Chapter 164: Advancement to Fifth-Layer Qi Cultivation_2

Four or five thousand spirit stones seem like nothing compared to spiritual liquid.

At most, it's only enough to buy a dozen drops of spiritual liquid.

"Perhaps I could purchase more spiritual liquid."

"But I cannot exhaust all my spirit stones completely."

"I must keep some spirit stones for emergencies."

"After all, who knows what antics the Great Sun Sword Sect might pull."

Jiang Fan thought if he could, he would love to convert all his spirit stones into spiritual liquid.

However, the risk would be too great.

If the Great Sun Sword Sect continued to raise the rent, and he had no spirit stones, he would be in danger.

He might be evicted from the slums or even captured as a miner.

So he must not allow himself to end up penniless no matter what.

He still needed to keep some spirit stones for emergencies.

Moreover, selling Exorcism Talismans to earn a large number of spirit stones might be a one-time deal.

Finding the next opportunity to get rich might not be so easy.

He still needed to use his spirit stones prudently.

"Next, I need to engrave the fifth Life Talisman."

"Once the engraving succeeds, my power will surely soar."

Jiang Fan squinted his eyes, contemplating what would be best to engrave for his fifth Life Talisman, as it would affect his future path and couldn't be decided recklessly.

"The fifth Life Talisman should be an attack-type talisman."

"After all, cultivators above the mid-stage Qi Cultivation have greatly increased defenses."

"They have Protective Talismans, Magic Robes, and various defensive magical artifacts."

"The power of the Fireball Talisman is no longer sufficient."

Jiang Fan stroked his chin.

In fact, previously at the black market when dealing with Wei Teng and the other mid-stage Qi Cultivation cultivators, he realized his methods were lacking, as the power of the Fireball Talisman was insufficient.

If the opponent's defense was slightly stronger, like a turtle shell.

Then the power of his Fireball Talisman would likely be of little use against the enemy.

So he wanted to engrave a Life Talisman with stronger attack power and piercing ability.

After thinking it through, only the Golden Light Talisman seemed suitable.

"The Golden Light Talisman, it is a gold-element talisman imbued with gold spiritual power."

"Once activated, it immediately transforms into a golden light, resembling sword light."

"Endowed with terrifying piercing power."

"Even the spiritual energy shield on a cultivator cannot withstand the power of the Golden Light Talisman."

"Cultivating it to a higher level, it's akin to Sword Qi on a Sword Cultivator, practically invincible."

Jiang Fan's eyes gleamed with a flash of light.

Boom~~

Thinking of this, he didn't hesitate and immediately spent a thousand Luck Points.

A mysterious energy swiftly spread throughout his body.

At this moment, he felt as if he entered a state of epiphany.

The Primordial Talisman deep within his Elixir Field and Sea of Qi began spinning rapidly.

Spirit power inscriptions started to engrave on it.

After an unknown amount of time, a brand-new rune was engraved on the Primordial Talisman.

A total of five talismans gleamed brightly, absorbing and releasing the spiritual energy of the heavens and earth.

"It's done."

Jiang Fan opened his eyes, sensing the Golden Light Talisman's inscriptions appearing on the surface of the Primordial Talisman deep within his Elixir Field and Sea of Qi, automatically absorbing and releasing the gold-element spiritual energy of the heavens and earth.

With a thought, he activated the power of the Golden Light Talisman.

Instantly, a large amount of gold-element spiritual energy gathered, and the Golden Light Talisman flickered continuously.

A stream of gold spiritual power surged out from within him, shooting from his fingertip.

Dong!

The next second, a golden beam of light blasted out, piercing effortlessly through the wooden floor and even the ground, leaving a noticeable pit.

"Is this the power of the Golden Light Talisman?"

"If the skill level continues to increase, piercing through spiritual energy shields will be no problem."

Jiang Fan felt very satisfied.

Even at just the beginner level, the Golden Light Talisman already exhibited considerable power. If it reached the proficient level or mastery level, its power would undoubtedly be formidable.

Undoubtedly, he now had an additional means of lethal attack.

[Name: Jiang Fan]

[Life Chart: Great Blessings Equal to Heaven, Attribute: Through adversity comes fortune]

[Lifespan: 120]

[Spirit Root: Earth Spirit Root]

[Luck Points: 3560]

[Cultivation Technique: Soaring Snake Technique (Fragmented), Seventh Layer (Cannot advance)]

[Cultivation Technique: Mixed Element Talisman Scripture, First Layer]

[Life Talismans: Fireball Talisman (Proficient), Light Body Talisman (Proficient), Conceal Breath Talisman (Proficient), Protective Talisman (Beginner), Golden Light Talisman (Beginner)]

[Realm: Fifth-Layer Qi Cultivation (1%)]

[Profession: Middle Grade Talisman Master (40%)]

Jiang Fan looked at his virtual panel and felt very satisfied.

After spending a thousand Luck Points, he now had three thousand five hundred sixty Luck Points left.

This was quite a substantial amount of Luck Points.

At the same time, the skill level of being a Middle Grade Talisman Master had also improved significantly.

If he continued to improve, reaching the level of a Top-grade Talisman Master would not be far off.

It was only a matter of time.

"If I want to continue to increase my strength, it seems I need to enhance the skill level of my Life Talismans."

"Once the skill level improves, the increase in combat power will be numerous times over."

Jiang Fan thought that he also needed to make extensive use of his Life Talismans' power, which is the true path of cultivation for a Talisman Cultivator.

...

In the blink of an eye, another five or six days passed.

To celebrate advancing to the Fifth-Layer Qi Cultivation, Jiang Fan indulged with Su Weiwei several times until he was exhausted.

And thanks to obtaining many Low Grade Spirit Gathering Pills, Su Weiwei's cultivation also improved, advancing to the Second-Layer Qi Cultivation, making significant progress.

Although not comparable to Jiang Fan, compared to ordinary cultivators, her progress was considered rapid.

The Ancient Strange Insect, Six-winged Poison Bee, also seemed to be accelerating its incubation.

It's estimated that it won't be long before the Six-winged Poison Bee is fully hatched.

By then, Su Weiwei's power will definitely see a great increase.

Meanwhile, some changes have been occurring in the slums recently.

This also has something to do with Jiang Fan selling Exorcism Talismans.

Because the Exorcism Talismans refined by Jiang Fan were incredibly effective, those loose cultivators, after using them, could exterminate many low-grade demons.

This led to a significant reduction in the number of demons daring to enter the slums.

Compared to before, the slums seemed to have become safer.

"What is the origin of that mysterious talisman maker? The strength of the Exorcism Talismans he refines is incredible, at least several times stronger than talismans of the same tier. It's truly astonishing."

"It is indeed astonishing. I once took this Exorcism Talisman to the Cyan Forest Market and asked some Top-grade Talisman Masters. They said even they couldn't refine such flawless Exorcism Talismans. It's undeniable that whoever refined such Exorcism Talismans is at least a Top-grade Talisman Master, maybe even a Tier Two Rune Master."

"No way, that's too exaggerated. If he is a Tier Two Rune Master, wouldn't his status be equivalent to a Foundation Establishment Cultivator? With such cultivation, he could become an elder of the Great Sun Sword Sect."

"Right, the person who intervened shouldn't be a Tier Two Rune Master but a Top-grade Talisman Master, just very talented in refining Exorcism Talismans, achieving Grandmaster skill, hence each Exorcism Talisman's power is so great."

"It appears that even if he is not currently a Tier Two Rune Master, he will definitely be in the future."

"It's said that the cultivators from the Great Sun Sword Sect are also looking for that mysterious talisman maker, hoping he will join the Great Sun Sword Sect."

"If he wanted to join the Great Sun Sword Sect, he would have exposed his identity long ago instead of keeping it hidden until now. No one knows the origin of that mysterious talisman maker."

"But anyway, thanks to that mysterious talisman maker selling Exorcism Talismans, we were able to survive this demonic calamity."

"It's said that some Foundation Establishment Elders from the Great Sun Sword Sect are coming by flying ship. Hopefully, they will soon handle that Tier Two Cyan-faced Demon Fiend so that we won't be attacked by demons every night."

"In this case, thirty spirit stones for an Exorcism Talisman are worth it. Their great power is practically life-saving."

Many loose cultivators were engaged in discussions.
