Chapter 111: Advancement to Innate, Nurturing the Spirit Root

Dong!

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan moved his thoughts and gently clicked on the opportunity light point.

Then a stream of information surged into the depths of his sea of consciousness like a tide: "Seven days later, head to the deepest part of Yunmeng Lake, hold the token, and enter the Immortal Cave Mansion with your wife Su Weiwei to obtain a Fifth-Grade Opportunity."

What?!

Upon hearing this, Jiang Fan's eyes revealed a gleam. He had been wondering where this Fifth-Grade Opportunity came from, and now it seemed it truly originated from the Immortal Cave Mansion.

After all, the most mysterious place in Yunmeng Lake is this Immortal Cave Mansion.

The Three Great Families of Yunze City have stood for hundreds of years because of this.

Moreover, they failed the assessments after entering the Immortal Cave Mansion.

Even the rewards obtained after failure benefited them immensely.

If one succeeds in passing the assessments, the benefits obtained would be unimaginable.

"To actually enter the Immortal Cave Mansion with Su Weiwei?"

"It means that this time Weiwei entering the mansion can also gain benefits."

"That's right, Weiwei's constitution is inherently special, perhaps possessing Spiritual Root Talent."

"So obtaining benefits in the Immortal Cave Mansion is only natural."

Jiang Fan clenched his fists.

Previously, Su Weiwei had been cultivating the Cyan Wood Formula, but due to the poor cultivation environment in the Mortal World, she had not yet become a beginner nor mastered this spell.

If she enters the Immortal Cave Mansion, it might solve this problem.

"However, we need to wait seven days, and we cannot go yet."

"Perhaps during this time, I can break through to the Grandmaster Realm and become an Innate Martial Artist."

Jiang Fan thought of the one thousand Luck Points he had obtained.

Know that he initially had one thousand five hundred sixty Luck Points, and adding these, he now possessed a total of two thousand five hundred sixty Luck Points.

To advance to the Innate Martial Artist level, he only needed two thousand Luck Points.

Thus the Luck Points he held were entirely sufficient.

He felt that needing to wait seven days might be a reminder from the opportunity to quickly become an Innate Martial Artist and thus nurture a Spirit Root during this time.

Only with Spiritual Root Talent can one possibly pass the assessments of the Immortal Cave Mansion.

"Let's begin."

Without any hesitation, Jiang Fan came to a room nearby and began to consume his Luck Points.

Boom~~

Suddenly, eighteen hundred Luck Points were instantly consumed, transforming into a mysterious energy, sinking into the depths of his sea of consciousness, circulating every corner of his body.

At this moment, he sensed the Qi Force in his Elixir Field and Sea of Qi increasing at a speed visible to the naked eye.

Originally, to fill the Qi Force in the Dantian would take more than several years.

But with the help of Luck Points, it filled the Qi Force in the Elixir Field and Sea of Qi in an instant.

Vaguely, countless streams of Qi Force gathered, seemingly forming clouds and mist.

Deep in the mist, a Soaring Snake appeared, soaring through the sky, just like Cloud Riding, emitting a sacred aura as if it were divine in this dimension.

"Want to break through to become an Innate Martial Artist."

"It requires the fusion of Qi Force and Martial Dao Will within, then attacking the Mud Palace Pill."

"Once the Mud Palace Pill is opened, this acupoint can resonate with heaven and earth, achieve Heavenly Human Communication, thus forming an Acquired Spirit Root, reaching the level of nurturing a Spirit Root, thereafter sensing the Spiritual Qi between heaven and earth."

"To some extent, this is also Postnatal Returning to Innate."

"In this way, one can truly embark on the path of cultivation."

Jiang Fan recalled the numerous Martial Dao messages he had received before, he had a clear understanding of his road, with self-hard work he didn't know how many years it would take to truly reach the level of Innate Martial Artist.

But with the help of Luck Points, he saved a lot of time and effort in hard practice.

He reached Grandmaster Perfection in an instant, gaining the opportunity to impact the Innate Martial Artist.

Rumble~~

Suddenly, Jiang Fan sensed his Soul Power reaching an unprecedented level, entering the state of Unity of Heaven and Man, as if achieving introspection.

At this moment, he also understood why only Grandmasters who comprehend Martial Dao Will can advance to the Innate Realm.

Because only Grandmasters who comprehend Martial Dao Will, their soul will transform, allowing them to sense the Mud Palace Pill deep inside, if it's not sensed, there's no talk of impacting the Innate Realm.

Dong!

Jiang Fan also discovered that his Soul Power was incredibly strong, at least several times stronger than ordinary Grandmasters, perhaps due to being a traverser, his soul power was extremely strong.

He easily found his Mud Palace Pill.

This is a special acupoint located in the brain.

In an instant, Jiang Fan ran the Soaring Snake Breathing Technique, mobilizing the Soaring Snake Qi Force in the depths of the Elixir Field and Sea of Qi, merged with Soul Power, transformed into streams of Soaring Snake airflow, heading towards the Mud Palace Pill to attack.

Boom~~

Immediately, a Soaring Snake rode clouds with terrifying force, fiercely striking the Mud Palace Pill.

The originally solid bottleneck shattered into pieces after one collision.

Frankly, if it were an ordinary Grandmaster, to impact the bottleneck of the Mud Palace Pill, one must try tens or even hundreds of times for the bottleneck to show a slight crack.
