Chapter 70 - Suspect and proof

There is no such thing as Shen Lang, and he goes out directly.

He could hear a whisper in the back.

He didn't come to class yesterday!

Dong Wenbin has a hatred with him!

Originally, Dong Wenbin was bullied by many people. Shen Lang was only one of the most bullied, and no one would associate him with Dong Wenbin. But now the police who followed Mr. Wang, let everyone associate him with the class that he did not come to yesterday, and actually associated with it.

Or how can the police find him alone?

There must be some clues!

"Shen Lang is it? Please take a trip with us. Some things need to be explained to you!" One of them showed the documents and the speech was very civilized.

Shen Lang looked at them and looked at Wang.

"What is it? This is still in class."

"Tell you to go and leave! Are you guilty or what?" The other one said nothing.

From the look of his face and the blood of his eyes, Shen Lang can see that it was not sleeping for one night. It is estimated that it was last night, let him work overtime until now, and he did not care.

He looked at Teacher Wang again. As a teacher in charge of the class, he should stand up and help him to speak at this time.

Teacher Wang's face was always gloomy. When he saw Shen Lang looking at him, he frowned.

"Shenlang, cooperate with it! The police just want to investigate and understand that you are suspected of more need to cooperate with the investigation."

"What is my suspicion?" Shen Lang asked.

"Last night, Dong Wenbin's family exploded, and Dong Wenbin's classmates have already..." Wang's tone was very painful, and then he said coldly: "You have hatred with him, and I have been fighting before. I didn't ask for leave yesterday. Didn't come to class, isn't it suspect?"

"Oh, it seems that my so-called suspicion is what you reported!" Shen Lang taunted.

"I am telling the truth!" Teacher Wang's voice was a little bigger.

The policeman who showed the documents had a lot of attitudes and lowered his voice. "This is the doorway of the classroom. It is not convenient to talk. If you are not suspected, the inquiry here will also affect your reputation, or let us go back and investigate!"

"This way to smear your own students, don't regret it." Shen Lang said to Teacher Wang, then nodded to the police.

"You threaten me! You threatened me in the police!" Mr. Wang was so angry, Dong Wenbin, their three accidents, although not in school, but also directly affected his class teacher, Shen Lang actually talked to him like this.

"You listen! He threatens me! This kid is not a good man!"

"I mean that I have a certificate. Only when I am a guilty conscience will I feel that you are threatening you." Shen Lang sneered and gestured to the police.

Image? He did not have any glorious image in school, what is the so-called?

The police nodded to Teacher Wang and left with Shen Lang.

Teacher Wang looked at the back and slowly went to the office. His anger disappeared and he thought about the words of Shen Lang.

Is there a certificate? so what? Yesterday did not come to class, this is suspect!

Just out of the teaching building, someone has rushed over and stopped in front of them.

It is the director of education and the principal of the school, Mei Yuanxin.

Teacher Wang followed the back to the office. When I saw the situation here, I rushed over and rushed over.

“Two comrades, what do you mean by this? Do you want to bring our students there?” Meiyuan’s new principal asked Shen Sheng.

The two police officers also knew about the principal of Licao Middle School.

The policeman with a good attitude explained it quickly: “Mayor Mayor, the accident that happened last night, three of them are students in our county, so we deliberately came to understand the situation...”

“Since it is an accident, where are the students who are not related to us?” Meiyuan Xin once again questioned.

“This...” The police saw Wang teacher catch up and said: “Mr. Wang said that the student of Shen Lang did not come to class yesterday. He also had a hatred against the deceased Dong Wenbin. There should be suspicion, so we want to go back and understand. Happening.....”

He tried to use the words of peace, so as not to anger the principal.

This is not to say that the school principal will be afraid. The county’s second-largest middle school principal has the right to own one acre. The problem is that President Mayor has worked in the county for decades and has a very solid interpersonal relationship and mass foundation. He said that many of their police stations have read books in the county.

But his words have not finished, it has already angered the old principal!

“What enmity can students and students have? There is no suspicion that I have not come to class. I have not come to school yesterday. Is it also my suspicion?”

This made the two police officers afraid to pick up.

The old principal's anger continued to be poured on Teacher Wang: “Mr. Wang! Is this what you said? Do you think there is a hatred between the students in your class, and it's still not the age of life? Why is there such a thing? Reporting? You are now a serious accusation of murder and arson!”

Teacher Wang has already been scared to death!

The former director gave Shen Lang a leave of absence and mentioned the principal. Teacher Wang thought that Shen Lang didn't know how to ask him for leave through the director, and he used the principal to suppress him. But this is over. Yesterday, there was really no leave, so he didn't care.

Just after Shen Lang said that he had certification, the result was just out of the teaching building, and he saw the director and the principal came over. Immediately let him squint in the heart, is this because of the “student's relationship”, or because he is “sinking” relationship?

When the police say it, let him cry and tears, and the leader certainly does not like to hear such words. The accident has already made the school very passive. As a result, I also said that my students are suspected. Is it not to find trouble for the school?

“School, principal... I don't have that meaning, just the police comrades come to understand the situation, I will tell you the truth, I really don't have that meaning...” Teacher Wang stuttered.

“Hey!” Meiyuan Xin snorted, didn't look at him, and said to the police: “Two comrades, last night's accident, I know that you have worked hard...”

“Not hard, not hard.” Two people said busy.

“You come to understand the situation, but also your work, but you can’t listen to the subjective speculations of individual teachers who are biased against students Whoever must doubt, must have evidence to support the premise!” Meiyuan new serious Say.

“Yes, yes, President May said that it makes sense. We are rash.” Looking at the attitude of the old principal, they are also impossible to take people away and quickly follow them.

Others are also embarrassed, it was an accident, just because all three are students, so I came to the school to learn about the situation, I think there will be such a twist.

Teacher Wang listened to the commentary “The individual teacher who is biased against the students”. The forehead sweats and the heart is cold. This is a bad impression on him!

“Is there any evidence?!” Meiyuan New asked another question.

“No, no.” The police glanced at Teacher Wang, and his heart was secretly groaning. The other one is already secretly yelling at the teacher Wang to find trouble for them.

“I can make a certificate for Shen Lang students. Last night, the county party committee’s Yao Shuji private banquet, Shen Lang is in, I am also. You can go to Huayue to monitor!” Meiyuan gave a new voice to Shen Lang to testify.

Everyone was shocked when this statement came out!
