

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 247

Knowing that Melinda was still preparing lunch, Jonas did not go to the company directly but stayed at Vern's home to accompany her. The lunch was prepared together by the two.

Although Jonas only learned several dishes, he was good at cutting.

Since they had a clear division of work, Jonas thought it was a rare opportunity. After discussion with Vern, he invited Nelson for dinner.

When Nelson saw that the two of them got along well with each other, he was very happy. When he had dinner, he acted like a gourmet and judged each dish highly.

It seemed that Melinda and Jonas had been closer after the cook. Victor was not in the mood to care about the business of the company, and as a result, the staff of the company finally relaxed.

Work was too little for Melinda, which made her feel that she was on a paid vacation.

The baby in the womb finally passed the troublesome period. Melinda had a better appetite recently. She ate much more, and she was more plump and energetic.

Such a peaceful life made Melinda feel happy.

But her calmness was doomed to be destroyed. As the child grew up, Melinda began to go shopping in maternal and infant shops like many mothers.

On weekends, she went to the shopping mall nearby her house. Sometimes, her servant would accompany her, and sometimes, she would be alone.

Today, Melinda sneaked out alone.

Wandering in the maternal and infant store, Melinda liked children's clothes the most. They were so small that she thought they were amazing.

She paid attention on comfort particularly about how to dress herself. However, when choosing her child's clothes, she would see a variety of things, such as design, materials, and even a small pattern, which would make her hesitate for quite a while.

Outside the maternal and infant store, Emily was looking at Melinda through the transparent glass window, her eyes full of jealousy.

Why could Melinda have all this, while she could only be in a dark corner like a rat crossing the street?

She wanted Melinda to experience the feeling of falling from heaven to hell. Emily thought maliciously and followed her with malicious eyes. Melinda selected a lot of things and walked out from the maternal and infant store.

It was at this time that Emily came back to her senses. Her purpose of today's visit was to find Melinda.

She quickly ran to Melinda and shouted, "Melinda, wait for a moment."

At first, Melinda thought she had misheard, but when she looked back, she saw Emily running in a hurry. Subconsciously, Melinda protected her stomach and hid aside.

Melinda's guard against Emily was very strong.
