147 La entrada a una tierra peligrosa When Alessandro returned to the room he found Abril on the balcony, she was staring at the starry sky as if she was looking for something.

He approached her, hugged her by the back and asked him.

_ What are you looking at? _The stars look beautiful tonight, there is so much peace, so much calm, everything that happened yesterday seems like it was just a nightmare, or maybe that's what I wish for.

_You're right and you're not the only one, I too wish it was all a nightmare, opening my eyes and waking up with you in my arms, but that won't happen, this is our reality, whether we like it or not.

April leaned her head back, resting it on Alessandro's shoulder and said.

_Luckily I have you, that makes my reality not so bad.

Alessandro gave her a kiss on the cheek and responded.

_Without a doubt everything is better with you.

April stared into the distance for a moment and asked.

_ How are the wounded? _They're fine, better, the wizards have come to help.

_ Were there many deaths? _Yes, although most of them were guards, many fell during the fight.

_If I had arrived earlier...

_No, you did everything you could, in a war there are always wounded Aby, even if we wanted to we can't save everyone.

_I know, but I still feel helpless not being able to help them.

_I understand you, I feel the same way too, but there are things that can't be avoided.

_I know.

They stayed a while longer on the balcony enjoying the night views, then went to sleep.

That night Sophia appeared in April's dreams.

Whenever she appeared in her dreams, they were in beautiful gardens and extensive meadows, but this time it was not like that, April only saw darkness around her.

They were the only point of light in that darkness.

_ Why is there only darkness? _This is the future that awaits us if we do not defeat the darkness, a darkness without END.

_We will not let the darkness win, I will not allow it.

Sophia took her daughter's hand and said to her.

_To do that your power must fully awaken, you must become stronger my girl.

_I know, but how do I do it? Sophia caressed her daughter's cheek tenderly and responded with a sweet look.

_When darkness rises and light is threatened, your power will awaken.

_ And what does that mean? I don't understand.

_When the time comes you will understand.

***** Maya felt thirsty and tired, she had not had a good night since she had had to sleep on the cold ground, that day they had gotten up very early and had only stopped to rest for a moment to eat something.

Cassian, seeing Maya falling behind, said to the two elves who were walking quickly ahead.

_Let's stop and rest for a moment, she's tired, she can't keep up with them.

Ethan replied.

_Just a moment, the entrance to the fairy land is near.

Maya sat on the trunk of an upside-down tree, Cassian approached, gave her his canteen and said.

_Here, baby.

_It's your water.

_Don't worry about it, I'm better than you.

Maya took the canteen of water and took a long drink, the cool water running down her throat.

At that moment she felt like she was coming back to life, her throat had been so dry that she felt like she was dying.

_Thanks, any more and I would have died of thirst.

_I know.

Cassian started massaging her legs, she asked him.

_ What are you doing? _You're not used to walking, your legs must be sore.

_I had never walked so much in my life, since I never had the need to do so.

_I am the prince, but sometimes it seems like it's the other way around.

_I used teleportation scrolls, it's more practical.

_I guess you're right.

_Although I won't deny that I have been a spoiled daughter by my father.

_And for your mother.

_I don't know, I don't remember her, she died when I was very young, I think that's why my father was softer with me, since then I have been the light of his eyes, I suppose it will be hard for him when I'm gone.

_ When you're no longer here? _Children leave, it is the law of life, even if I don't want to, there will be a day when I will not return with him.

Dantriel interrupted them and said.

_It's time to go.

Cassian held out his hand to help Maya up, she grimaced as she stood and groaned.

_If I had known I would have to walk so much, I wouldn't have come.

_I promise that your effort will be well rewarded, you can ask for whatever you want.

_Then I'll think about what to order.

They continued walking for a few more hours, Maya leaned on Cassian as her legs felt so heavy that each step was difficult, in the end she couldn't take it anymore and said.

_ Hey, how much longer do you think we'll have to walk? Ethan answered his question.

_Nothing, we've already arrived.

Ethan pushed aside some branches revealing the entrance to a cave, the entrance looked narrow and dark, Maya said.

_What a disappointment, I thought it would be more impressive.

_This is just the entrance, the land of fairies is a beautiful place.

Dantriel added.

_But also very dangerous, so don't go away from us, don't touch anything and don't accept anything to eat or drink.

Why not? Cassian asked.

Dantriel replied.

_Because they may not come back if they do, I've said it before, the land of fairies is a beautiful place, full of light and color, with happy music and sweet and delicious food, time passes there In different ways, what may seem like a day to you there may be weeks, months or even years.

Ethan touched the necklace around his neck and said.

_These necklaces will help us get back, so never take them off or they may never come back.

Dantriel entered the cave first and told them before disappearing completely into the darkness of that cave.

_Come on, there's no time to waste.

Maya and Cassian followed them, they couldn't see anything, they were patting the wall to guide themselves and not fall to the ground.

After a few minutes they saw a blue light back of the cave.

They called out to Ethan, but it was Dantriel who answered.

_ Are we going in the right direction? _Yes, the land of fairies is on the other side, so let's not waste any more time.

Dantriel stepped into the ring of light and disappeared.

Cassian took Maya's hand, she was shaking slightly, Cassian told her.

_Don't be afraid, I am with you.

148 The beautiful kingdom of fairies Cassian could see the green grass through the cave's exit.

He reached Maya's hand forward; he caught it as he stepped out of the cave.

The light dazzled Maya, as her eyes adjusted to the light, she was shocked, in front of her was a beautiful clearing, there the sky seemed bluer, the grass under her feet looked soft, a beautiful lime green color.

In the distance she could see a thick forest, the trees were all different colors, they were bright and vibrant, her father had told her stories about the land of fairies, but what she had never seen before was a forest of trees.

She saw that it far surpassed her stories, she pushed Cassian aside and walked towards a small lilac bush, she was going to touch its leaves since the unusual color had caught her attention, but Ethan stopped her.

_Don't touch it, even if it looks beautiful, it can be dangerous, the land of fairies is a place full of beauty, but it is more dangerous than the human world.

_ Is it poisonous? Maya asked as she pointed to the bush.

_Yes, so even if the beauty of its leaves catches your attention, don't touch it.

_OK.

Ethan started to walk away and said to them.

_Let's go, we must reach the fairy kingdom before nightfall.

_ Aren't we in the fairy kingdom? _We are at the entrance, to get to the fairy kingdom we must walk a little further, do not get distracted and do not drink anything they give you, or you may not return.

_ Why didn't you tell us that before coming? _I'm telling you now.

Ethan and Dantriel walked quickly.

Cassian and Maya followed behind, looking at everything with great wonder, Maya wanted to get closer and touch everything she saw, but she was not so foolish as to put her life in danger for her curiosity.

They continued walking for a couple more hours, Maya saw curious eyes watching her from the bushes, she asked.

_ Do bushes have eyes? Ethan turned his gaze to where Maya was pointing, he replied.

_No, those are dryads, a kind of tree fairy.

_They are watching us.

_Yes, the fairy queen must already know we're here, so let's go.

They climbed the hill to the flat, grassy top that overlooked the fairy kingdom, a tall, large building The marble courtyard stood out wonderfully among the small, colourful houses.

It was a wonderful sight, filled with beautiful, colourful flowers.

_This is beautiful.

Maya said with great admiration, Ethan responded.

_I've already told you, don't get carried away by what you see, try not to separate and remember, don't eat or drink anything that we don't eat or drink.

Cassian and Maya nodded in unison and followed them.

As they entered the city, with every step they took, the fairies dressed in beautiful linen clothes with flowers decorating their heads stared at them and murmured.

Maya felt that most of the gazes were directed at her.

_I don't know if it's my imagination or if everyone is looking at me, Cassian had noticed the same thing, he replied.

_Yes, they don't take their eyes off you.

Ethan and Dantriel didn't make any comment, just told them to go ahead.

hurry, don't stop.

They continued walking until they reached the marble palace they had seen from the hill, at the doors there were two tall guards, with pointed ears and blue skin, they wore a leather belt in which they carried a small ivory dagger.

They held a wooden spear, the tip was made of ivory like the dagger; Maya wondered why their weapons were made of ivory instead of iron, but since they had the The front guards didn't ask anything, they just limited themselves to listening to Ethan and Dantriel.

_We have come to see the queen, take us to her, tell her that the elven emissaries are here.

The two guards must have recognized them because they let them through.

As they crossed the doors, a young fairy, short, with smoky hair and grey eyes, told them.

_Hello, I'm Narim, follow me, I'll guide you to where the queen is.

The young fairy walked in front of them, guiding them to a large room with a glass dome that let in the sun in torrents, that place was decorated with vines and beautiful flowers.

_The queen will arrive shortly.

Just as Narim had told them, a few minutes later a beautiful woman appeared, wearing a golden dress, she had a beautiful and ethereal face, it was difficult to decipher how old she was since when they looked at her closely, her face seemed young and old at the same time, she fixed her gaze on Maya, while she looked at her she said.

_ To what do I owe the illustrious visit of the elven emissaries? Ethan bowed in respect and replied.

_I'm sorry to interrupt your majesty's activities and take up your time, I'm here because our queen has asked us to deliver a message to you.

Dantriel pulled out an old scroll from his bag, bowed and offered the scroll to her, the fairy queen stared at the scroll still in Dantriel's hands and with some displeasure in her voice she asked.

_ Why should I take what you're offering me? _Please, it's something important.

The queen motioned to a blue-haired fairy girl who was a few steps behind her, the girl approached Dantriel and took the scroll.

The queen looked at all of them closely and said.

_You must be tired, we will provide you with a place to rest, food and drink.

The queen turned around, Cassian seeing her leave tried to hold her back, but the guards stopped him.

Ethan put a hand on her shoulder and said.

_Don't do anything reckless.

_We are in a hurry, we have no time to rest.

The queen watched them intently, Dantriel told her.

_Yes, we have it.

The fairy queen told them before renewing her march.

_I'm showing you my kindness, so I hope there are no problems.

Ethan and Dantriel gave an exaggerated bow, lowering their heads and responded at the same time.

_We will not give any problems to his majesty.

The queen gave them a menacing look and said.

_It better be that way.

The fairy queen turned around and continued walking, when they were alone, Ethan told her.

_Your rank as prince is of no use here, so keep your mouth shut, this is not your kingdom.

After saying that Narim approached them and led them to their rooms, Dantriel and Ethan decided to stay in the same room, so Maya and Cassian did the same, when they entered the room, Maya looked around, that room was full of plants, beautiful flowers and vines on the wall, there was a bed that could fit two people without any problem, the bed had a canopy and white curtains fell to the sides, it was beautiful, but what caught Maya's attention the most was that the room had no windows, instead only There was a half wall with curtains that allowed a beautiful view of the fairy kingdom to be seen.

She approached the shore, she was stunned, since she never imagined that a place like that could exist.

Cassian was just like her, he came over, leaned on the windowsill and said to her.

_This place seems to be taken from a story, no, in fact I don't think there is any place like this, nor a writer who can describe its beauty.

I think so too.

The fairies weren't very cooperative, to be honest, Do you think they will help us? I don't know, but I hope they do.

; 149 Traumatic memories When Alessandro finished his work it was already late, Abril had already gone to rest in her room, he went directly to the room, when he entered he was surprised to see Abril by the door, he asked her.

_ Are you going somewhere? _Yes, I was going to look for you.

_ Is something wrong? _I was thinking about how to help in this war, I can bless the weapons to fight against the creatures born from darkness.

_ And do you know how to do it? _I think I do know how to do it, although I'm not very sure.

Alessandro took April by the waist, caressed her cheek gently and said to her.

_I understand how you feel, but you don't have to force yourself to do anything.

_But we need weapons to fight the darkness.

_And we will have them, yesterday the elves told him that warriors from their kingdom will come with weapons blessed by the light, your powers have awakened very recently, do not force yourself so much, we do not know what your limit may be since your power has not yet broken all the seals that contain your magic.

_ And when will they arrive? _They should arrive in a few days.

_ But what happens if they don't arrive? Or if they attack us and we don't have weapons to defend ourselves? _That won't happen, don't worry, every day has its own problem, we will solve things when the time comes, don't worry.

_But...

_Let's not think about that now, yeah.

_I just can't, every time I close my eyes I remember what happened at the dance, the screams of terror and pain, the metallic smell of blood, the dead and the wounded, the horrible monsters about to attack you and the terror I felt at that moment when I saw that your life was in danger, I love you so much Lessan, that just thinking that I could have lost you, my heart breaks into a thousand pieces.

Alessandro leaned down, snatching April's lips with a kiss, his kiss was strong, but at the same time kind, sweet and tender.

He continued kissing her, claiming her lips as his own for a long time, preventing her from uttering a word, he continued kissing her until all the anxiety and fear that April felt disappeared, when He parted her lips she was panting, her cheeks were flushed and her lips were slightly swollen, he told her.

_ I'm here with you Aby, you're not going to lose me, I know what we're going through may be traumatic for you, but don't be afraid, I'm here and I don't plan on going anywhere, I'll be by your side at all times, I've already promised you that, do you remember? She placed her hand on his chest, she could feel his heartbeat, his agitated breathing, that made her heart feel calmer, she raised her gaze, her golden eyes locked with his.

_I can't imagine a life without you, a future in which you are not by my side, when I think that I could lose you, I can't help but feel my heart fill with fear and anxiety, if something were to happen to you I...

Alessandro kissed her again, a short kiss that was really just a touch, but that kiss, the warmth of his lips, calmed Abril again.

_Aby, don't worry about the future or you'll lose sight of your present, let's live day by day, let's live every moment and every instant that we have for each other.

April put her arms around Alessandro's neck and kissed him.

She wanted to keep feeling his kisses, his caresses.

She wanted to feel him with all her being, for every part of her body to make him see that they were together, that what was to come didn't matter.

What mattered was that at that very moment they were together and that they loved each other madly.

After a long kiss, Alessandro took Abril in his arms and carried her to the bed.

Their mouths claimed each other, that night they made love, they joined their bodies and became one being, their union was not only in body, but also in soul, they told each other with each kiss, with each caress, that they belonged to each other.

They forgot everything that worried them, everything that had been tormenting them, in that moment, it was as if in the entire world, only the two of them existed.

*** Maya and Cassian were lying in bed, but they couldn't sleep, Ethan had gone to see them and told them that they had to be alert, that even if they were being treated as guests, the truth is that they were not, they were just undesirables who had burst in without warning.

From the bed you could see the sky starry, Maya stared at it, she was amazed, there the sky looked more beautiful, the moon seemed to shine with more splendor and the stars seemed tiny diamonds, there were so many it was impossible to count them, Cassian put his arm around her waist and asked.

_ Are you sleeping? _No, and after what Ethan said, I doubt he will.

_I don't think I'll be able to sleep either.

Maya put her hand on Cassian's and said.

_Thank you.

_ Why are you thanking me? _I am thanking you for that day when you allowed me to go with you, thanks to you I have been able to see and experience incredible things.

_You know that that day I was forced to take you with me, right? _Yes, I know, but, even if I had insisted tirelessly, if you hadn't wanted to take me with you, you would have left me behind when I went to get my things, but you didn't, you stayed waiting for me.

_You're right, I don't know why that didn't occur to me at the time.

Cassian rested his chin on her shoulder, intertwined his fingers with Maya's and said.

_But I'm glad I didn't think of it at the time, or I wouldn't be here with you.

Maya turned around, she wanted to see his face, when she met his gaze, she saw something in his eyes that made her feel weak, that made the wall she had built between them fall into a thousand pieces, she didn't know if it was true or if it was just her imagination, but she wanted to know so she asked him.

_ Do you love me? Cassian was surprised, he didn't even know what he felt for Maya, what he did know was that he wanted to be with her.

_If I'm honest, I don't know, I just know that I want to be by your side, Do you love me? Maya didn't answer his question, she knew the answer, but she refused to tell it since there would never be a future for them, she kissed him and evaded his question.

_I think we better try to get some sleep, we don't know what we'll find tomorrow.

Cassian realized that Maya had evaded his question, but he didn't want to force her to answer.

_Yes, I think that will be the best.

CHAPTER 150: ATTACK IN THE DARK

Enzo was in his chambers recovering from the wound he had suffered when he had attacked the kingdom of Cosset, since that day he had not left his room since he did not want to appear weak in front of his sister, she was like a hyena waiting for the right moment to attack. She had always been someone to be careful of, but in the last few days it was impossible for him to sleep peacefully, he knew that his sister would take advantage of his weakness to get rid of him and that worried him a lot, he was afraid of what she was planning.

Someone knocked on the door, when he heard his sister's voice behind the door his whole body tensed, instinctively he brought his hand to the sword that he always carried tied to his waist and which he never separated from.

_Enzo, I'm Cira, can I come in?

_What do you want?

Cira opened the door without his permission and said to him with a mocking look on her face.

_Don't think that I have come to see you because I am worried about you, I only came because our father sent me to look for you.

_For what?

_I don't know and I didn't ask either, I am only following our father's orders, so come on, or do you want me to tell him that you have refused to go?

_And how can I know that what you are saying is true, could you be leading me into a trap?

_Believe me or not, that's your decision, I only comply with what I've been ordered to do.

_And why hasn't a servant come? Since when did you become our father's errand girl?

_Because where I'm taking you only the royal family can enter, you should already know which place I'm referring to.

In the entire kingdom of Laios, there was only one place where only members of the royal family were allowed to enter, the Venobich, he had no way of knowing if what his sister was saying was true or not and although all his senses told him that he should stay away from his sister, if what she said was true, he would be in serious trouble if he refused to go, so he decided to follow her, as he left the room his sister told him.

_I knew you weren't so stupid as to disobey our father. Cira turned around, as she walked she said.

_Come on, you don't want to make our father wait, you know how little patience he has.

Enzo walked a few steps behind his sister, he was afraid to turn his back and that she would end up stabbing him with his own sword. She led him to the deepest part of the palace, they stopped in front of a locked black door.

_The door is closed, how do you plan to open it?

Cira took out a key that she was wearing around her neck and answered in an irritating voice.

_With the key of course. Enzo frowned and asked.

_Where did you get it? It is assumed that only our father has the key to this door.

_And so it was, until yesterday, our father decided to entrust the key to this door to me.

Follow new episodes on the

_Why would he entrust something so important to you?

_Maybe because our father considers me his heir.

_I am the heir, the next king of the kingdom of Laios.

_If you are so sure why are you upset?

Cira answered as she inserted the key into the lock.

_Perhaps, are you afraid that it will not be like that?

_What nonsense, I am the eldest, I will be the heir.

_I'm not so sure, our older sister was discarded as an heir, I wouldn't be surprised if the same thing happened to you.

Enzo was going to reply when Cira opened the door; a cold air crashed against them, inside it was dark, the darkness was thick as ink, both felt a chill running through their bodies, but neither would accept that that place was terrifying and gloomy. Cira wanted to be brave, she took a step forward, she used her fire to light the way, there was a spiral staircase, Enzo hesitated for a moment to enter.

_What's wrong brother, don't tell me you're scared?

_Of course not, walking.

They both entered and began to descend the spiral staircase, when they reached the end, they both felt as if there was something in the darkness watching them.

_You said our father was here, I don't see him anywhere.

_I just followed his orders, I'm the same as you, I don't know anything. Both continued walking in the darkness as the fire illuminated, Enzo made a flame of fire appear in his hand to illuminate that place more, but it did not make much difference, that darkness did not diminish. Enzo heard the sound of claws scratching the ground.

_ Did you hear that?

_ As if she were deaf to not hear it.

Enzo unsheathed his sword and stood on guard, Cira took out two daggers that she had tied to her waist and said to him.

_ You better not attack me or I swear that you will not leave this place alive.

_ I am not so stupid as to attack you in this situation.

Cira threw a fireball towards the place where the sound of claws scratching the ground came from, she was surprised to see a grotesque creature with sharp claws heading towards them.

_ I think we should leave this place.

_ You didn't say that our father sent for us.

_ And do you see him anywhere? Right? So I propose we leave so that we both end up dead and neither of us inherits the throne.

The sound of claws was heard closer, both began to move away, they were terrified. Before reaching the spiral staircase, that creature launched itself towards Cira, throwing her to the ground, she screamed, she used her two daggers to keep the jaws of that creepy creature at bay, while trying to defend herself desperately she asked her brother for help.

_ Enzo, help me.

Enzo hesitated for a moment whether he should help her or not, but in the end he could not let her die. He took out his sword. He infused his flames into it turning it into a flaming sword and cut off her head with that sword, Cira stepped back, she was almost shaking and said to him.

_ I didn't think you would save me.

_ The truth is that I didn't either. Enzo held out his hand to her and said.

_ Let's go, before more of those creatures appear.

_ Good idea.

Cira stood up, she began to walk away with Enzo, he was in front, she was behind, when she had climbed two steps she felt something grab her leg and pull her, Cira screamed and grabbed onto Enzo's hand, he almost fell when she grabbed onto him, but she held onto the railing and said to him.

_What's wrong with you?

When Enzo turned around, he saw that Cira was being swallowed by the darkness. He tried to hold her to prevent the darkness from swallowing her, but in the end he couldn't, the darkness covered her completely.

CHAPTER 151: JUST THINK OF ME

When Enzo turned around, he saw that Cira was being swallowed by the darkness. He tried to hold her to prevent the darkness from swallowing her, but in the end he couldn't, the darkness covered her completely.

When the darkness swallowed her completely, Cira felt fear, pure terror, in the darkness she screamed and kicked, but it was all useless, it was as if her body did not belong to her, she had completely lost control of her body, she wondered if that meant she was already dead, but then she heard a deep, ice-cold voice speaking directly to her mind.

_Cira, let me in.

Cira tried to see who was speaking to her, but she couldn't move and could only see the darkness.

-Who are you? Show yourself.

I can't show myself, I don't have a physical body, I need you to let me in.

-Let you in?

Yes, let me enter you, I need a physical body, in exchange I will give you power

-What if I refuse?

If you refuse you will remain weak and you will never be a queen, you will always be under the shadow of your father and your brother, something that Cira had always hated was the fact that her father had never considered her his heir, she was the youngest and therefore, she was not considered crown princess, there was always someone else before her, first April and when he had gotten rid of her, Enzo had taken her place, she was never considered by her father to be his heir, no matter how hard she tried.

Before I give my answer, tell me what you are or what you are? I am one of the princesses of Hades, I am strong and powerful, if you let me in you will have the same.

And what will happen to me when I let you in? You will be powerful.

That sounds tempting, but what is the price I will have to pay.

-It is a small price compared to what I will give you, you will only let me stay inside you and take care of a few things, you will not even notice that I am there.

Cira thought about it for a moment, she wanted to be strong, so she held on to her proposal.

_Okay, I'll let you in.

Good answer, I assure you that there will be no one who can stand against you, you will have everything you've always wanted.

-And now what do I do?

_Just stop fighting, let the darkness invade you completely. Cira did what that voice told her, she stopped fighting the darkness, she let it enter her, flood her completely, she became one with the darkness, she could feel how the power and strength flooded every part of her body.

Enzo had stayed at the top of the stairs, he was afraid of being swallowed by the darkness, he stood staring at the darkness, he had never loved his sister, in fact he hated her, she was annoying and he wanted to kill him, the feeling was mutual, but seeing that she had died, it gave him no satisfaction.

The darkness began to fade, a red flame appeared in the place where Cira had been swallowed by the darkness. It was a strange fire, as if the darkness and the flames were joining, Enzo used his fire to illuminate that place and see what was happening, at that moment his fire illuminated clearly, in the middle of that strange fire was his sister.

Now are you okay?

Ora put her arms around her and her head a little as if she was adjusting, she answered with a strange voice as if her voice was superimposed on another, it had never been better. Enzo felt a strange chill, although she looked the same as his sister, something told him that she was no longer her, he stepped back and stumbled on the last step of the stairs.

You are not my sister. Who are you? Cira laughed and answered. I am the same, not rectified, now I am better.

Cassian woke up scared when he did not feel Maya in his arms, he did not know when he had fallen asleep. He looked for her with his eyes, she was on the balcony looking into the distance, Cassian got out of bed, approached her and asked her.

- Were you able to sleep at all?

Yes, she fell asleep a little. - Has it been a long time since you woke up? No, I just woke up. What are you looking at? Everything and nothing really, I am still overwhelmed, this place is incredible.

Cassian was about to speak when he heard a knock on the door, then two fairies entered, one had green skin and the other had pink, they carried colorful linen clothes in their arms, they put them on the bed and one of them said the queen will give you an audience, please take a bath and change your clothes before going to see her.

The green skinned fairy opened a door in the room, inside there was a large stone bathtub, the water was white and seemed to shine, one of them took Maya's hand and led her inside, she began to remove her clothes without saying a word.

Hey! What do you think you're doing? Maya exclaimed and helped him realize that she was taking a bath. I can do it myself, so go.

The other fairy stared at Cassian, apparently planning to do it himself, so before he could say anything, she said I can also bathe myself, so you can go. But we have orders to help. We don't need it.

Okay, we'll be outside, we'll be hammed when you've finished your bath and we'll take you to the queen.

What about our friends? Are they going too? Yes, they're being looked after right now.

After the two fairies remembered each other, Cassian entered the bathroom, Maya had already taken off all her clothes and was getting into the bathtub, he stared at her for a moment from the door, she said to him.

_ Are you going to stay there looking at me or are you going to go in? Cassian entered and asked. – I can take a bath with you.

_ Of course, take off your clothes and come, unless you want that fairy girl to help you with your bath Cassian took off his clothes immediately got into the bathtub and answered while he surrounded her with his arms I think I prefer you, do you think? Are you not sure? Cassian laughed and answered Maybe not much, lately he ignores me all over.

– That's not true, I was just a little busy, I already told you.

Maya wanted to change the subject and told him this water is strange, don't you think?

Cassian had been lost watching Maya so until he didn't realize until he told him.

_ You're right, it is strange, although I think everything here is strange.

I agree with you, everything here is strange, but beautiful at the same time.

Although you are more so. - Beautiful or strange? Both.

Maya put her arms around his neck, gave him a kiss and said. You are not far behind either. He pushed back Maya's hair that covered her shoulders and said.

I think we should hurry, we should not make the queen wait.

Maya knew it perfectly, but she wanted to enjoy that moment with Cassian, because she did not know if it would be the last. She kissed him passionately and said.

Just once. But the queen.

Forget about her for a moment, I am naked in front of you, do you not like me?

Of course you do, you already know that.

So, just think about me for a moment, make me feel good. Cassian knew that he had to think about his mission, that seemed like a plea, he had no will to refuse, he returned the kiss and agreed to her request.

CHAPTER 153: YOU CAN'T LIE ANYMORE

Cassian couldn't accept the queen's request, he couldn't leave Maya in that place just to get the key to the gates of Hades, he was about to tell her that she would keep her key then, that she wouldn't accept his request, when Maya spoke.

_Okay, I'll stay, in exchange you must give her the key you have. Cassian took Maya by the shoulders and said.

_ No! You can't do that, I won't let you do it.

_ I'm sorry Cassian, but that's not something you decide, I'll stay, that's my decision.

_ No Maya, I won't leave you here. The queen turned to Maya.

_ Are you sure of your decision?, Little wandering fairy.

Although it broke Maya's heart to separate from Cassian, she knew that was what she had to do, that it was her duty.

_ Yes, that's my decision. Then come here and swear loyalty to me.

Maya tried to go to where the queen was, but Cassian prevented her, he held her shoulders tightly, he forced her to look at him and her shoulders tightly, he forced her to look at him and with a pleading voice he said.

_ Please Maya, don't do this, we don't need that key, let's get out of here, both of us.

Maya caressed her cheek sweetly and said. This was my destiny, I can't escape from it.

_ We create our own destiny with the decisions we make.

Maya gave him a soft kiss on the lips and said.

_ I also wanted to believe it, I wanted to believe that I was the owner of my destiny, but it is not true, a long time ago I received a prophecy, it said that when I gave my heart, I would return to my home and now it happened.

-What?

_ I gave my heart to you, without realizing it, now I must stay here, the place where I am supposed to belong.

Cassian surrounded her with his arms, hugging her tightly and said. No, now less than ever will I let you stay here, we must go back, we must be together, I want to have you by my side.

_ I know, but we can't be selfish, there's too much to lose. She broke free from his embrace and said. Let's not keep prolonging the inevitable... Maya walked away from Cassian and approached the throne of the fairy queen, who stared at them, when she was in front of the queen, she took out a small key that she wore around her neck and gave it to one of the fairies standing next to her and said.

_ You will give them the key after she makes the oath.

The girl nodded and stayed a few steps behind her. Maya asked.

_ What do I have to do?

The queen stood up, Maya was even taller than her, however she still looked imposing. With a confident commanding voice.

_ Get on your knees and swear that I will be your ruler from now on and forever.

Cassian tried to approach them and prevent Maya from swearing loyalty to the queen, but two guards blocked his way. When he tried to avoid them, they grabbed his arms tightly, immobilizing him.

_ Let me go. You can't get any closer.

Desperate and unable to move, Cassian tried to use his magic to free himself from his captors, but something strange happened, his magic didn't manifest. The fairy queen looked at him with displeasure and said.

What are you trying to do? She already said that no boy wanted trouble in my kingdom.

_ What are you trying to do? She already said that no boy wanted trouble in my kingdom.

_ Tell your guards to let me go, we don't want your key. Ethan and Dantriel complained, but then the queen spoke.

_ She is the one who should decide, not you. The queen turned to Maya.

_ What is it that you choose, little wandering fairy.

Maya turned to see Cassian, she could see desperation on his face, the fear and anxiety of losing her, but the decision she made would not affect only them.

_ I'm sorry Cassian, but I can't do what you ask me. Maya knelt in front of the queen and made her oath.

_ I swear before you, queen of all fairies, to be loyal to you and obey your orders, I swear by my name Maya, to bind myself to you and be under your command. The queen smiled with satisfaction, she leaned down, took Maya's chin with a finger and blew her breath on her face. Maya felt a sweet fragrance, of flowers and fruits that penetrated her nose and felt as if invisible chains tied her entire body, at that moment she realized that her oath had not been simple words, she was tied to the queen under invisible chains. Maya felt a strong pressure on her chest, the air began to fail her, her breathing became choppy. Cassian screamed.

- What have you done to her?

_ Nothing, it is your oath that is binding you to me, from now on you are no longer a wandering fairy, you serve me and will be loyal only to me. The queen looked at Maya and said.

_ Do not be afraid, the pain will pass, it is your oath that is being engraved in your heart, from now on, you will not be able to lie, that is the law of all the fairies that serve me, lies are like fire that can destroy everything in seconds, that is why those who serve me cannot do it, now you are forced to tell the truth. The fairy who held the key, approached Cassian and advanced her hand to deliver it, however he did not take it, his whole being refused to take that key because if he did, he would be admitting that Maya would not return to him, that she would stay in that place forever.

_ I don't want your key, I only want her back.

_ The price has already been paid for what you wanted, I don't want your key, I only want her back.

_ The price has already been paid for what you wanted, that key now belongs to you, do with it what you want, that is no longer my problem, so take it and leave my kingdom.

Cassian punched the fairy on his right causing him to let go, he kicked the one on his left causing him to bend and he kneed him in the face knocking him to the ground, he was so fast that he didn't give the other guards time to react, he ran towards Maya, surrounded her with his arms and said.

_ I don't plan on leaving this place without her.

Maya couldn't speak, the pain in her chest prevented her, a few tears rolled down her cheeks, she caressed Cassian's face, with her gaze she begged him to leave, but he refused.

_ No, I won't leave you in this place, I won't leave without you, I don't care that the world is sinking into endless darkness.

Several guards surrounded Cassian, they snatched Maya from his arms and four of them had to immobilize Cassian as he fiercely resisted.

The queen spoke again.

I have shown you my kindness, but you have thrown it away by attacking my people, so you must leave while my patience still stands.

Dantriel tried to take the key, however he could not, a strange force prevented him.

Because he could not take the key, he has lied to us.

We fairies do not lie, the key is yours, but the owner is not you.

The queen said to Cassian and said.

_ The owner is him, it was he who paid the price, only he can take what belongs to him.

Dantriel turned to Cassian and said. Take that key. No. Cassian refused. I do not want it, give Maya back to me. The queen looked at him, her gaze was intimidating.

_ Now she belongs to me, so take what you came for and leave.

CHAPTER 154: THE WOMAN I LOVE

Cassian felt helpless, he struggled to get away from the guards who had him immobilized, however all effort was useless, the guards held him tightly. The queen signaled to the guard who had Maya in his arms to take her.

_Where are you taking her?

Cassian shouted desperately when he saw that they were taking her away, the queen stood in front of Cassian blocking his gaze and answered.

_ Don't worry about her, don't let anything bad happen to her, she is where she needs to be, in her home.

_This is not her home, give her back to me.

_ She has never belonged to you, she is the owner of herself, it was her decision to become my servant, so take what she came looking for and go.

_No, I already told you, I will not leave here without Maya. Then you leave me no more options.

The queen motioned to the fairy holding the key to come closer, she took the key from his hands, put it around Cassian's neck, touched his forehead and said.

_I'll have to force you to leave, go back to your people and don't set foot in my kingdom again, you've exhausted my kindness. Dantriel tried to help Cassian saying.

_Your majesty, don't be so harsh, he's still young, he doesn't know how to control his emotions, please let him say goodbye to her, it will be the last time he sees her.

The queen accepted Dantriel's request. _Bring her here so she can say goodbye.

The fairy carrying Maya turned around and took her to Cassian.

Release him. The queen ordered. Let them say goodbye in peace. The guards who had been immobilizing Cassian released him, he stood up and snatched Maya from the arms of that fairy, she looked pale, her breathing was irregular and she looked tired. He held her against his chest and whispered in her ear.

_I'm not leaving you here, I'm not leaving without you.

Maya still felt as if her heart was tightening, she wanted to say something to convince Cassian to leave, but the words got stuck in her throat, in the end she could only hug him. He took her face in his hands, looked her in the eyes and said.

_I'm sorry, I shouldn't have transmitted to you.

Maya shook her head, she wanted to say that it wasn't her fault, however he continued to apologize.

_I'm sorry for being such an idiot and not realizing what I feel for you before, sorry.

Maya gave him a kiss on the lips, a kiss that was more of an abrupt clash of their mouths trying to communicate. She touched his face while with a look she told him everything she felt, she told him how much she loved him.

_Your time is up.

The fairy queen said, immediately, the body of Cassian, Dantriel and Ethan began to fade, the queen had used her magic to teleport them out of her kingdom. Cassian tried to hold on to Maya, but her hands disappeared, before disappearing completely, he told her.

_I'll come back for you Maya, I promise.

Cassian appeared in front of the palace doors, he was on his knees, furious for not having been able to do anything to save Maya. Ethan approached, put his hand on his shoulder and asked.

_ Are you okay? Cassian removed his hand and angrily shouted.

_ Do you think I'm okay! Maya, she had to stay to get that damn key.

Staying was her choice. Don't give me that stupidity, I just want it back.

_ I'm sorry, but that's something I can't help you with. Cassian stood up, squeezed with displeasure that key that hung around his neck and said.

_I'll go back for her, I don't plan on abandoning the woman I love.

_This is not the time to do crazy things. Do you want me to abandon her? I didn't say that, I'm just saying that there are more important things to attend to right now.

_For me, she is the most important thing.

After Cassian said that, a loud bang was heard in the distance and the barrier protecting the kingdom, which was not visible, flickered at that moment.

_What was that?

They asked Ethan and Dantriel at the same time, Cassian answered while staring at the sky.

_Nothing good.

Cassian ran to find his brother, Alessandro was meeting in his office with Gabriel and Sirius.

_Brother, what's going on? Sirius was the one who answered.

_King Venobich has attacked our barrier, but we've been lucky, the barrier has resisted.

This has nothing to do with luck.

_What do you mean by that Lessan?

_ That attack was not aimed at breaking the barrier, that attack was a provocation by King Venobich.

_ I think it would be best to organize our army, we must attack and finish them off before they finish us off.

_ No, that is exactly what King Venobich wants us to do, he wants to keep us away from the palace.

_ So we will stay here waiting for them to break through all our defenses.

_ Of course not, I'm just saying that if we take our army to the place where the first attack was made, they could ambush us, so we have to be very careful, Sirius, how many attacks like this can the barrier withstand?

_ A few, the barrier has been reinforced, and it is not the barrier, we have put several thinking about this, even if they destroy the first one, they will find a few more barriers, he will get here it will not be easy for them.

_ Assuming they get rid of all our barriers, how much time will we have?

_ A few months, maybe one or two, everything will arise from the opponent's strength.

It is a relief, that will give us time to think about this, even if they destroy the first one, they will find a few more barriers, he will get here it will not be easy for them.

Assuming they get rid of all our barriers, how much time will we have?

_ A few months, maybe one or two, everything will arise from the opponent's strength.

_ It is a relief, that will give us time to better prepare our army, Gabriel calls a meeting with all the generals immediately.

As your majesty orders.

_ Sirius, I want you to check the barrier and give me a report of the damage. I'll take care of that immediately, before nightfall you'll have a damage report.

_ Thank you.

Gabriel and Sirius left the room, Alessandro saw his brother dejected, he asked him.

_ Cassian, are you okay? _ No, actually I'm not okay at all.

CHAPTER 155: SADNESS AND PAIN

Alessandro saw Cassian strange, his face reflected sadness and pain, as if he had lost something important and the answer he had given him left him a little worried, he asked him.

_ How did your mission go?

Cassian took out the key he had hanging around his neck and threw it on the table, with some displeasure.

_ My mission was fulfilled.

Cassian was someone who always kept his feelings to himself, so Alessandro wondered what had happened on his trip for him to come back so broken.

_ You don't look very well Cassian, what happened?

Clenching his fists tightly, his face marked by pain Cassian replied.

_ It's Maya. _ What happened to her? Have you argued?

Cassian shook his head, he still found it difficult to talk about what had happened, the price he had to pay in exchange for that key.

_ If it were only that I wouldn't pay like that, I had to pay a very high price for that key, that price was Maya, she is half fairy and what the queen of the fairies asked for in exchange for the key was that Maya stayed in her kingdom, that she swore loyalty to her, I couldn't do anything to protect the woman Lessan loved. Alessandro understood why his brother was so broken, having to separate from the woman he loved must be painful, he approached, put his hand on his brother's shoulder to comfort him and said.

_ I'm sorry Cas, it's partly my fault, if I hadn't given you that mission, you would still have the woman you love by your side.

_ I don't plan on abandoning her, I'll come back for her, I promised him.

Alessandro knew that this was the worst time for his brother to leave, the war could start at any moment, Cassian was one of his best generals, facing King Venobich without him shook his heart, but he couldn't ask him to change the decision he had made, since if he had been in his place, he would have abandoned everything just to go with April.

_ I understand how you feel and you don't plan on stopping.

Alessandro put his hand on his brother's heart and said.

_ Do what your heart tells you.

_ Lessan, I'm sorry, I know what's coming isn't easy, but I can't be without her, I don't want a life without her.

_ I know and that's why you have total freedom, I don't tie you to my brother, go for her.

Cassian hugged his brother and said to him.

_ Thank you Lessan, I promise to return as soon as possible.

_ I will be waiting for you, I wish you luck brother.

_ Thank you Lessan. _ When will you leave?

_ I will leave tomorrow, I will be at the meeting with the other generals, I will leave early in the morning.

The knocking on the door interrupted their conversation, April poked her head through the door and asked.

_ Can I come in? Yes, come in.

April entered, approached them, Alessandro wrapped his arm around her waist while April asked Cassian.

_ How did the mission go?

Cassian pointed to the key that was on the table and answered.

_ The key is there.

April breathed a sigh of relief, as if a great weight had been removed from her shoulders.

_ That's good, I knew you could do it, where is Maya I would like to greet her?

Cassian looked down and helplessly answered.

_ Maya is not here, she had to stay in the fairy kingdom, but it will not be for long, I will bring her back.

April had many questions, but she couldn't ask any. Outside there was a great hustle and bustle. Everyone looked out onto the balcony to see what was happening. It was the elf army. Alessandro took April inside, he didn't want them to see her since she apparently had a great resemblance to his mother. He was afraid that someone else would know about her existence.

_ Aby, you'd better go back to your room and not come out until I tell you.

_ Why?

_ The elf army just arrived. I don't want any of them to mistake you for your mother.

_ I understand. I'll go back to my room.

Alessandro kissed her on the cheek and said.

_ I'll see you later. Try not to look out onto the balcony.

_ Okay, I won't.

After April left, Alessandro wanted to take the key that was on the table to keep it in a safe place, but he couldn't, there was like a small barrier around the key that prevented him from doing so.

- What's wrong? Why can't I touch it?

Cassian approached the desk and took the key, he had no problem doing so.

_ Damn it! Only I can touch it. - What?

_ The same thing happened in the land of the fairies, the queen said that I had paid the price, that it belonged to me, no one else can touch it.

_ For the moment it will be better for you to keep the key, you will be better with yourself.

Cassian hung the key around his neck again, when he touched his skin he felt uncomfortable, it was unpleasant for him.

_ I have to go, we'll talk later.

Alessandro went straight to the entrance where he found the elven army, they were dressed in white armor, their weapons shone with a faint glow. Dantriel approached Alessandro and said.

_Here is our army and as promised, they have obtained blessed weapons, effective to combat the creatures born of darkness.

_I appreciate your help.

_We need a place for our soldiers, also a place where they can train.

_I will make sure that they are provided with everything they need.

_Thank you.

Several days had passed since Maya had said goodbye to Cassian, at first she had felt out of place, she was in a strange land where she did not know anyone and she was upset with the fairy queen for having made Cassian disappear so abruptly, when they had been forcibly teleported the queen had approached her, had caressed her face with sweetness and longing as if she reminded her of someone, she took the pendant that Dantriel had given her and said to her.

_You don't need this anymore, you're home now.

Maya could barely speak, but with her gaze she had told her everything, she hadn't limited herself to showing her anger, her hatred and pain, the pain she felt for having lost the man she loved and whom she would never see again. Cassian had promised her that he would come back for her, but she knew that would be impossible, the queen would never let her go.

As she watched her dare to look out of the window, Sara, one of the fairies who had been taking care of her, knocked on the door with her knuckles and asked.

_ Can I come in? Of course, come in.

Sara opened the door, approached her and asked.

_How are you? I'm better. The queen asked me to go. For what? Sara shrugged, Maya had asked why, but in reality she knew, the queen had been making her come to have tea with her, when she had asked her on one occasion, her answer had been.

_I just want you to keep me company.

Maya sighed heavily, she wanted to refuse, but she knew she couldn't, in that place no one could disobey the queen's orders, everyone was forced to obey her orders.

CHAPTER 156: WE WILL NOT DIE

Alessandro met with his generals, Cassian was present at the meeting as the general of the first squadron of knights, Dantriel and Ethan also joined the meeting as representatives of the elven troops, many of the generals showed their concern, some of their soldiers were scared, the attack of those monsters during the dance, had instilled fear among their troops. Arthur Kavis, the general who was in charge of the second squadron of knights said.

_ Your majesty, many of the knights have asked if we will face monsters in this war.

_ I will not lie about what we will face, our enemy is King Venobich, but this time he has monsters and we know what other horrors he has prepared for us.

Alessandro answered with total frankness.

_ Your majesty, our weapons are useless against those monsters, fighting them is heading to certain death.

Ethan speaks. It is true, your weapons are useless.

_ And who are you? What are you doing here? I thought this meeting was only for generals.

Alessandro answered for Ethan. I have asked them to be present.

Since it had been a direct order from the king, Athur did not reply, even though he did not like the idea that a stranger was there, he only limited himself to looking at him with distrust and displeasure. Especially when he opened his mouth again.

_ That is why we will provide weapons capable of killing those monsters, although only the most skilled warriors will survive, so we will probably choose those who will be useful during the war and those who will not.

Arthur could not remain silent at the words of that man.

_All our knights are great warriors, if your weapons are effective against those monsters we will not die.

Cassian spoke to calm the spirits since Arthur seemed to be about to attack Ethan.

Follow new episodes on the

_You have said that your weapons are effective, but how can we know that what you say is true and not a simple lie.

_If what you want is a demonstration. Dantriel spoke for the first time.

_We can give it to you, while our troops were heading here, they caught a creature born of darkness since we imagined that this could happen.

Arthur stood up, hit the table hard and asked excitedly.

_ You have brought a monster to our kingdom! You are crazy! Dantriel spoke calmly and told him.

Please calm down.

_ You bring danger to this kingdom and you ask me to calm down! Arthur turned to Alessandro.

_ Your majesty, your duty as king is to protect your people, these people are nothing more than enemies of the kingdom, they have brought a monster, they are not trustworthy, perhaps they are also working for King Venobich, they are not necessarily here, they are surely being interrogated in the dungeons.

Ethan responded upset.

_ We are not on the side of that monster, so shut your mouth.

He did not know King Venobich, but he hated him deeply since he had stolen the woman he loved and because of him, she was dead, so the mere mention that he could be on the side of that monster repudiated him.

Alessandro told them.

_Calm down both of you, Arthur, they are not our enemies, on the contrary they are our allies, for them King Venobich is also their enemy, this day I have gathered them all because war is at the doors and this time it will not be against men but against monsters, if we do not prepare our kingdom and everything we love and know will turn to ashes, so I ask you all to fight by my side against this great threat that is coming, that we protect our home together.

Alessandro did not order them, he had asked them because he knew he could not force his people to fight, since a warrior without spirit was like putting a hungry wolf in front of him, he needed warriors willing to give everything on the battlefield, warriors with a burning spirit who would fight bravely by his side.

_ I will ask you again, who will continue at my side, protecting our kingdom and our people from the threat that looms over our heads.

All the generals hesitated for a moment, they were afraid of what was to come. Cassian had planned to leave to go find Maya, however he could not leave his brother alone in the face of danger, his generals did not seem very convinced of wanting to be on the battlefield, he stood up and said.

_ I will be at your side.

The other generals were encouraged to see the prince supporting the king, especially since they knew that Cassian was strong and powerful like the king; they all stood up and responded with one voice.

We will also be at your side, your majesty.

The meeting lasted a while longer, when it was over everyone headed to the training camp where the elven army was, Dantriel approached one of the soldiers and ordered him to give him a sword and bring the creature they had caught on the road.

That soldier quickly followed his orders, took out his sword, gave it to him and then went to look for the monster, he returned a little later with several more soldiers, dragging a cart with a cage covered with a thick blanket, a terrifying roar made everyone's skin crawl, one of the soldiers removed the blanket and revealed a terrifying creature, black as ink that roared and showed sharp teeth. That creature tried to escape from that cage, but could not do it, the cage seemed to be made of the same material as the weapons that that army carried.

All the generals were tense, Alessandro was no exception, he was the same, he was afraid that the weapons the elves used did not work because if they did not work it would mean that his only hope of defeating those monsters was April, was exposing her to danger, something that Alessandro would never allow, she was the woman he loved, she was his everything, he preferred to lose the war than to lose her, because he could no longer imagine a life without her.

CHAPTER 157: HOW TO KILL THE DARKNESS?

Dantriel swung the sword in the air and ordered the cage to be opened and let that monster out, all the generals brought their hands to their swords, tense because they did not know if those weapons would be effective or not against that honorable creature.

Ethan told them. Do not worry, Dantriel will finish him off quickly.

The cage door opened, the monster shot out like an arrow towards Dantriel, he didn't move, he stayed still until he was close enough to stab him with his sword, the creature screamed in pain, the sword had cut the creature and a liquid was falling from the wound. Dantriel moved fast like a leopard and attacked the creature repeatedly without giving it time to counterattack, he continued cutting until he cut it to pieces and killed it.

Everyone was very surprised, Dantriel's skill was magnificent, at that moment Arthur realized that they weren't just being arrogant, they were undoubtedly excellent warriors.

Dantriel shook his sword to clean the black blood that was left on his sword and said.

_ As you can see, our weapons are effective. Alessandro turned to his generals.

_ As you can see, they are our allies and they are here to fight by our side, their weapons are effective and they are the only ones capable of killing those monsters.

Arthur knew that normal weapons were impossible to kill those monsters since they had proven it themselves, but a question came to his mind, how had they killed the monsters that had attacked them at the dance. But he did not want to ask it, since that was not the place, nor the time to do it, so he saved it for later.

April was in her room when she felt a strange presence that gave her chills, it was the same presence she had felt during the dance, without a doubt it was a creature born from darkness, she looked out onto the balcony, but immediately recorded what Alessandro had asked her. Not to go out, to stay in her room, she returned to the room after taking a quick look and checking that there was no danger.

That afternoon she stayed pacing from one side to the other waiting for Alessandro to arrive, while she did so she heard her mother's voice in her mind.

_April.

-What's wrong mother?

_I want to show you something, but in order to do so you must sleep.

April looked out at the balcony, the sun hadn't set yet, it was too early to go to sleep and she didn't want to either since she wanted to be awake when Alessandro arrived.

_It has to be right now.

_Yes, what I want to show you is important, my little one.

April knew that when her mother said it was important, it was because it truly was. She went to the bed, lay down and said.

_I'll try, but I'm not sure I'll be able to fall asleep, I'm not sleepy.

_Don't worry about it, I'll help you sleep, just close your eyes. April closed her eyes and after a few minutes she fell asleep or that's what she thought, she saw herself lying in bed, she was scared, she thought she had died.

_I'm dead! Her mother appeared at her side and reassured her.

_Calm down my girl, you're not dead, your spirit has separated from your body momentarily.

Sophia perfected her hand and said to her. Take my hand, there is a place I must take you.

April trusted her mother, she took her hand and in the blink of an eye she found herself in a place that was familiar to her, it was the old and dilapidated part of the castle, which since she was very small had been her home and in which she prayed every day to the heavens to help her live one more day.

_ Why have you brought me here mother! Just wait and you will see.

April stared at the corners of that room and wanted to leave, the bad memories she had of that place flooded her mind.

_ I don't want to be here mother.

_ I know, but you need to put up with it a little longer.

April waited one more minute, but that minute seemed eternal, she was going to tell her mother again that she wanted to leave, when suddenly someone entered the room, she looked a little different, but April recognized her, it was her sister Cira, she was dressed in a dress that seemed to be made of clouds of smoke no that surrounded her body, she looked at several pieces of furniture thrown from the battered room as if she was looking for something, April wondered what her sister was doing in that place since she had only gone to see her when she wanted to torture her using her magic since she had always shown her great hatred.

Enzo entered the room and seeing his sister destroying the few pieces of furniture that were still in that room, he asked her.

What are you doing in this place Cira? After throwing some vases April replied.

_ I've only come to remember that bitch, the days are long for me to see you again, what does that mean Cira? Cira approached Enzo, but he backed away in fear. Cira laughed and said.

_ You are a cowardly little brother, you still fear me, because of who you are is why my father has given me your place and made me his successor.

_ I don't think it's because of that, I think it's because of what's inside you.

_ Because of my intelligence?

No, because of your evil, I think that's why my father has given you my place.

Cira gave a sharp and responsive laugh.

_ Our father saw that you were weak, that's why he discarded you, because you're not fit to be king.
