Chapter 155: Demon Attack on Cyan Forest Market, Catastrophe Strikes

In an instant, all the Exorcism Talismans in the market were swept clean.

Many loose cultivators, even if they have money, could no longer buy any Exorcism Talismans.

At the same time, the price of Exorcism Talismans soared dramatically.

Some loose cultivators who had stored quite a few Exorcism Talismans decided to hold on and wait, hoping to sell them at a high price.

The entire Cyan Forest Market, and the cultivators in the shanty towns, were all anxious.

But there was nothing they could do.

Of course, this news soon reached Jiang Fan's ears.

There's no way around it; this matter was already known to everyone, and it was almost impossible for him not to hear about it.

After listening to the description from the surrounding neighbors, Jiang Fan also understood the ins and outs of the matter.

"Demon uprising?"

"Exorcism Talisman price surge?"

"This seems like an opportunity to get rich."

Jiang Fan's eyes lit up instantly, feeling very excited.

He had originally been pondering what methods to employ to earn a large number of Spirit Stones.

It looks like refining Exorcism Talismans is the best way to make money.

Currently, a single Middle Grade Exorcism Talisman is worth twenty Spirit Stones.

If hundreds are made, wouldn't they be worth two thousand Spirit Stones?

Those loose cultivators probably struggle their whole lives, working hard for decades, without necessarily earning that much.

Moreover, this is a product of special times.

If this opportunity is missed, who knows when the next one will come?

"To earn Spirit Stones, you must rely on skills."

"That's the threshold."

Jiang Fan clenched his fist.

Without skills, all you can feel is envy as you watch others make money.

The same goes for the Exorcism Talismans now.

Although there are quite a few Middle Grade Talisman Masters in Cyan Forest Market, the demand for Exorcism Talismans is huge now.

He can also take a share from it.

To be honest, if he wants to rapidly enhance his cultivation, he should rely on elixirs.

Taking elixirs allows low-grade spirit root cultivators to increase their cultivation efficiency.

So for Earth Spirit Root cultivators, the efficiency is naturally even higher.

Thus, the number of Spirit Stones he possesses should naturally be more and more.

Without Spirit Stones in the Cultivation Realm, it's practically impossible to take even a step.

"Since that's the case, then let's refine Exorcism Talismans."

Jiang Fan took a deep breath and entered the Talisman Making Room.

Without saying a word, he consumed a full five hundred Luck Points.

Boom~~

At this moment, the information about the Exorcism Talismans flowed like a tide into the depths of his consciousness.

He felt as if he appeared in the Talisman Making Room, repeatedly crafting Exorcism Talismans.

Ten times, a hundred times, a thousand times, ten thousand times...

With each talisman crafted, he felt his understanding and skill in crafting Exorcism Talismans become increasingly adept.

From beginner, to skilled, mastery, and reaching the stage of perfection.

He felt as if he had been crafting Exorcism Talismans for decades, with expertise beyond imagination.

Dong!

The next second, Jiang Fan's eyes shone slightly as he picked up the talisman pen on the table.

His Primordial Spiritual Power infused into the talisman pen.

The pen moved like dragon and snake.

The talisman ink immediately formed a series of talismanic patterns, seemingly drawing in the Sun Essence Qi between heaven and earth.

This caused the patterns on the talisman paper to glow with golden light, containing terrifying Supreme Yang Essence Qi.

Boom~~

Instantly, as the final stroke ended, the entire talisman paper began to emit a golden glow, strands of Sun Essence Qi flowed along the patterns, and upon contact with demonic energy, it would immediately ignite, incinerating the demon.

Middle Grade Exorcism Talisman, complete!

"Is this the secret of the Exorcism Talisman?"

"Is this a Middle Grade Talisman?"

Jiang Fan clenched his fist, feeling very excited, sensing that his talisman master realm had risen to a new level, clearly reaching the realm of Middle Grade Talisman Master.

It's important to know that the gap between Lower-grade Talismans and Middle-grade Talismans is substantial.

The spiritual power and complexity they contain are not even on the same level.

A regular Lower-grade Talisman might be purchasable for just one Spirit Stone.

But a Middle-grade Talisman might require seven or eight Spirit Stones, or even a dozen or more Spirit Stones to buy one.

However, the cost between the two is not significantly different.

This leads Middle Grade Talisman Masters to be significantly wealthier than Lower Grade Talisman Masters.

There's simply no comparison.

With this thought, his mind moved, and he immediately opened his virtual panel.

[Name: Jiang Fan]

[Profession: Middle Grade Talisman Master (30%)]

Evidently, after consuming a full five hundred Luck Points, he had only one thousand and sixty Luck Points left.

But this was very much worth it.

Because after learning the Exorcism Talisman, his talisman master realm naturally advanced to the Middle Grade level.

After all, countless Lower Grade Talisman Masters are stuck at this realm, unable to break through.

But now, he has become a Middle Grade Talisman Master in the blink of an eye.
