

Fortune 1001

Chapter 1001: Another Destiny Hint, Calamity Brought by the Child of Fortune (Part 2)

"Destiny will grant you a hint."

"Destiny Hint One: The group of family cultivators from various cities is extremely arrogant. Indeed, they have a reason to be so, as their cultivation is very strong, and they believe they can act as they wish in the Ice Crystal Mountain Range.

However, they have forgotten that the Ice Crystal Mountain Range has always been the territory of the exotic beasts. If they want to act recklessly here, the first to be offended will be the exotic beast forces of this place.

More importantly, the failure to attack Demon Flame City has further fanned the flames of anger among the exotic beasts. They have vowed to seek vengeance in the future, and just a simple trigger could unleash their fury completely.

Tomorrow at noon, you can head northwest to a location 3,500 kilometers away, where a group of Divinity Transformation level exotic beasts will appear. They are descendants of Void Refining beasts, possessing excellent bloodline talents, and given time, they will become new Void Refining beasts, destined to become the backbone of the exotic beast forces.

If you take action and slay these Divinity Transformation level exotic beasts, it will undoubtedly infuriate the Void Refining beasts deep within the Ice Crystal Mountain Range. At that time, the human cultivators who entered the Ice Crystal Mountain Range will surely be affected and meet their ends."

"Destiny Hint Two: Of course, if you find it too base and despicable to borrow a knife to kill, you can choose to intervene personally and kill those cultivators seeking the bounty in Hunyuan Valley.

However, these cultivators come from various noble families. If you choose to kill them, it will continuously attract more family cultivators, and may even anger Void Refining cultivators, which would, in turn, be a greater disaster for Hunyuan Valley. I hope you can choose wisely."

"Indeed, those foreign cultivators are a major nuisance."

Upon sensing this message, Jiang Fan's eyes revealed a trace of coldness.

Since he managed Hunyuan Valley fairly well, compared to other human camps in the Ice Crystal Mountain Range, it was vastly different.

If the family cultivators learned about Hunyuan Valley's situation, they would surely covet the wealth within.

After all, those family cultivators have already become accustomed to acting recklessly, and they love to seize the opportunities of others.

They can be described as utterly unrestrained.

Guan Tianqi was just one of the many examples being schemed against by noble families, nothing surprising.

Clearly, destiny had already hinted to him, if he chose not to intervene, the family cultivators' targeting of Hunyuan Valley was inevitable, this was unavoidable.

This was also the calamity brought by Guan Tianqi, the cultivator with the Immortal Destiny.

This is the power of the Child of Fortune, storm and disaster follow wherever he goes.

"If you seek trouble with me, you can't blame me for what happens."

Jiang Fan clenched his fists.

He was no fool, naturally choosing the first hint of borrowing a knife to kill.

Choosing the second option would not solve any problem but instead push Hunyuan Valley into the abyss, inciting more disaster, a purely loss-making choice.

However, if he used the beasts to his advantage, the situation would change drastically.

Since the exotic beasts are too powerful, they are not the kind noble families can provoke.

Even if they knew their family descendants died because of exotic beasts, they wouldn't dare venture deep into the Ice Crystal Mountain Range to seek revenge.

Instead, fearing the danger of the Ice Crystal Mountain Range, they would choose to retreat, regarding it as a forbidden zone.

This way, Hunyuan Valley would be completely safe, no longer requiring worry about being coveted by foreign cultivators.

The only concern was that Hunyuan Valley needed to survive the ensuing exotic beast outbreak without being affected by the beast tide.

But for Jiang Fan, this was a minor issue.

He could completely conceal the entire Hunyuan Valley's aura from being detected by the exotic beasts.

Whoosh!

With this thought, Jiang Fan did not hesitate and immediately flew towards the northwest according to the hint from destiny.

...

At the same time, many family cultivators also entered the Ice Crystal Mountain Range.

They were frantically searching all over the area, trying to find any trace of Guan Tianqi.

The bounty for Guan Tianqi was enticing enough to make any Divinity Transformation cultivator drool.

Moreover, that kid was only at the Nascent Soul stage, not a great threat to them.

As long as they could find Guan Tianqi, it would be as good as done.

"Damn it, where is that kid hiding in the Ice Crystal Mountain Range? Why can't we find any useful clues, at this rate, when will we find him? I don't have that much time to waste."

An elder in a white robe said through gritted teeth.

To him, coming to the Ice Crystal Mountain Range was like searching for a needle in a haystack.

Even after months of searching, he still had no clues.

It seemed as if that mysterious loose cultivator vanished into thin air.

"Actually, I've found out that kid's identity, his name is Guan Tianqi."

"This kid originally lived in Profound Abyss City, with his uncle's family."

"But suddenly, a few months ago, Guan Tianqi's uncle's family disappeared without a trace."

"No one knows when exactly they left Profound Abyss City."

"No matter how hard we search, we can't find where they went."

"It's as if they disappeared from this world."

"How did that kid manage it, what method did he employ?"

Another black-robed cultivator clenched his fists, growing more curious about that loose cultivator Guan Tianqi. Absolutely, that loose cultivator possessed immense secrets and had obtained astonishing opportunities.

Otherwise, he couldn't have achieved this.

In fact, this was what all those sent to capture Guan Tianqi were interested in.

Capturing Guan Tianqi not only meant obtaining a huge bounty but also uncovering the great secret and opportunities he held.

In fact, the reason why Guan Tianqi's uncle's family disappeared from Profound Abyss City was naturally Jiang Fan's doing.

Since he decided to save Guan Tianqi's uncle's family, he himself took discreet action.

In silence, he relocated the uncle's family into the Great Xuan Dynasty, settling them in one of its human cities, and made them members of the Great Xuan Dynasty.

This way, it was foolproof, and none of the noble families could find Guan Tianqi's uncle's family.

In the future, Guan Tianqi could reunite with his uncle's family within the Great Xuan Dynasty.

However, for those family cultivators, it was inconceivable, as they had no idea how it was achieved.

Since they couldn't find any trace, it truly was baffling.

"I don't know, but if we find that kid, everything will be clear."

"This kind of method has even piqued the interest of some elders."

"They have issued a strict order to bring Guan Tianqi back at all costs."

Another family cultivator said with murderous intent.

After all, it was not merely about settling old scores but rather seizing the opportunity contained within.

If obtained, the benefits for the families would be immense.

No one wanted to miss this opportunity, as it might be a chance to advance to Integration.

"Heh, that's easier said than done. If it were that easy, we wouldn't have wasted months."

"Isn't it? We've tried all sorts of methods, like scent tracking, cause-and-effect tracking, divination, but nothing worked. It's as if he vanished long ago."

"That's right, his hiding method is astonishing, far beyond ordinary loose cultivators."

"I just refuse to believe this kid could disappear into thin air, such a large person must be hiding somewhere within the Ice Crystal Mountain Range, perhaps in one of the human camps."

"But there are so many human camps in the Ice Crystal Mountain Range, which one is he hiding in?"

"If we don't know which, we'll search everything, tearing apart each camp, leaving him no place to hide in the Ice Crystal Mountain Range."

"But if we make such a big move, won't it alert the exotic beasts? This is their territory after all."

"Afraid of nothing, previously, the exotic beasts were heavily damaged at Demon Flame City, they're probably still licking their wounds. If we're careful, they won't even notice us."

Many family cultivators discussed amongst themselves, exuding deep killing intent.

Chapter 1002: Manipulating Fate, Reaping the Fisherman's Benefit

One day later at noon.

Whoosh!

Jiang Fan's figure appeared in a mountain valley, distant sounds of battle and shouts echoed loudly.

The ground revealed scattered human corpses, showing signs of being torn and bitten by exotic beasts, almost entirely devoured.

Before dying, they displayed expressions of fear and despair.

Undoubtedly, these humans accidentally encountered exotic beasts and were killed by them.

It seemed these humans had no power to resist.

But it couldn't be helped; these beasts had reached the Divinity Transformation Level, beyond the ability of ordinary humans to withstand.

"Exotic beasts and humans indeed cannot coexist."

"It's either your death or my survival."

"In that case, there's nothing more to say."

Jiang Fan's eyes glinted coldly as his divine sense spread out, immediately detecting the presence of over a dozen Divinity Transformation Level beasts in the valley, clearly his target this time.

These Divinity Transformation Level beasts were feasting on human corpses, practically a banquet for them.

The ground was awash with bright red blood, and the air was thick with a pungent smell.

Scenes like this were quite common in the Ice Crystal Mountain Range.

After all, it was extremely difficult for humans to survive in this area, always needing to face the threat of these terrifying beasts.

"Die."

Sensing the scene, Jiang Fan hesitated not at all, his figure flashed in front of the beasts.

"Roar!"

The beasts engrossed in devouring human corpses noticed Jiang Fan at once; they weren't ordinary beasts and possessed a certain intelligence.

Each issued low growls, showing threatening intentions, and their bodies exploded with savage killing intent.

Their aura was enough to instill fear in any Divinity Transformation Cultivator.

Unfortunately, to Jiang Fan, such aura was nothing more than a breeze, hardly noteworthy.

Heaven-Stealing Claw Talisman!

In an instant, Jiang Fan activated his Life Talisman, conjuring a terrifying golden beast claw in mid-air, furry and infused with fearsome cold gleams.

Thud!

The claw descended from the sky, seemingly ignoring spatial distances, arriving before the beasts in the blink of an eye with incredible speed.

Moreover, it contained a terrifying sharpness, akin to countless Sword Auras, piercing through all.

Boom~~

Before the Divinity Transformation Beasts could react, a single claw obliterated them instantaneously, tearing their bodies into dozens or hundreds of pieces.

Copious blood spilled onto the snow, the hot blood melting the snowy ground.

On the ground remained a distinct beast claw mark, its surroundings resonating with dreadful sharpness.

For Jiang Fan, who had reached the Eighth-Layer Divinity Transformation, these beasts were no match; he could kill as many as came without much effort.

"It's not safe to linger here."

Vaguely sensing a colossal threat, Jiang Fan realized that slaughtering the beasts had enraged the Void Refining Beasts deep in the Ice Crystal Mountain Range.

Given their bloodline connections, they would instantly know of their progeny's demise.

He used the Heaven-Stealing Claw Talisman specifically to provoke the Void Refining Beasts, leveraging their strength to expel foreign cultivators.

Clearly, his plan was executed successfully this time.

Whoosh!

After accomplishing everything, Jiang Fan didn't linger at all, nor did he intend to touch the beasts' corpses, choosing instead to leave them as evidence.

Before long, his figure completely vanished, as though he had never been there.

...

Meanwhile, deep in the Ice Crystal Mountain Range.

Void Refining Beasts in caves felt the news of their progeny's death, each letting out an earth-shaking roar, causing the ground to tremble.

Countless beasts crouched trembling in fear, not daring to act recklessly.

They were afraid of collateral damage, facing untimely death.

"Damn it, who killed my descendants?"

One enraged Void Refining Beast bellowed furiously.

Beasts of their level found it extremely difficult to breed pure-blooded offspring; each was incredibly precious, almost irreplaceable.

If their progeny died on the battlefield, it would be their fate.

The issue was they died within the Ice Crystal Mountain Range, like dying in their own lair.

It was humiliating.

Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh!!!

Instantly, Void Refining Beasts left their lairs, arriving where the beasts had died, seeing the mutilated remains on the ground, dead in ghastly ways.

This fueled their overwhelming fury.

"There are human corpses here too; it seems they died at the hands of human cultivators."

"Impossible, the humans residing in the Ice Crystal Mountain Range are extremely weak, how could they be adversaries?"

"The perpetrator isn't from the resident humans of the Ice Crystal Mountain Range but external cultivators."

"What? What on earth are these human cultivators doing, crossing into the Ice Crystal Mountain Range? Could it be they don't know it's our territory?"

Chapter 1003: Manipulating Fate, Reaping the Fisherman's Profit (Part 2)

"It seems that after the war in Demon Flame City last time, we've been underestimated by these human cultivators. Do they think we exotic beasts are extremely weak, so they're starting to overstep their bounds?"

"Indeed, we must kill all these human cultivators, or else they won't know whose territory this really is."

"Kill, kill every human that dares to step into our Ice Crystal Mountain Range."

Every Void Refining Beast was incredibly angry.

They felt utterly underestimated by human cultivators.

Now, it's no longer just about avenging the death of their descendants; it's escalated into a war of races, a battle for survival.

If they don't give these damn human cultivators a profound lesson, they might really come to the Ice Crystal Mountain Range to act as they please—which is absolutely unacceptable.

Rumble~~

At the command, exotic beasts from deep within the Ice Crystal Mountain Range began emerging, flooding over the mountains, forming a terrifying beast tide that attacked in all directions.

They received orders to kill every human cultivator they saw and completely eradicate all living beings they encounter to maintain the dignity of the exotic beasts.

They must completely drive out the human cultivators from this mountain range.

Anyone who dares to step into the Ice Crystal Mountain Range is a mortal enemy of the exotic beasts.

Another day passed.

The beast tide throughout the Ice Crystal Mountain Range erupted almost without warning.

This left the multitude of Noble Descendants who entered the Ice Crystal Mountain Range completely bewildered, as according to their previous calculations, the exotic beasts had suffered heavy losses in a previous battle and shouldn't launch another beast tide in such a short time.

As long as they were a little cautious, they should be safe from harm.

But who could have guessed, such a terrifying beast tide suddenly erupted, exotic beasts swarming everywhere.

This made these Noble Descendants shiver with fear.

After all, they'd spent most of their lives in cities, never before encountering such a hopeless scene.

"Damn it, have these exotic beasts gone completely mad? Why are they suddenly targeting us?"

"No idea, these exotic beasts are killing anyone they see, seemingly extremely furious, clearly something has happened."

"Weren't these exotic beasts heavily injured before, supposedly lacking strength? Where on earth are all these endless beasts coming from?"

"We've underestimated the number of exotic beasts in the Ice Crystal Mountain Range. It seems that those that attacked Demon Flame City were just a small fraction of their forces, not their entire strength."

A multitude of Noble Descendants discussed heatedly, their expressions grim to the extreme.

Because they realized they were surrounded by a large number of exotic beasts.

Even more terrifying, these surrounding exotic beasts weren't just at the Divinity Transformation Level but also at the Void Refining Level.

If this continues, they are bound to be completely annihilated here.

Originally, they planned to conduct a carpet search here to find Guan Tianqi.

But now all plans are ruined.

If they can't flee this place, they fear they will all perish here.

"What should we do now, should we fight these exotic beasts?"

"Fight them? Their numbers are endless, how can we fight them?"

"That's right, the best course of action now is to escape, the sooner we leave here, the better."

"Problem is, we seem to be targeted by Void Refining beasts, escaping from here might be difficult."

"The only strategy now is to inform the family patriarch and hope the patriarch knows of this and comes to save us."

"If the patriarch doesn't come to rescue us, we are truly doomed."

"I said a long time ago not to come to the Ice Crystal Mountain Range, it's the territory of exotic beasts."

"Alas, it's all because of that damned Guan Tianqi. If he hadn't come here, we wouldn't be in this predicament. If I find his tracks, I'll tear him to pieces."

"Honestly, I suspect this beast tide is orchestrated by Guan Tianqi, the purpose is to kill us by proxy, otherwise, how could it be such a coincidence?"

"Really? Is it true that loose cultivator Guan Tianqi has such abilities?"

"Haha, this loose cultivator is extremely mysterious; who knows what cards he's hiding."

"Even if it's true, so what. We need to leave here alive first."

A multitude of Noble Descendants were indignant towards Guan Tianqi, entirely regarding him as a mortal enemy. If they discovered Guan Tianqi's presence, they would certainly tear him to pieces.

Unfortunately, they can only vent their anger verbally now.

Since Guan Tianqi had long fled without a trace, there was nothing they could do.

All of a sudden, a multitude of Family Cultivators were fleeing in panic.

The problem is, they were already targeted by numerous exotic beasts, leaving this place is no easy feat.

.....

At this moment, in Hunyuan Valley.

Jiang Fan had returned to Hunyuan Valley.

At the same time, he activated the Celestial Cicada Spirit Leaf on him, instantly enveloping the entire Hunyuan Valley in a vast, invisible barrier.

Immediately, the aura of Hunyuan Valley concealed into nothingness, completely merging into the Ice Crystal Mountain Range.

It was as if the valley was a part of the mountain range.

Even the presence of Hunyuan Valley was erased.

Even nearby human cultivators and exotic beasts passing by would naturally overlook the presence of Hunyuan Valley, as if it were just an ordinary roadside rock.

Obviously, upon advancing to the Eighth-Layer Divinity Transformation, Jiang Fan could unleash more power from the Celestial Cicada Spirit Leaf.

The strength of this magical treasure not only obscures the aura of the cultivator himself but also conceals part of the area's aura, making that area completely vanish from the eyes of the world, becoming an absolute sanctuary.

However, if Jiang Fan leaves, this concealment aura would entirely disappear.

But it allowed Hunyuan Valley to avoid this war.

It can be said that whether from the exotic beast faction or the Family Cultivators, none could discover the existence of Hunyuan Valley.

It was as if it had become a Peach Blossom Spring-like place.

"Killing by proxy is indeed an endlessly wondrous strategy."

"It's simply effortless, while weakening two major forces."

Jiang Fan spread his divine consciousness over an area of tens of thousands of kilometers.

He easily sensed the battlefields across the Ice Crystal Mountain Range.

Numerous exotic beasts were engaging with Family Cultivators.

There were even Void Refining cultivators who had learned of the ambush and hurried to the Ice Crystal Mountain Range.

Both sides immediately clashed fiercely, the fighting was extremely brutal.

Countless Family Cultivators and exotic beasts were doomed to die in this war.

They wouldn't know that this war was actually orchestrated by a third-party force aiming to have them both lose.

To be honest, orchestrating a proxy war isn't an easy task.

One must trigger their conflict at the right time and place.

Without fate's foresight prompts, he couldn't have found such a perfect timing.

It was as if the fate of all beings was within his grasp.

Even the fate of Void Refining Cultivators and Integration Cultivators couldn't escape his control.

Like puppets on strings.

"After this war ends, those Family Cultivators will likely settle down thoroughly."

"They might not dare to rashly enter the Ice Crystal Mountain Range again in the short term."

"As for those Integration Great Powers controlling cities, they probably won't dare to come here either."

At this point, Jiang Fan also began to perceive the terrifying nature of the Ice Crystal Mountain Range.

Inhabiting deep within the mountain range are said to be several Integration Realm exotic beasts, their powers are unfathomable, like Stabilizing Needles, protecting all exotic beasts' safety.

If Void Refining Cultivators enter the Ice Crystal Mountain Range, it wouldn't stir the beasts.

Once an Integration Great Power dares to come in, it would certainly provoke their intense hostility.

Then, it would surely trigger a war between Integration Great Powers.

This is something no major faction could withstand.

However, for Hunyuan Valley, this is greatly beneficial.

The weakening of both parties will allow Hunyuan Valley to enjoy prolonged peace.

Foreign forces will likely no longer dare to covet the Ice Crystal Mountain Range.

"The greatest beneficiary of this war is me."

"After weathering this crisis, I will likely gain significant fortune."

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan looked forward eagerly.

Chapter 1004: Obtaining a First-Grade Opportunity, Gaining an Immortal Talisman Again

A few days later.

The great battle between the Exotic Beasts and the many Noble Descendants soon came to an end.

This incident naturally alarmed the Refining Void Ancestors, who rushed to the Ice Crystal Mountain Range and engaged in a great battle.

The result was predictable. This was the territory of the Exotic Beasts, and the human cultivators who came were no match, suffering defeat after defeat, with countless casualties.

In the end, most of the Noble Descendants perished in the Ice Crystal Mountain Range, with only a few managing to leave alive.

"Alas, our losses this time are truly grievous."

"Who knows how many Direct Descendants died here."

"How long will it take to recover the family's losses."

"Those damned Exotic Beasts, I will never forgive them."

A Refining Void Ancestor was incensed, protecting many Noble Descendants as they left.

But he also suffered various injuries as he was besieged by several Void Refining Beasts.

If he stayed here, he would probably have also perished in the Ice Crystal Mountain Range.

However, thinking of the losses at the Ice Crystal Mountain Range, he was furious, even feeling that this was a senseless disaster.

Who could have imagined that a simple pursuit of a Loose Cultivator would evolve into such a situation?

If he had known this earlier, he would never have allowed his descendants to act this way.

Unfortunately, it's too late to say anything now.

"Ancestor, what should we do now?"

"The losses this time are really too severe."

"Do we need to unite the major Noble Families and launch a purge of the Ice Crystal Mountain Range?"

"Otherwise, we can't let this anger go."

Many family cultivators gritted their teeth.

They were eager to rush back to the Ice Crystal Mountain Range and slaughter those despicable Exotic Beasts.

After all, when have they ever been so miserable, being hunted down like stray dogs by so many Exotic Beasts?

"Foolish, waging war with the Exotic Beasts is a consequence we cannot bear."

"The City Lord would absolutely not allow such a thing to happen."

"You don't understand how terrifying those Exotic Beasts are."

"They also have Integration Realm Exotic Beasts, with incredible combat power."

"If a war between the Human Race and Exotic Beasts truly breaks out, we might not escape unscathed."

The Refining Void Ancestor shouted, dispelling any notion of his descendants.

Under no circumstances could they wage full-scale war with the Exotic Beasts, the consequences of which they could not bear.

Currently, it's just a small-scale skirmish, with limited casualties.

If it were a full-scale war, the casualties wouldn't be just a few.

At that time, countless families would become history.

"Yes, Ancestor."

Upon hearing this, the many angry Noble Descendants calmed the fury deep within them.

If Integration Great Powers did not intervene, it would be impossible to eradicate these Exotic Beasts.

They were far outnumbered by the Exotic Beasts.

If a great war truly occurred, they would indeed suffer losses.

In fact, Demon Flame City could withstand the beast tide only by relying on the power of the city's array.

Without the array, fighting on the plain, humans would be at a disadvantage.

They might even be slaughtered by those terrifying Exotic Beasts.

Moreover, Integration Great Powers would not intervene in such minor matters, and more importantly, they had intruded upon the Exotic Beasts' territory, giving no reason for retaliation.

"Ancestor, it's all Guan Tianqi's fault."

"If it weren't for this brat, we wouldn't have ended up like this."

"We must find that bastard and tear him to pieces."

A family cultivator cursed furiously.

He was eager to tear the Loose Cultivator Guan Tianqi to pieces to quell the hatred deep within him.

Clearly, he placed all the blame on that Loose Cultivator.

If it weren't for this Loose Cultivator, how could they have lost so many people?

"Shut up, that brat is very tricky."

"Earlier, many of us Refining Void tried to divine his whereabouts."

"But we found that his karmic ties had already disappeared, as if he vanished into thin air."

"In the short term, we may not find this Guan Tianqi."

"There's no doubt that this brat must possess some means of concealing his karmic ties."

"In any case, without discovering his whereabouts, you are not allowed to re-enter the Ice Crystal Mountain Range."

"If you provoke those Exotic Beasts again, I might not be able to save you."

The Refining Void Ancestor warned his descendants.

He was also incredibly angry with that Loose Cultivator Guan Tianqi, eager to eliminate the other party instantly.

But that was impossible.

No matter how much more powerful he was, the other party had already disappeared without a trace.

If the opponent couldn't be found, even the strongest power would be useless.

What worried him even more was that if this Loose Cultivator obtained many opportunities and then made a comeback, it would be a disaster for the major families.

In fact, such occurrences were not uncommon in history.

There would always be some extraordinarily gifted Loose Cultivators who rose to become legends.

And many families became the stepping stones for that legend.

"Yes, Ancestor."

"Without certainty, we won't act rashly."

"Let other cultivators step in, let's find the brat's whereabouts first."

"I don't believe this guy can hide in the Ice Crystal Mountain Range forever; sooner or later, he will appear before us again."

"That's right, just a mere Loose Cultivator, yet he caused us such loss."

Chapter 1005: Gaining a First-Grade Opportunity, Acquiring Another Immortal Talisman_2

"Just you wait, this guy will definitely die by my hand."

The numerous family cultivators were increasingly frustrated, but they also knew that their ancestor's words were correct.

Now, the Ice Crystal Mountain Range had become their forbidden zone, and entering it easily was not possible.

However, they were even more resentful towards Guan Tianqi, feeling that it was precisely this kid who caused them such heavy losses, with the bounty amount having increased threefold, it was evident how furious they were.

Unfortunately for them, they didn't have any information about this loose cultivator and didn't dare to venture into the Ice Crystal Mountain Range again in the short term, so it was all bark and no bite.

At the same time, the losses of exotic beasts were not few either, with some Refining Void level exotic beasts having fallen. It could be described as a bitter victory.

But for them, being able to drive out these hateful human cultivators was the greatest victory.

The death of some exotic beasts was not considered a loss at all.

After all, their reproductive ability was very strong; it wouldn't take long to breed more exotic beasts.

Yet, it might take decades before another beast wave could be stirred.

At the very least, a period of recuperation is needed.

Boom~~

Staying in Primordial Valley, Jiang Fan instantly received a piece of information, entering the depths of his sea of consciousness: "You used clever strategies, orchestrated a confrontation, causing a war between exotic beasts and numerous noble family cultivators, resulting in mutual defeat and successfully allowing Primordial Valley to survive a death tribulation. You earned thirty million Luck Points, and a First-Grade Opportunity (click to view the specific location)."

A First-Grade Opportunity?!

Sensing this information, Jiang Fan's pupils contracted; he hadn't expected that surviving this tribulation would actually give him a chance to obtain a First-Grade Opportunity, which is among the most top-grade opportunities in the mortal world.

Normally, this was just an ordinary tribulation, why could it lead to a First-Grade Opportunity?

But opportunity is a difficult thing to explain.

It's not necessarily that overcoming huge tribulations will allow you to gain top-grade opportunities.

Sometimes when the time is right, even without tribulations, you can still obtain them.

The two are not equivalent.

"Let's see where exactly this First-Grade Opportunity is?"

Jiang Fan's heart stirred and he immediately clicked to see the specific location of this First-Grade Opportunity.

The position of this opportunity wasn't far from the Primordial Valley, approximately seven hundred kilometers to the southwest.

For him, a Divinity Transformation cultivator, this was indeed a very short distance.

Whoosh!

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan had no hesitation, his figure flashed, performing Shrinking Earth into Inches, and quickly left Primordial Valley.

In just a few minutes, he arrived at the location of the First-Grade Opportunity.

Immediately, he found himself in a hidden cave.

However, inside this cave were unexpectedly more than a dozen corpses of human cultivators.

They were dressed in lavish clothing and left behind many magical treasures, evidently descendants from various noble families.

But whether it was for fighting over treasures or due to mutual animosity, they fought inside the cave, resulting in mutual defeat and dying together in this place.

Moreover, the time of death of these human cultivators wouldn't exceed a day.

But this had little to do with Jiang Fan.

After all, their life or death was irrelevant to him; he was merely seeking the First-Grade Opportunity.

Boom~~

In an instant, Jiang Fan waved his large hand, immediately collecting all the storage bags from the ground.

The First-Grade Opportunity was inside one of these storage bags.

He scanned the storage bag with his divine consciousness, finding it full of various kinds of treasures, obviously indicating that the owner of this storage bag was quite wealthy.

Soon he found that First-Grade Opportunity.

It was an ancient-looking talisman.

Engraved with complex and mysterious patterns, it contained incredible power.

It was unknown what material it was made from, seemingly possessing an eternal aura.

Immortal Talisman!

This was definitely an Immortal Talisman!

After all, Jiang Fan previously had obtained three Immortal Talismans: the Longevity Immortal Talisman, Reincarnation Immortal Talisman, and Cause and Effect Communication Immortal Talisman, each containing incredible power.

He greatly benefited from them, so he was quite familiar with Immortal Talismans.

But he never expected to find a fourth Immortal Talisman here.

Truly, it's worthy of a First-Grade Opportunity, actually granting him a brand-new Immortal Talisman, now he's rich.

Boom~~

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan hesitated not at all, and he immediately expended a large amount of Luck Points.

A mysterious energy instantly entered the depths of this Immortal Talisman's interior.

Originally in a dormant state, the talisman which hadn't been activated ever, had its lines instantly lit up, glowing with golden brilliance, and a great energy erupted out.

Suddenly, this Immortal Talisman transformed into a sphere, roughly the size of a glass marble, resembling a Bodhi seed.

The surface of this sphere was covered with dense and mysterious patterns, almost like the cortex of a brain.

Dong!

In the next moment, it emitted golden light, spreading in all directions, covering this area.

"This."

Jiang Fan's pupils contracted; he sensed that the moment he was enveloped in this light, the darkness and various negative emotions deep within his heart were completely cleansed.

As if his heart was washed clean, leaving no dust behind.

At the same time, his mind reached a state of clarity, resembling Unity of Heaven and Man, and his comprehension had been impressively enhanced.

Numerous cultivation mysteries instantly surged into his mind.

It was as if consuming a large quantity of Luck Points, this feeling of epiphany was incomparably mysterious.

Truly wondrous beyond measure.

"So that's it, this is the Bodhi Pure Heart Immortal Talisman."

Jiang Fan instantly understood the name of this talisman and its various capabilities.

Once activated, this talisman can purify the miscellaneous thoughts and darkness deep within the cultivator's heart and has the effect of eliminating heart demons, making it easy for the cultivator to enter a meditative state.

Simultaneously, under the enveloping power of the talisman, one can briefly enhance their understanding.

If lucky, they can immediately grasp enlightenment and comprehend numerous cultivation mysteries.

Undoubtedly, this is a top-grade auxiliary cultivation talisman.

The stronger the cultivator's cultivation, the larger the area the Bodhi Pure Heart Immortal Talisman can cover, helping more cultivators, clearly the mystical aspects of this talisman are no less than the previously obtained talismans.

"Such an Immortal Talisman actually exists in the world, truly unbelievable."

Jiang Fan was overjoyed.

He fully understood how much benefit this talisman could bring him.

It could even be used to assist the cultivators of the Primordial Talisman Sect, helping his Dao Companion to quickly grow up.

After all, comprehension is extremely important to cultivators.

"No way, this actually is an Immortal Talisman?"

"How heaven-defying must your luck be to obtain an Immortal Talisman so effortlessly?"

Witnessing this scene, the Primordial Talisman Pen was dumbfounded, practically incredulous.

It knew well how difficult it was to obtain an Immortal Talisman.

During the Ancient Era, the Primordial Talisman Sect's power was at its height, with great Destiny, and genius disciples under its banners were numerous, yet obtaining an Immortal Talisman was still an incredibly challenging task.

Every Immortal Talisman, like an Immortal Artifact, was extremely important, a Sect Treasure containing unlimited mysteries.

They could become supreme inheritances of a sect, part of a sect's essence.

But now, this youngster casually obtained a brand-new Immortal Talisman.

This kind of thing wouldn't be believed by many if spoken.

"Just lucky, no big deal."

Jiang Fan waved his hand, speaking humbly.

"This."

The Primordial Talisman Pen was speechless, not knowing what to say.

It had long known this youngster's luck was against heaven, but didn't expect it to be to such an extent.

Could this guy truly be Heaven's illegitimate child?

Otherwise, how could he casually arrive at a place and acquire such a treasure?

This left it with countless unanswered questions.

Whoosh!

But Jiang Fan also paid no mind to the Primordial Talisman Pen's doubts, his figure flashed, swiftly returning to Primordial Valley.

He believed that in the coming period, Primordial Valley would be very peaceful, experiencing some tranquility.

Moreover, he needed some cultivation time to quickly enhance his cultivation.

He wanted to rapidly advance to the Ninth-Layer Divinity Transformation.

After all, each passing day drew him closer to returning to the Void Realm.

Jiang Fan also missed his Dao Companion and the Void Realm very much.

Boom~~~

Immediately, Jiang Fan sat cross-legged on the ground, re-entering a cultivation state.

Chapter 1006: The Rapid Development of the Hunyuan Alliance After One Year

Time flies, another year has passed.

Although the development and changes in Hunyuan Valley aren't significant, the development of Hunyuan Alliance within the Great Xuan Dynasty is flourishing, almost like a kind of evolutionary fission.

The number of members in the Hunyuan Alliance has further surged, now exceeding a thousand.

Clearly, cultivators possessing a Life Chart are continuously being discovered.

If it relied solely on Jiang Fan, who knows how long it would take to reach such a scale.

However, through members developing other members, the number of Hunyuan Alliance members is continuously soaring.

Of course, the increase in numbers actually brings great benefits to each member of the Hunyuan Alliance.

Even the forum has become considerably lively.

Almost every day, numerous members post to introduce information from various regions.

This is essentially a form of exchanging resources.

The one who benefits the most is naturally Linglong Ye.

As a princess with no strong backing, who had fallen into the civilian ranks, she originally wouldn't have much support; relying solely on royal subsidies couldn't satisfy her cultivation needs.

However, leveraging the power of the Hunyuan Alliance, she continuously buys low and sells high, thus acquiring tremendous wealth.

Other members still need to worry about earning too much and possibly being targeted by some noble families.

But as a princess, she naturally belongs to the largest noble family of the Great Xuan Dynasty, so there's no need to worry about being coveted.

More importantly, her destiny is overwhelming, her talent amazing, and she has been accepted as a direct disciple by Daoist Mo Mei, an Integration Great Power, who is a female Integration Cultivator and a Sword Cultivator as well.

Her combat power is arguably one of the best among Integration Great Powers, second only to Mahayana cultivators.

Being the princess of the Great Xuan Dynasty and having an Integration Great Power as her master elevates Linglong Ye's status greatly, prompting attention from various noble families to this rapidly rising princess.

"Who would have thought that Sister Linglong would be accepted by an Integration Great Power as a direct disciple."

"With this, Sister Linglong could be considered someone with a background in the future."

Liu Shengnan remarked with emotion.

Previously, although Linglong Ye was a princess, a princess without her mother's support was still just an unloved one, only able to acquire the title of royal princess and some subsidies, without much privilege.

Other ministers and noble families didn't regard her highly.

But now things are different; becoming a direct disciple of an Integration Great Power elevates her status greatly.

After all, within the Great Xuan Dynasty, Integration Great Powers basically don't take disciples.

Such figures are all striving to reach the Mahayana Realm, leaving no time to recruit disciples.

Moreover, such influential figures don't care about royal status.

To them, without cultivation power, all else is vanity, not worth mentioning.

"Isn't this just natural?"

"Sister Linglong possesses an Immortal Destiny, the finest talent in existence."

"With such talent, even being noticed by a Mahayana cultivator isn't surprising."

Su Wangyue stated proudly.

She was perfectly aware of her sister Linglong Ye's talent, which is an Immortal Destiny, Only I am Venerable.

No matter what cultivation technique or divine power she learned, she could master it effortlessly.

Her combat power even surpasses that of her peers, an unparalleled genius.

Any cultivator considering taking students would be tempted upon seeing her sister, destined to be a major figure.

This was precisely how Daoist Mo Mei felt, having a fleeting thought of taking her as a student after just one look at Linglong Ye.

To such major figures, without powerful enough talent, one wouldn't pique their interest.

"My sister's Immortal Destiny is indeed remarkable."

"But I wonder if there are any other cultivators in the Hunyuan Alliance possessing an Immortal Destiny."

Xiao Duan was quite curious about this point.

Even though he knew the cultivators joining the Hunyuan Alliance basically all possessed a Life Chart, the Life Chart varies in grades, most of the participants just possess Lower Grade Life Charts.

A bit more talented would be those with Middle Grade Life Charts.

Only talents like them could possess an Immortal Destiny.

The issue is, talents like his sister Linglong Ye are surely rare.

Uncertain if there's even a second one in the Hunyuan Alliance.

"Apart from me, there are surely other members with an Immortal Destiny."

"I am utterly convinced of this point."

"Not to mention, that mysterious senior Talisman Daoist is probably an Immortal Destiny."

"Might even be the legendary Seven-Colored Life Chart."

Linglong Ye said solemnly.

She could actually sense a trace of Life Chart aura from other cultivators vaguely.

But she could only perceive it at best.

She wouldn't know what kind of Life Chart or abilities the opponent possessed.

Only I am Venerable brought her powerful intuition.

Like a Divine Beast's instinct, it can distinctly perceive the danger level, good or evil, and potential of other cultivators.

"Seven-Colored Life Chart? Isn't that too exaggerated."

"According to what that senior said, such a Life Chart would be unique."

"In the myriad worlds, there might not be many existing."

Jiang Mo couldn't help but swallow hard, feeling such a guess to be excessively exaggerated.

But this is not impossible.

Because that senior Talisman Daoist is too mysterious, mastering various unimaginable techniques.

Chapter 1007: The Rapid Growth of the Hunyuan Alliance One Year Later (Part 2)

If the other party truly possesses the Seven-Colored Life Chart, then it's not an impossible thing.

"There's nothing impossible about it."

"If they weren't such a top figure, how could they gather so many Life Plate Cultivators?"

"Moreover, haven't you noticed? The term 'Infinite Worlds' was mentioned by that senior."

"In the endless void, there exist many Great Thousand Worlds."

"In other words, apart from the Spirit Ruins Realm, there are other worlds."

"The question is, how exactly did that senior know about this?"

"Earlier, I investigated much about the Talisman Daoist, yet never discovered such a person."

"Normally, such a prominent figure wouldn't be without any trace, yet we can't find any clues about him, so I suspect he isn't a native Cultivator of the Spirit Ruins Realm, but a Great Power from another world."

Ye Linglong's beautiful eyes revealed a glimmer of light as she voiced her speculation.

Such speculation came from her deeply ingrained instincts.

Though this guess is bold and quite unbelievable, it's not entirely impossible.

It can be said that this speculation is infinitely close to the truth.

"A Great Power from another world?"

"This guess is indeed rather bizarre."

"However, considering the various powers that senior exhibited, it doesn't seem impossible either."

"But even Mahayana Cultivators can't traverse two realms."

Xiao Duan and others found this guess truly shocking, even somewhat absurd.

Yet, thinking about it carefully, it's not impossible.

"Indeed, ordinary Cultivators, even Mahayana Cultivators, can't traverse two realms."

"The distance between Great Thousand Worlds is simply too vast."

"Even if Mahayana Cultivators can traverse the void, they can't cross such an immense distance."

"In most cases, they would die of old age during the void crossing."

"Thus, ordinary Mahayana Cultivators wouldn't leave their original world."

"But just because ordinary Cultivators can't do it doesn't mean Immortal Artifacts can't."

"Perhaps that senior found an Immortal Artifact capable of traversing two realms."

"That's why he could come to our Spirit Ruins Realm."

Ye Linglong spoke in a deep voice.

Upon hearing this, Xiao Duan and others suddenly had an epiphany, feeling that this guess is closer to the truth.

"Yes, the Treasure gifted by that senior, the Ten Thousand Treasures Token, does have such capability."

"If this Treasure can instantly teleport numerous items to another place."

"Then teleporting a living being to another world isn't impossible either."

"If that's the case, the Talisman Daoist's ability is truly unimaginable."

"Even Mahayana Cultivators might be just as capable."

Xiao Duan and others marveled endlessly.

They found the identity of the Talisman Daoist increasingly mysterious and unknowable.

Yet, precisely because of this, they grew more excited.

After all, being noticed by such a prominent figure, they possessed the possibility of further advancement.

"This is just my guess."

"Perhaps the Talisman Daoist really is a native Cultivator."

"After all, many Immortal Artifacts from the Immortal Realm exist within the Spirit Ruins Realm."

"He might be a native Cultivator who happened to pick up a powerful Immortal Artifact, thus gained such abilities."

"But no matter what, it seems the Talisman Daoist currently doesn't intend any harm toward us."

Ye Linglong said.

She wasn't completely sure of the senior's identity.

After all, it was merely speculation, not entirely the truth.

"The Ten Thousand Treasures Token is indeed a wonderfully mysterious Treasure."

"On the surface, it's just a trading platform capable of spanning space."

"But in reality, it's an infinitely storing space warehouse."

"It's said that some members love placing their Treasures inside the Ten Thousand Treasures Hall."

"Then retrieve them during transactions."

"This saves an immense amount of space and ensures high security."

"No need to worry about others discovering it."

Jiang Mo exclaimed.

In fact, he had just realized the magical use of the Ten Thousand Treasures Token, which members have truly mastered.

Bear in mind, whether it be a Space Ring or a Storage Bag, their internal space is limited.

The larger the Spatial Treasure, the more expensive it becomes.

It's not something ordinary Cultivators can afford.

When adventuring outside or visiting some Secret Realm, one always encounters numerous Spirit Medicines, ores, and other Treasures, and the sheer quantity makes it impossible for one person to carry them off.

This greatly reduces many potential gains.

However, since acquiring the Ten Thousand Treasures Token, things have been entirely different.

If encountering Spirit Medicines and ores that can't be carried away, they can be temporarily stored in the Ten Thousand Treasures Hall's warehouse, mitigating concerns about not being able to retrieve them.

"Indeed, I saw someone on the forum sneaking into a purple silver vein, disguising themselves as an ordinary miner."

"But in fact, the guy secretly dug up purple silver stones."

"Every day he excavates hundreds of pounds, earning an overflowing fortune."

"Even when inspected by some managers who checked all his equipment, they couldn't find any issues."

"Because he didn't carry a Space Ring or a Storage Bag."

"Any ore he excavated was instantly transported to the Ten Thousand Treasures Hall for storage."

"If this continues, most of the vein will soon be completely plundered by him."

Xiao Duan marveled.

This is essentially stealing the wealth of those Noble Families.

Yet those Noble Families have no means of defense.

With the Ten Thousand Treasures Token, it's simply a lowering of dimensions attack.

The opponent is utterly unpreventable.

"Digging up so much ore? Aren't they worried about being discovered?"

Liu Shengnan asked curiously.

She thought if it happened over a short time, those Noble Families might not notice.

But if it continued long enough, they would definitely detect something amiss.

Then they could be arrested by those Noble Families, which would be highly dangerous.

"Of course they're worried, but they have many methods."

"For example, exchanging some special Talismans through the Ten Thousand Treasures Token."

"For instance, Substitute Death Talisman, which can withstand nine deadly attacks, markedly enhancing one's survival capabilities."

"Also, Heaven-Reaching Bridge Talisman, a spatial Talisman. If discovered, it can set up a Heaven-Reaching Bridge, instantly teleporting thousands of miles, impossible even for High-tier Cultivators to catch up."

"Nevertheless, these are just precautions for the worst-case scenario. In fact, they're quite clever and don't over-exploit. They dig just a small portion each day."

"If they dig too much, they can switch to other veins to mine."

"Altogether, many members in this way have earned overflowing fortunes."

Jiang Mo explained.

Evidently, these methods allowed many members who joined the Mixed Yuan League to gain their first bucket of gold.

However, most of the members employing such methods were from humble backgrounds.

Such Cultivators are often too impoverished, and without taking risks, they'd never have an opportunity to gain vast Cultivation Resources in their lifetime.

Moreover, the risks aren't very high—just a bit of caution prevents discovery.

Indeed, because of this, in the past year, each Mixed Yuan League member's wealth drastically increased.

One could say they began to get rich overnight.

"But there's a drawback."

"The Ten Thousand Treasures Hall charges a thirty percent handling fee."

"Every time items are moved, it costs a huge amount of money."

"This pricing isn't cheap."

Su Wangyue said gravely.

Using the Ten Thousand Treasures Token's power isn't free; a fee must be paid to the Ten Thousand Treasures Hall.

Otherwise, one couldn't access its capabilities.

"What's this amount of money to you?"

"Understand it's a zero-cost transaction; never mind a thirty percent fee, even seventy or eighty percent would be fine."

"Indeed, without the Ten Thousand Treasures Token, we wouldn't have this avenue for making a living."

"But isn't that senior indeed making a fortune lying down? These past couple of years, he must have earned overflowing fortunes."

"It's unavoidable—after all, this is the senior's exclusive method, impossible for anyone to imitate."

"Surely, I haven't heard anyone in the Great Xuan Dynasty possessing such techniques."

The group conversed animatedly.

They didn't find this objectionable, thinking the fee was already quite reasonable.

Without the Ten Thousand Treasures Token, they couldn't possess such gains.

Chapter 1008: Ye Linglong's Path to Empress, Linglong Chamber of Commerce

"How is the Linglong Chamber of Commerce we established doing now?"

Ye Linglong asked.

Although they could purchase treasures from all over via the Ten Thousand Treasures Hall, they needed to sell them to make money.

Of course, once sold, it would be several times the profit, enough to make countless cultivators envious.

It was because of this they formed the Linglong Chamber of Commerce to sell various treasures.

They have made a substantial profit during this time.

Essentially, their small team gained enormous benefits.

It also accelerated their cultivation, with everyone advancing to the Golden Core Level.

"Sister Linglong, the Chamber of Commerce is running quite well."

"After all, our goods are highly sought-after."

"Rare ores from various regions."

"Essentially, every Artifact Refining Chamber of Commerce needs them."

"We have as much as they need; there's no bargaining at all."

Xiao Duan said excitedly.

To be honest, his business talent wasn't very good, but business is simply buying low and selling high.

The key is finding truly marketable goods.

With the support of Ten Thousand Treasures Hall, this can be easily achieved.

It's not something even the Great Xuan Dynasty can accomplish.

This gave them plenty of opportunities for arbitrage.

"However, there's a huge problem now."

"Our profits are simply too high."

"Some forces in the Imperial City are eyeing our Linglong Chamber of Commerce."

"They seem to want to find the source of our goods."

"If sister weren't a princess, these forces might resort to force."

Jiang Mo said with much feeling.

He realized that making money is not easy for ordinary cultivators.

If they earned little, others might not care, but once they earned a lot, many noble families would covet it.

Then various suppressions and struggles would come one after another.

Undoubtedly, if Sister Linglong didn't have royal identity, the Linglong Chamber of Commerce would not be easy to manage.

He couldn't imagine how much suppression they would face.

Some noble offspring might even shamelessly try to seize things.

In fact, this kind of thing isn't uncommon.

"Not just ordinary noble families, some princes and royal descendants are eyeing our Linglong Chamber of Commerce."

"Typical noble families might fear Sister Linglong's princess identity, but those princes and royals don't care."

"Fortunately, Sister Linglong became a Direct Disciple of an Integration Great Power, which deterred them."

"Otherwise, they might come to demand the Linglong Chamber of Commerce."

"These guys are just like vultures."

Su Wangyue was very dissatisfied with those princes and royal descendants.

Even though they were already royal offspring and had extraordinary privileges, they were still not satisfied, constantly oppressing ordinary people and seizing assets from ordinary cultivators.

They didn't even spare their siblings.

"Only Sister Linglong's destiny is amazing, indeed like the sun at noon."

"Originally thought it would cause great calamities, but unexpectedly there was a turning point."

"Perhaps it's the fate of the Immortal Destiny."

Liu Shengnan said with much feeling.

For ordinary cultivators, they would likely be unable to bear such suppression.

They might even go through many tribulations.

But her sister Ye Linglong was different.

Since awakening the Immortal Destiny, she's had an extraordinary destiny, indeed like the sun at noon.

First, she gained the identity of a princess, then received transmission from an Immortal, and now has the favor of an Integration Great Power.

One could say Sister Linglong is now unstoppable.

In terms of talent, and background, she has reached the summit.

It's impossible for other cultivators to suppress Sister Linglong.

Before, some princes and princesses tried to bully Ye Linglong but were taught a harsh lesson.

So Ye Linglong could have a peaceful cultivation time.

She thought this must be the influence of the Immortal Destiny.

This top Life Chart not only brings incredible talent but also brings abundant destiny.

Many members of the Mixed Yuan Alliance have already proven this point.

"Don't rely too much on supposed destiny."

"If you don't strive, even if opportunities come to you, you won't be able to seize them."

"This world has numerous cultivators without Life Chart."

"But they can still breakthrough continuously, advancing to Refining Void, even Integration."

"A Life Chart is only an embellishment, not everything."

"You must remember this."

Ye Linglong said solemnly, educating her siblings not to be influenced by the power of Life Chart.

Otherwise, if trapped in complacency, they will inevitably encounter disaster.

"Yes, Sister Linglong."

Upon hearing this, everyone nodded in agreement.

They realized they were indeed special but couldn't do whatever they pleased.

If they were careless, they could still die and their path would cease.

Even if not dead, they would be stagnated.

"Hmm?!"

"My mentor is looking for me."

At this moment, Ye Linglong's heart stirred, she immediately sensed a message from the Communication Talisman on her.

She didn't expect her mentor to seek her out at this moment.

As an Integration Great Power, normally they are in seclusion, or performing tasks, rarely having time to find her, so this is quite unusual.

Chapter 1009: Ye Linglong's Path to Empress, Linglong Chamber of Commerce_2

"In that case, sister, we shall take our leave."

Hearing this, Jiang Mo and the others were quite tactful as well, and promptly left the mansion. After all, meeting with an Integration Great Power was an exceedingly important matter, and they couldn't continue to disturb further.

Whoosh!

Soon after, Ye Linglong quickly left her palace and arrived at Daoist Mo Mei's residence. The two mansions were not far apart, so the journey was swift.

As the residence of an Integration Great Power, it was naturally heavily guarded, shrouded in formidable Restriction Arrays. Any ordinary cultivator attempting to force their way in was almost certainly courting death.

However, as a direct disciple of Daoist Mo Mei, she was already well-known to the cultivators in the mansion, so she entered smoothly and met her master, Daoist Mo Mei.

She was a stunning woman, dressed in a white gown and carrying a three-foot green blade. She appeared to be just an ordinary female cultivator, yet every cultivator in the Great Xuan Dynasty knew that Daoist Mo Mei was a top-tier Unparalleled Sword Cultivator.

The number of enemies and demons that had fallen by her hand was simply uncountable.

She was undoubtedly the sharpest blade in the Great Xuan Dynasty.

Everyone hoped she would ascend to Mahayana, as it would exponentially increase the strength of the Great Xuan Dynasty, possibly reclaiming some territories occupied by demons.

The rise in Ye Linglong's status was precisely due to this master's renown.

"Linglong, you've come. Your cultivation has progressed well; you've already advanced to the Golden Core stage."

"However, you shouldn't rush to increase your cultivation; you should solidify your foundation."

"This way, you won't face bottlenecks in the future."

"If you're too hasty in advancing, it could leave hidden dangers that are not worth the risk."

Daoist Mo Mei reminded.

"Yes, Master, I have cultivated each step to perfection."

"Only when I reach a point where I can advance no further do I choose to break through, so I won't be hasty."

Ye Linglong clasped her hands in gratitude.

She had learned much from this master.

If not for this master, her cultivation might not have progressed so quickly.

More importantly, her master also guided her path forward.

"By the way, about that Talisman Daoist you mentioned earlier."

"I've looked into it closely."

"This person is indeed quite mysterious."

"Only appearing recently."

"It's said that upon arrival, he saved Ice Soul King and others, and even destroyed a Demon Cave."

"Now he's on the demons' wanted list."

"The bounty is no less than that of a Mahayana Cultivator."

Daoist Mo Mei spoke directly, revealing the reason for summoning Ye Linglong.

She was clearly very interested in this mysterious Talisman Daoist.

Destroying a Demon Cave?!

Upon hearing this, Ye Linglong's heart was filled with shock; she hadn't realized the importance of this before.

But as she learned more, she naturally understood how terrifying a Demon Cave truly was.

It's a fortress for demons, boasting formidable defensive power.

To destroy a Demon Cave, at least a Mahayana Cultivator would need to be nearby to contain it, and a dozen Integration Great Powers would need to take action to achieve it.

Yet, this Talisman Daoist supposedly destroyed a Demon Cave single-handedly, highlighting the frightening power of the individual.

At the very least, he must be at the peak of the Body Integration Realm, or even a Mahayana-level cultivator.

Otherwise, accomplishing such a feat would be impossible.

Evidently, she might have underestimated this mysterious cultivator's power before.

"The many opportunities you encountered are most likely gifts from the Talisman Daoist, aren't they?"

"He's likely not part of the demon forces; he must belong to the Human Race's influence."

"Otherwise, he wouldn't have helped you."

Daoist Mo Mei naturally understands the various opportunities her disciple has encountered, but due to the power of a contract, the other party couldn't divulge it.

As an Integration Great Power, she naturally wasn't interested in such matters.

After all, opportunities that could interest an Integration Great Power are exceedingly rare.

Moreover, as cultivators, possessing some unique opportunities is entirely normal and nothing surprising.

As long as it poses no harm to her disciple, that is sufficient.

"Thank you, Master."

Ye Linglong expressed her gratitude sincerely.

She knew her master must have done a lot behind the scenes to ensure her safety.

Even now, she remained guarded against the mysterious Talisman Daoist.

After all, she couldn't fully trust there's such a thing as a free lunch in this world.

If the other party harbored any ulterior motives, it would be best to uncover them early so she could prepare accordingly.

However, at present, it seemed the Talisman Daoist truly bore no ill intentions.

Which eased her heart significantly.

"Earlier, you mentioned you have a special Life Chart, which led to the awakening of unique talents."

"And it's because of this that you attracted the Talisman Daoist's attention."

"To be honest, I'm quite intrigued by this and have looked through numerous texts."

"In some Immortal Realm records, there is indeed mention of Life Charts."

"It's said they are a special power condensed from the source of the Great Dao."

"They appear randomly on different beings, leading to the awakening of different Spirit Bodies."

"This is a talent more advanced than a Spirit Root."

"Unfortunately, no one can fathom how a Spirit Body is born."

"Even a Mahayana Cultivator finds it difficult to discern the kind of Spirit Body another possesses."

"If the Talisman Daoist can achieve this, he likely possesses extraordinary techniques."

Daoist Mo Mei said with a touch of longing.

"Even Mahayana Cultivators can't discern the existence of a Life Chart?"

Ye Linglong was astounded.

Although she couldn't divulge secrets like the Ten Thousand Treasures Hall and Communication Immortal Talisman, it was fine to speak about Life Charts.

She never expected that both Integration Great Powers and even Mahayana Cultivators couldn't detect the existence of a Life Chart.

This hinted at the uniqueness of the Talisman Daoist, possessing abilities beyond those of Mahayana Cultivators.

"It's no big deal."

"After all, there are countless unique techniques in this world."

"Even Mahayana Cultivators are not omnipotent."

"There are still numerous things they can't achieve."

"If given a chance to meet this Talisman Daoist, wouldn't it be wonderful?"

"Do you have any way to find him?"

Daoist Mo Mei's eyes gleamed as they fixed on Ye Linglong.

Having reached her level, she's merely a step away from the Mahayana Realm.

If she could glean just a bit of insight from this mysterious Talisman Daoist, she might achieve an epiphany.

Which could lead to her own ascension to a Mahayana Cultivator.

The gap between Integration and Mahayana is vast, with an equally daunting bottleneck.

Even though she was considered a genius cultivator, she had been trapped at this bottleneck for a long time.

"Master, I also wish to find this Talisman Daoist."

"But unfortunately, I have no means to locate him actively."

"In the past, it was always he who initiated contact with me."

"However, should I encounter the chance to see him again, I'll certainly convey your message."

Ye Linglong replied helplessly, surprised at her master's intense interest in the Talisman Daoist. Unfortunately, it had been a long time since she last saw the Talisman Daoist.

Despite attempts to converse with him through a Communication Talisman, there had been no response.

Considering the stature of such a person, if he didn't wish to meet, she couldn't force the meeting.

"It's alright, I was merely expressing a thought."

"If fate allows, it won't be too late to meet then."

"Since this individual has emerged and entangled himself in the demon war, he will inevitably appear again."

"Now, it's just a matter of waiting patiently; I have ample time and no need to rush."

Daoist Mo Mei smiled gently.

She understood that meeting such a mysterious individual wouldn't be easy.

Not even Ice Soul King and others had seen the individual's true appearance; they only heard his voice.

So one can imagine how secretive and cautious he is.

What exactly is he worried about?

Is his cultivation too weak, making him reluctant to meet?

Or does the deep demon invasion of the Great Xuan Dynasty make him feel it's unsafe?!

Regardless of the reason, she longed to meet him.

She had a premonition that she would gain substantial inspiration from him.

Sadly, the timing wasn't right for a meeting now.

Chapter 1010: Ninth-Layer Divinity Transformation, The Path to Refining Void

At the same time, in the Mixed Element Valley.

Inside the world of the Exquisite Tower.

Jiang Fan sat cross-legged on the ground, already in a state of meditation.

After a year of hard cultivation, his cultivation had progressed rapidly, reaching the Perfection of the Eighth-Layer Divinity Transformation.

He was just a step away from the Ninth-Layer Divinity Transformation.

For him, whatever happened outside was unimportant; what mattered was his cultivation.

As long as his cultivation could improve, he could achieve more.

"It's time."

At this moment, Jiang Fan sensed that the Primordial Magical Power within him had reached its peak, circulating again and again like an ocean within him, with his Essence, Qi, and Spirit all reaching the level of Perfection.

Bang~~

Under his control, the majestic Primordial Magical Power surged towards the bottleneck of the Ninth-Layer Divinity Transformation like an ocean, containing terrifying power.

With just one impact, the bottleneck shattered instantly, effortlessly.

Ninth-Layer Divinity Transformation!

In an instant, Jiang Fan sensed a tremendous breakthrough in his cultivation, easily advancing to the realm of the Ninth-Layer Divinity Transformation.

Compared to before, the power of the Primordial Magical Power and the Power of Divine Sense in him had increased significantly.

"Finally advanced to the Ninth-Layer Divinity Transformation."

Jiang Fan's eyes showed a glimmer of excitement.

He sensed that his Divine Sense had further transformed, nurturing five thousand soul tendrils.

The power of his Divine Sense was comparable to the Ninth-Layer Void Refining Realm.

With just a thought, the vast power of his Divine Sense could envelop a million kilometers.

More importantly, the power of Divine Sense could easily merge into the void, sensing traces of Void Energy.

This was not something ordinary Divinity Transformation Cultivators could accomplish.

It could be said that it already had some characteristics of Void Refining Cultivators.

"I didn't expect the advancement speed to be so fast."

Jiang Fan was very pleased.

He originally thought that to advance to the Ninth-Layer Divinity Transformation, it would take at least two to three years.

But he underestimated the heavenly gifts he received.

This Origin Energy was immense.

It not only supported his cultivation to Divinity Transformation Perfection but also helped him break through to the Void Refinement Realm.

Thus, this Origin Energy saved him a lot of time in arduous cultivation.

Because of this, in just over a year, he advanced from the Eighth-Layer to the Ninth-Layer Divinity Transformation.

If such rapid progress were spread, it would astonish countless cultivators.

"Next, I need to engrave a new Lifebound Talisman."

Jiang Fan fell into thought.

However, there was no hesitation; he quickly decided on his new Lifebound Talisman.

It was the Heaven-Shaking Bell Talisman.

This Immortal Realm Spirit Talisman naturally comes from the Immortal Artifact Heaven-Shaking Bell.

It's somewhat similar to the Demon-Vibrating Bell.

However, the power of the Demon-Vibrating Bell is especially restraining demons and evil cults.

But the Heaven-Shaking Bell's might is even greater, containing formidable destructive power.

When the bell rings, the world trembles, suppressing countless enemies, imprisoning Spiritual Qi, and can automatically protect its master.

In the Immortal Realm, the Immortal Artifact Heaven-Shaking Bell is renowned for having destroyed countless immortals.

It's like ringing a death knell for others.

Besides combat, it can also assist in enlightenment.

Its bell sounds can temporarily enhance a cultivator's comprehension.

If one's comprehension is enough, it can even lead to instant enlightenment.

Thus, this Immortal Realm Spirit Talisman is profound, offering both attack and assistance in cultivation.

Bang~~

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan did not hesitate, immediately expending a large amount of Luck Points from his body.

A mysterious energy instantly merged into the depths of his consciousness, bringing his comprehension to an astonishing level.

He immediately entered a state of instant enlightenment, understanding all the mysteries of the Heaven-Shaking Bell Talisman.

.....

Time flew by, and a month passed quickly.

Evidently, this month allowed Jiang Fan to progress rapidly, having fully comprehended the Heaven-Shaking Bell Talisman.

At the same time, he completely integrated this talisman into his Primordial Spirit, turning it into his Lifebound Talisman.

Vaguely, a small bell phantom reappeared deep in his Primordial Spirit, covered with dense runes.

It was as if the bell was circulating with endless law patterns.

"It's finally done."

Jiang Fan couldn't help but show a slight smile.

He was very satisfied with his progress speed.

Even the difficulty of Immortal Realm Spirit Talismans couldn't hinder his progress speed.

Bang~~

Thinking of this, he moved his mind, immediately opening his Virtual Panel.
