

First Strong 99

Chapter 99 - Ambush pinch

For this young man who emerged from the air, everyone does not know his identity, let alone trust. However, Shen Lang had no nonsense, nor did he talk to them about the conditions. He moved the stone directly and opened the tomb of the King of the King!

This change first shocked everyone, let everyone re-examine him. Then immediately focused on the opening of the hole, the legendary king of the genre finally opened!

Time has been wasted for ten or twenty minutes, so the few people who are ready to enter have no thoughts and wait for ventilation. Put on the oxygen absorber directly and rushed to the entrance.

The eyes of several veterans are gathered on Shen Lang's body. They are all afraid of the first wave of sinking near the water. I didn't expect him to stand in the near future, but did not pre-empt, but let them go in several sects.

The people who watched their homes have already entered, they are relieved, but they don't dare to care about Shen Lang.

"Little brother, don't you go in?" Ye Long asked.

Others did not speak, and they were helpless when they were helpless. It was perfectly reasonable to go in. Even if they don't go in, they should also give a little compensation.

But the ones that can be selected, even if they are not the strongest in the martial art family, are the smartest and most promising. Anyone can think that others can't go to learn Lei Feng to do good things in the middle of the night. With his strength, he can't see the benefits of compensation.

Now he can't go on, but instead he may wait for the exit and  the people who come out from inside!

"Do you allow me to go in?" Shen Lang asked a smile.

Ye Long was a little embarrassed and exchanged a look with others.

The other veterans are holding the same mind. Instead of letting him hold the exit, let him go in. Those who go advanced must also think that they will unite to kill him!

Although he can be combined to kill him outside, he obviously understands the opening mechanism of this tomb of the king, and the tomb of the king is closed, and the elite in the door is buried inside.

The few who have just entered, the contemporary elite in their martial art, are not the head of the family, but also the strongest. They will join forces to ambush after they are advanced, and they will be stronger than a loose sand outside!

“Of course, you have helped us a lot and are qualified to go in.”

“Yeah, Ye Lao knows you, and of course we believe in you.”

“This is what you invited me to enter!” Shen Lang smiled and jumped directly into the dark hole.

Several veterans immediately gesticulated and told the people of their martial art to prepare for the meeting. Whoever comes out first, whoever comes out, will be completed in an hour and a half. It is difficult for everyone to gain an average. If one’s own harvest is huge, you have to be careful about other martial arts.

Of course, Shen Lang is not seeking to get their consent, nor is it an oxygen relationship, but intentionally let them go ahead.

The information given by Yue Gang, even if it was all truthfully told, is also a broken generation. He himself has not been born in the same year. His father did not enter the same year. Other sects are different. Those who go in today get information about their previous generation.

The Tomb of the King of the King has been opened many times and I don’t know how many things there are. There are some roads, and he doesn’t want to go back, waiting for them to be ahead.

As for their intentions, how can Shen Lang guess?

Immediately after entering the entrance to the cave, he remained vigilant and put the prepared headlights on. In this catacomb, it is very difficult to understand the route, and no light is more disadvantageous.

Looking at the light, after landing, there is a road down the road, the people in front can not see.

Shen Lang went down this road and admired it. From here, everything was a slate-repaired wall, very strong, but it might be the season, or it was obviously a little damp.

The entrance that had just entered was good, there was fresh air coming in, and along this road, the air quality was getting worse.

There is no road here. Shen Lang is going straight along this road. Although I don't know the pattern of the entire Tomb of the King, but this is a period of time, it can be seen that the scale is very grand, and it is far greater than the Tuen Mun's off-sun array. range.

It is very likely that the entire Phoenix Valley is the tomb of the King of the King. After the hollowing out is completed, it will be covered with the soil and become the present.

This road is the "back" shape down. After walking around, it is obviously the bottom layer. Then the road ahead continues to "back" the shape down, and the side has begun to have a fork out.

If the above is not counted, this is the first floor of the underground. Every time you open it, it is here first. What good things have already been scraped out.

So Shen Lang did not stop, and continued to slowly go down.

When I walked to the right corner, the dark front was suddenly shining brightly and shining directly on his eyes!

The person in front couldn't help it anymore, ambushing him here, turning off the headlights, and the people were in the darkness. And they wear an oxygen absorber, take a deep breath, and then they can not even breathe, it is difficult to find just in front.

The bright light shines on the eyes of Shen Lang, in order to let him take a moment to win a little initiative.

At the same time, there was a person above the back step, not close, and launched an attack directly against Shen Lang! This man was hiding in the fork of the road, waiting for the Shenlang to pass, and then came out from behind.

When they came in, they went down the steps and quickly discussed such a plan. For this sudden emergence, but also to open the tomb of the king, no one dared to take a nap, immediately formed an alliance shot.

The action just happened is also very good. When Shen Lang walks to the corner, the people under the steps are glaring with lights. As long as this time, the attack launched at the top of the back will succeed.

The plan seems to be implemented without any bias, but the reality is very different!

The light just shone on the face of Shen Lang, and then it was discovered that Shen Lang was not only affected by the sight, but also almost volley to step in front of him!

This is a right-angled corner. The Shen Lang is in front of him, and the attack on the back is naturally lost.

Although his mission is to interfere with the sight of Shen Lang, after all, what they can come in is the strongest of their factions, and they are also maintaining a high level of alert. He is also at a corner, as long as it flashes down, you can avoid the attack of the waves.

And where he is, there is a winding road next to it. There are people who have ambushed them. After he goes down, Shen Lang will be caught and chased, and the people above will surely chase it down.

His plan is not wrong, just underestimating the speed of the waves! Underestimate the preparation of Shen Lang!

Knowing the terrain, turning off the lights and ambushing, can you let Shen Lang enter the encirclement? Shen Lang did not go fast, it seems to be careful and vigilant. In fact, it is the first time that God has looked down and searched for it!
