Chapter 175: Advancing to Sixth-Layer Qi Cultivation, Engraving the Body-Stabilizing Talisman

At this moment, Jiang Fan did not hesitate at all.

He opened one of the jade bottles and swallowed it immediately.

Instantly, he felt a drop of spiritual liquid enter his stomach, warming his entire body as if he were soaking in a hot spring.

Every inch of his body felt incredibly comfortable.

Even though this wasn't his first time consuming spiritual liquid, the sensation was wondrous every time.

"Not enough, just one drop of spiritual liquid is absolutely not enough."

Jiang Fan's eyes glistened with a hint of excitement.

He consecutively took out several jade bottles and opened them one by one.

This time, he consumed four drops of spiritual liquid in one go.

Including the one from before, that's five drops of spiritual liquid.

For an ordinary cultivator at the fifth layer of Qi cultivation, doing this is purely seeking death.

After all, an ordinary fifth-layer Qi cultivator's body cannot contain such a vast amount of energy.

If too much energy is devoured at once, the entire elixir field, sea of qi, and meridians would burst.

This is what it means to be unable to bear the supplement.

However, Jiang Fan is not an ordinary cultivator.

He has cultivated the Mixed Element Talisman Scripture, needing spiritual power and energy ten times more than his peers. So refining five drops of spiritual liquid at once is nothing at all.

Rumble~~

In an instant, Jiang Fan operated the Mixed Element Talisman Scripture, and five drops of spiritual liquid were immediately transformed into a vast amount of energy, surging into the depths of the elixir field and sea of qi, devoured and absorbed by the Primordial Talisman.

Then quickly converted into strands of primordial spiritual power.

What normally required months or even years of diligent cultivation to increase, the primordial spiritual power now came flooding in, with the spiritual power in the elixir field and sea of qi rapidly increasing.

As the Primordial Talisman continued to operate, these primordial spiritual powers surged into the depths of the body's meridians.

70%, 75%, 80%, 85%...

Strands of primordial spiritual power deep in the meridians were increasing frantically.

In just one hour, the primordial spiritual power inside filled five meridians completely.

Primordial spiritual power was surging through the meridians like a river.

"Quick, the efficiency of converting spiritual power is incredibly fast."

"No wonder it's spiritual liquid, it truly cannot be compared to ordinary elixirs."

"With a large amount of spiritual liquid to assist, there's simply no need to waste time on condensing spiritual power."

Jiang Fan felt deeply moved.

Compared to before, his cultivation efficiency now was just incomparable.

Even the cultivation efficiency of a Celestial Spirit Root cultivator was nothing like this.

For a cultivator, the assistance of external forces is indeed quite important.

However, acquiring spiritual liquid is not an easy task.

Moreover, it is extremely expensive.

Three hundred spirit stones per drop, enough to make any loose cultivator sigh helplessly.

Even sect disciples and clan members cannot consume spiritual liquid for long periods.

So obtaining fifteen drops of spiritual liquid at once was indeed a great gain.

"Now is the time."

Jiang Fan sat cross-legged on the ground, sensing that his cultivation had reached the perfection of the fifth-layer Qi cultivation level.

Centered around his body, the Heaven and Earth Spiritual Qi surged towards him, seemingly forming a vortex of spiritual qi.

Thud!

The next second, a vast spiritual qi poured into his body, converting into strands of primordial spiritual power that, like a flood, rushed into the sixth meridian.

With just one collision, the bottleneck of the sixth meridian was instantly cleared.

Sixth-Layer Qi Cultivation!

Undoubtedly, his cultivation had effortlessly advanced to the sixth layer of Qi cultivation.

"Finally advanced."

Jiang Fan clenched his fists, excitement evident on his face.

He sensed that after advancing to the sixth layer of Qi cultivation, his internal primordial spiritual power increased by at least a half.

Simultaneously, the power of his spiritual sense also increased significantly.

Compared to before, his cultivation certainly improved drastically.

Within the shantytown, a sixth-layer Qi cultivation level was already considered a top expert.

Should he advance one more step to become a seventh-layer Qi cultivator, he could live within the market area.

"There are still ten drops of spiritual liquid left."

"They should also significantly enhance my cultivation."

"Perhaps reaching the seventh-layer Qi cultivation realm isn't too far off."

"However, after advancing to the sixth layer of Qi cultivation, I can now inscribe the sixth Life Talisman."

Jiang Fan sensed that the Primordial Talisman in the depths of his elixir field and sea of qi had increased substantially compared to before, allowing him to inscribe the sixth Life Talisman.

Clearly, every additional Life Talisman represented a qualitative improvement in strength for him.

"Attack, defense, auxiliary, speed types of Life Talismans are already there."

"The sixth talisman should naturally be a control type talisman."

"Because cultivators are also extremely fast."

"If you can't lock onto the opponent, powerful attacks are worthless."

"So the sixth talisman should inscribe the Body-Stabilizing Talisman."

Jiang Fan rubbed his chin.

He had long decided what his sixth Life Talisman should be, a control type talisman — the Body-Stabilizing Talisman.

The power of this talisman comes from wind spiritual power.

Once activated, it congeals into threads of airflow, binding the enemy like ropes, rendering them immobile.

Because the ropes formed by wind spiritual power are silent, invisible, and traceless, enemies often find it hard to detect, being caught unawares and becoming immobilized.

"When encountering an enemy, first use the Body-Stabilizing Talisman to control them."

"Then unleash the Cyan Lotus Earth Fire Talisman or the power of the Golden Light Talisman."

"The enemy would be utterly defenseless, killed in an instant."
