

Fortune 1011

Chapter 1011: Ninth-Layer Divinity Transformation, The Path to Refining Void (2)

[Realm: Ninth-Layer Divinity Transformation (32%)]

[Profession: Tier Five Upper Grade Talisman Master (95%)]

There's no denying it, the speed at which his cultivation progressed was extremely fast, and it was only getting faster.

Especially his cultivation progress, which reached 32% in just a month, not far from Divinity Transformation Perfection.

Once cultivation is perfected, he can attempt to break into the Void Refinement Realm.

Undoubtedly, only by becoming a Void Refining Cultivator can one secure a place in the Spirit Ruins Realm.

If one is merely a Divinity Transformation Cultivator, such ability is far from enough.

A Divinity Transformation Cultivator is just an ordinary leader in the Spirit Ruins Realm.

If one wants to become a general, at least they must become a Void Refining Cultivator.

"I didn't expect you to advance to the Ninth-Layer Divinity Transformation so quickly."

"It's only been a short decade or so since you came from the Void Realm to the Spirit Ruins Realm."

"Your cultivation speed is unbelievably fast."

"Even in the Ancient Era's Void Realm, it's astonishingly quick."

The Primordial Talisman Pen, sensing Jiang Fan's current cultivation, couldn't help but say.

According to its previous calculations, it would take this kid at least several hundred years to advance to the Ninth-Layer Divinity Transformation.

Even that speed of cultivation was considered extremely fast.

Who would have thought, after arriving in the Spirit Ruins Realm, this guy's cultivation speed was frighteningly fast.

In just a little more than a decade, he had advanced to the Ninth-Layer Divinity Transformation.

At this speed, it's estimated that in a few more years he'll break into Void Refinement.

If it weren't for witnessing it with its own eyes, it wouldn't believe a Divinity Transformation Cultivator's cultivation speed could be so fast.

Perhaps only a Child of Destiny could possess such an astonishing cultivation speed.

But in the current situation, it's actually a good thing.

After all, only with strong combat power can one face the various future calamities.

Especially the dreadful calamities from the Void Realm.

"Elder Fu, how does one ascend from Divinity Transformation to Void Refinement?"

Jiang Fan asked.

Although he had learned various mysteries about Void Refinement from books before, how to break through and ascend to the Void Refinement Realm was still a mystery to him.

Only an inheritance artifact like the Primordial Talisman Pen would know how to ascend from Divinity Transformation to the Void Refinement Level.

Knowing these mysteries in advance would definitely greatly benefit him in ascending to Void Refinement.

"Although you haven't cultivated to Divinity Transformation Perfection, at your cultivation speed, it shouldn't take long."

"So telling you now isn't really an issue."

"You can even start on the path to Void Refinement from now on."

The Primordial Talisman Pen sighed.

It didn't plan to keep anything to itself and wanted to tell all it knew.

"I am all ears."

Jiang Fan looked at the Primordial Talisman Pen.

"To ascend to Void Refinement, one must first overcome several thresholds."

"The first is naturally the Primordial Spirit Barrier."

"It's undeniable that to ascend to Void Refinement, one's primordial spirit power must be strong enough to meld with Heaven and Earth, or the Void."

"If the primordial spirit power can't perceive the void, it's impossible to step into Void Refinement by any means."

"However, your primordial spirit power is already strong enough; this barrier is nothing to you."

The Primordial Talisman Pen remarked with admiration.

It did not expect this kid's primordial spirit to be so powerful. Although merely a Divinity Transformation Cultivator, his divine sense could compare to the Ninth-Layer Void Refining, which was remarkably exaggerated.

But it brought significant benefits as well.

For other cultivators, the arduous Primordial Spirit Barrier was passed by this kid with ease.

"What's the next obstacle?"

Jiang Fan inquired.

"Next is the Physique Barrier."

"To ascend to Void Refinement, a strong physique is indispensable."

"So after ascending to Divinity Transformation, every Divinity Transformation Cultivator needs to practice a Body Tempering Technique to strengthen their physique."

"Because ascending to Void Refinement requires refining a strand of void energy into one's magical power."

"This transforms the magical power into Void Refining Power."

"However, this power is extraordinarily strong and is not something a normal physique can withstand."

"If one cannot withstand it, they may explode and perish."

The Primordial Talisman Pen explained.

The Physique Barrier, huh?

Upon hearing this, Jiang Fan raised an eyebrow, clearly realizing that even upon ascending to the Void Refining Level, physique remained quite important.

Previously practicing the Soaring Snake Technique, he saved a lot of hard cultivation time.

If he had started practicing the Body Tempering Technique after reaching Divinity Transformation Level, who knows how many efforts would have been wasted.

It's no wonder that Divinity Transformation Cultivators require thousands of years to break through and ascend to Void Refinement.

If cultivating Qi and body tempering simultaneously, the amount of time needed is self-evident.

Moreover, the resources consumed are innumerable.

Because of this, even in a resource-rich Great Thousand Worlds like the Spirit Ruins Realm, the number of Void Refining Cultivators is still relatively small.

Once one can ascend to Void Refinement, their status will geometrically increase.

"Given how difficult it is to ascend to Void Refinement, are there any elixirs that can aid cultivators in ascending?"

Jiang Fan asked curiously.

"There is, indeed. It's called the Void Spirit Pill."

"In the Ancient Era, this Tier Six Elixir was well-known, the main ingredient being the ten-thousand-year-old Spirit Medicine, the Void Grass."

"This is a special Spirit Medicine that contains void energy."

"After consumption, not only can it temporarily enhance a cultivator's primordial spirit power, it can also protect the physique."

"It shields the physique from void power, preventing explosion and death."

"However, this elixir is extraordinarily precious, not something every cultivator can obtain."

"In the current era, the Void Grass is likely long extinct."

"But in the resource-rich Spirit Ruins Realm, it should be possible to find Void Grass."

"There might even be someone selling the Void Spirit Pill."

The Primordial Talisman Pen explained.

It seems apparent that even for ascending from Divinity Transformation to Void Refinement, there are external aids available.

The Void Spirit Pill is a renowned elixir for Void Refinement ascension.

Unfortunately, this elixir has long gone extinct in the Void Realm, making it impossible to find.

But in the resource-rich Spirit Ruins Realm, it might be possible to find similar elixirs.

If he can obtain the Void Spirit Pill, it could increase his chances of ascending to Void Refinement by at least 30%.

Even if one fails the breakthrough, this elixir can save the cultivator's life.

There might even be a second chance to break through.

So it's evident that for cultivators at Divinity Transformation Perfection, the Void Spirit Pill is like a second life.

If there's a chance, many Divinity Transformation Cultivators would bankrupt themselves just to purchase this elixir.

"Void Spirit Pill, huh?"

"If there's a chance, I should definitely obtain one."

Jiang Fan rubbed his chin.

Thinking it over, he realized he could pass these barriers relatively easily, even without the Void Spirit Pill.

However, having one would be best.

After all, it's another trump card he can rely upon.

Even if he doesn't need it, it doesn't really matter.

Of course, even if he doesn't obtain it, it's no big deal; he can still rely on his strength to break through.

"Even if you get past the Primordial Spirit and Physique Barriers, there are still tribulations ahead."

"Those are the Void Refining Thunder Tribulation and the Heart Demon Tribulation."

"These two tribulations are extremely terrifying, and few cultivators manage to survive them."

"Even in the Ancient Era's Void Realm, the number of Void Refining Cultivators was relatively small."

"But once successfully ascended, one becomes an absolute powerhouse, and gains a ten-thousand-year lifespan."

"It's practically a shortcut to immortality, becoming nearly ageless."

The Primordial Talisman Pen spoke solemnly.

Clearly, ascending to Void Refinement isn't a simple task. Besides meeting the cultivation requirements, one must also survive the tribulations.

This poses a significant hurdle for many talents.

Even peerless geniuses must be extremely cautious when ascending to Void Refinement.

Otherwise, they might end up dying in a tribulation, annihilating both their body and soul.

"Indeed, ascending to Void Refinement isn't an easy task."

"Thorough preparation is necessary before attempting to ascend to Void Refinement."

Jiang Fan nodded.

After the Primordial Talisman Pen's explanation, he felt he better understood the path to ascending to Void Refinement.

Once he was fully prepared, he could attempt to ascend to Void Refinement.

Considering the time, it was probably time to return to the Void Realm.

After all this time, the strange curse had completely dissipated.

Chapter 1012: Su Weiwei's Transformation—Now a Nascent Soul Female Cultivator

At the same time, in the Void Realm.

Western Continent, Ten Thousand Beasts Secret Realm, Primordial Talisman Sect.

Beast Taming Peak.

A woman appeared in the garden, dressed in a long white gown as pure as snow. Her skirt swayed lightly and elegantly, seeming as if woven from moonlight and clouds. With each step, she appeared to walk on the clouds, exuding a cool and holy aura, akin to Chang'e descending from the moon.

Her beauty was exceptional, her brows shaped like new moons, her eyes as clear and bright as autumn waters, with a gentle sorrow and tenderness flowing through them, as if hiding countless stories. Her nose was prominent and exquisite, her red lips unpainted yet crimson, resembling ripe cherries, tempting and glistening. Her skin was as white as jade, contrasted by the white dress, appearing more delicate and smooth, as if able to reflect soft light.

Her figure was perfect, graceful and light, with a waist slender like a willow, complementing her long, straight legs, sketching an elegant and moving curve. Her shoulders were rounded and gentle, her arms pale and slender, every gesture showcasing feminine grace. Her waterfall-like dark hair fell casually over her shoulders, adorned with a few strands of silver light, seeming like a gift from moonlight, adding a touch of extraordinary fairy-like aura.

Obviously, she was Su Weiwei.

After more than ten years of cultivation, her appearance and temperament had become increasingly transcendent and extraordinary, no longer a mere mortal, as if transformed into a fairy.

Her every movement exuded endless charm, her entire being radiating beauty; she was nothing short of beautiful.

In Su Weiwei's arms was cradled a white rabbit, each of its hairs seemed like condensed pure energy.

It was the Taiyin Jade Rabbit's young, named Yueque.

Clearly, after more than ten years of companionship, their relationship had become even closer.

At the same time, its cultivation rapidly advanced, becoming increasingly unfathomable.

After all, it was also a True Spirit, containing boundless potential; with enough resources, it could grow quickly.

Its growth rate was unmatched by other beings.

"Weiwei, your talent isn't just the Taiyin physique, it's far more complex."

"You possess extremely powerful charm abilities."

"You're like a born Master of Charm."

"Even the Nine-tailed Fox might not compare to you."

From the beginning, she sensed Su Weiwei's extraordinary talent was no less than her own.

Moreover, their powers were compatible, which was why she chose to stay with Su Weiwei.

Over these ten years, she proved her original choice was absolutely correct.

Though humans are indeed weak, among their vast numbers, some extraordinary geniuses occasionally emerge.

These extraordinary geniuses have cultivation talents that can rival True Spirits.

If given enough opportunities, they might become even stronger than True Spirits.

For instance, the former Sect Leader of the Taixu Sect was such an extraordinary figure, so overwhelming that True Spirits had no choice but to submit.

She believed Su Weiwei shared similar talents.

Because Su Weiwei's charm abilities were simply too strong.

This charm transcends race and gender.

It can make countless beings feel affection and willingly submit.

With such unique abilities, over the years, Su Weiwei has charmed countless spirit beasts.

At this moment, the entire Beast Taming Peak has been transformed into a haven for spirit beasts.

Countless spirit beasts reside here.

The Six-winged Poison Bee, Purple Lightning Mayfly, and Yin Yang Butterfly she contracted were among them.

However, over these ten years, her cultivation advanced rapidly, now reaching the Nascent Soul Realm.

Thus, she contracted her fourth spirit pet—the Ice Soul Bug.

It is also one of the ten ancient strange insects, capable of emitting Ice Soul Divine Light.

Once unleashed, it can freeze ten thousand miles, sealing everything in ice.

Obtaining the Ice Soul Bug was one of the remarkable encounters she gained over these years.

She once ventured into a secret realm world and happened to find the egg of the Ice Soul Bug.

Hence, she easily acquired this ancient strange insect.

This greatly enhanced Su Weiwei's combat power, incomparable to ordinary Nascent Souls.

Truth be told, this is thanks to her special talent.

Ordinary Beast Masters find it impossible to charm so many ancient strange insects.

It should be known that spirit beasts, like humans, have their own dignity, emotions, and possessiveness.

The higher the level of the spirit beast, the more so.

Therefore, in general, high-level spirit beasts are unlikely to accept their master contracting other high-level spirit beasts.

Such feelings are akin to betrayal.

Yet Su Weiwei is different; she can easily contract so many high-level spirit beasts.

Moreover, she can make these spirit beasts coexist peacefully—this is beyond the capability of ordinary Beast Masters.

This can truly be considered a unique talent.

"Indeed, you're right."

"But I feel my talent has yet to be fully realized."

"If it were fully realized, perhaps I'd be like the Nine-tailed Fox, charming all things with a single thought."

Su Weiwei nodded.

Indeed, she has sensed her unique talent, effortlessly gaining the affection of other beings.

With just a thought, she can make others act according to her will.

This ability is akin to a wish coming true, incredibly wondrous.

However, she is now a Nascent Soul Cultivator, no longer the mortal she once was.

Chapter 1013: Su Weiwei's Transformation—Already a Nascent Soul Female Cultivator (Part 2)

Naturally, she understood that this might be a unique talent she possessed.

Furthermore, talent is something that defies logic and is innate.

One could say it's a gift from the heavens, and she didn't bother with its origins.

As long as it is utilized properly, that's entirely sufficient.

"With such talent, you can completely become the king of beast tamers."

"You can command the top ten ancient strange insects."

"If you succeed, probably even ordinary True Spirits wouldn't be your match."

"This would be an unprecedented achievement."

The Taiyin Jade Rabbit Yueque sighed.

Even though she was a True Spirit, she never underestimated the power of ancient strange insects; they too are born as unique beings.

If they grow to the extreme, their combat abilities would not be inferior to common True Spirits.

In other words, if Su Weiwei could indeed command the top ten ancient strange insects, it would be equivalent to commanding ten True Spirits.

Such combat power is truly terrifying.

Even in the Ancient Era, it is estimated that no cultivator from any Beast Taming Sect could achieve this.

However, only with such strength could one be worthy of being her partner.

How could a human cultivator who is too weak be fit to be a companion of the Taiyin Jade Rabbit?

"It's not that simple."

"Even with the ability to command the top ten ancient strange insects, many of them might have gone extinct by now."

"If they are indeed extinct, how could they be commanded?"

Su Weiwei felt helpless, likening it to a clever woman unable to cook without rice.

No matter how skilled a chef is, if there are no ingredients, it's impossible to cook a delicacy.

The same principle applies here.

Even the strongest Beast Master is useless without Spirit Beasts.

"Perhaps not all are extinct."

"The Void Realm is an incredibly mysterious world."

"It contains countless opportunities."

"Moreover, ancient strange insects have powerful survival abilities; they might have survived to this day."

"You've already obtained four kinds of ancient strange insects now; that's already quite extraordinary."

"If you were to find more, it wouldn't be surprising."

Yueque, the Taiyin Jade Rabbit, was full of confidence in Su Weiwei.

Because she sensed that Su Weiwei's Destiny was astounding, akin to the Child of Fortune.

Such a person is bound to become a Great Power in the future, with adventures and encounters along the way.

Even finding the top ten ancient strange insects might not be an impossible feat.

"Then I'll take that as a good omen."

"But there's no need to be overly persistent about such matters."

"If I gain them, I'm fortunate; if not, it's my fate."

"Just let nature take its course."

"Being overly obsessed would be unwise."

Su Weiwei smiled; she was not so fixated on it, as long as the Spirit Beast was suitable, it could be contracted.

There was no rigid requirement for the top ten ancient strange insects.

Being too fixated might lead to nothing being accomplished.

It could also leave a Heart Demon, causing vulnerabilities, which is detrimental to advancing to higher Realms.

Upon hearing this, Yueque, the Taiyin Jade Rabbit, nodded as well.

Although she was a True Spirit, when it came to Dao Heart, she was far inferior to this human cultivator.

"But compared to me, husband is still more impressive."

"After all, husband has commanded several True Spirits."

"Those are the highest-grade Spirit Beasts."

"I don't even know how husband managed to do it."

Su Weiwei was very curious about this matter.

Because True Spirits are almost impossible to contract.

One must gain the other's approval; otherwise, it's impossible to forcibly contract them.

But her husband is different.

There's no need for the True Spirit's approval, yet he can still forcibly contract them.

Much like a young Kunpeng, young Flame Dragon, and adult Wooden Dragon, etc., all were commanded by her husband.

This is truly extraordinary, surpassing conventional Beast Taming methods.

As a Beast Master herself, she understood this very well.

But this was her husband's secret, so she wouldn't inquire too much.

Even between Dao Companions, there are personal secrets, and there's no need to dig deeper.

"This."

Upon hearing this, Yueque, the Taiyin Jade Rabbit, was speechless; she also found this quite incredible.

Initially, she had looked down a bit on this man, thinking he was not worthy of Su Weiwei.

But as time passed, she gradually realized how terrifying he was.

His cultivation speed was already astonishing.

The truly important matter was that he mastered the method to enslave True Spirits; this was overwhelmingly outrageous.

To be honest, she even suspected that if she wasn't Su Weiwei's Spirit Pet, she might have been forcibly enslaved by him too.

This caused her to be exceedingly afraid of Jiang Fan.

Previously, she always tried to avoid meeting with this extremely dangerous human man.

For fear that if she was not careful, she might be enslaved by him.

She didn't know how such a formidable person could appear in this era.

Perhaps with the onset of chaos, various monstrous beings began to surface endlessly?!

However, fortunately, he was one of their own; otherwise, she would have needed to flee quickly, or she really might have fallen into his hands.

Whoosh!

At this moment, a beautiful figure flew swiftly into the garden from afar.

It was Lu Youyou.

Clearly, Lu Youyou's Cultivation had also advanced to the Nascent Soul Level, with a strong presence of Nascent Soul aura around her.

Her every move contained the aura of celestial phenomena, making others feel apprehensive.

"Sister Weiwei, today I successfully refined a Tier Four Elixir again."

"This must be extremely beneficial for us Nascent Soul Cultivators."

Chapter 1014: Su Weiwei's Transformation—Already a Nascent Soul Female Cultivator (3)

"It can rapidly enhance the cultivation of a Nascent Soul cultivator."

"So I brought it over for Sister to have a taste."

Lu Youyou said excitedly.

Without a doubt, now she is not just a Nascent Soul cultivator; she is also a Tier Four Upper Grade Alchemist.

She is basically considered the strongest alchemist in the Primordial Talisman Sect.

Most of the high-tier elixirs come from her hands.

She has become a significant figure akin to the stabilizing needle of the Primordial Talisman Sect, no longer the Foundation Establishment cultivator hunted in the past.

"To have refined a Tier Four elixir again."

"It seems, little sister, your alchemy skills have improved once more."

Su Weiwei praised.

She also very much envied Lu Youyou's talent in alchemy.

Unfortunately, she herself did not possess such talent, and even learning didn't yield much effect.

However, she wasn't too saddened, after all, her talent lay in beast taming.

Everyone has their unique talents, which can't be simply envied.

"How could I compare to Sister Weiwei."

"In the time we haven't met, Sister Weiwei seems to have become even more beautiful."

Lu Youyou said with a face full of envy.

She sensed that Su Weiwei was constantly becoming more beautiful.

This wasn't just a matter of appearance and figure becoming prettier, but a conceptual beauty.

After all, the human form might not be favored by other species.

Different races have different definitions of beauty.

But her sister Su Weiwei was different, this was a beauty of concept.

As if born with the ability to enchant everything.

Making people unconsciously submit to her, willingly working for her.

"Just being beautiful wouldn't be enough, Sister Weiwei, your cultivation speed is truly too fast."

"How long has it been, and yet you've already promoted to Fourth-Layer Nascent Soul."

"Right now, I'm only at Second-Layer Nascent Soul."

Lu Youyou said with a face full of envy.

At the beginning, her cultivation level was higher than Su Weiwei's.

But as time passed, Su Weiwei had already surpassed her.

Of course, this was only in comparison to Su Weiwei.

Compared to other ordinary cultivators, she was already making rapid progress, arguably a peerless genius.

After all, in the past, the Lu Family ancestor took hundreds of years to finally promote to Nascent Soul.

But for herself, in such a short time, she became a Second-Layer Nascent Soul cultivator.

The cultivation speed is simply astonishing.

"I'm just lucky, that's all."

"In previous Secret Realm expeditions, I gained some fortuitous encounters."

"Hence, I was able to promote to Fourth-Layer Nascent Soul."

Su Weiwei smiled.

She didn't expect her promotion speed to be so fast.

According to her previous estimates, it would take at least several decades, even a hundred years to promote to Nascent Soul.

And that was in very smooth circumstances.

If things weren't smooth, it might take hundreds of years without necessarily achieving promotion.

In the cultivation realm, many didn't know how many cultivators were trapped in the Golden Core Realm.

If she promoted to Nascent Soul outside, she'd already be considered an elder of a region.

Of course, the reason her promotion speed was so fast was because of many fortuitous encounters.

Since she obtained the True Spirit Taiyin Jade Rabbit, her destiny began to surge, practically an endless string of fortuitous encounters.

Over the years, she repeatedly got numerous legacies from ancient era cultivators.

She obtained a large amount of elixirs from the ancient era.

With these cultivation resources as assistance, the cultivation speed naturally wouldn't be slow.

Chapter 1015: Spiritual Energy Revival in the Void Realm, the Birth of Tier Six Spirit Veins

"One must admit, luck is also a form of strength."

"In the Cultivation Realm, which ancestor-level figures don't have their own fortuitous encounters and opportunities?"

"If relying solely on oneself, it's estimated that very few could ascend to higher realms."

Lu Youyou felt that Sister Weiwei was simply being too humble.

In the entire Cultivation Realm, how many ancestor-level cultivators don't have their own opportunities?

Therefore, obtaining opportunities is not a detriment but a bonus.

Countless cultivators yearn for opportunities, but they all end up empty-handed.

Or even if they do obtain an opportunity, they may not be able to keep it, ultimately becoming a wedding dress for others.

"But I feel that the reason my cultivation speed increased so much is greatly related to the changes in the world."

"I believe you've noticed it too, the Spiritual Qi has been getting denser lately."

"Places like the Western Continent and the Black Dragon Sea Region have even started to birth Tier Six Spirit Veins."

"This also causes the cultivation speed of the Void Realm cultivators to get faster and faster."

Su Weiwei spoke.

She noticed the increasingly astonishing changes in the Void Realm.

It's not just the elevation of spirit vein levels; it seems the entire Void Realm is expanding.

The mountains are taller, and the rivers are wider.

It's as if the Void Realm is accelerating in growth.

No, perhaps it's not accelerating but merely restoring the spectacle of the Ancient Era.

Precisely because of these astonishing changes, her own growth accelerated.

And it's not just her; it's the same for all cultivators in the Void Realm.

Especially some high-tier cultivators, who clearly notice cultivation becoming seemingly easier than before.

This is one of the effects brought about by the world's changes.

"It seems the Spiritual Energy Revival that my husband mentioned before is indeed happening."

"And the revival speed is getting faster and faster."

"Now even Tier Six Spirit Veins have appeared."

"In that case, perhaps even Void Refining Cultivators might appear."

Lu Youyou said solemnly.

In fact, she also noticed the astonishing changes in the Void Realm.

Apart from the expansion of area and space, the concentration of Spiritual Qi has increased, and the strength of the wild beasts, desolate beasts, and demon beasts residing throughout the Void Realm has also seen astonishing growth.

Moreover, their evolution speed is even faster than that of human cultivators.

Fortunately, humans have wisdom; otherwise, contending with these rapidly growing demon beasts wouldn't be so easy.

Previously, she also heard her husband or master mention the Spiritual Energy Revival.

However, she had never witnessed such a thing.

Even if Spiritual Energy Revival did occur, she didn't know what changes it would bring.

But now, it seems she had underestimated the changes brought about by the Spiritual Energy Revival.

This is bound to bring tremendous change to the entire Void Realm.

It might even usher in a cultivation flourishing comparable to the Ancient Era.

If that's truly the case, then for every cultivator in the Void Realm, it's an enormous opportunity.

"It's unlikely that Void Refining Cultivators will appear so easily."

"The influence of Spiritual Qi is only one aspect of it."

"What truly matters are those Tier Six Spirit Medicines."

"Without Tier Six Spirit Medicines, or the assistance of Tier Six Elixirs, even a Divinity Transformation Perfection cultivator can forget about advancing to Void Refining."

"Of course, some supreme talents are exceptions; they don't need external assistance to advance."

"But such supreme talents are extremely rare."

Su Weiwei shook her head.

"Indeed."

Lu Youyou nodded involuntarily.

Although she's not clear how powerful Divinity Transformation cultivators are, her master knows this well.

For now, the Spiritual Energy Revival has only been happening for a decade or so.

Such a short time is only enough for those Divinity Transformation cultivators to slightly enhance their cultivation.

Advancing to a Void Refining Cultivator is almost impossible.

"But, well, there are always exceptions."

"For the current era's Divinity Transformation Cultivators, advancing to Void Refining is indeed impossible."

"But don't forget, there are still some ancient antiques from the Ancient Era surviving to this day."

"They have been sleeping inside Life Source Stones, smuggling through countless years, and still surviving till now."

"If they awaken, they might bring unimaginable impact to the Void Realm."

Su Weiwei said seriously.

In the past ten years, she hasn't just stayed in the Ten Thousand Beasts Secret Realm to cultivate.

Occasionally, she would venture into various True Spirit Secret Realms in the Western Continent with Lu Youyou.

Moreover, with the protection of a Taiyin Jade Rabbit cub, ordinary dangers could not harm her.

It is precisely because of this that she obtained many treasures from those True Spirit Secret Realms.

She also saw some ancient cultivators slumbering in Life Source Stones.

Unfortunately, these ancient cultivators had already perished.

After all, over the long years, various accidents occur in Life Source Stones, causing the stones to shatter.

As a result, those slumbering ancient cultivators naturally met their demise.

In reality, this is a risk faced after falling into slumber.

No one knows what they'll encounter while asleep.

Some ancient cultivators might have awakened prematurely, and therefore, they couldn't survive till now.

Ultimately, they would die from exhausted lifespan.

Some sects in history were possibly established by these ancient cultivators, leaving a profound impact on the Void Realm's history.

Some ancient cultivators were unlucky and encountered calamities, resulting in their deaths.

Chapter 1016: The Void Realm of Spiritual Energy Revival, Birth of a Tier Six Spirit Vein (2)

However, even so, many ancient cultivators have survived.

Before they fell into slumber, they had already constructed various relics and tombs, buried deep in the earth.

Only when the spiritual energy fully revives will they thoroughly awaken from their slumber.

In fact, over the past dozen years of spiritual energy revival, some ancient cultivators have started to appear in the Void Realm.

But since the Primordial Talisman Sect is hiding within the Secret Realm World, those ancient cultivators have not yet discovered them.

"Hehe, just a bunch of old antiques."

"Even if they have truly survived until now, they can't possibly be our match."

"If they dare to jump out, they will be crushed one by one."

"Moreover, my husband had sent word previously, saying he has already reached the eighth layer of the Divinity Transformation."

"At this rate of cultivation, I estimate he's not far from the Refining Void."

"As long as my husband can ascend to being a Void Refining Cultivator, those ancient cultivators appearing won't be a big problem."

Lu Youyou confidently said.

Naturally, she and Su Weiwei were well aware that Jiang Fan had left the Void Realm and headed to the Spirit Ruins Realm.

He had also encountered many fortuitous opportunities in the Spirit Ruins Realm, causing his cultivation to progress by leaps and bounds.

After all, the power of the Cause and Effect Communication Immortal Talisman is incredibly strong.

As long as he is not in an area isolated by cause and effect, messages can be conveyed.

Thus, Jiang Fan would occasionally send back messages, assuring them of his safety.

This allowed Lu Youyou and Su Weiwei to feel very relieved, without having to worry about their husband's safety.

"I really didn't expect my husband to master the supreme artifact of the Void Realm, the Gate of the Void."

"With this magical treasure, he can travel between the two realms."

"No wonder my husband was previously able to traverse one continent after another with ease."

Su Weiwei remarked with emotion.

Before, she had been puzzled about how her husband could so easily traverse one continent after another.

This wasn't something ordinary cultivators could achieve.

Even finding an ancient teleportation array wouldn't make it this easy.

But after learning that her husband possessed the Gate of the Void, she immediately understood.

In fact, when Jiang Fan ascended to the Divinity Transformation and came to the Spirit Ruins Realm, he didn't plan to hide the Gate of the Void anymore.

After all, they would know of this treasure's existence sooner or later.

More importantly, his cultivation was already quite formidable.

Not many people in the entire Void Realm could contend with him.

So even if the Gate of the Void is exposed, it's no big deal.

He can certainly keep it safe.

Moreover, Su Weiwei and Lu Youyou are already Nascent Soul cultivators, and have the power to protect themselves.

"Indeed, my husband is truly the Child of Fortune."

"It's said that during the Ancient Era, the Gate of the Void was the sect treasure of the Taixu Sect."

"With the power of this magical treasure, the Taixu Sect could traverse across the realms."

"Even the True Spirits had to bow before the Taixu Sect."

"Even if my husband obtained an incomplete version of the Gate of the Void, it's still incomparable to other magical treasures."

Lu Youyou said excitedly.

She had learned many pieces of information about the Gate of the Void from her master.

A fully functional Gate of the Void must be an immortal artifact.

Otherwise, it wouldn't have the might to cross between realms.

But this incredible immortal artifact has now fallen into her husband's hands.

This also represents her husband inheriting many legacies from the Ancient Era.

No one knows how much ancient destiny has been accumulated.

"It is said that the Spirit Ruins Realm my husband visited this time is extremely powerful."

"In terms of spiritual energy and resources, it's not inferior to the Void Realm of the Ancient Era."

"It contains an endless supply of cultivation resources."

"Not to mention Divinity Transformation cultivators, even Refining Void cultivators and Integration cultivators are plentiful."

"It's truly a magnificent cultivation world."

"Our Void Realm has been declining for too long, even though quite a bit of heritage remains."

"However, many high-tier spirit medicines have long gone extinct, and some cultivation resources have completely vanished."

If we can obtain a large amount of cultivation resources from the Spirit Ruins Realm, we could certainly cultivate to a higher realm."

Su Weiwei calmly contemplated.

As a Nascent Soul cultivator, she was naturally well aware of the importance of cultivation resources.

Often, a single Tier Four Elixir can save a Nascent Soul cultivator ten, or even dozens of years of arduous cultivation.

Saving cultivation time effectively extends a cultivator's lifespan.

Even an unparalleled genius needs a lot of resources.

Otherwise, an ordinary cultivator, even if they exhaust their lifespan, cannot elevate their cultivation to the pinnacle.

The gap is enormous without resources to facilitate cultivation.

"According to what my husband said, the Spirit Ruins Realm also has its share of troubles."

"They are being attacked by numerous demons and have already lost half of their territory."

"If this continues, it's uncertain how long they can hold out."

Lu Youyou said.

She initially thought the Spirit Ruins Realm might be a cultivation paradise.

But every family has its difficult issues.

The Spirit Ruins Realm also has its major troubles.

Without sufficient strength, one cannot dream of exploiting the Spirit Ruins Realm's resources.

"Right now, we can't even manage the Spirit Ruins Realm. Our Void Realm's problems are big enough."

"Earlier, I received some news that as the spiritual energy continues to revive, the seals on those demons are gradually loosening."

"If these ancient demons break free from their seals, it would be a cataclysm for the beings of the Void Realm."

"At that time, almost no one would be able to stop these ancient demons."

Su Weiwei shook her head and said helplessly.

She hadn't felt this way when her cultivation was weak.

She thought if the sky falls, the tall ones will hold it up first.

As her cultivation improved and reached the Nascent Soul Realm, she realized she had become one of the tall ones.

If any calamity truly arises, it would be up to her to bear it.

No one would support her anymore from behind; if she can't withstand it, the forces behind her would be completely doomed.

Clearly, even becoming a Nascent Soul cultivator didn't reduce her troubles; instead, they multiplied.

But there's no way around it.

"In the short term, those demons still can't break out."

"Estimated, my husband will be back after a while."

"I believe my husband will have a solution by then."

Lu Youyou is very confident in Jiang Fan, believing her husband is fully capable of solving this problem.

"I still don't know the exact nature of the enemy that forced my husband out of the Void Realm."

"Truly enigmatic and unpredictable."

"Even knowing of their existence could attract their attention."

"This is indeed somewhat terrifying."

Su Weiwei took a deep breath.

She had a vague understanding of why her husband fled from the Void Realm.

It wasn't that her husband was unwilling to explain but rather that he could not.

Because the enemies' means were too eerie and terrifying, and her cultivation was too weak to know.

It seems the Taiyin Jade Rabbit, Yue Que, also knows something about the enemy, but even it was unwilling to speak at the time.

Clearly, it's beyond her ability to handle this matter.

Overall, she still feels too weak.

Otherwise, how could she not even qualify to know the existence of her enemies?

"Sister Weiwei, actually no need to worry too much."

"The enemies are indeed mysterious and powerful, but they are not completely undefeatable."

"No need to worry beyond our means."

"As long as we keep improving our cultivation, we'll eventually know what's happening."

Lu Youyou is naturally very curious about this matter.

Unfortunately, her master's tone was very stern and did not intend to reveal any information of this sort to her.

In this world, some information contains pollution and curses.

Just knowing would result in being cursed.

This is the terror of the enemies, and also the foes the ancient cultivators faced.

Otherwise, how could such a magnificent cultivation civilization be wiped out for no reason?!

As a mere Nascent Soul cultivator, she certainly isn't qualified to know these things.

"Hmm, there's a message from my husband."

"He has already ascended to the ninth layer of the Divinity Transformation."

"He'll be back in the Void Realm soon."

Just then, Su Weiwei was overjoyed; she sensed the message from Jiang Fan through the Cause and Effect Communication Immortal Talisman on her.

Lu Youyou likewise received it.

The two women did not expect to receive this good news so quickly.

They originally thought their husband might need to stay a while longer in the Spirit Ruins Realm.

Unexpectedly, he was returning so soon.

Chapter 1017: The Immortal Destiny Life Charts of Two Dao Companions and the Child of Fortune

One day later.

Ten Thousand Beasts Secret Realm, Primordial Peak.

Boom~~

The Gate of the Void suddenly appeared atop the peak.

In the next second, a figure stepped out from the Gate of the Void.

The person was naturally Jiang Fan.

After consolidating his cultivation, he directly opened the Gate of the Void and returned to the Void Realm.

"Finally back."

Jiang Fan took a deep breath, inhaling the familiar air.

After spending over ten years outside, he could finally return to the Void Realm once more.

He felt a stir within his heart, no longer experiencing the sensation of something prickly on his back.

Undoubtedly, the strange curse had completely dissipated.

After all, the power of such a curse, no matter how strong, could not persist for such a long time.

Moreover, if someone wanted to cast the curse again, they had no medium.

"Husband."

At this moment, Su Weiwei and Lu Youyou had already been waiting here for a long time.

Upon seeing Jiang Fan's figure appear, they immediately threw themselves at him, embracing him.

"This."

Jiang Fan blinked, suddenly feeling the softness and fragrance of the two stunning beauties in his arms.

Fragrant scents seeped into his nose.

This filled him with a sense of happiness.

As they say, absence makes the heart grow fonder.

Naturally, Jiang Fan couldn't resist, embracing his two Dao Companions and entering the bedroom.

...

A few days passed in the blink of an eye.

One could say that Jiang Fan was thoroughly immersed in tenderness, unable to extricate himself for a long time.

But he still had to rely on immense willpower to finally break free.

It must be said that Su Weiwei and Lu Youyou, who had advanced to the Nascent Soul Level, had become incredibly powerful.

Unlike before, they were no longer easy to defeat with a single stroke.

This left him extraordinarily satisfied, and at the same time, his cultivation improved remarkably.

Boom~~

In an instant, Jiang Fan perceived his destiny merging with that of Su Weiwei and Lu Youyou.

Immediately, he sensed a vast stream of information emerging from the two women.

This stream of information came from destiny.

"Su Weiwei, possessing an Immortal Destiny: Alluring Beauty, once holding this destiny, one possesses boundless charm and a superlative affinity with all things under heaven, effortlessly enchanting all."

"Lu Youyou, possessing an Immortal Destiny: Phoenix Towards the Sun, 'Phoenix' referring to the red phoenix, 'towards the sun' suggesting a talented person meeting the right patron, also symbolizing good fortune. Holding this destiny, it's easy to encounter a Child of Fortune, and to use the Child's power to gain opportunities, simultaneously enhancing the Child's destiny, thus being the finest support."

What?!

Perceiving this information, Jiang Fan's pupils contracted.

Before becoming a Divinity Transformation Cultivator, he couldn't clearly perceive the destinies of other cultivators.

So, after going to the Spirit Ruins Realm, he gained this special ability.

Because of this, it was his first time learning that both Dao Companions beside him held Immortal Destinies.

Although he had vaguely expected this in the depths of his heart, he hadn't anticipated encountering two Immortal Destinies at once.

But perhaps this was the power of his special destiny.

The figures and opportunities other cultivators find hard to meet, he encountered with ease.

As if it were divinely destined.

"This is the connection of destinies."

Jiang Fan felt deep amazement in his heart.

Immortal Destinies are bound to be exceedingly rare, among the few treasures within a Great Thousand Worlds.

However, the Void Realm is not an ordinary Great Thousand Worlds.

In the past, it was the foremost world of the Mortal World, unknown for how many Great Powers and True Spirits it concealed.

Surely the Void Realm has acquired no small number of Immortal Destinies.

Perhaps he had underestimated the founding ancestor of the Taixu Sect, who might possess a Seven-Colored Life Chart.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have been able to subdue the many powers of the Void Realm.

"And there is also that mysterious soul."

At this time, Jiang Fan had a thought and continued to observe Lu Youyou.

He indeed sensed a mysterious soul concealed within Lu Youyou.

Another stream of information instantly penetrated deep into his sea of consciousness: "Cloud Fairy, possessing an Immortal Destiny: Ingeniously Calculative, once mastering this destiny, one holds unparalleled insight, resonates perfectly with the arts of divination, and can even glimpse traces of destiny."

"Unbelievable."

Jiang Fan's pupils contracted, although he had long known this mysterious soul was extraordinary, he hadn't expected the entity to also possess an Immortal Destiny.

And the power held by this Immortal Destiny was immensely strong.

The entity harnessed the power of divination.

The entity likely detected Lu Youyou's special qualities, believing she could aid them, and thus attached itself to her.

In result, this assumption wasn't wrong.

Lu Youyou has indeed soared rapidly, helping her overcome her weakened state.

If things continue like this, there may truly be an opportunity for revival.

"Husband, what's wrong?"

At this moment, Su Weiwei and Lu Youyou also awoke, noticing Jiang Fan's expression and curiously asked.

Being the closest companions, they naturally understood the emotional shifts of their partner best.

However, they sensed that this might be good news, as their husband seemed very pleased, though they had no idea what had transpired.

"Oh, I've discerned the special destinies you both bear."

Jiang Fan didn't intend to hide anything and spoke directly.

After all, if they knew the kind of destinies they held, they would better understand their own potential.

Chapter 1018: The Immortal Destiny Life Charts of Two Dao Companions, Child of Fortune (2)

This can be considered a great benefit for future cultivation.

Of course, he did have a brief conversation with the two women about the Life Chart using the Cause and Effect Communication Immortal Talisman.

However, since he hadn't returned to the Void Realm, he couldn't know what kind of Life Chart the two women possessed.

"Do I possess the Immortal Destiny Life Chart of Alluring Beauty?"

"No wonder I can tame Spirit Beasts so easily."

Su Weiwei suddenly understood.

She had actually noticed her unique trait, seeming to easily gain the favor of others.

And it transcended race and gender.

Few living beings could resist this charm.

At this moment, she felt her Life Chart's potential had been fully activated by her husband.

Previously, her Life Chart's potential was only about one-third activated.

Mystically, a mysterious power spread through her entire body, making her allure increasingly astounding.

"If this is the case, then the potential of this Life Chart could be even more terrifying."

"It seems I can condense charms to control countless Spirit Beasts."

"Even human cultivators."

"After all, humans are a form of life too."

Su Weiwei's beautiful eyes revealed a glint.

She understood that the power of charm was not as simple as imagined; it is a soul-type talent.

Any living being with a soul cannot escape the power of charm.

Perhaps she could even charm those demons, making them serve her.

"Do I possess the Immortal Destiny Life Chart of Divine Phoenix Awaiting Dawn?"

"Can this Life Chart sense other Children of Fortune?!"

"And if I can help others, I can share their destiny and fortune."

"No wonder I have been encountering rapid progress since meeting my master and husband."

"Turns out it's the influence of this Life Chart's power."

Lu Youyou blinked her beautiful eyes.

Previously, she was vaguely aware of her gifted power, knowing she could easily discern who was beneficial or harmful to her.

Initially, she thought she had the ability to distinguish good from evil, not knowing she could identify the Child of Fortune.

This means her partnership with Sister Weiwei inadvertently activated part of her Life Chart's power.

Thus, in these years, she gained so much fortune and treasures.

"No, this Life Chart is not that simple."

"It is also a type of cause and effect Life Chart."

"By helping others, one can obtain some destiny and fortune from them."

"Even some talent and abilities."

"Originally, my alchemy talent was just average."

"But after helping my master, I must have gained some alchemy talent from him."

"That's why I became a Tier Four Alchemist so quickly."

Lu Youyou felt she understood her Life Chart better.

Undoubtedly, it greatly helps her future cultivation.

After all, only by fully understanding her inherent talents can she know how to develop them.

Otherwise, clueless cultivation would just waste her talents.

History is not short of buried geniuses.

"Husband, where exactly does this Life Chart originate?"

Su Weiwei and Lu Youyou asked curiously.

"The exact origin is unclear."

"But it likely comes from the Dao Fruit of an Immortal."

"It's said to originate from the resonance between the Immortal and the universe after the Immortal attains enlightenment, thus nurturing numerous Life Charts."

"Some powerful Life Charts directly originate from fragments of the Dao Fruit."

"This is a higher-dimensional power."

"So mortal cultivators can hardly detect it, nor understand it."

Jiang Fan explained.

He only knew from the information of destiny that he learned some details about Life Charts.

But the actual source remains unclear to him.

However, it does not matter.

As long as he knows the Life Chart is harmless to him, that's entirely sufficient.

"I didn't expect there to be so many incredible powers in the world."

"Probably those Spirit Bodies in the Cultivation Realm are formed this way."

"Different levels of Spirit Bodies actually correspond to different levels of Life Charts."

"Hence, Spirit Bodies cannot be inherited, only randomly acquired."

Su Weiwei spoke with sudden understanding.

She felt she understood her own gifts better.

Undoubtedly, this was a divine gift.

And no one could take it away; it is unique.

"Master, is the power of the Life Chart truly this incredible?"

At this moment, Lu Youyou secretly transmitted to her master, Cloud Fairy.

She thought her master was almost omnipotent and should know about Life Charts.

"Indeed, the power of Life Charts is extraordinary."

"But even Immortals find it hard to sense Life Chart information."

"Except for beings of Immortal King level."

"But how does your man know? How did he discern your Life Chart?"

Cloud Fairy was greatly shocked and found it unbelievable.

As a former Immortal, she naturally knew some information about Life Charts.

She herself possessed the Immortal Destiny Life Chart of Divine Insight, which allowed her to ascend smoothly.

But even then, she could only vaguely perceive whether other cultivators possessed Life Charts.

As for what Life Chart or abilities they had, she did not know.

After all, it's a mighty power from the Dao Fruit.

How can ordinary cultivators even perceive it?!

Yet the person in front, merely a Ninth-layer Divinity Transformation cultivator, could uncover the power of Life Charts.

She had no idea how he did it.

She could only say the guy is becoming more enigmatic as his cultivation progresses.

Even she finds it increasingly hard to see through him.

"I didn't expect even Master doesn't know."

"It seems husband gained great benefits during this Spirit Ruins Realm journey."

Lu Youyou felt strongly emotional.

She was well aware of how extraordinary her master, Cloud Fairy was, akin to Bai Xiaosheng.

She knew almost everything in the world.

But regarding her husband, her master seemed clueless.

This alone proves her husband's strength and mystery.

"Husband, in these years, we have gained considerable benefits across various Secret Realm Worlds of the Western Continent."

"All the rewards are stored in a treasure vault."

"Perhaps there's a treasure you need."

"Would you like to take a look?"

Su Weiwei suggested.

Her beautiful eyes looked at Jiang Fan with anticipation.

Previously, her husband always assisted her in cultivation, but now she is a Nascent Soul Cultivator.

So she can start to help her husband too.

"Oh, you both have considerable harvest? Let's go have a look then."

Jiang Fan smiled.

He was curious about the gains of his two Dao Companions.

After all, they possessed Immortal Destiny Life Charts; even without him, their fortune would be remarkable.

Although his destiny is indeed favorable, the fortune of other Children of Fortune is also not to be underestimated.

Perhaps the treasures they acquired are suitable for him.

Because the Void Realm once left countless Ancient Era treasures.

Swoosh!

Not long after, led by Su Weiwei and Lu Youyou, they left the bedroom and quickly arrived at the treasure vault on Primordial Peak.

This treasure vault is guarded by Six-winged Poison Bees.

They are Tier Four level Spirit Beasts.

Their numbers reached as many as ten thousand; it's truly intimidating.

Even Nascent Soul Cultivators couldn't breach their defenses.

Therefore, the treasure vault is very secure.

With a click, the vault door opened.

Inside immediately revealed a dazzling array of treasures.

Not only does it store a large number of Spirit Stones, but also many Rare Ores and Rare Spirit Medicines.

Not lacking Tier Five Spirit Medicines as well.

The combined value of these treasures is no less than billions of Spirit Stones.

Thus, it can be imagined how astonishing Su Weiwei and Lu Youyou's harvest has been over these years.

This foundation is almost comparable to a Divinity Transformation Sect.

If those Divinity Transformation Sects knew, they might want to come and seize it.

No wonder the cultivation speed of Su Weiwei and Lu Youyou has been so fast over the years; they are both Nascent Soul Cultivators now.

"Hmm?!"

Suddenly, Jiang Fan's heart stirred, sensing mystically that one of these treasures was connected to him.

Chapter 1019: Gained the Soaring Snake Technique Void Refining Chapter, Great Harvest

Whoosh!

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan waved his large hand and instantly retrieved a treasure from the pile.

It was a jade scroll that seemed unremarkable, but no one knew what material it was made of.

The surface was engraved with mysterious runes, unfathomable in depth.

"Husband, this is an inheritance jade scroll we obtained from a True Spirit Secret Realm."

"Unfortunately, no matter what method we try, we cannot activate the contents inside."

"So we just placed it in the treasury."

Su Weiwei noticed the jade scroll and immediately revealed its origin.

In fact, there were quite a few similar treasures in the treasury.

After all, there were many treasures they couldn't recognize, but that didn't mean they lacked value.

So they chose to bring them back and store them in the treasury.

Perhaps in the future, the value of these mysterious treasures would become clear.

Boom~~

At this moment, Jiang Fan's heart stirred, and he circulated his deep inner vitality.

His vitality circulated immediately, like a Soaring Snake roaring as it slithered.

Dense special runes emerged within his body.

In an instant, the inheritance jade scroll seemed to sense something, immediately bursting into a golden light, from which emerged mysterious runes that formed into an enigmatic Chapter.

This vast information instantly poured into the depths of his consciousness sea.

Soaring Snake Technique: Void Refining Chapter!

Upon sensing this information, Jiang Fan was overjoyed.

Previously, his Soaring Snake Technique only encompassed the Chapters before Void Refining.

But his realm had already reached Tier Five Late Stage, not far from Tier Six.

Initially, Jiang Fan had been pondering how to acquire the Void Refining Chapter of the Soaring Snake Technique.

Who would have imagined it would appear before him effortlessly?

Undoubtedly, this was the pull of destiny.

It was also a tremendous blessing brought to him by his Dao Companion.

With the cultivation of Su Weiwei and Lu Youyou increasing, they could offer him even more help.

"Husband, what cultivation technique is this?"

Su Weiwei and Lu Youyou, witnessing this scene, were filled with curiosity.

Despite trying many methods, they were unable to activate this inheritance jade scroll.

Yet their husband arrived, and in an instant, obtained the inheritance content.

Such a disparity was truly remarkable.

"Haha, this is quite a gem."

"This is the content of the Soaring Snake Technique: Void Refining Chapter."

"It is truly a case of 'searching the world with no found place, and getting it effortlessly.'

"I never expected you to find the subsequent cultivation of the Soaring Snake Technique — this is wonderful."

Jiang Fan was elated, embracing the two women and giving them a big kiss.

"So it's the Soaring Snake Technique: Void Refining Chapter."

"No wonder we couldn't activate it no matter what."

"Turns out we are not the destined ones."

Su Weiwei and Lu Youyou realized suddenly.

They knew that the True Spirit Technique also selects its master.

If one's qualifications aren't suitable, the inheritance won't activate.

But they never thought their chance encounter could assist their husband.

This was truly wonderful.

"With this cultivation technique, I can elevate the Soaring Snake Technique to Tier Six."

"Then I can become a Tier Six Body Cultivator and grasp the power of Void Refining prematurely."

Jiang Fan clenched his fist.

He felt the bottleneck troubling his Soaring Snake Technique's breakthrough was gone.

With the Void Refining Chapter, his comprehension of this technique would rise to a higher level.

"If Husband becomes a Void Refining Body Cultivator, it will be even more assured in dealing with those demons about to break free."

Lu Youyou said joyfully.

"Demons about to break free?"

"Could it be that some demons are about to emerge?"

Jiang Fan asked.

While he occasionally received information about the Void Realm from his Dao Companion through the Cause and Effect Communication Immortal Talisman, he was not aware of specific details.

After all, he had spent a long time in seclusion, rarely paying attention to external matters.

And unless it was absolutely necessary, Su Weiwei and Lu Youyou wouldn't interrupt him.

Therefore, he remained unclear about recent events in the Void Realm over the past decade.

"Husband, during your absence from the Void Realm, it has undergone earth-shattering changes."

"I believe you have noticed; the Void Realm is currently experiencing Spiritual Energy Revival."

"The concentration of Spiritual Qi is continuously rising, and even the Void Realm's area is expanding."

"However, this also has led to the restriction arrays sealing demons beginning to collapse gradually."

"If this continues, some ancient demons are bound to escape."

"But the rulers of the Western Continent are not us, but those Divinity Transformation Races."

"So if there's concern, they should be more worried."

"However, it's different for the Black Dragon Sea Region, as it's already under our Primordial Talisman Sect."

Lu Youyou said sternly.

Due to the disappearance of two Divinity Transformation Cultivators in the Black Dragon Sea Region, it led to a leaderless state.

Nonetheless, the Primordial Talisman Sect seized the opportunity to take control.

Previously, Jiang Fan personally subdued Tier Four Demon Beasts.

Hence, over the past decade, not only did various demon races in the Black Dragon Sea Region, but also various noble human families, submit to the Primordial Talisman Sect.

Any families refusing allegiance were erased from history.

For instance, the former Divinity Transformation Clan, Zhao Family, had long since been dethroned.

Chapter 1020: Obtaining the Soaring Snake Technique Void Refining Chapter, a Great Harvest_2

Only a few direct descendants managed to escape.

The rest, if they didn't submit, would only be eliminated.

Because of this, the entire Black Dragon Sea Region became the territory of the Primordial Talisman Sect, fortified like an iron barrel.

The Primordial Talisman Sect also gained considerable benefits and a wealth of cultivation resources from the Black Dragon Sea Region.

However, because of this, if anything were to happen in the Black Dragon Sea Region, it would cost the Primordial Talisman Sect its benefits.

"Could it be that there's an ancient demon sealed in the Black Dragon Sea Region?"

Jiang Fan asked curiously.

To be honest, he hadn't spent much time in the Black Dragon Sea Region.

Nor had he understood the details of this sea region.

In terms of understanding the Black Dragon Sea Region, he probably wasn't as knowledgeable as Lu Youyou.

"That's right, there certainly is."

"It's said to be sealed in the depths of the ocean, originally the territory of the Poisonous Scale Flood Dragon Race."

"Originally, this place was guarded by the Poisonous Scale Flood Dragon Race."

"That place is called the Demon Cave, a demon cavern deep in the sea."

"But recently, the restriction array sealing the Demon Cave has been gradually weakening."

"Inside, the aura of demons is becoming increasingly strong."

"If it continues this way, that ancient demon might escape."

Lu Youyou said helplessly.

Without a doubt, if that ancient demon really escaped, the first to suffer would naturally be the countless living beings in the Black Dragon Sea Region.

No one would know how many creatures would perish then.

"The Black Dragon Sea Region actually has such a place."

"No wonder it used to be the habitat of a True Dragon; it indeed holds many secret locations."

"But in the short term, that ancient demon probably won't escape, right?"

Jiang Fan rubbed his chin.

"Hmm, it probably won't escape."

"If you calculate the time, it should hold for at least another ten to twenty years."

"As for any longer than that, it's completely uncertain."

Lu Youyou shook her head.

She had also been to the Demon Cave to take a look.

That place was indeed filled with dense demonic qi.

But the entire cave entrance was sealed with layers upon layers of restriction arrays.

No matter how the ancient demon inside raged, it couldn't hope to escape from within.

So in the short term, the Demon Cave is quite safe.

"That's good, then."

"Haste makes waste."

"Without strength, it's impossible to deal with that ancient demon."

"Better to wait until I break through with the Soaring Snake Technique first."

Jiang Fan said in a deep voice.

He certainly wanted to deal with that ancient demon as well.

But without strength, approaching recklessly would just be seeking death.

So he decided to go with the flow and enhance his cultivation first.

"Yeah."

Su Weiwei and Lu Youyou also nodded.

They thought the same.

If they really couldn't defeat that ancient demon, then escaping would be a good option.

Nothing is more important than one's own life.

"Are the demons about to revive as well?"

"If that's indeed the case, the uncanny might start reviving too."

"You need to prepare in advance."

"It's best to quickly advance to the Void Refinement level."

"Otherwise, you might not withstand the disasters that follow one after another."

"Those uncanny methods are incredibly terrifying."

At this time, the voice of the Human Emperor Sword transmitted into Jiang Fan's sea of consciousness, reminding him.

It had already seen glimpses of the Void Realm's future.

As the spiritual qi in the Void Realm continued to revive, those demons and uncanny beings suppressed by the Heavenly Dao Laws would gradually break free from their seals.

On the surface, the decline of spiritual qi in the Void Realm weakens the native cultivators.

But in fact, it preserves the multitude of lives in the Void Realm, allowing countless beings to survive.

After all, if not for the decline in spiritual qi and the suppression of laws, those ancient uncanny and ancient demons would have long massacred the world.

Otherwise, the Void Realm wouldn't still be thriving with life as it is now.

Unfortunately, even so, it's merely a slow death.

Because the Tree of Eternal Life is continuously devouring the Origin Energy of the Void Realm.

If the Void Realm does not fight to the death, it will sooner or later be entirely consumed by the Tree of Eternal Life.

It can be said that this is the Void Realm's last counterattack.

This will certainly cause the death of countless living beings.

But if this isn't done, the whole world will also face extinction because of it.

"Hmm."

Jiang Fan said nothing; he hadn't expected to learn so much bad news as soon as he returned to the Void Realm.

Fortunately, his recent journey to the Spirit Ruins Realm allowed his cultivation to advance rapidly, elevating him to the Ninth-Layer Divinity Transformation.

In fact, he wasn't very far from Void Refinement.

Moreover, due to the Spiritual Energy Revival, the suppression on Void Refining Cultivators by the Void Realm has also been lifted.

So staying in the Void Realm still allows advancement to the Void Refinement Realm, without needing to go to the Spirit Ruins Realm to advance.

.....

A day later.

After several days together, Jiang Fan, Su Weiwei, and Lu Youyou had alleviated their feelings of longing.

After all, they are cultivators who exercise restraint as well.

Soon, Jiang Fan entered seclusion once again to focus on cultivation, as now was not the time for romantic entanglement.

He continually pondered the Void Refining Chapter of the Soaring Snake Technique.

"The so-called Void Refining Chapter of the Soaring Snake Technique is actually the Blood Transformation Chapter."

"Cultivation at this realm requires the integration of ten thousand Soaring Serpent Runes into one's bloodstream."

"Once successful, the ordinary blood within will transform into divine blood."

"This brings unimaginable benefits to the cultivator."

Jiang Fan sat cross-legged on the ground.

After a day of pondering, he had grasped many of the mysteries of the Void Refining Chapter of the Soaring Snake Technique.

This deepened his understanding of the True Spirit Technique.

From the Mortal Chapter, to the Qi Cultivation Chapter, Foundation Establishment Chapter, Golden Core Chapter, Nascent Soul Chapter, Divinity Transformation Chapter, and now the Void Refining Chapter.

It can be said that this True Spirit Technique continuously assists in the transformation of the cultivator's physique.

It's a supreme technique that transforms mortals into True Spirits, containing endless mysteries and unfathomable depths.

However, the difficulty of cultivation is enough to frighten anyone.

Ordinary cultivators get stuck at the Mortal Chapter, with progression almost impossible.

"But to ascend to the Void Refining level, one must cultivate the Divinity Transformation Chapter to the Perfection Realm."

"Requires the integration of three thousand Soaring Serpent Runes into the bone marrow."

"Once perfected, it allows communication with Bloodline Power, crucial for impacting the Void Refinement Realm."

"This is not difficult for me."

"Because of Heavenly Dao's gift, it's equivalent to having numerous Body Tempering Spirit Medicines assisting me."

"Currently, I don't need any other Body Tempering Spirit Medicine."

"Simply mobilizing this Origin Energy can assist the cultivation of the Soaring Snake Technique."

Jiang Fan clenched his fists.

He sensed the unfathomable wonders of this Origin Energy from the Heavenly Dao, seemingly omnipotent.

Not only does it promote the magical power within, but also greatly benefits the transformation of the physique.

Moreover, this Origin Energy is vast enough to assist his ascension to Void Refinement without issue.

Rumble~~

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan did not hesitate at all, immediately immersing himself in the cultivation process of the Soaring Snake Technique.

His consciousness dove into the depths of his bone marrow.

Under the manipulation of his consciousness, he began to integrate the Soaring Serpent Runes deep within his bone marrow.

This process of inscribing runes naturally causes significant damage to the bone marrow.

Normally, some spirit medicine needs to be consumed to expedite the restoration of the bone marrow.

Only then can one proceed with the next rune inscription.

Such a cycle must repeat until all three thousand Soaring Serpent Runes are fully inscribed.

Otherwise, this realm's cultivation, lasting hundreds or even thousands of years, is quite normal.

However, Jiang Fan merely moved his mind, and strands of Origin Energy from the depths of his consciousness sea spread out instantly.

This was simply the best healing energy.

In just a moment, the damaged marrow instantly healed.

Moreover, it became stronger than before, imbued with more abundant Life Force.

Simultaneously, the marrow integrated with the Soaring Serpent Runes also emitted strands of golden light, seemingly containing traces of divinity.

This made his physique even stronger than before.

Accumulating over days and months, his physique would naturally evolve to a higher realm.

"With this cultivation speed, at most in a year, I can attempt a breakthrough to Tier Six."

Jiang Fan felt quite thrilled.

He sensed that after returning to the Void Realm, his cultivation speed had not slowed but increased instead.

It's as though a vast, mysterious energy covers him, assisting his cultivation in advancing continuously.
