Chapter 120: Peerless Cultivation Technique - Mixed Element Talisman Scripture, One Talisman Carrying Ten Thousand Talismans_2

"Once refining is successful, the Yang Talisman is placed in a man's body, and the Yin Talisman in a woman's body."

"This way, Yin and Yang can merge."

"Then, your Dao Companion will not hinder you."

"Instead, they will complement each other, accelerating each other's cultivation speed."

"If one side cultivates quickly, it will also aid the other side."

"This can be said to be our Primordial Talisman Sect's unique Dual Cultivation Talisman."

The Primordial Talisman Pen explained.

"Please, Elder Fu, teach me."

Jiang Fan's eyes lit up instantly, feeling very excited.

"Don't be anxious, wait until you enter into the basics of the Mixed Element Talisman Scripture."

"The Yin Yang Mandarin Duck Talisman is at least a top-grade talisman."

"You haven't even begun yet, wanting to learn is still far off."

"And your Dao Companion's constitution is special, perhaps not suitable to become a Talisman Cultivator."

The Primordial Talisman Pen said in a deep voice.

"Not suitable to become a Talisman Cultivator?"

"Does it mean not possible to begin?"

Jiang Fan couldn't help but ask.

"No, no, our Primordial Talisman Sect, although a Talisman Dao sect, also has cultivation techniques for other paths."

"It's just that Talisman Dao is the main focus."

"Your Dao Companion has the Taiyin Virgin Body, containing vast Taiyin Qi within, more suitable to become a Beast Cultivator."

The Primordial Talisman Pen explained.

"Beast Cultivator?"

Su Weiwei looked perplexed, staring at the Primordial Talisman Pen.

"A Beast Cultivator is a profession that contracts with Spirit Beasts."

"Various kinds of Spirit Beasts exist between Heaven and Earth."

"If you can sign a contract with them, you can grow together."

"If contracted with some high-potential Spirit Beasts, they can feedback to the host."

"Helping the host to grow rapidly."

"In the Cultivation Realm, there is such a sect called the Beast Taming Sect."

"They excel in nurturing Spirit Beasts and contracting with them."

"Once grown, their combat power surpasses other cultivators."

"The Taiyin Qi within you is very suitable for nurturing Spirit Beasts, accelerating their growth."

"If you can become a Beast Cultivator, your cultivation will surely progress by leaps and bounds."

The Primordial Talisman Pen explained.

It felt Su Weiwei was very suited to becoming a Beast Cultivator.

Because it could see that her aptitude was good, but her comprehension was lacking.

Beast Cultivation doesn't emphasize comprehension much.

As long as one has enough aptitude and resources, then cultivation can progress rapidly.

"Does the Primordial Talisman Sect have similar techniques?"

Jiang Fan asked.

"Of course it does."

"And it's the core technique from the Beast Taming Sect — the Taiyin Beast Taming Formula."

"This technique uses the Power of the Moon to sign contracts with Spirit Beasts."

"Achieving dual cultivation of life, a harmonious connection."

"Even without finding a suitable Spirit Beast to contract, you can temporarily cultivate to increase your Spiritual Power."

The Primordial Talisman Pen said.

"Elder Fu, how do you know so much?"

Jiang Fan was shocked, feeling like the Primordial Talisman Pen seemed to know everything.

"Of course, I am the inheriting instrument of the Primordial Talisman Sect."

"Recorded with most of the sect's many legacies."

"In the entire cave mansion, I am the most precious item."

"Besides me, this cave mansion has no other treasure."

The Primordial Talisman Pen said proudly.

"I see."

Jiang Fan felt that his biggest gain this time should be this Primordial Talisman Pen.

The other party was simply like a portable grandfather.

Not only knowledgeable but also proficient in cultivation.

"Alright, enough idle talk."

"Let's start accepting the inheritance."

The Primordial Talisman Pen stopped wasting words.

Dong!

Instantly, it moved, the pen tip lightly tapped on Su Weiwei's forehead.

Soon, a vast amount of information instantly penetrated into the depths of her consciousness sea.

Then she obtained the complete cultivation technique of the 'Taiyin Beast Taming Formula'.

This made Su Weiwei overjoyed.

"Alright, now it's your turn."

The Primordial Talisman Pen also lightly tapped Jiang Fan, and then a flood of information about the Mixed Element Talisman Scripture rushed in.

"This."

Feeling the information about the Mixed Element Talisman Scripture, Jiang Fan was instantly dumbfounded, almost splitting his head with pain.

Because this technique is simply too complex.

It's countless times more complex than the Soaring Snake Technique.

He was dizzy and bewildered just looking at it.

"It's difficult, isn't it?"

"This is the top technique of the Primordial Talisman Sect, profound and boundless."

"Even for Celestial Spirit Root cultivators, entering into it isn't that easy."

"If you can begin within half a year, you are considered a genius."

The Primordial Talisman Pen explained.

It knew the difficulty level of cultivating this technique.

Even in the heyday of the Primordial Talisman Sect, not many cultivated this technique.

The power of this technique is indeed extremely formidable.

But the difficulty of cultivating it is equally terrifying.

"It seems the Virtual Panel can record this technique."

Jiang Fan's eyes suddenly brightened.

He found he could spend Luck Points to kick start learning the technique.

And it only needed a thousand Luck Points to do so.

Thinking this, he did not hesitate, as with ongoing calamities, he would never be short of Luck Points.

Boom~~

Instantly, a thousand Luck Points on him were completely consumed and transformed into a mysterious energy, instantly penetrating into the depths of his soul.

At this moment, his comprehension greatly improved, seemingly reaching a level of extreme enlightenment.

Reaching such comprehension, all knowledge in the world posed no difficulty.

The originally obscure Mixed Element Talisman Scripture became straightforward.

"So that's it, the wonder of the Mixed Element Talisman Scripture lies in the Primordial Breathing Technique."

"This Breathing Technique allows a cultivator to absorb all the Spiritual Qi in Heaven and Earth as if swallowing it like a whale."

"While devouring immense Heaven and Earth Spiritual Qi, it transforms into Primordial Spiritual Power."

"Then utilizes the Primordial Spiritual Power to construct a Primordial Talisman in the Elixir Field and Sea of Qi."

"Once successfully constructed, forming a Life Talisman, the technique is considered mastered."

"If successfully entered, relying on the Life Talisman's power, it operates 24 hours a day, absorbing Heaven and Earth Spiritual Qi, cultivation efficiency far surpassing other cultivators."

Jiang Fan suddenly realized.

He felt like he instantly mastered the technique.

Like someone who had practiced diligently for over ten years.

He now realized the terrifying difficulty of the technique.

After all, constructing a Primordial Talisman in the Elixir Field and Sea of Qi using Primordial Spiritual Power isn't something ordinary cultivators can achieve.

This requires strong soul power, skillful manipulation of spiritual power, and understanding the wonder of Primordial Talisman, all of which are essential to succeed.

So even a peerless genius needs at least half a year to cultivate this technique.

As for ordinary cultivators, even if they achieve it, they may never master it in their lifetime.

It's like a heavenly book.

If not for relying on the power of Luck Points, he wouldn't know how long it would take to begin.

Boom~~

Thinking this, Jiang Fan didn't hesitate, he immediately sat cross-legged on the ground and began operating the Primordial Breathing Technique.

Instantly, he felt like he had entered a state of Unity of Heaven and Man.

Every pore of his body was breathing, as if transforming into a Mixed Cave.

Countless Spiritual Qi around surged towards him.

Whatever attribute the Spiritual Qi had, his body absorbed it without rejecting any.

"So quickly mastering the Primordial Breathing Technique?"

"Is this kid a freak?"

The Primordial Talisman Pen was dumbfounded seeing this.

It had just taught the kid the Mixed Element Talisman Scripture.

Who would have thought that he would instantly grasp its essence, mastering the Primordial Breathing Technique.

With it, he could absorb the world's Spiritual Qi and transform it into Primordial Spiritual Power.

Though this is only the first step in mastering the Mixed Element Talisman Scripture, it is quite extraordinary.

Even a genius needs days to cross the first step.

But how much time had passed for the kid, maybe not even a breath?

No wonder he achieved the Innate Level with the Soaring Snake Technique using a mortal body.

The kid's comprehension is absolutely terrifying.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have accomplished it.
