Chapter 105: Destroy the Money Gang, Yunze City Falls, the Great Calamity Arrives

At this moment, the Li Family residence, basement.

Jiang Fan held Su Weiwei's proud and delicate body; it was simply like having fragrant jade in his arms, a beauty in his embrace, extraordinarily comfortable.

It seemed that during this period, Su Weiwei's physical condition had evolved quite a bit compared to before.

Perhaps it was because, during this time, she lived a life of luxury, eating rich food every day, so Su Weiwei received sufficient nutrition and developed more perfectly compared to before.

Her skin also became whiter and smoother.

There was also a faint fragrance coming from her body, which was simply intoxicating.

With every smile and every gesture, she was like a demonic concubine.

Honestly, the life of hiding in the basement wasn't so bad.

No need to worry about the chaos outside, and with adequate food supplies.

He felt that he could easily hide for several months without much problem.

Boom~~

Just at this moment, a message came from the depths of Jiang Fan's consciousness: "By hiding in the basement in advance, you avoided the government's forced conscription and thus survived a calamity, gaining you one hundred Luck Points."

What?!

Perceiving this message, Jiang Fan saw images of the previous events, seeming to see the fierce He Yuliang capturing able-bodied men from house to house.

Each household wailed continuously, but it was to no avail.

Many men were captured and entered military service.

Without a doubt, if he had stayed in the original residence, without resisting, he would likely have been captured by He Yuliang and then conscripted into the army, becoming cannon fodder.

"Indeed, running away was a very correct decision."

Jiang Fan felt a deep sense of emotion, having a bit of admiration for his foresight, though it wasn't foresight either, as in history similar things have happened countless times.

Not to mention the distant past, just before he transmigrated, a certain Wu and a certain country had a war, and because the war wasn't going well, with a high number of soldier casualties, the situation was precarious.

As a result, a certain Wu began capturing able-bodied men domestically, forcing them into the army.

The casualty rate exceeded ninety percent.

Basically, entering the army meant almost certain death.

This is what they call nothing new under the sun.

"This He Yuliang has come looking for trouble with me time and again."

"If I continue to let him live, he might ruin things for me in the future."

"Looks like I have to eliminate He Yuliang."

Jiang Fan's eyes showed a hint of coldness.

Undoubtedly, this Elder He of the Money Gang was like an unfeedable hungry wolf, even if being paid, he might still never be satisfied.

For such a person, only his death would be the best choice for him.

Originally, he didn't want to make a move against He Yuliang, but now it seemed better to cut him down.

This would also demonstrate to He Yuliang that his money was not that easily taken.

"Husband."

"I still want more."

At this moment, Su Weiwei opened her beautiful eyes, with seductive eyes like silk, her alluring figure entwined with him.

What?!

Hearing this, Jiang Fan blinked, feeling that his wife was indeed too fierce, possessing what kind of physique, even though he was already a Grandmaster, he still couldn't match this woman.

This woman was simply an elf.

However, how could a man admit to being incapable? Even if not, he had to do it.

He couldn't let his wife look down on him.

Without further ado, the bed swayed, and there seemed to be bursts of sound coming from the basement.

Another day passed, deep at night.

Outside the city of Yunze City, at a certain residence.

This was where Elder He of the Money Gang resided.

At this moment, he was eating and drinking with five or six trusted subordinates.

It's known that currently the grain in all of Yunze City was rationed.

Ordinary people couldn't get enough to eat or dress warmly.

But he was different, still able to feast on sumptuous meals.

The table was full of chicken, duck, fish, meat, abalone, and other delicacies, which were truly fragrant.

If ordinary people saw this scene, they would surely drool three feet.

This was a sumptuous dinner that ordinary people couldn't even dream of having during the New Year.

But for the Money Gang Elder, it was just an ordinary dinner.

This is what they call a mansion's dog meat stinks, while bones freeze along the road.

"Elder He."

"What do you think will be the outcome of our battle with the Red Eyebrow Army?"

"If we fail, won't the Money Gang be at a disadvantage?"

A trusted subordinate asked worriedly.

Although they feasted, able to bully outside,

they were secretly worried, fearing their happy days might end.

Because they knew their happiness was based on the Money Gang.

Once the Money Gang was destroyed, they would surely suffer as well.

So no one was more loyal to the Money Gang than they were.

"The situation is probably not that good."

"The Red Eyebrow Army's numbers are simply too many."

"And each one is fearless and not afraid of death."

"They clamour to enter Yunze City and slaughter the noble families of Yunze City."

"Once they break into Yunze City, we surely won't have a good outcome."

"So now, many noble descendants are appearing on the city walls to resist the Red Eyebrow Army."

"But I think that Yunze City's fall is just a matter of time."

He Yuliang said solemnly.

Though he had confidence in Yunze City's defensive capabilities, looking at the current situation, if they continued like this, Yunze City wouldn't last long.

He naturally hoped Yunze City could hold, but people must still be realistic.
