.”

Said that he has taken out the phone.

“Sorry. Inconvenient!” The light boat faintly responded, she still kept a general attitude, not showing disgust.

“Just take a photo.” He opened the phone smiled and said: “Look, I have a photo with many girls here, they are all very enthusiastic girls.”

Zheng Yumeng, who grew up overseas, is showing an unpleasant color. This is not a slap, it is harassment!

There are some chaotic neighborhoods abroad, and some ethnic men will be harassed by girls who pass by alone in the streets. They are teased and teased by them, but in reality, various situations may occur.

“Roll. Not only from here, it is best to roll back to you.”

She has a normal tone, but when she says it, she is directly swearing.

The foreigner, for the first time, encountered such a situation.

Generally speaking, for ordinary people, the identity of his foreigner can make people enthusiasm. Even if there are some excessive demands, they will endure reluctance to agree, and they have never directly refused.

“You insult me so much, do you think you are a superpower? Look at how many people we have!”
He showed a hint of mockery.

Chapter 545 - Kneeling down

I heard that they were many people, and the monks on the scene were not happy.

Paralyzed! Not to mention the few of you, even if you count the other foreigners in the restaurant, it is only a small part, most of them are our own people!

If you have a lot of people, this is our home!

However, the abdomen was returned to the abdomen, and no one stood up to fight. It's just that by gloating, it's turned into an expectation – if you really get started, then they have a chance to save the beauty.

Zheng Yumeng looked at the direction he came over and couldn't help but sneer.

“You should apologize to me. Your behavior has seriously hurt our feelings. If you don't apologize, I will never give up on this matter. Our friends will not give up!”

Originally, he was not really trying to slap beautiful monks, but he wanted to ridicule the mouths of those people before.

But now Zheng Yumeng told him to roll, arousing his unhappiness, but also to be a rogue.

“I can give you another chance to have a drink with us tonight. This can be considered.”

“I can also give you another chance to roll back with your pig friend!”

Zheng Yumeng is not polite.

Not to mention that their voices did not converge, that is, the voice was depressed, and all the monks could hear it clearly.

I heard a female repairer able to bounce the foreigner so hard, so that the monks on the scene were all applauded, and some applause gently.

Although the restaurant has not become noisy, the atmosphere has become apparent.

The male monks who were ridiculed by the two beautiful monks were even more excited, not only beautiful, but also personality!

However, I am interested in having an interest. If you look at this personality, you can't get it. Fortunately, they are looking for fun, and did not really want to hook up.

“Sister is good, brother is quite you! They dare to be rude to you, I cut them directly!” Someone called directly.

“I said, if you can't cut them, let's say, but you call yourself a brother, don't you want to face?”

“That is, you must be at least an uncle?”

His friends also ridiculed, and the atmosphere of the restaurant became even more joyful.

The foreigner did not become embarrassed, but fell to his face. When everyone was joking, several of his colleagues at the same table stood up with a calm face.

“I am very good at speaking, but you shouldn’t marry my friend. Don’t think that we can’t understand what it means, now it’s not a drink!”

Shen Lang has never had an opening, just want to give Zheng Yumeng a chance to exercise.

Zheng Yumeng needs more experience, this is not just a battle, including various scenes. Her strength has gone up, and her mentality has to go up. I can’t wait for a few small ones to come in person.

After all, to stay with him is the eagle that can follow the wind and waves to soar the sky, but it is not a nice and beautiful canary.

However, this foreigner continues to be forced, step by step, if he does not say anything, everyone must conceal that he is not a man.

“Let you have been so noisy for so long, you have already given the face of your foreign guests, and now give me a sigh.”

When Shen Lang opened his mouth, most of the people on the scene wondered if he had got it wrong.

Your majesty? We all know that our Majesty is a great humiliation.

Foreigners do not have this custom, and it is even less likely to accept such conditions.

Besides, you said that you are embarrassed? Do you think you are old...

As a result, they haven’t finished talking in their hearts, and they saw a scene that made them again suspect that their eyes were wrong!

The foreigner, actually did not say anything, directly to the table next to them!

This scene made everyone become dignified immediately after the horror.

This provocative foreigner is unlikely to be obedient. Now, there is only one possibility – forced!

Can not reveal the traces so that a monk is forced to kneel without rebellion, only strong enough to do it, or else it is useless to force a gun.

His accomplices have just stood up and solidarity.

I didn't expect them to stand up and did not play any role. Instead, they went down in one sentence and made them unbelievable.

“what happened to you?”

“Get up! Are you really stunned?”

They quickly came over and pulled the man up, and there was no swearing swear.

But to their surprise, that person is not only unable to respond, but also completely unable to move.

Shen Lang shook his head slightly: “You guys are also squatting down.”

This time they are all prepared, but with the sound of Shen Lang just falling, or “buy” one, almost at the same time came down!

The monks on the scene were shocked.

Just one may also say something secret, and the attack is successful. But now there are several people, and they are forced to kneel without revealing the traces. This means is really high!

They can do it for ordinary people, but now people are treating their self-cultivators as ordinary people!

The few people who recognize Shenlang early are secretly scornful. What is this? A woman who dares to sway the waves, isn't she looking for death?

I don't know how Tang Banshan died?

However, they did not come out to help Shen Lang to speak. Of course, this will not be broken. It is only this gossip that will definitely be uploaded.

The waiters at the restaurant were stunned and unbelievable. They are also far from watching the excitement, involving foreigners, and there is no conflict to start, nor dare to come to the round.

I didn't expect the young man to let them kneel down and they would really obey!

“what happened?”

At this time, a majestic voice came over, and then a tall figure had already arrived in the restaurant, and it was not far from the table at Shenlang.

“What are you doing?”

This is also a foreigner. It seems to be fifty or sixty years old, with a big beard and obvious strength and status.

However, in the face of his inquiry, those people were suffering and could not speak at all!

The bearded patrol went over again, and immediately the eyes fell on the people of Shen Lang. The situation at the scene was clear at a glance Mr. Edmund, this person! Use evil methods to force us to kneel down! ”

At the beginning of the foreigner, I found that I could speak and quickly complained.

The bearded Edmund was staring at the sinking waves and did not return to him, but said to Shen Lang.

“No matter why you do this, just put them away, in the same way – kneel to apologize to them. Otherwise you will regret coming to this world!”

Hearing this, many monks on the scene stood up and created the same mind.

Before the foreigner, it was just to let the sisters accompany them to drink, or to confess. But the last sentence of Edmund is to threaten to kill people.

Threatening murder on our site, which monk can bear it?

“What happened?” There was a voice that rang from the doorway.

Chapter 546 - Rolling is really rolling

This voice is also very majestic, and the pronunciation is very standard, it can be heard that it is not a foreigner.

Everyone’s eyes have looked over and want to see who is going to blend directly.

As everyone saw, a person walked in calmly.

This person is not too old, it seems that it is only about 30, but he is famous for a long time, but also a birthable giant, so that most of the domestic monks on the scene recognize him.

Joe Shue, the son of Joe’s family in Beihai.

Have a lively look!

Everyone has the same mind and wants to see what Joe will do. Although Qiao’s family can’t represent the realm of comprehension, the status is there, and everyone is convinced.

When you encounter such a thing, will you reprimand the 50 boards, or do you have a big deal?

Or is Joe Gongzi like some people, is it to protect the domestic image of the foreign guests?

But before I was in Tangyuan, I laughed.

The bearded Edmund, who just threatened Shen Yao's apology, saw Joe's beaming over and revealed a helpless smile.

"Mr. Joe, a little thing, young people in your country are less polite. I am teaching him how to be a man."

After he finished, he glanced at a few people who were lying on the ground and whispered: "Not yet?"

A few people on the ground showed a painful and helpless expression.

Including the one who just said a word, but now it is impossible to say it.

"Look at you! It's not that I have a bad temper, they are too much!"

Edmund was forced to helplessly, and then angered Shen Lang: "I give Mr. Joe face, you apologize now, I can not pursue you!"

Qiao Shuyu is of course looking for Shen Lang, and the result is that Edmond is outside.

When Edmund saw him and knew his identity, he was enthusiastic. As a result, he found the movement inside, let him catch up.

Now the situation here is very obvious. Whether or not they are in trouble, they are forced to kneel on the ground. After all, they are the victim. He believes that Joe Shuyu will also have his face.

Shen Lang has not spoken yet, and Qiao Shuyu has already spoken.

"Mr. Edmund, if you apologize now, maybe he will give me a face and not pursue you."

"Yeah, apologize now... wait! What are you talking about? Are you letting me apologize?"

Edmund had thought that Joe Shuyu was in favor of his proposal. When the reaction was not right, he couldn't get around for a while, so he let him apologize!

"Not bad."

Joe Shuyu nodded seriously.

"Why? Why? You see, our people are victims! I came to preside over justice, you actually let me apologize to him? Still squat?"

Not to mention that Edmund, as well as other foreigners on the scene, are the majority of other monks, and did not expect it to be this variable.

Why did Joe Jozi of Qiaojia in Beihai make such a decision?

Even if you protect your compatriots, is this too exaggerated?

Edmund is a little crazy, really can't understand where he offended Joe Shuyu, just warmly greeted, invited him to eat, even if rejected, is also polite.

"I don't know the cause, but when they come to the table of others, it is definitely your people who are in trouble. Just let them kneel down, it is already very light punishment."

"..."

"You make people apologize, that is, to protect your people, but also to threaten others. This is your fault, so it is you who really should apologize!"

"..."

Joe Shu Yu's words made Edmund's jaw stunned and didn't know how to respond.

Although other people find it unbelievable, they also feel that it makes sense. Joe's son protects his compatriots, and it is justified!

Some people applauded and patted Joe's flattering.

"I..." Edmund was obviously not convinced, but did not want to offend Joe Ue.

"I will give you face! Don't make any appeal..."

He said that as soon as he raised his hand, he asked them to get up a few times.

They were forced to slam the bombs. Naturally, they were not evil laws, but they were suppressed by more powerful forces. His current hand is actually the strength of the suppression of Shen Lang.

As long as the power of Shen Lang was opened and several of them were rescued, they returned to a city. Even if there is no justice, it can be said to give the North Sea Joe home face.

The reputation of spreading their faces will not be affected, but the Qiao family will appear to be overbearing.

However, he deliberately shot, but not only did not rescue them a few, but felt a powerful force, directly to him shrouded!

Edmund was shocked. He thought he was only a little stronger than a few of them. He could still hold it. He didn't expect him to fight.

He has just been indirect competition, and now he is directly directed at him, so that he has to resist with all his strength, but unfortunately can last for less than a second!

With a splash, Edmund also collapsed.

"All said that you will apologize, or give Joe son a face, you still don't know how to lift." Shen Lang shook his head. "Apologize!"

Edmund felt that the whole body was under the control of the suppression, and immediately felt the feelings of several other people. It was not until Shen Lang made him apologize that he felt that he could speak.

“you you.....”

His eyes looked complicated and he looked at Qiao Yu’s eyes and couldn’t help but secretly groan.

It seems that Joe Gongzi knows the details of the other party, but he has not reminded him. If the voice tells him that this is an A+ level superpower, why should he fall to the present level?

“Don’t apologize?” Shen Lang looked down at him.

Edmund is now very clear that offending such a strong person can only apologize. Otherwise, even if the other party does not kill them here, they will not be able to leave the seamount.

“Sorry, I am wrong. I should not offend you for their chaos...”

Reluctant to say this, Edmund lowered his head.

The other faces were very ugly, and I was counting on Edmund to move back and avenge them. I didn’t expect the other party to say a word. Edmund, the A-class superman who is much stronger than them, has to win!

“How did you start?”

Shen Lang looked at the person who came first, the pressure of that person was so great that he couldn’t speak out let you roll! Let your garbage get out! ”

With a wave of hands, the few people they were kneeling immediately fell to the ground, then began to roll and rolled out in the direction of the door!

Seeing here, the comprehensions on the scene all took a breath.

It turned out to be a powerful young master!

Before the words were ridiculed, they were all scared. Fortunately, they did not come forward to talk, or else they are now “rolling out” in public.

They are still very nervous, for fear that Shen Lang will find them trouble.

“Shen Laodi, can I be together? Will it be offended?” Qiao Shuyu came to see Shen Lang, did not bring anyone else, and now there are two women, and immediately asked for advice.

I heard that Joe’s attitude is talking to Shen Lang. Those who are just nervous are even cold and sweaty...

Chapter 547 - Talking about business

Even Joe’s son has such a person, no wonder he will help him to speak out to those foreigners.

I’ve been ridiculed before, and I’m thinking about stealing and leaving.

When I went to Tangyuan to recognize the Shenlang, I could sing a little at this moment.

“These foreigners are also not long-eyed, and they are actually trying to provoke the most sturdy masters of the waves!”

“That is, that is the man who has overturned the Master League headquarters.”

“Also let Joe help him stand on the platform and laugh at him. Do you know that Joe and Master Shen know each other?”

Edmunds have already rolled out. Of course, these are not after all, but they are interested in dressing up and showing their insights in front of other foreigners and those who don’t know Shen Lang.

The monks who ridiculed and teased, when they heard this, the cold sweats flowed even more.

Shen Lang!

It turned out that he is Shen Lang!

These days, the rumors about Shen Lang, but quite a lot. All the factions emphasized that the doormen could not offend the waves, including their elders.

Who is Shen Lang?

Those who offended him were killed by him!

If you offend Joe Gongzi, people have a posture and a disappointment, and naturally there will be no danger.

Offended by the waves, I don't know how to die...

At this moment, they are all fortunate. Fortunately, the foreigners who just went out are hot. If their heads are hot, they will be in trouble.

In this way, it is also a problem for these foreigners to leave the seamount alive!

Just don't need obvious shots, you can force them to get out and kill them. Isn't it easy?

Originally, they thought about stealing and leaving, but they were afraid that the action would be too conspicuous at this time. Instead, they would let Shen Lang stare at it.

Now that I know that it is a famous wave of killing, I have not dared to stay too much, and quickly leave to check out.

On the other side, Shen Lang has already let Joe Shu Yu sit down.

Qiao Shuyu is a bit unaccustomed to the environment of such a hall. However, it is impossible to force the restaurant to let a private room out.

So after ordering a meal for the waiter, they made a barrier around them so that outsiders could listen to their conversations and didn't want to be disturbed.

“Zheng Yumeng, I saw it last time. This is the owner of the Tianshan Ice Palace.”

Shen Lang introduced them to them.

“Joe Gongzi, long-awaited big name.” The canoe sighed with a slight decapitation and greeted the North Sea Qiao family.

“In the next downfall, the Lord is also a long-awaited name.”

Qiao Shuyu arched his hand and smiled again: “The palace owner may not remember it. In fact, we have seen it many years ago. It was with the descendants of the river.”

The canoe nodded and said: “It was indeed seen many years ago. The canoe just didn't think that the son of the dragon and the phoenix actually remembered me.”

“The palace owner should not dig at me.”

Qiao Shuyu smiled and said: “I am a little famous, all of them are the reputation of the family. Where can I be a dragon and a phoenix!”

“Moreover, when you are young, you are already in charge of the Ice Palace. It is far from what I can't compare. You say yes? Shen Laodi?”

Shen Lang listened to their conversation and felt something.

They have seen it before, it is not unusual, they are almost the same age, and they are all up-and-coming stars, and it will be normal to see them on some occasions.

However, it seems to have only been seen once, and there is no introduction to each other, but Qiao Shuyu is also impressed by the canoe.

The proud Jiaozi, even self-improvement, but also pulled the waves to set off the compliment.

This makes Shen Lang play with a smile: “You can’t compare. I am different. Although I am not the lord of the Tianshan Jianzong, but it is the chief elder of the Presbyterian Church, it is still the first in name.”

“...”

Qiao Shuyu was speechless for a while, but he could only smile: “Well... you are very powerful, only I am relying on my family’s son.”

“Joe Gongzi is too modest. The canoe is in charge of the Ice Palace. It is only the love and exercise of the Master. Every aspect is far from enough. Joe Gongzi has always been the role model that I waited for...”

The rug was talking to Shen Lang and went straight. He did not treat him as an outsider. For Joe Dae, such a big deal, there is still a diplomatic rhetoric, and he has complimented him again and again.

“To say genius...” Qiao Shuyu pointed to Shen Lang. “Who else is comparable to this enchanting?”

It’s speechless.

Yes, Joe Shuyu has long been a representative genius of the younger generation.

However, compared with the growth speed of Shen Lang, nothing is wrong.

Don’t say Shen Lang, is the Zheng girl next to me, isn’t it a first-class wizard?

What makes her a little bit gratified is that there is a rain in the ice palace that can be compared.

That is her sister and her cousin, and she is honored.

“Okay, you like to be a guest, don’t put me on. Just say something right!”

Shen Lang interrupted their topic. Since he decided to introduce them, he did not mean to avoid the boat.

After all, it is necessary to take the rain and take it away, or to get the approval of the palace.

As for whether or not Qiao Shuyu agrees, he does not care at all. He does not agree that he alone goes to the death forest with the rain, Zheng Yumeng, and it is not impossible to do it.

Qiao Shuyu was also a bit restrained from the beginning and immediately recovered as usual.

“Shen, how come you came to Haishan? The exchange meeting here brings together the world’s monks, including all over the world. You appear here, putting you at risk!”

Shen Lang asked a question: “Where does the danger come from?”

“...”

“The lord. It’s just his words, I am here, and there is no difference between it and other places. Even the many monks here may make it difficult for him to find me.”

“...”

“As for the others, it is nothing.”

Qiao Shuyu smiled slightly: “You are not afraid of the sky... you are provoked such a powerful enemy, and you can hide it as soon as possible. How can you expose yourself to the public?”

“He came to my sister, not necessarily in public. But...”

If you are in a canoe, you can’t say it. Just after the conflict with these foreigners, it is already a public appearance. The monks here will definitely spread the news, and maybe even talk on the phone now.

“This is what I said.”

Shen Lang said to Qiao Shuyu: “Before our agreement, I am going to bring two more friends, one is a small dream, the other is a rainy schoolmate of the Ice Palace.”

Joe Shu Yu was a little surprised and a bit unprepared.

When they discussed it before, but the people in the south and even Qiao Yong were screened back, they discussed the three. Now it is said in the unfamiliar canoe...

He couldn't help but look at the canoe quickly and saw that she didn't seem to understand it, but her eyes looked forward.

“I have no problem. It would be nice to discuss it with the South Brother. But... Do you want to go with us if you don't go to the palace?”

Shen Lang took two sisters to go, and Qiao Shuyu simply sent an invitation to the canoe.

Chapter 548 - Passionate invitation

The canoe was surprised again.

She only knows that Shen Lang is looking for the rain, in a consistent style, naturally it is necessary to give the rain a good thing, so she is willing to take him to see.

But now, listening to this meaning, is going to take a place with the rain, or with Joe Yu.

In combination with the gossip news of Tangyuan, Qiao Shuyu and Nanyiye of Nantian Family, together with Shenlang, just said that they should discuss with Nanxi.

Whatever the two sons of South and Joe can pay attention to, no matter where they are, they must be worth a visit.

Therefore, when Joe Biao Yu came over, she also showed her expectation, hoping to agree to let the rain go.

But no one thought that Joe Shuyu would then invite her to walk together.

“It’s good to let the rain go. I still have some things to deal with and it is not very convenient.”

Her euphemistic refusal did not have a strong attitude, so Joe Shu Yu immediately persuaded.

“The Ice Palace wants to come to the daily life and there will not be too many things. The boat master will go along with it, not only can get better exercise, but also bring great benefits to himself and the Ice Palace.”

He quickly glanced at Shen Lang and saw that Shen Lang did not help to persuade, he continued.

“Moreover, Shen Lang is not invited to let the sisters walk together? Then you have a photo of each other, and there are also Zheng girls together, there is nothing inconvenient.”

He still has a sense of proportion. Before the Canoe has not promised, he did not say the specific destination to the destination. It is only a general expression that will yield huge gains.

This is indeed an attraction for the canoe.

She is the head of the palace, but the ice palace disciples are practicing every day, and they don’t really need to take care of everything.

It is sure to have a big harvest with the people of Nantian Shijia and Beihai Qiaojia.

The key is still the waves!

This is not only a talented enchanting sorrow, but also a rebellious blessing. He has not yet entered, relying on helping others to guide the way, it will be huge.

The back is even more ambiguous from Yuwenba to Tangshan. It can be seen that it is a big harvest.

In simple terms, this kid is not going to get up early, and can encourage Nanqiao to try together. It must be an immature and reliable plan.

“That’s the decision! In addition to me, the peers are the southern leaves of the Nantian family. No matter what, we still have some word of mouth, and we will not harm our partners.”

Qiao Shuyu smiled and pushed Shen Lang out: “Is there no more waves? You are familiar, and he will definitely not let you be in danger.”

The canoe was dark and dark, and she and Shen Lang were not familiar with this level...

However, even though I have seen it before, the fact that Joe Shuyu, who is now officially known, is indeed much more familiar.

No matter what annoying place in Shenlang, it is sincere to the rain, and Master also recognizes him.

“Let’s go! Although it is an adventure, but this is not a Joe son, there will be nothing wrong with it.” Shen Lang also opened.

“Okay! I don’t have any opinions. But when I see my master, talk to her.”

The canoe agreed to Joe Shuyu, but reserved room.

If she still has a bad place to consider, it will not make Joe Shuyu unhappy afterwards.

The place that makes her worry is the attitude of Shen Lang.

She did not say anything before Shen Lang, she did not know if she would welcome her. even.....

She even has some crazy ideas, wondering if Shen Lang is going to give Nanyiye and Joe Shuyu to the pit!

If that’s the case, then she is really inconvenient to participate, even if it will get a lot of benefits.

The Ice Palace can't afford such two big enemies.

After getting her promise, Qiao Shuyu was obviously very excited. After that, she opened the topic and began to talk about the current exchange meeting of Haishan.

The Comprehension Exchange Conference will officially begin the day after tomorrow. At the Jinlongwan Resort, two venues have been prepared.

The forum is an exchange, it can also be regarded as a text ratio, but it is estimated that the spark will not be too big. The real good thing is that no one will be willing to communicate openly.

The focus is on the exchange of young people, that is, Wuby.

The martial arts link is actually even simpler than the super martial arts hero!

Because they can participate in the genius of all localities, it is to make a name for themselves, and how the level is still in the virtual world.

The gap between the realms, in general, it is very difficult to make up for it by relying on experience and tactics, including desperation. Even if it is a deep wave, every time it wins.

In the case of the match up to the point, it is of course easy to separate the winners and losers, and it will not take a long time.

Therefore, there is no strict rules in the whole process. As long as the standards are met, you can sign up.

If you arrive at the official site, you will find that everyone's strength level is different from their own estimates, and you can withdraw at any time.

Similarly, if you have not registered, you can apply for it at any time.

It is said that there are a lot of temporary registrations in each session, because genius is also regional, and it is the first in the local or that country. It may be seen all over the world.

Therefore, in addition to the necessary quotas, and certain certainty, will go to the scene to wait and see before making a decision.

If you find that the strength is not enough, you will not go out. If you find that you are on the stage, you can also beat it.

But no matter what, the factions will carry the younger ones in the young disciples to meet the world.

The strength of the old predecessors is strong, and there is no incentive for young people. The strength of the same age can stimulate. It can also be referenced and scholastic.

Like now they are in the restaurant, most of them are young monks, this is the reason.

After the meal, Qiao Shuyu said that he would take Shenlang to meet some friends, and also invited Zheng Yumeng to join the canoe.

Zheng Yumeng's expression of interest did not go, and the canoe did not go. They both went upstairs and rested.

When Qiao Shuyu went out with Shen Lang, Shen Lang first reminded him.

"I can declare first. I won't be a good person. For those of you, you can't get along with you, don't say I don't give you face."

Joe Shu Yu is a bit embarrassed, "Understand! Your kid is the first in the world, I have already experienced it a few times."

Then he looked positive and said seriously: "In fact, it is an inconvenience to introduce an elder from our Joe family."

"Oh."

Shen Lang nodded, and did not feel much surprised, because he said before, Qiao family intends to help him resolve the contradiction with the lord, but was rejected by him.

It should be that Qiao Shuyu reported that he was coming over here, and Qiao's family specially arranged for a higher generation to come over and personally interview him.

This also made him a bit curious, and Qiao Shuyu also said that everyone has an adventure plan, Joe's family?

Death forest warehousing method? With their heritage, it should not be because this makes Joe's family favor it?

Chapter 549 -

Qiao Shuyu came to the hotel with Shen Lang, which was the hotel where they stayed, and went directly to the hotel room.

In the suite, the elder of the Qiao family has been waiting, not the Qiao Yong I have seen before.

“You are Shen Lang? Sure enough, the hero is a teenager!”

After Joe's parents watched Shen Lang come in, he took the initiative to stand up and smiled and said hello.

“This is my uncle Joe.”

“Long-term Joe Joe's name.”

Shen Lang is also a rare guest, after all, now he and Joe Yu Yuping. If it's just a class of uncles, it's his uncle, or he has to give the old man a little face.

However, his heart is secretly vomiting, this Qiaojia old woman was still very arrogant!

One son is called Qiao Yuxian, and one is called Qiao Zhantian...

“Little friends don’t have to be strict, and they don’t need to be polite. You shouldn’t have heard of me, just give it to the team.” Qiao Zhantian indicated that Shen Lang was seated.

Qiao Shuyu took a bottle of mineral water to Shen Lang and sat down next to him.

Shen Lang smiled and did not deliberately explain anything.

In fact, he did not feel cautious, although the strength of this Qiao Tiantian is the strongest he has ever seen, and even worse than Tang Banshan, he can not see the details.

It is very likely that the situation has already been achieved. Even if it is not, it should be a good one.

“Listen to Yu Yu and say that you are going to the seamounts... I will hurry up.”

“Of course, it is very important to say that I am coming to see you personally, and that is to rely on the old and the old.”

“I mean, we want to see you, of course, there is no reason for you to run, you have to come over to see you. I haven’t told you before, it’s a bit rash.”

Qiao Tiantian’s strength is extraordinary, and the momentum is not necessary to say, but this time it is like an amiable old man, and he has explained it.

“Oh, if I let you see you, I might be suspicious. Anyway, it would be a great honor to let Joe run to see me.”

The opening of Joe’s battle days is just to get closer to the relationship and let Shen Lang put down the guard.

Then there was no more nonsense and it began to go straight to the point.

“Before we let Liang Yu convey an idea, if you don’t mind. We can step in and let you and the Master League’s grievances turn into jade.”

“Yes. I will refuse because it is a big deal and I am not qualified to owe Joe a family.”

Shen Lang also has something to say.

Qiao Tiantian erected a thumbs up: “You have a good character, just like when I was young. Even if I hit a ***** head, I don’t want to owe someone else’s feelings.”

Shen Lang is smiling.

“But the ally of the Masters League. It is not that they brag about it, it is really a monk who turns the gods.” Qiao Tiantian emphasized one sentence.

“I know.”

It is only a church owner who can make Tang Banshan such a true peak. The boss behind this should naturally be stronger, or else how to live.

“The difference between the realm of the gods and the peaks of the real world...but it is much different than the difference between the real world and the real world.”

“I know.”

Shen Lang nodded, he has adapted to the current division method. There is a huge difference in the promotion of every realm. And the improvement of a big realm is even greater than the phase of it.

Joe nodded in the war: “Since these are clear, you still don’t want to accept the help of others, you have to admit that you are very personal, you can say very embarrassing.”

“Haha, you can say that.” Shen Lang hit a haha.

Qiao Zhantian explained: “But I still ran over to find you. If you want to come, you can guess, we haven’t given up yet.”

Is this no nonsense? Is it because of curiosity?

Shen Lang even nodded and nodded.

“Of course you can also think that we can’t be so enthusiastic for no reason, we must have a picture.”

Shen Lang smiled and counted his default.

“Don’t doubt, Shu Yu is unaware. This child is proud of his temper, and it is rare to have friends. This is still a clarification.”

Shen Lang nodded and expressed understanding.

For a long time, Joe Zhantian said the key point.

“Our figure is the same thing in your hand!”

“Oh? What?”

The question of Shen Lang’s incomprehension is actually really puzzled.

With the foundation of Joe’s family, there are not many things that they can see.

If it is Nedan, the previous words about Nan Yiye and the attitude towards Tang Banshan have proved that they will not get it, and they will not be so careful.

“戮仙剑!”

“戮仙剑?”

Shen Lang has not said anything, and Qiao Shuyu was surprised.

However, besides being surprised, his face is a bit stunned. Obviously there is no concept for this 戮仙剑, and the name is surprised.

“Oh? Could it be that Joe’s sword of the predecessor was lost?”

There is already an answer in Shen Lang’s heart, but it is still pretending.

Qiao Tiantian shook his head: “It has nothing to do with my brother Sai. But...”

He was a bit embarrassed. “In the past, my father would give my brother a name, and give me a name for the war. It is not that we hope we can fight the fairy, it is too mad.”

“When the father was young, he heard the sword of Xian Xian. But even with the resources of Joe’s family, it is not available. This became his obsession. To name the brother, it is a kind of cherished hope, I hope to get the sword. ”

“When I was born, I still didn’t get the sword of the sacred sword. It was named after the war, which means that I will get the sword of the celestial sword one day, and I can have the power of the war.”

“There is no need to say more about the answer? Until the end of time, my father did not get the sword.”

“Because the name followed a lifetime, this became the obsession of my brothers.”

Listening to Qiao Zhantian telling stories of previous generations, Joe Shuyu seems to be the first to hear. Originally, he thought that the names of his grandfather and uncle were the domineering of Zhu Xian and the war.

“Uncle, you mean... 戮剑 sword is in the hands of Shen Lang?”

Qiao Shuyu is also clear, the sword in the hands of Shen Lang, is not a rusty sword?

Before including him, he felt that Shen Lang used a rusted sword, which was to despise the opponent’s heart attack, and to break other people’s weapons, relying on his own strength.

Is it that there are not many people who know the sword?

Shen Lang also laughed but not as natural as before.

Qiao Tiantian should belong to the second character of Qiao's family. With his generation and strength, it is generally not a big enough thing. It is impossible to excuse him to run it himself.

Now I will come here and open the conditions for helping him and the lord to resolve the grievances. Naturally, the answer is already determined.

When Joe's eyes looked over, Shen Lang could only admit it.

"Not bad! The sword is in my hands."

"Is that broken sword?" Joe Shuyu couldn't help but widen his eyes.

This is the leak of the waves, he certainly does not want to go out. But the sincerity and conditions that Qiao's family is showing now can be said to be very powerful.

Will the result of the refusal be "first ritual soldiers"?

Chapter 550 - The fate of the sword

Under the gaze of both of them, Shen Lang took the rust sword directly and pulled the sword to reveal the rusty trace.

Qiao Shuyu still feels inexplicable, this sword is nothing special.

Qiao Tiantian is a glance of his eyes, his eyes can not be separated from the sword.

"I didn't expect that I will have a lifetime... I can see the sword of Xian..."

Joe whispered in the mouth of the sky, watching him look a bit sullen, Joe Shuyu is not understanding, is this really a magical sword?

“Can I...?”

Qiao Tiantian quickly recovered, and smiled a little bit at Shen Lang.

What he said is also the person of Joe’s family. It’s really funny to see the coveted appearance of the world.

What’s even more embarrassing is that it shows such a point of importance, and negotiations will be even less active.

“Of course, I trust you.”

Shen Lang handed the sword to the past.

Qiao Tiantian could not help but sigh, this Shen Lang really can’t cope!

At this time, saying “I trust you” is not trusting in itself. It is the first to take his army.

“Oh, rest assured. I am Joe Zhantian, of course, it is impossible to rob your sword and run.”

Qiao Tiantian was also half-joking and expressed his promise, and then he took the sword with his hands solemnly.

When he saw the sword, he couldn’t help but reveal a hint of obsession. Now that the sword is in hand, people are becoming very solemn.

This is not only their decades of obsession, but also his father’s lifelong wish. From his father’s calculations, it has been a hundred years of obsession.

The sword is in hand, and what he sees seriously is no longer a sword, but a wishful expression.

Holding it in both hands, it seems that the father who replaced him was in contact with the sword.

His sacred and solemn appearance made Joe Shuyu not dare to make it.

Shen Lang treats the sword, whether it is the unborn sword that was given out in the past, the Qiushui sword, or this sword. In his eyes, it is nothing but a temporary weapon.

Now looking at the old man like a faith and a sincere look, he is also a little moved.

After observing and examining for a while, Qiao Tiantian held a sword and stroked it with one hand.

“Zhu Xianjian... I don’t know where it came from. It is said that it is the artifact of the ancient great-powerful person who swayed the sword and the celestial scent. The rust stains that could not be removed above are said to be the bloodstains of the sage.”

“Bleak... magnificent... from the ancient atmosphere.”

“Fortunately, I saw the sword of Xian Xian, which is far from the dream of my father.”

Joe warfare spoke to himself.

For the origin of the sword, Shen Lang was able to see through it, of course, because of understanding. Listening to the legend of Joe’s warfare, I couldn’t help but laugh.

Of course, it is impossible to kill the immortal. It seems that the rusty and worn out is actually a craft and a disguise.

It needs to be disguised. In fact, it also shows that the person who originally built and owned it is not as bizarre as Joe.

However, for other people’s beliefs, Shen Lang is not so big and the scenery must be punctuated.

After a long while, Qiao Tiantian took a trace of reluctance and returned the sword.

Qiao's family is to face, and Qiao's battle is to face. Even if he can grab it, he won't **** it.

Resolving the grievances of Shen Lang and the lord, the price is not small, but they would rather choose this one.

They certainly have times when they are overbearing and unscrupulous, but when they can choose, they will still achieve their goals in a decent way.

"Our mind... or the plot of Joe's family is in sight."

Joe warfare smiled and kicked the ball to Shen Lang: "Resolve the enmity between the lord and the lord. How?"

Even if it is the same condition, the weight is different.

Before I said it, Shen Lang can't believe it. No one will help you so much for no reason, even if it owes a big favor.

Now it has been spread out and they want this sword. This sword is in his hands, only he has it.

This is a deal, and Shen Lang is a cheaper deal.

Joe's smile is confident.

The masters of the Master League Alliance are likely to kill the Shen Lang and even destroy the Tianshan Jianzong. There is no life, what else is there?

Qiao's family helped him through this difficult time, but in fact it also cost a certain price.

Sincerity, frankness, price... What are the reasons for Shen Lang to refuse?

"This sword, I reopened, even if I gave it to Joe, I might not be able to achieve the effect you want." Shen Lang said.

Qiao Tiantian shook his head slightly: “It doesn’t matter. This is just our obsession with nearly a hundred years, and it is not really necessary to hold a sword and a fairy. It doesn’t necessarily need much effect.”

This of course is just a good talk. After they get started, they should have their solution.

“Then I will just say it.”

“Please!” Joe smiled and raised his hand, indicating that he had something to say.

Generally speaking, “speaking straight” is often a bad news to say, but he does not show any dissatisfaction.

Shen Lang also took it seriously: “Qiao’s family is willing to solve problems for me, and Joe is personally coming, and I just understand that these sincerity have moved me very much. But...”

In the heart of Qiao Shuyu, he has seen how much the uncle cares and likes this rust sword, and is said to be with his grandfather, and even his ancestors’ lifelong wishes.

If Shen Lang wants to refuse, it is equal to offending Joe’s family!

This consequence is much more serious than offending Tang Banshan, and he does not want to see this result.

But even if you don’t want to see it, you can’t help it.

“...these didn’t touch me, the vast forces of Qiao’s family didn’t live to scare me. What really touched me was your solemn attitude towards this sword!”

Qiao Shuyu couldn’t help but feel a sigh of relief.

Although there was a turning point, it did not go to reject it.

When I heard Shen Lang say “real impress”, Qiao Tiantian is also relieved.

“What is my attitude towards the sword?”

“I am here to see the respect of faith. In my place, it is a sword. I am not as good as it is for you.”

Shen Lang is a bit embarrassed.

The strength of Qiao’s family should not be offended, it is a reason; people show their absolute sincerity, but also a reason. But this reason is the main Why is the Qiushui sword desolate?

Why did the blood of Tang Banshan be kept for Dorothy?

Why Wu Bo warm consciously saw him, Shen Lang still let Su Datong bring him to the fair.

It is because the people who really love, the people who really need it, will be the most important.

Therefore, Shen Lang thinks that it is more appropriate to give him a sword than to follow him.

Continue to follow him, that is, to fight the Quartet, perhaps for a sword, is willing to this destination.

But if you encounter powerful magic weapons and enemies – for example, with the ally, the Shen Lang will be desperate, and the sacred sword will not hurt, but the Qiao family will be like a faith.

Which kind of destination is the wish of Xian Xianjian?

Without an answer, Shen Lang can only make a decision.
