Chapter 81 - Unexpected letter

In Mo Qi's opinion, Shen Lang asked him to go out at the intersection first, but it was not so simple to let him prepare the car, he must test him! See if he is alone, will there be disrespect!

With this thought, he sweated when he ran out, and he dared not have any slight guilty conscience when he was afraid of Shen Lang. At this moment, there seems to be a sword hidden in my mind. If a person has a mind, he can kill his brain!

But in fact, Shen Lang is only because he is still practicing medicine...

Back in the house, he checked the heat of the treasure and the soup, and continued to refine. Then I checked the situation of the Lingshi that I got from Yuan Cheng, and like the Ye Family trade, it was just the elementary stone.

But it doesn't matter, it's a very good thing for him now.

After collecting the Lingshi, he continued to calm the refining. After the pot was released, he began to add 20% of the honey according to the new formula.

In the end, he tasted it himself, not to mention that the high-sweet honey added a large proportion and directly suppressed all kinds of unpleasant taste. It's just a sweet bitter taste, which is acceptable to most people. If it is a drink, of course it is still dark, but compared with traditional Chinese medicine and herbal tea, it is much better.

Shen Lang put these ones in a new bottle and put them in the refrigerator.

The new treasure is also a **** soup, in addition to the Yue family, but also prepared to set aside some, to give a few bottles of rain to thank, and then to some parents, the previous super hard drink.

Before going out, he thought about it. There were people coming in one after another. It was no longer possible to rely on the door lock. It seems that you have to add a ban!

But now Mo Qi is still waiting outside, and he can't scare people. After all, he just scared, and did not really print the mark of life and death.

In Shen Lang's mind, of course, there is no such means, but some of them need to be relatively high-level to be able to do it. Some need to study and learn carefully before they can start, or they will kill people casually.

Just just injecting a vitality, it caused the tingling of the brain to Mo Qi.

When he walked out to the intersection, he saw a car. Mo Qi quickly got off the bus and gave him the door of the back door. He respected him and got on the car. He also blocked his hand on the top of the door to avoid head-on collision. It is.

It seems that this is an attitude that his master is used to, but it is now used on Shen Lang.

Shen Lang didn't talk on the train, just let him drive, then he closed his eyes and raised his mind.

Mo Qi did not dare to ask more. He did not see Master's collection. Before he was sure that something could shake the waves, he was still "dead." He rushed to drive carefully, for fear of instability and let the waves break. After getting on the high speed, he accelerated as much as possible and went straight to Pingxi.

After arriving at the destination, Mo Qi also explained it carefully.

It is said that his master is usually living alone. If there are some daily necessities, he will be prepared to send it, and he will arrange for the babysitter to clean up and cook.

He also said that he would handle it well. He dismissed the nanny and the house. It was the friend of Master who asked, and only said that Master went to the Quartet. It is not clear where to go.

He has the key here and came directly to Yuan Cheng's residence with Shen Lang.

Yuan Cheng did not know whether he had anything to do or whether he relied solely on his apprenticeship. From the perspective of everything in this room, it was not luxurious. Of course, it is not a single-family villa, it is a common three-bedroom house.

After entering, Mo Qi was busy introducing it. There are not many guests who will come here. Usually, the babysitter is just trying to clean up the living room and cook clothes. Master's bedroom is self-cleaning, and there is a study that is forbidden to enter. That is actually a practice room. There is also a guest bedroom, sometimes he will live here.

Mo Qi also opened it to him one by one. The guest bedroom and the master bedroom did not seem to have any special place, the focus was on the study.

After opening the study, Mo Qi opened the lamp and advanced himself to avoid any misunderstanding in the event of a mess.

“Actually, I don't have much chance to come here.”

Mo Qi looked inside, a little awkward. Then a brief introduction, originally Yuan Cheng is not here, probably came over a year ago. Of course, he should be entertained as an apprentice. The house is rented by him, but because the study is Master's practice room, he usually does not enter.

Two people look closely, there is actually not much in the study. There is a yoga mat on the ground, and it is probably on this. There are no books, let alone secrets.

Compared with the calmness of Shen Lang, Mo Qi is undoubtedly very nervous. If Master does not find any good things here, his life can be difficult to say! With the strength of Shen Lang, he does not need to run his legs to sell his life.

So he consciously began to search the rummaging cabinet, but because the room was not big, there was not much, and the search was completed very quickly.

“It should be here...”

He looked carefully at the chest of drawers, and there was nothing valuable at all. Only one box found in the drawer. This box is locked, so it is very likely that there are good things hidden inside.

This lock is also an ordinary lock, and it should be a babysitter or a general thief. Mo Qi was in a hurry, and opened the box directly.

The scattered box, the things inside also appeared under the eyes of two people.

Mo Qi could not help but be disappointed, inside is just folded and placed an envelope!

This letter will be collected so well, it is estimated that Yuan Cheng cherished people, small lovers are possible. This has nothing to do with value!

Don't say that it is a letter, it is the secret of the practice method bank passbook, it is estimated that can not enter the eyes of Shen Lang.

"Sir, you, wait a moment... I am more cautious of my master, maybe I am afraid that I will turn over his things, maybe not important things are here. You wait! I went to the bedroom to find..."

Mo Qi was cold and sweaty. At that time, he could be regarded as a plan to slow down. He thought that Master was somewhat home-based. It was really impossible to see the relationship through Yue Zhennan, but he did not expect Shen Lang to give him a mark.

Now I find that Yuan Cheng really has nothing here, and he is afraid. Is it possible to bring Shen Lang to Master's hometown to find it? I will definitely think that I am playing him!

As he ran across the master bedroom, Shen Lang picked up the letter and, without sealing, directly pulled out the stationery inside.

Because of the relationship between several "war books" received at noon, Shen Lang was a little more sensitive to the letter. Yuan Chengcai came over for a year, it is impossible to cherish the previous envelope. The reality is already the era of mobile communication, and the use of the letter is often a certain sense of ritual, but also can be collected, it is more valuable.

The font above the letter is very common, but the content inside is to make Shen Lang's eyes shine! This is an unexpected good news!
