

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 311

Because of this, Jerry didn't sleep well last night. The next day, he appeared in front of everyone with a pair of black eyes.

Melinda was not friendly to Jerry at all. Even when he appeared at the table, Melinda told Jerry that he wanted to eat breakfast outside.

Alston's face turned pale in an instant. Melinda had always been generous and gentle. She seldom humiliated him like this.

On the contrary, it was Queena, who was happy to see Melinda in such a state.

"You don't want to eat, do you? I'll ask the servants to prepare it again." Luckily, the Gavin appeared in time and rescued them, putting the blame on the servants.

"No, it's because of the baby. It's the baby in my belly that made me want to eat the food outside." Said Melinda in a good attitude to Gavin, holding Jonas's hand.

When it came to the child, Melinda took a look at Jerry on purpose, and used the child as an excuse. Naturally, Alston said nothing.

Melinda made up an excuse casually, but Jonas took it seriously. He had been wandering around outside with her for a long time in order to find food that could satisfy her appetite.

"You don't want anything to eat here?" Seeing that she had no appetite all the time, Jonas could not help but frown. He thought that it was just her disgust for the act of making him lose face, but it turned out to be true.

She didn't know what she wanted to eat. She just had no appetite.

But strangely enough, there was almost no pregnancy reaction after such a long time.

"How about you cook for me?" She thought it was a good idea. Touching her belly gently, she looked at Jonas with innocent eyes as if she was telling him that what the baby wanted.

Jonas loved her very much, so he immediately went to the supermarket with her to buy some food materials. Then they went to the apartment where the two of them lived before. Although they didn't live there anymore, they still asked someone to clean it up regularly.

At last, both of them found the scene funny. The breakfast prepared by Jonas had been eaten up by Melinda, showing that she had a good appetite.

Since he had brought Melinda out, he directly took her to the company. He didn't want her to be scared of Jerry.

At the same time, Queena began to think about how to break up Jerry and Stacy.

In the end, she decided to start with Stacy. She was too young and didn't know how to know people, so she found someone to help her to know how bad Jerry was.

And she knew who can do that was Yulia.
