

First Strong 74

Chapter 74 - Gossip

Shen Lang did not feel embarrassed, nor did he feel that he was misunderstood. He never thought about it. His mother should not have this meaning.

“Thinking more, my mom wants to express my love and gratitude to you. I want you to take care of you at the ceremony. After all, you are my girlfriend, they are my son, of course, I am treated well. you.”

After the rain fell, I snorted and waved: “The car is coming.”

Speaking of the reaction at home, let Shen Lang think that she should have a bad relationship with her family, or she will not run to the county. But this is not his business, just a fake girlfriend.

After getting on the taxi, the two people did not say anything. It was not familiar enough, and the driver was even more awkward.

Under the cold field, I want to deal with embarrassment, not to sleep or to play with a mobile phone.

Falling in the rain is to close your eyes and keep your eyes clean, and Shen Lang is taking out the mobile phone.

He didn't rely too much on the phone, and when he went home for lunch, he didn't look at the phone. Now that I saw WeChat, I found a lot of information.

There are a lot of group information, but he is not reminding the state of the reminder, but now it has received a lot of private chat information, all the classmates sent.

Wait a minute for him to check it out, good guy! Basically, it is a content, which is to ask him what is the relationship with the rain.

Originally, he was also prepared to reply to a few of their classmates who were better in the rivers. When they saw so many questions, they realized that it was a bit wrong. Open the class group and quickly glance at hundreds of chats all the way to understand what it is.

At noon, the rain did not evade and walked out of the school with him. It was seen by many people. It was also photographed by many people, and then it caused a heated discussion.

The group of other classes, or the various small groups, do not know what the situation is. But in my class, everyone is still very excited.

For the school flower of the rain, there have been various excellent male pursuits in the past few years, and there is no effect. This class, other classes, other ages. Now suddenly I can go with Shen Lang. If I really take a drag, I don't have a cheap outsider.

However, the most enthusiastic thing is that two people, some of them are like the previous Shenlang, Jianghe, they are not very good in all aspects.

They are self-aware, knowing that they can't eat swan meat, and of course they are interested in discussing who eats swan meat. And before Shen Lang, like them, even the results are not as good as many of them, family conditions are the bottom of the category, which makes them have a sense of substitution!

Although I didn't eat swan meat, this swan meat is also one of our crickets.

Another group is a part of the girls. Girls have been more enthusiastic about the gossip of emotions, and in general, all aspects are too good, they have become green leaves, this time the green leaves have the opportunity to talk about the gossip of safflower, can not wait to bring a variety of rhythms.

The girls who have a good relationship with the rain, and the best boys in the class are silent. The girl is so understanding, it should be privately asked to go to the rain. The boys are depressed and unwilling.

If it is one of the best boys in the class, they can accept it. Now look for a sinking wave. What is this?

After reading it, he reached out and touched a falling rain.

“Look at the group. Let’s gossip and fly.”

After watching the rain, I looked at it. I didn’t let it go. I continued to close my eyes and didn’t go to see the phone.

What are the meanings of this?

Shen Lang saw her more, is it intentional?

This may also be there, or who would be so easy to promise to pretend to be a girlfriend. Besides, what she could have avoided is that she volunteered to go out together.

It seems that he is looking for someone to help pretend to be a girlfriend, maybe he will use him as a shield!

I think that last time I just talked on the playground, let Liu Zhilong find it right away. Now that the day and night are so big, it should spread even more.

With her family background, the arrow she wants to block, whether it is her family or the pursuer, is definitely a big problem!

Although I want to understand this layer, Shen Lang did not pay attention to it.

He needs help, peace of mind for his parents, and is very important to him. It’s also very interesting to say that there is no resignation or condition for falling rain. If she has troubles and needs to borrow him, what is the relationship?

I don’t mind if I fall, and Shen Lang will be happy to watch the bustle, as if he had nothing to do with him.

After thinking about it, he did not reply one by one, but returned one in the group.

“Don’t let me privately, I will reply to you in a unified way. I ask the squad leader to have lunch. We just talk about learning. Don’t think about it, don’t mess around. Also welcome to send my reply to other places.”

Seeing that Shen Lang appeared, everyone was interested and came up again. Many people immediately bubbled up and asked what was going on.

“Talk about learning! We all know.”

“We also want to ask the squad leader to eat and talk to the squad leader, but there is no chance.”

“It’s no wonder that Shen Lang’s performance has advanced by leaps and bounds. Could it be that the squad leader taught the secret?”

“Shen Lang, please eat me, I can talk to you about it.”

Falling rain did not appear in the group bubbling, and even if bubbling, everyone would not dare to take her to joke, Shen Lang is much better, boys and girls are joking with him.

The river is obviously still waiting, and it is still not satisfied with the “official tone” in the group. I continued to send a private letter and asked: “What is the situation? I don’t believe you are dragging, it is impossible to talk about learning.”

Shen Lang returned to his WeChat expression. “Whoever has his own secrets, this is not just me alone. I can’t say too much.”

“Well! Where are you from? I can tell you that there are several people in other classes who are thinking about packing you up.”

“Clean me?”

“Crap! If the school flower is without the owner, it is everyone’s, those who are excellent in all aspects, will feel great opportunities. But you are so different in the way of course they feel very uncomfortable!”

“No words. What are they going to do?”

“Not only the other classes, but also the good boys in our class, it is also that you are not pleasing to the eye. Originally, the last time you rushed to the top three, they have greatly lost their face, and now they have won the first prize. Falling rain and walking together, you are envious and hateful!”

Shen Lang went straight back: “Take them! Originally, I didn’t have anything to do with the rain. If they are not happy, I can’t do anything with me!”

“...” The river is speechless, he has already discovered that this friend is already different.

I don’t know if it is because the grades make people feel confident, or because they are confident, so the results are good.

Not only self-confidence, momentum and attitude towards people and things have changed a lot!

Shen Lang can get better, and he is happy outside.

When I was about to return to the county, Shen Lang saw the information from Yuezhennan.
