

First Strong 76

Chapter 76 - War book

These tactics, in fact, see the waves are quite speechless. Originally, I thought they were a bit particular. I didn't expect to open it. They all printed A4 paper. The big idea is that if it is a man, it will go to the playground sword at night. There are two time periods that are different, but there is no payment!

Engaging in anonymity, there is no handwriting left, probably the other party is afraid that he will report to the school. However, such a hidden head, it really makes Shen Lang not see. What surprised Shen Lang was the lowest letter. He was ready to throw it when he was speechless, but he saw this as a letter written with a brush!

In this age, it is very difficult to write a letter with a pen. It is also a very small group.

At the beginning, he didn't think that there was a high level of knowledge among the students. Even if you write with a brush, it should be loaded, and the brush is not good for the font.

But when you look closely, you find that these words are really good!

Yes, word. The content is not important, and it is similar to other anonymous ones. It is also about seeing him alone on the playground.

There are not many words, the content is similar to other printed words, but the writing is not the same, but there is a bit of force on the back of the paper!

When Shen Lang was in the world, he used the era of writing brush, and he still had the ability to appreciate calligraphy. This simple "war book", placed in today's society, is definitely a level of calligraphers!

After being surprised, he took a closer look and found that not only the words were very good, but there was a bit of a fierce momentum in it.

It is not the level that ordinary calligraphers can achieve through calligraphy to reveal the state of mind at that time. Because it is not a question of skill, it can be combined with the book and the intention to achieve a pen.

“Hey? Is there anyone writing a brush?” Jiang can guess what it is, and he was not interested in seeing it. Seeing the expression of Shen Lang, he took a look at the probe and was surprised.

“The word is good.”

Shen Lang smiled. If the word is the new principal of Meiyuan, or an older teacher, he can believe it. Even if it is only in a small place like C County, it is normal if it is soaked for decades.

But if you say which student wrote this, you can't help but doubt that you can write this level of brush writing, and you must learn from the source of your family.

If there is such a person, calligraphy must be the talent that he is proud of, and it is also well known. Which teacher will not make this excitement, what is really what he called directly to the office in the past.

But guess who sent it, it is not difficult. Although the literal content does not reveal anything, I believe it should be a secret protection of the rain!

“Who is this? Can you write such a sturdy word?” Jianghe carefully looked at it and wanted to find out the payment.

“No matter, let me throw it.” Shen Lang gave them all directly.

The river looked at it, and several letters were not settled. It was a bit helpless. If you could not see that it was written, he really suspected that it was printed on paper.

The river did not immediately take the trash can, and the goal was too conspicuous, and others would pick it up in the past. When Shen Lang himself threw it, it was more conspicuous, so he prepared to throw it after class.

“Are you going to the appointment?”

Shen Lang shook his head: “They don't dare to be real names, who cares about them!”

If you really go, the other party does not come, just deliberately play him? Look at this time period is not the same, it is still very likely, when you want to find a door, there is no target.

The river nodded. "I don't think I should go."

When the teacher came to class, he stopped talking.

These days, Shen Lang still reviews at his own pace, and then has a clear understanding of the current level.

He used to be burdened with mental strength, and he was even worse in terms of memory. Even if he paid a lot more effort than the average, he could not reach the average level. However, after the awakening, there is no such problem. With the cultivation of "Yin and Yang Bozhengzheng", the whole person has made rapid progress, which is also reflected in the aspects of the ear and the strong memory.

After more than half a month, he has already re-examined all the textbooks, not only remembering the memories he had seen before, but also adding new memories and understandings.

This is why his test scores can leap forward, but until now, he has found that he has reached the bottleneck.

If it is a question that can be achieved by memory, he is sure that it can be correct. However, there are still many questions that are used in the opposite direction and in various comprehensions. There is no more way.

After all, he used to be very hard, not a natural one.

Of course, this does not reach the upper limit. His current level of mental power is more genius than genius. It takes a lot of time to work hard. It is not a problem to catch up with the rain.

However, Shen Lang felt that he could not make a decision. He now pays attention to the examination only because of secular considerations and does not want his parents to be sad. At the current level, there is no problem in getting a copy of the book. Of course, it will not take a lot of time to improve by a few dozen points.

After considering it, he sent a message to Teacher Wang, saying that he also invited a tutor, and he did not come to the school to study at night.

This is an excuse, but because of the attitude of the principal, Mr. Wang certainly thought it was true. He even suspected that this was the decision of the new principal of Meiyuan. He did not ask what was asked, and immediately approved the information.

After reporting with Teacher Wang, Shen Lang left school after eating. This is just a talk with Jianghe. It is also afraid that they will worry if they don't return to the dormitory.

When I returned to my place of residence, I received a call from Yuezhennan and arranged for a batch of medicine bottles. A simple comparison, it is indeed much more refined than the small bottles he bought online, better protection and sealing.

Seeing the small medicine bottle of the treasure and the * soup, Shen Lang remembered that he had to give the rain a little benefit. He was all prepared, and the result was forgotten because of the enthusiasm of the "gossip".

The bottle is here and the honey is here. Shen Lang started to refine the medicine, and now he does not need the treasure to return the soup is only used to sell cash.

When refining medicine, Shen Lang must personally look after the fire, which can not concentrate on the practice.

However, he did not waste time, grabbed a Lingshi with one hand, and operated "Yin and Yang Bozhenzhenzheng" to absorb the aura inside. At the same time, holding the mobile phone, I brushed the information in WeChat.

He suddenly found an interesting thing. The explosion of Dong Wenbin's family last night was originally the focus of the discussion this morning. In the morning, the police asked him, and later the director came over to clarify, it was also a topic.

I didn't expect that because of the rain and the departure of him at the end of the day, I quickly seized the hot spot. Everyone discussed this "gossip".

After laughing, Shen Lang's heart is moving. Wouldn't it be raining, deliberately helping him to shift focus?

Just then, there was movement outside! It didn't come over like the wall last night, but obviously someone stopped outside the wall.

Shen Lang quickly put away the Lingshi, looked at the fire, there will be no problems for the time being, and immediately opened the door.
