

First Strong 68

Chapter 68 - Explosion response

There is almost no need to verify, and Shen Lang can guess that Dong Wenbin's house exploded.

However, he is still a bit unexpected.

Because the county town of C is not comparable to the big city, not all natural gas is used everywhere, and gas tanks are generally used. Gas is mainly carbon monoxide, so it is easy to gas poisoning, which is the original intention of Shen Lang.

The gas adds an unpleasant smell, and it will still be discovered if there is more leakage. Generally, the breath can be closed, and the ventilation of the window can be alleviated. It's not a cold winter with closed windows. There are three more people, not to the extent of death.

However, the explosion is not surprising. Methane-based natural gas is safer because the density is smaller than air, it is more volatile, the explosion is higher, and the pipeline is transported. One point is not too much, and the gas tank is concentrated. A can.

It is estimated that they should explode when they notice the gas leak.

Shen Lang did not go back to the rental room, but returned to the school and went back to sleep in the dormitory.

When I fell back to his phone before the rain, I had already studied myself next night. However, in the final sprint stage, many people will pick up their own at 10:30, 11:00, plus what else to wash, he is not too late to come back now.

Of course, the rivers and rivers often complained about him. They couldn't get in touch during the day. Anyway, everyone couldn't get in touch. After returning to his message, he said that he would come back to study at night in the evening. When he asked the teacher, he said it, and the result did not appear. He asked his teacher to approve it.

Shen Lang expressed regret, simply said that someone invited me to dinner at night, and suddenly it was not expected.

“I said...” The river lowered a little voice, and mysteriously asked: “Are you a girlfriend?”

“Of course not.” Shen Langbaiyan.

“Impossible, in addition to my girlfriend, what else can you skip classes during the day and stay at night?”

Everyone is in the midst of a stressful review, this male and female gossip problem, let the boys in adolescence come to the interest.

“Yeah, you have a lot of spirits during this time. At first glance, you get a good moisturizing.”

“And you live in life more than before, then what, haha... honestly, is it rich in a rich woman?”

“Is it true that the rich woman has also invited you to the top tutor, so the academic performance has also advanced by leaps and bounds?”

Everyone privately praised the achievements of Shen Lang. There have been various speculations. In the performance of the school, he is working as hard as before. There is no difference. It seems that he has not got any special papers. The secret should only happen when he is not there. School time period!

Going home half a day a week, it is possible to assault, and later he skipped classes or took time off. These make everyone guess that after the class, a teacher is giving him a small stove to make up, but if you can have such a level, it is definitely not cheap, not as affordable as Shen Lang.

Taken together, there is a joke that he is supported by a rich woman.

Shen Lang confessed to them: “I am like this kind of person?”

“Like!” Everyone answered in unison, and then they all burst into laughter.

Shen Lang also smiled: “You guys! Move your brain, which rich woman in C County will see me? Besides, I am not a woman, but also moisturizing! The man is being juiced, it is yellow skinny Ok?”

“That’s not necessarily, maybe someone will give you a variety of supplements.”

“You don’t care about them! They are envious and hateful... If you have resources, you can introduce me.”

Just under the laughter of everyone, there was a scream of “sleeping trough” outside.

Then I heard someone in the corridor yelling: “Look at the class! The blast is rushing forward!”

Jianghe and others stopped making jokes and opened their mobile phones to open WeChat.

The same is true for Shen Lang. In the class group, this has just forwarded the news of the past, and no more people have discussed it. There is a link inside, the title is that the county’s Tianshang Garden exploded, and the three people were sent to the hospital...

Clicking to see it is a local news public number just released a few minutes of news, the content is also very simple. That is to say, there was an explosion in one of the households. The fire had just been controlled, the residents were evacuated, and three people were seriously injured.

Although it was the explosion news that occurred in the county, it was this information that did not interest too many people. But the classmate who had just screamed in the corridor had already filled his words.

“Dong Wenbin’s family has a house in the Tianshang Garden Community. He often runs there to live!”

“These three people, I hope that they are not Dong Wenbin!”

Seeing this, everyone was eager to pay attention. The county town is not big, it is local news compared to the city or the outside world; but if Dong Wenbin is the case, it is the classmates around!

Although most people don't like Dong Wenbin, they hope that they will be fine.

For a time, many people in Aite Dong Wenbin, Lin Yun and Li Rong three of them, let them come out to explain. There are also good relationships with them, and they start to call them.

Others pay more attention to other groups, and they also began to gather live videos of many heavenly gardens from relatives and friends. Some people who have photographed the crowd evacuated, and who have photographed the smoke, there are many community residents discussing.

But because of the relationship at night, it is relatively dark, and it is not Lin Yun Li Rong who often followed Dong Wenbin. How do ordinary people know which set is his family? Even if he had a good relationship with Dong Wenbin, he only knew that he had a house in this community.

"I hope that it is really ... cough, that is evil and bad news!" Jianghe muttered, the key is not clearly stated.

Everyone understands what he means, but this cannot be said publicly. Even if you don't understand Dong Wenbin, or if you are afraid of him, you can't count on the explosion to die.

There are more and more kinds of information in the group, and there are more fake news. Some say how many people are killed and how many are burned. Before the authoritative release of information, everything is still a mystery.

Teacher Wang, the class teacher, was also on the line, so that everyone should stop discussing these things and hurry to sleep. The group began to quiet down everyone turned into a private discussion in each dormitory.

No one in the Shenlang dormitory has a good relationship with Dong Wenbin. He used to be bullied by Dong Wenbin. The relationship between the roommates is certainly better. Although I did not say it like a river, I hope that Dong Wenbin can really suffer a bit.

Although this sudden incident has made everyone have a topic in the process of intense study, but the enthusiasm has not been maintained for a long time, after all, tomorrow will start early.

Shen Lang has been practicing until last afternoon, and he is not tired. He can't sleep while lying in bed. However, it was not convenient to sit up and take out the two Lingshi, and prepare to continue practicing in the lying position.

When I was about to run “Yin and Yang Bozhenzhenzhen”, I remembered something in my mind. When I chased a taxi before, I felt the speed limit! When I climbed upstairs, I felt the lack of lightness and dexterity.

He has cultivated the “Da Shou Mi Long Xiang Shen Gong” and “King Kong is not bad body spirit”, so that he has a very solid foundation in strength and defense, what is needed now is to make up the shortcomings of body and speed!

Shen Lang carefully recalled, combed and screened the exercises in the memory of previous life, and finally decided to practice the “Phantom Meteor Step”!
