

THE FIRST STRONG

Chapter 8 - Fed up

After learning about these situations, Shen Lang also ate almost, and his heart was a little touched.

Everyone is afraid of getting into trouble. When they are in the class of Dong Wenbin and the junior students, they don't dare to speak in person.

But this time, because he was worried that he had an accident, it was a collective action, helping to find him, and exerting some pressure on the teacher.

"Thank you. Thank you all!"

Shen Lang's eyes swept over the rain, rivers and other classmates. Their arguments were not systematic and detailed, and some were supplemented by his own association.

"You...have something to ask for leave, so suddenly disappeared. If something goes wrong, how can the school tell your family?"

The rain did not leave, waiting for Shen Lang to explain where to go, and he did not explain it at all. He could only say a few words.

Shen Lang is undecided, there is nothing to say about it.

"It's okay, just go to dinner last night after dinner! Don't forget that you have set a difficult goal!"

The rivers are snoring, so as not to fall into the rain and then ask the waves. With his understanding of Shen Lang, since he is not willing to speak in public, he will definitely not say it again.

Rain is not talking about anything, she needs to talk to the teacher now.

After she left, other students were more open, and asked directly where Shen Lang went in the afternoon, was not played by Lin Yun Li Rong.

Shen Lang is a bit helpless, although you should be out of concern, but if I am really injured, so ask, isn't the wound salt?

I took care of it and then went to the classroom on the grounds of self-study last night. Others saw that he had no big problems. He remembered that he was not bullied twice by Dong Wenbin. They were really beaten. They couldn't help anything, and they didn't continue to gossip.

Overworked and boring review life, this is just a small episode for everyone, and will soon continue to be in the endorsement.

The book that landed before Shen Lang had been picked up and packed up. There was no way to stain and stain the nosebleeds. I don't have to ask if I know that this is the help of Jianghe or other classmates. It won't be Lin Yun and Li Rong.

Compared with the morning, he has made significant changes now, not only physically, but also in terms of energy, memory and understanding.

However, he did not read the book review for a long time, the class teacher Wang teacher came.

Teacher Wang knows that Shen Lang has found it from the rain, and people are safe. The fear that made him afraid of major events was put down, and then he came with anger.

He called Shen Lang~ to the outside corridor. He didn't talk, he stared at Shen Lang and watched it for a minute!

This is the pressure exerted by the eyes!

Being called out and training alone is basically a problem. You will be guilty of guilty, plus the authority represented by the teacher of the class teacher, and then express your severe emotions by sinking your face.

After all, it is a high school student, let alone corporal punishment, and may not be able to play students. Through psychological pressure, defeating the heart and then criticizing the training, the effect will be much better.

This does not work for Dong Wenbin's indifferent students. It doesn't work for the old fritters that don't have much oil and salt. But the former Shen Lang is just afraid of these honest students.

If you add "calling the parents to come over", it will make him afraid of any defense, and nervously stand up and approve.

At this moment, the Shen Lang, who is neither fearful nor as if he does not understand this routine, looks at Teacher Wang with a calm look.

"Where did you go in the afternoon? Why didn't you go to class?"

After Wang found that he had not achieved the effect, he frowned and asked.

"You should know."

Shen Lang is not soft and not hard, and there is a thorn in the words.

He is a bit uncomfortable!

If Teacher Wang is also like the students like Luo Yu and Jiang He, he is worried that he is not injured, then he can speak and even be grateful.

Now this attitude of training him, let him think of Dong Wenbin's unscrupulous bully classmates, because of the indulgence of teachers and school inaction!

“What do you mean? What attitude do you have?” Teacher Wang voiced a little higher.

This dull student did not give him a good impression. But now, even when he is honest and weak, he dares to scream at him and make him feel that authority has been provocative.

“Dong Wenbin and Lin Yun Li Rong, they often beat me and even extorted my living expenses. Today is also. You don’t know at all?” Shen Lang looked at him with a mockery.

Shen Lang calmly calmly, but also seems a bit ridiculous expression, so that Wang’s emotions are anxious.

“Do you have any evidence to prove it? If you don’t have it, don’t talk about it, this is oh!”

Of course, he knows that everyone knows that because they know that there will be no results, and that they are afraid of being retaliated by deeper, the students who are bullied are swallowing!

Now let’s just say it is broken, so that the teacher can’t hang on his face.

Shen Lang is secretly cold, I should accept the criticism humbly, find a reason to explain, apologize for the absenteeism, guarantee not, so is the result he needs?

“You are right. No one is showing evidence. If you ask me, I will say it. I don’t mind telling you!”

“What do you mean?” Teacher Wang frowned, this kid is too abnormal!

“In order to get a good exam at the university, I used to breathe. But now it’s been two months. I am not prepared to endure it any more. You bring a word to them. If you do something, I don’t mind killing one.”

Shen Lang is very calm to say this, but let Wang listen to the cold!

“you you.....”

He held out his finger and shook the waves~ ~ he was anxious and angry, but he couldn't say it later.

Is this what the students said?

But... I can't bear it anymore!

He is really scared!

Shen Lang has been working very hard for three years. Seeing that the university is hopeless, maybe it will go to extremes!

If you start to fight hard and kill Dong Wenbin, Dong Dawei will never give up, it will be an earthquake for the school! Even Lin Yun Li Rong will cause big problems.

Ordinary fights, they can close one eye with one eye, but if someone moves to kill, they have to attach great importance. In this case, he can only criticize and warn, and can't call the police to arrest people, and can't stare at twenty-four hours.

When he was trembling, Shen Lang gave him a deep look, then went back to the classroom without waiting for him to speak.

Teacher Wang, who was so anxious and eager to attack, was discouraged.

This kid is really too abnormal, calm and firm, probably the smashed boat that was forced to the road!

He took out his mobile phone and wanted to call the parents of Shen Lang to bring the parents back to education.

But this sentence is just a slogan, and he has no evidence to prove it! Looking back will definitely not be recognized.

Even if he insists, Shen Lang can also be said to be the words of being oppressed, it is impossible to drop out of school. And when parents come to the school to ask about bullying, they will set off waves.

Taking a step back, even if Shen Lang can be dropped out of school, there is no constraint on class. Isn't there a lot of time waiting outside the school to block people? It is impossible for the alarm to catch it!

Just a moment of consideration, he called the phone to Dong Wenbin, and then a very serious warning! Let Dong Wenbin not allow things to do, and constrain Lin Yun Li Rong, don't touch the waves, or the school will definitely deal with it seriously!
