

First Strong 64

Chapter 64 - Refuse

Meiyuan listened and continued: "We are negotiating to recommend you to participate in independent enrollment. The best schools are difficult. Even if we are pragmatic, we are a very good university in Tiannan University in our province."

Yuezhennan was originally not inserted in the side, but he was afraid that Shenlang would say something embarrassing to Meiyuan. The school is the principal's site. It depends on the face of him and Yao Houpu. If Shen Lang doesn't know how to lift it up, this Mayor's book business is coming up, and there is no such opportunity.

So he quickly whispered aside, "When you go to college, there are many qualifications, but they are all provincial outstanding students, Olympiad prizes, or some national awards, etc., not the school wants to send On the one hand, it is difficult to cheat these hard conditions."

"Yes!" Meiyuan nodded.

"Independent enrollment is still a college entrance examination, but if successful, the college entrance examination score can be reduced by very ten or even dozens of admissions. This is a big advantage. The top famous schools are not easy, but Tiannan University is still a great opportunity."

"The conditions for self-enrollment are often students who need excellent academic performance, excellent comprehensive results, or various competitions, special talents, inventions and innovations. Mayor Mayor is willing to recommend you on behalf of the school. The opportunity will be great. a lot of."

Shen Lang is really not intentional. He has never been able to pass the insurance or self-enrollment because he has never been able to do so. So he did not pay much attention to this situation.

Now I listened to the addition of Yue Zhennan. I know that Mayor Mei really cares, and of course sells the face of Yao Shuji. Yao Houpu is to pay back his personal feelings.

"Thank you. Thank you, Principal and Secretary Yao."

Hearing that he said this, Yao Houpu was relieved and smiled at Meiyuan. Although it is only the principal of Licao Middle School, Meiyuan New still has some relations. The top schools of the past few dare not say that Tiannan University in the province is still not a problem.

Just as President May was preparing to give a ticket to Shen Lang to appease him, he heard the words of Shen Lang.

“But I think I am really not qualified. If I don’t need to waste the quota, I don’t mind, but recommending me, naturally taking up other people’s resources, it is unfair to others.”

He said very calmly, and Yuezhengnan next to him was a little anxious: “Lang brother, we have no outsiders here. Mayor Mei is only recommending it for you. The key is to look at your own test. What is unfair?” “”

“Yes, it is not necessary to take the college entrance examination, or to participate in the college entrance examination and to achieve good results, just insurance.” Yao Houpu also said.

Meiyuan did not speak, but his eyes were a little more appreciated.

This time because of the relationship of Yao Shuji, he can’t help but give face. Of course, it is not the first time something similar, but seeing the students in his school can refuse the temptation, stick to the principle, or let him be comforted.

It is a very big discount for a college entrance examination that is important for one point. No chance to find ways to get extra points, now Shen Lang actually refused!

Shen Lang shook his head. “If it is good and good, and it has always been excellent, I think that the rain in our class is truly worthy of the name. If you recommend her to participate in self-enrollment, there should be no problem in the top schools. ”

“Falling classmates are very good, I am also talking to her. But...” Meiyuan’s new gratified smile: “She is very confident and feels that there is no need to enroll herself. The university she wants to test is sure to be tested.”

He also understands that the super-excellent students like Luo Yu are basically worthy of treasure, and they are not the talents of Li Cao Middle School.

“Yao Shuji, I know that you are a good heart. My previous achievements are really ugly, but I am working hard. There is still more than a month, I believe I can go one step further and have the confidence to take one.”

Yao Houpu frowned. In his opinion, this is the self-respect of Shen Lang, but it is no more important than other things.

He just wants to help him solve his way out because he knows the results of Shen Lang. He also negotiated his own enrollment because of his high scores, which can give him a greater chance.

The rejection now is not a question that does not give him face, but a question that affects the future.

Yue Zhennan saw him looking over and knew that he wanted to persuade him to persuade Shen Lang.

“Shen Lang, let me say, it may not be convincing enough. But Yao Shuji and Mayor Mei, I really have seen too much. Their arrangement is definitely the best for you. We don’t believe you. The strength.”

“Yes! It is because of your substantial progress that you can try your own enrollment.” Meiyuan Xin also persuaded him.

“I know that you are all good intentions, but I still insist on my own decision.” Shen Lang smiled: “My two exam results have progressed too fast, and even the class teacher has questioned that I am cheating. If I hear again The principal recommended me to Tiannan University to enroll myself. I don’t know what to say.”

“This... doesn’t have much to do with it.” Meiyuan is a little bit awkward.

When the news goes out, others will doubt it, and he will be aware of his special help to Shen Lang. But he doesn’t care, he cares about the views of Yao Shuji!

“Okay. It’s so decided!”

Shen Lang saw that they still wanted to persuade, raised their hands and pressed a bit, preventing the topic from continuing.

In the end, Yao Houpu was not an ordinary person. He immediately came out of his emotions, praised the high winds and bright festivals of Shen Lang, and continued to search for topics. He did not talk about this again.

Therefore, although it is a bit unnatural in the back, there is no obvious cold field.

After eating Yao Yaopu and Meiyuan new departure, Yue Zhennan sent Shen Lang back to his residence. When he was alone, he maintained greater respect, and he could not interfere with Shenlang’s choice, or he understood of. Taking the strength of Shen Lang, not going to college, will not affect his future life, it is normal to not pay attention.

He did mention a suggestion that the small bottle was too rough, and said that he would customize a batch of luxury ones as soon as possible.

Shen Lang did not be polite with him. It is a pity that I thought that after signing the contract to buy honey, it may be closed now, and it is not good to go to school again.

After going back, seeing that Shen Lang did not leave him to drink tea, Yue Zhennan did not stop, immediately went home, and rushed back to the home in Pingxi City overnight to discuss his business.

Shen Lang received a call from his mother.

“Small waves, have you studied yourself? Mom has something to do here...”

Listening to the mother’s nervous voice, Shen Lang knew that Boss Bo should be talking to her. This is not a sudden drop of pie, but suddenly a factory fell, the mother can not believe it, even if there is Bo boss and documents, she also Scared.
