

First Strong 73

Chapter 73 - Girlfriend plans to pass

Shen Lang and Luo Yu, together, did not take the bus, took a taxi home.

He had already said to his mother last night, and it was handed over yesterday. Of course, Cai boss did not dare to let Han Fengying go to work at night.

When I got home, my mother really was ready for a hearty lunch, but what Shen Lang didn't expect was that his father Shennan actually came back!

Shen Nan rushed back in the night, and I learned more about it from Han Fengying. I know that the factory is not a serious loss, but it is not clear whether it is mortgaged or not, so they are still very nervous about the loss.

At this moment, my son really brought a beautiful girl back, so that both people were shocked!

The two came directly from the school, all wearing the school uniforms in the county, directly proved the body of the rain, not the question they considered whether they were raised by the female boss.

This is to make them feel relieved. The son is going to take the university exam, and he will definitely have a good future. If the woman boss is for the money, they will definitely not agree. They would rather work hard for him to go to school.

However, this girl is also a student in the county. She can't say it. A student, who has money at home, can give her thousands of tens of thousands to play, and it is impossible for millions of her to buy a factory for her boyfriend. !

How can a family with this strength allow her daughter to associate with a poor boy?

Although the rain fell a bit cold and bleak, but since the promise of Shen Lang acting, in front of the two elders, it did a good job, no deliberate enthusiasm, and did not reject the coldness of thousands of miles away.

For the environment of Shen Langjia, there is no such thing as disappointing discomfort.

This made Shen Lang quite satisfied. After introducing each other, everyone went to the dinner table. I have to go back to school in the afternoon and talk while eating.

Simple to get along, Shen Nan and Han Fengying can feel that this girl is definitely a good show for everyone, that kind of temperament, is not cultivated by this small county, which makes them a bit restrained.

Both the son and the husband are back, and the son is going to bring his girlfriend back. Han Fengying is of course very prepared to have a hearty lunch. Although there are no expensive ingredients, it is not the practice of the chef, but the taste is still very good in the home cooking.

Falling rain is a person who has no particular attention to food, but I can see that she has had a great knowledge and has eaten all kinds of delicacies. Compared with the canteen meals, it is so much better, she also praises one after another.

Because of the sternness, it is not easy for Shen Nan and Han Fengying to ask questions. For the situation of falling rain, it is not good for them to make friends, especially the factory, they can only open their eyes to Shen Lang and let him find Excuses to the room and his father said in detail.

Shen Lang broke it directly: "Dad, Mom, I came back with the rain and I told you last night. It's because you don't worry about the factory..."

When they heard this, they stopped the chopsticks. In fact, they did not have the mood to eat, so they waited to understand.

"Her family is very rich, and I feel that I am very promising and ambitious, so I am willing to invest in me first. This money is for me, the factory is not a waste of money, it is the first investment. I understand After that, basically there are hundreds of thousands of profits every year."

When Shen Lang was talking, the rain fell and nodded to confirm.

The temperament of falling rain makes them believe that she is a family with this strength. As for why investing in the waves, it should only be because of her sake, but this is a lot of money, even if it is not illegal income, they also very nervous.

“But...but we...”

“You can rest assured that you have been doing this in the factory for a long time. I believe that everything is understandable and familiar. In the future, as long as you manage it well, the others will remain unchanged. This can’t let Dad come back to help!”

“Miss Fall, is this really suitable? In case we are...” Han Fengying asked very nervously.

Falling rain 荻 smile: “Uncle and aunt, you can rest assured. I think Shen Lang is really promising. This money is not a big deal in the future. Maybe he will buy a house in the county or buy a house in the city soon. You should not be surprised. “”

“Ah?” Although they are their sons, they have great trust in their sons, but their own details are very clear.

Falling rain again comforts: “Please rest assured, believe in my vision.”

Seeing her say this again and again, the two of them are only slightly relieved. Perhaps this kid is really a noble person, and he is valued by such a good girl.

“Well, Miss Nao, you can rest assured that the two of us will go all out and will not let the factory lose money.” Han Fengying said seriously.

Shen Lang laughed: “It doesn’t have to be so serious, but it is a small factory. Although it is an investment, it is mainly for you, so that you have your own business. Your satisfaction is the most important thing, making money is not.”

For this, how can they be assured of the two, but now in order to give a girl a more capable image, do not let his son lose face, they did not say anything.

Shen Lang went on to say it again. Yesterday, it was signed in the county. The cadres in the town all participated. This will not be a problematic transaction, so that parents can rest assured.

However, Shen Nan and Han Fengying are not at all worried. They simply believe that they are cadres. They are even more skeptical about whether Boss and the cadres colluded and fled a vacant shell factory to Shen Lang.

Although they are not good at being a boss, the previous two have also passed. As long as there is no problem with this money, the factory is legally traded, then they will try to deal with everything else, and not everything can be pushed to the son.

After talking about the most important issue, it will be much easier later. However, they are still quite cautious about falling rain. It is inconvenient to inquire about her family's situation like the average person Raining is just helping to play, it is not easy to do this, of course not I will take the initiative to explain my situation one by one.

Because they have to go to school in the afternoon, they will leave after they have finished eating.

Although it is incredible, Han Fengying is very happy that his son can make such a good girlfriend. After getting a meal and getting familiar with it, let her enthusiasm and let them go back to dinner on weekends. They are good at eating.

Shen Lang has dealt with it, and then let them not have to send it, and it is good to go back to the car with the rain.

When waiting for a taxi, Shen Lang seriously thanked him: "Let's rain, thank you."

Rain fell and looked at him. "No thanks, I also took a meal."

"Don't you have a meal that weekend?" Shen Lang laughed.

Falling rain asked: "And then? Have you eaten dinner and go back? Or do you want to help you cook rice for mature rice?"
