Chapter 137: Life is Tough, the Struggling Talisman Master

Ten days later.

Jiang Fan stayed at home the whole time, diligently learning talisman crafting.

He also spent eight hundred Luck Points to finally cultivate nine types of Lower-grade Talismans to the Perfection Level.

They are the Fireball Talisman, Light Body Talisman, Silence Talisman, Conceal Breath Talisman, Tracking Talisman, Invisibility Talisman, Wind Blade Talisman, Rejuvenation Talisman, Cleaning Talisman, and so on.

These are considered essential talismans for a Low Grade Talisman Master.

If one can fully master them, then advancing to a Middle Grade Talisman Master is only a matter of time.

Bang~~

Jiang Fan picked up a Cleaning Talisman, injected the Primordial Spiritual Power from his body into it, and this Cleaning Talisman immediately lit up, an invisible force instantly enveloped the entire wooden house.

Soon after, the entire wooden house was as if brand new, with all the dust cleared away.

Meanwhile, a faint fragrance lingered inside the wooden house.

It was as if someone had diligently cleaned for a whole day and night.

With the Cleaning Talisman, he wouldn't need to clean hard anymore.

A single talisman could handle all the household chores.

No need to work hard at daily cleaning like ordinary people.

"The power of a Talisman Master is truly profound."

Seeing this scene, Jiang Fan felt very satisfied.

As a Talisman Master, one naturally needs to be skilled in using the power of various talismans.

The power of a cultivator is not just for killing, it can also be used to improve life.

But in such chaotic times, everyone is in danger, cultivators naturally need to first grasp the power of self-preservation.

Otherwise, if you can't even protect your own life, there's no way to enjoy life.

"Other Lower-grade Talismans are also full of mysteries."

Jiang Fan looked at the Lower-grade Talismans displayed on the table.

Among them, the Fireball Talisman, Light Body Talisman, Silence Talisman, and Cleaning Talisman are already known.

The most important are the Conceal Breath Talisman and the Invisibility Talisman, the former can conceal one's aura, preventing enemies from sensing one's aura with Spiritual Sense.

As for the Invisibility Talisman, once activated, it can hide one's body, achieving an invisible state.

The combination of the two is practically invincible, allowing one to easily escape, avoiding the enemies' eyes and their Spiritual Sense, an excellent auxiliary talisman.

Besides that, the Tracking Talisman can trace the aura of enemies and demon beasts.

The Wind Blade Talisman can release wind blade power to kill enemies.

The Rejuvenation Talisman can quickly restore physical strength and Spiritual Power.

In short, these nine Lower-grade Talismans each have their own wonders.

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan's heart stirred, and he immediately opened his Virtual Panel.

[Realm: Second-Layer Qi Cultivation (88%)]

[Profession: Low Grade Talisman Master (99%)]

There is no doubt that after these ten days of hard cultivation, Jiang Fan has gained immensely, with various abilities greatly enhanced, becoming a Low Grade Talisman Master, and only a step away from being a Middle Grade Talisman Master.

As for the cultivator within his body, due to consuming the Purple Spirit Fruit, the Primordial Spiritual Power in his body increased rapidly, nearly reaching the Perfection of Second-Layer Qi Cultivation in just ten days.

It seems becoming a Third-Layer Qi Cultivation cultivator is not far off.

For Jiang Fan, who has Earth Spirit Root Talent, there are virtually no bottlenecks between Second-Layer Qi Cultivation and Third-Layer Qi Cultivation.

As long as there is enough Spiritual Power in his body, he can easily break through.

He won't, like other loose cultivators, be stuck at a bottleneck for a while, unable to break through.

"To enhance the Spiritual Power within the body, the main method is still hard cultivation, inhaling the Heaven and Earth Spiritual Qi."

"Secondly, taking Elixirs and Spirit Medicines."

"Of course, one can also use Luck Points to enhance."

"But Luck Points are extremely precious, crucial resources should naturally be used on the cutting edge."

"If all are used to enhance cultivation, no amount of Luck Points would be enough."

Jiang Fan is relatively frugal with the use of Luck Points, after becoming a Talisman Master, there are places everywhere that require Luck Points, naturally, he needs to calculate carefully.

If he can save, he will naturally save a bit.

There's no need for excessive waste.

"Besides Elixirs and Spirit Medicines, there are Spirit Rice and Demon Beast Meat that can also enhance cultivation."

"Perhaps I can go to the Market to buy some to try."

Jiang Fan touched his chin and thought of this point.

Although the Grain Avoidance Pill can indeed stave off hunger, the problem is that it can only ensure the cultivator doesn't starve, and it doesn't have any effect in enhancing the cultivation of a cultivator.

It is said that the children of those Cultivation Clans eat Spirit Rice and Demon Beast Meat every meal, so their cultivation advances rapidly.

Not something a loose cultivator can compare with.

Of course, the consumption is also massive.

Without enough Spirit Stones, how could one sustain such consumption?

He indeed has dozens of Spirit Stones on him.

But if he wants to buy everything, he probably won't have much left.
