

First Strong 67

Chapter 67 - Do not live

Dong Wenbin still has a little security awareness. He doesn't want to involve himself, so he doesn't go to the scene. Instead, let them go to KTV to celebrate, and then elaborate on the details.

After Shen Lang put the three gangsters away, people immediately rushed over here. But he didn't go in, because he hadn't approached yet, and they saw Dong Wenbin rushing out!

It seems that Dong Wenbin, a few of them came over after eating, and sang while waiting. After getting the news, let them come directly here.

And now it will come out in a hurry, needless to say, naturally which mix to call them to inform them.

After they came out, they immediately took a taxi and left.

Shen Lang recognized the car and then kept the distance. He is running. If he is too close, it is easy to be discovered. If he is far away, he may be thrown away at any time. It is also a little troublesome.

To maintain a long run, he has no problem in endurance, and the speed can be much faster than the average person. But compared with the car, it is still dwarfed.

Fortunately, because it is in the county town, bicycles, electric cars, and motorcycles on the road, plus traffic lights, make the taxi speed not much faster, and the speed of the sinking waves will not be lost.

However, this experience made him realize that speed is a short board and he has to make up as much as possible!

Dong Wenbin three people arrived at the door of a community, then looked around and hurried in.

Dong Wenbin's family has a house here. He often boasted about it, but he didn't know which room.

After seeing them in, Shen Lang quickly went under the cover of the night and went over the wall.

In order not to leave obvious traces, he did not directly follow up. After seeing them enter a building, they looked far away and estimated the time, which set, or which sets of lights.

The result was that the house on the fifth floor was lit up with time. He immediately lurked in the past and jumped up and grabbed the balcony one by one to climb up to the balcony of the fifth floor.

When I got to the balcony, I could hear the sound inside. Dong Wenbin hurried out, and it was not convenient to discuss in the car or on the road. He waited until he came back to close the door, and now he started to discuss.

“Bing brother, what kind of situation is it?” Lin Yun whispered a question.

Dong Wenbin’s face was not good: “They just called me and didn’t pack up the Shenlang. Instead, they were knocked down when they met. Finally, one person was smashed a finger!”

“Ah?” Lin Yun and Li Rong both were shocked.

They had been beaten by Shen Lang before, and they also wanted to take revenge. Today, the real gangsters are more than they are. So three people have been licked a finger!

“The trough...he, why is he!”

“Yeah, if Shen Lang is so arrogant, would it be bullied by us before?”

“You ask me who I am going to?” Dong Wenbin said with no anger.

“Bing brother, will they lie to us? Want more money?” Li Rong said his doubts.

Dong Wenbin hesitated a moment. He also felt that this possibility was the biggest, or else he could not explain it.

“Unlike... When I called me, I could hear the voice trembled, and there was a painful slogan. And it was not advanced, it was very brief. Just give me a letter, let me leave quickly...”

He analyzed and said while recalling.

“Reporting? Is it that Shen Lang has already asked us where we met them?”

“Does this mean that Shen Lang is going to kill?”

“So we are back!” Dong Wenbin snorted and just heard that he was still a little nervous. Now that he is back home, he has a lot of peace of mind. Here, not to mention the door, first of all, security will not let non-owners enter the community.

“It shouldn’t be... everyone is a classmate. Does he dare to lick our fingers?” Lin Yun snorted.

Dong Wenbin said coldly: “That can be difficult to say! This kid is not the same as before. The last time the old class severely warned me that he said awkwardly, it is one to kill us.”

“Yes! He is a few old, Laozi first killed him!” Li Rong Danu.

“You idiot! You are desperate with him, I don’t care, what is the identity of Laozi? The family is big, why should he go with me!” Dong Wenbin said with no anger.

Li Rong is a bit embarrassed. As a younger brother, he must be loyal, not necessarily desperately.

“Bing brother, what should I do now?” Lin Yun asked again.

“Do you have any suggestions?” Dong Wenbin was very annoyed.

“I think...” Li Rong immediately said: “We can call the police. If he really licks the fingers of three people, this is not a trivial matter. Even if he can’t be sentenced to him for a few years, he will detain the detention court for a set of downs. It will not come out in half a year.”

“Yes! Let’s preach it again, let him be at school, even in the county, and it’s hard to read again.”

“Fuck! The three are hooligans, you are doing this, the future of Shen Lang is ruined! As a classmate, don’t you think it is too much?” Dong Wenbin angered.

When I heard this, Lin Yun and Li Rong couldn’t answer it. The balcony’s Shen Lang was a little surprised.

He is really good tonight. The three of them are bullying him and others. In the end, they are still school tyrants. Now they are hiring social gangsters to harm people. The nature is different. So I must catch up and give them a big lesson!

Now listening to Dong Wenbin’s words, I feel that this kid is even bad, but it is still a bit of a bottom line.

“Not too much! His ID card may not be 18 years old. At that time, it just ruined his reputation. He can continue to take college exams, but he can go to other places without destroying his future. If they can make them bleed too much, Let him murder, or three, this is the future!”

Dong Wenbin patted his thighs and laughed. Lin Yun and Li Rong both understood that the just righteous words were deliberately counter-talking, and they immediately followed suit.

“Right! This will kill him, so he can’t turn over.”

“Don’t say! Three dead hooligans are good for society.”

“Who are you going to kill them?” Dong Wenbin said in yin.

“Hey, that...” The two men screamed again I know you didn’t plant! Dong Wenbin snorted.

On the balcony, the face was already cold. I thought that this guy had a bottom line. Now it seems that Dong Wenbin doesn’t think it’s a big deal to kill people, just don’t dare to do it himself.

Shen Lang did not think much more. He walked out from the balcony, grabbed the half-covered window in the kitchen, pulled it away, and sneaked into the kitchen.

Dong Wenbin's parents don't live here, and he certainly doesn't cook. However, everything is fully equipped here, and the gas is not full of buckets.

The kitchen door was open. In the darkness, the waves unscrewed the gas valve and then went out of the window and jumped down to the ground.

Three people are not good things, let them gas poisoning, stay in the hospital once, it is best to become a fool to no longer harm.

Turning over the wall and leaving the community, Shen Lang is going back, suddenly there is a loud explosion coming from behind!
