

Fortune 165

Chapter 165: The War of the Golden Core Sect, Cyan Forest Market was Destroyed

Of course, such news naturally reached Jiang Fan's ears.

This made Jiang Fan even more determined not to reveal his identity as a Talisman Master.

If he were targeted by the Great Sun Sword Sect, it would certainly cause significant trouble.

After all, he carries the inheritance of the Primordial Talisman Sect.

The Great Sun Sword Sect is at most a Golden Core Sect, while the Primordial Talisman Sect was a Divinity Transformation Sect in the past.

The inheritance received is far more powerful than that of the Great Sun Sword Sect.

If the cultivators of the Great Sun Sword Sect discovered the inheritance he possessed, malicious intentions could arise.

According to his strength, if the other party harbors malicious intent, he might not survive.

Though the other party might treat him courteously, without causing harm.

The problem is, he has no need to gamble.

As long as he continues his cultivation methodically, he can still become a Foundation Establishment, or even a Golden Core Cultivator.

Why entrust his life to the goodwill of others?

"I still need to diligently cultivate the power of the Life Talisman to enhance my strength."

Jiang Fan obediently stayed in the shantytown district, with no plans to sell Exorcism Talismans again.

During the day, he stayed home drawing talismans, honing his skills as a Talisman Master.

At night, he would go to a secret cave near the shantytown district, training the skill level of his Life Talisman.

In short, his days were quite fulfilling.

During this period, reinforcements from the Great Sun Sword Sect finally arrived again, sending a Flying Sect with three Foundation Establishment cultivators, along with numerous Qi Cultivation disciples, and even many loose cultivators.

This formidable force once more attacked the Red Flame Ore Vein.

The outcome was predictable, effortlessly eliminating the Tier Two Cyan-faced Demon Fiend hidden deep within the ore vein.

This finally resolved the calamity of the demon fiends.

Afterward, many demon fiends from the Ten Thousand Beasts Mountain Range dared not approach Cyan Forest Market casually.

This made the shantytown district much safer, not having to worry about nighttime safety.

Of course, the price of Exorcism Talismans continued to plummet, from fifty Spirit Stones each, dropping to forty Spirit Stones, then thirty Spirit Stones, and finally only ten Spirit Stones apiece.

Some cultivators who had hoarded a large number of Exorcism Talismans, hoping to make a fortune, regretted it deeply.

Wishing they could immediately sell off all the Exorcism Talismans they possessed.

Unfortunately, if not sold at a low price, there was simply no interest.

Without a doubt, Jiang Fan's selling of Exorcism Talismans was perfectly timed at the highest point, making a considerable profit.

Of course, this had little to do with him now.

.....

Another month passed.

At night, in a certain cave.

Jiang Fan was diligently training the skill level of his Life Talismans.

After a month of training, the skill levels of the five Life Talismans on his body simultaneously advanced to the Mastery Level, even the recently engraved Golden Light Talisman achieved this.

His quick progress was due to the consumption of Luck Points.

He consumed a full two thousand Luck Points to bring about a significant improvement in the skill levels of the five Life Talismans.

It was like experiencing sudden enlightenment.

It enabled his understanding of the Life Talismans to progress rapidly.

"Fireball Talisman."

Jiang Fan activated the power of the Fireball Talisman with a thought; with a gentle snap of his fingers, a large amount of flame spiritual power gathered, forming a flame bullet.

With a thud, the flame bullet shot out like lightning.

Immediately, the flame bullet easily penetrated the front wall of the cave, creating a crater.

The destructive power was evident and formidable.

At the Mastery Level, the Fireball Talisman could compress the flame spiritual power to bullet size, concentrating substantial flame spiritual power together, greatly increasing its power and penetrating capability.

If he wished, he could condense them into flame bullets, shooting them to kill enemies.

Essentially, enemies within a hundred meters could not evade the attack of the flame bullets.

Compared to before, the destructive power had more than doubled.

"The power of the Light Body Talisman has also increased."

Jiang Fan operated the Light Body Talisman, and with a thought, wind spiritual power enveloped his body, making him incredibly fast, like an arrow released from a bowstring.

Of course, now it's not just about speed; he can also dodge freely.

Reached the level of deflecting wind like willow.

It means he can sense the air flow from enemy attacks and evade them with ease.

He can change his movement direction according to the direction of the airflow.

Without a doubt, he has become more agile.

Not even late-stage Qi Cultivation cultivators could easily use spiritual sense to lock him down.

This is the Mastery Level Light Body Talisman.

"But the greatest progress should be in the Protective Talisman."

"The spiritual energy shield of the Protective Talisman can now cover the whole body without any blind spots."

Jiang Fan activated the Protective Talisman.

Immediately, the primordial spiritual power within poured in, enveloping his entire body with the Primordial Protective Shield, appearing like a Golden Bell Shield, without any blind spots.

Previously, at the Entry Level, the Protective Talisman could only condense a spiritual shield.

If the enemy attacked from a different direction, it might hit him.

But now it's different; at the Mastery Level, the Protective Talisman can cover the whole body with a spiritual energy shield, ensuring no blind spots.

No matter the angle from which the enemy attacks, the spiritual energy shield will block it.

And it is the Primordial Protective Shield, more powerful than other spiritual energy shields.

It can block any attacks of spiritual attribute.