Chapter 129: Exterminate the Demon, Gain Seventh-Grade Opportunity

"My speed is simply too fast now."

Jiang Fan marveled inwardly.

He felt like a bird, exceptionally light.

His previous speed was as slow as a snail.

Under the boost of the Light Body Technique, he felt as light as a swallow, with incredible speed.

If he used the Light Body Technique, a journey of hundreds of kilometers wouldn't be a problem at all.

The power of talismans is the power of heaven and earth.

No wonder ordinary Martial Artists are no match for Cultivators.

The gap is just too vast.

"Right, and there's the Fireball Talisman."

With a thought, Jiang Fan activated the Fireball Talisman within him once more.

Instantly, the Fire Spiritual Power in the world was drawn into his Elixir Field and Sea of Qi, merging with the Fireball Talisman, making its patterns light up.

A surge of Flame Spiritual Power emerged from the depths of his Elixir Field and Sea of Qi, coursed through his meridians, and eventually reached his fingertip, forming a red fireball the size of an apple, radiating intense heat.

Whoosh!

The next second, a gentle flick of his finger sent the fireball flying.

The speed wasn't very fast.

It was much like an ordinary person throwing a stone.

With a thud, the red fireball smashed into a waist-high rock in the distance, shattering it into pieces as if hit by an explosion.

The fearsome flames burned atop the rock.

Undoubtedly, the power of this fireball was not to be underestimated.

If it struck a Martial Artist, or even a Grandmaster, it would likely create a blood hole, and the body would be burnt to ashes, leaving no trace behind.

"The power is impressive, but the speed is too slow."

"But perhaps it's because it's just at the Beginner level."

"If I can improve my skill level, I might be able to speed up its casting."

Jiang Fan had a thought and opened his Virtual Panel.

[Name: Jiang Fan]

[Life Chart: Great Blessings Equal to Heaven, Attribute: Great Calamity Survived, Future Blessings Assured]

[Lifespan: 120]

[Spirit Root: Earth Spirit Root]

[Luck Points: 1760]

[Cultivation Technique: Soaring Snake Technique (Incomplete), Seventh Layer (Unable to Advance)]

[Cultivation Technique: Mixed Element Talisman Scripture, First Layer]

[Skills: Fishing: Perfection][Disguise Technique: Perfection][Cao's Poison Scripture: Mastery][Aurora Swordsmanship: Perfection]

[Fireball Talisman (Beginner), Light Body Talisman (Beginner)]

[Realm: Second-Layer Qi Cultivation (1%)]

Undoubtedly, spending a full thousand Luck Points just now finally engraved these two talismans into the Primordial Talisman within, they were recorded on his Virtual Panel.

However, it was all worth it.

Otherwise, who knows how long it would take to succeed through cultivation alone.

This also saved a significant amount of time from arduous cultivation.

Of course, these two talismans are just at the Entry Level, their power is still quite ordinary.

If I continue cultivating, I can definitely improve their skill level and enhance their might.

But undeniably, mastering these two talismans has already multiplied his combat strength quite significantly.

It's incomparable to before.

"Husband, up so early?"

At this moment, Su Weiwei, who heard the commotion, came out of the cave.

She wore a sky-blue silk nightgown, wrapping her voluptuous figure, her skin white and delicate, as smooth as silk, without a single scar.

The meat that was meant to grow had grown. Not a bit more.

Her beautiful eyes exuded endless charm, seemingly able to speak.

Especially after cultivating the Taiyin Beast Taming Formula and advancing to a First-Layer Qi Cultivator, her allure became even more astonishing, every move was infinitely enchanting.

With a swoosh, Jiang Fan utilized the power of the Light Body Talisman, flashing beside Su Weiwei in an instant.

"My cultivation has made some progress."

"Let's celebrate."

Jiang Fan held Su Weiwei in his arms, whispering softly in her ear.

He felt this enchantress in his arms always made him lose control.

"Pah, it's broad daylight."

Su Weiwei blushed, rolling her eyes at this rascal.

But how could she resist Jiang Fan?

Soon, the two returned to the cave.

Before long, sounds emerged from within.

In the faint, the cave seemed to show signs of slight shaking.

.....

By evening, the sun had set.

The two finally ended this session of cultivation, looking utterly satisfied.

It was truly exhilarating.

"Weiwei, you truly live up to the name of Taiyin Virgin Body."

"You're indeed extraordinary."

Jiang Fan marveled, considering his own strong physique enough to be called a Body Cultivator.

But undoubtedly, Su Weiwei's physique was superior.

Now that his cultivation was stronger, he could still handle it.

If this continued, he might end up defeated.

"Didn't Elder Fu say the Primordial Talisman Sect has a talisman called the Yin Yang Mandarin Duck Talisman?"

"If we could refine it, wouldn't it help us progress together?"

Su Weiwei blinked her beautiful eyes, looking at her husband.

She sensed the abnormality of her physique, definitely not ordinary and not mortal.

If this continued, she might really drain her man dry.

"The Yin Yang Mandarin Duck Talisman is a top-grade talisman."

"At least I'd need to become a top-grade Talisman Master to refine this talisman."

"Currently, I'm not even a low-grade Talisman Master, so it's naturally impossible to refine it."

Jiang Fan said helplessly.

After all, he had just started turning towards the Primordial Talisman Sect not long ago and hadn't studied how to refine talismans yet.
