Chapter 72 - Gossip about school flowers

After the director and teacher Wang left, everyone continued to attend classes.

But many people have no thoughts, and the focus is on Shen Lang.

They found that the waves that have always been unsuccessful and honest, have recently shined, and the limelight is getting more and more popular!

Just the results, it has already triggered everyone's shock and suspicion, and now the relationship with the principal is not ordinary.

The principal will definitely not let Shen Lang cheat, but the principal should be able to get in touch with many papers that students can't reach. If you have tried many of the test papers for the test, you can do it again. Good grades are not difficult to understand.

There is no doubt, but many people have an eye for it, and their minds have also been active.

After the third year of high school, both parents and teachers are trying to get all kinds of reference books and famous school papers for students to exercise. If Shen Lang can really reach a lot of famous school papers that can't be bought by bookstores, it will not only improve the simulation results, but also definitely play well in the college entrance examination.

In this case, if you have a good relationship with Shen Lang, even if you can't get the test paper from him, you can know some key knowledge points, which can directly affect the score improvement...

Shen Lang was not affected at all. With the spiritual cultivation of his two worlds, he was confronted with Yue Qiang Yue Sheng Bai Shenghua, and officials like Yao Houpu were calm. The police and the principal have just been undulating, let alone the eyes of these same-age students.

When he was out of school at noon, he stayed at the end, and there was no rain for the return of information. It was also a tacit agreement to stay until the end.

“Thank you for your help. I will go out of school first and call a taxi waiting for you.” Shen Lang passed her side and thanked her.

“No need.” Rain fell to pick up something.

“Well?” Shen Lang slightly frowned, he has already planned to take it back at noon today and have a confession with his mother. Say no at this time, where to find a “rich girlfriend” to come out.

“Go out together.”

Falling rain is answering another answer, directly letting Shen Lang stunned.

This is to find the rain to help, is private, inconvenient to affect her, so it will be said that the school outside the car waiting. Falling rain, but said to go out together, with her style, this will attract everyone’s attention, and Ma uploaded all over the school!

Spread through the school, the waves don’t care, passed to her big home, Shen Lang is not afraid. Since she can be calm, he has nothing to say.

The two walked out of the classroom together and left the school building together.

Even if the two of them dragged to the end, they still have some hard-working classmates who have gone very late. It is a big surprise to see the school rain and a boy walking side by side.

“Yesterday, are you really the principals together?” Raining eyes glanced at the front, and asked a word in his mouth.

Shen Lang is undecided: “I told you that it was with Yue Zhennan. I bought this factory for my mother. He helped me a lot, but I signed some things, but I still want to personally. But yesterday Dinner at night, the principal is also there.”

“It seems that Yue Zhennan is really good for you, and I will bring you a lot of people.” Raining is not salty and not faint, and glanced over.

Although Shen Lang has the experience of the two worlds, but the two worlds are not rotten male drivers, where she knows that she even thinks so dirty.

“Not bad, I am still quite satisfied with him.”

So far, the Tanggong Yuejia Erzi, in front of him has not been the face of the son of a son, a “wave brother”, from wanting to win, until now to the younger brother, really makes him more satisfied.

At this time, Shen Lang saw a smile in the rain.

She is the color of the country, and it is usually faint and awkward. Is it a smile? Of course, it is a smile and a good look. But the waves always feel that this smile is a bit meaningful.

“Why are you laughing?”

“Nothing, very good.” Rain fell and shook his head, did not explain anything, but there was still a smile on the corner of his mouth.

“It’s pretty good to laugh at you.” Shen Lang shrugged, and since she didn’t say it, she didn’t ask anything.

“It doesn’t look good without laughing?”

“Alright! I haven’t stared at you.”

This answer makes the rain fall a little bit.

The former Shen Lang, like many boys, has a feeling of inferiority in front of the rain. Because she is not only very beautiful, but also very good, obviously also comes from a big city, not a local.

For these, falling rain is also used to it. Recently, Shen Lang had several contacts with her, but found that he was really very calm, not the kind that was installed. Although they had very few intersections, it was in front of the teaching building and in the playground.

Can he be so calm, is it because it is not good now?

However, this is not to make her the most wonderful. The most amazing thing is that now she walks close together and makes her feel the obvious changes before and after the waves! But what is the change, she can't say it at all, after all, the two people are not familiar with the degree of knowing.

And what makes her strange, this change is to let her walk along the side of Shen Lang, I feel very comfortable and very at ease!

Before she was at the playground, she still didn't feel this way. Now it is going to go outside the school, but it is obviously feeling this kind of peace of mind.

They didn't say much, and the exchange was very shallow. But this short all the way, but there are already a lot of news in the rapid spread!

Because after school, everyone went to the cafeteria to eat, and the day-to-day student left school. They walked a little late, have already avoided the crowd, and there are not many people who meet, basically the third year.

But that is the whole school's eye-catching rain, and this should be the first time I saw walking with the boys, and the two went out of the classroom!

All the photos that I saw were secretly photographed. Then there was a picture of the truth posted to the class group to spread the news, and then someone recognized the man called Shen Lang.

Many boys don't believe it, and some are flying from the cafeteria. I want to verify if it is true. The result is that when they walked to the school gate, there have been some special visits to see the fun.

When they saw the school flowers and the obscurity of the waves, they walked out of the school gate, and they seemed to be taking a taxi together, and immediately provoked the animals to scream.

For other ages, Shen Lang is still unknown. In the third year of high school, only a few people have heard of his progress. But for his classmates, he is a stalwart figure. The last time he directly rose to the third, and today's business, It made him feel a little bit like a man.

Therefore, when he heard that he and the rain fell, everyone was astonished, but the degree of incredibility was much lower than that of other classes. Many people have already gained an accreditation in the invisible: I feel that Shen Lang and Luo Yu are a type of person.

The "Anecdote" of this school flower quickly spread the name of Shen Lang to the whole school through the rapid spread of the WeChat group. Of course, Liu Zhilong also knew it immediately, which made him feel complicated, but he immediately reported to Yue Zhennan...
