Chapter 178: The War is Over, Rebuilding Cyan Forest Market_2

Even if faced with a group attack, he wouldn't worry about anything.

With a thought, nine beams of golden light struck out simultaneously, the sword qi crisscrossing, capable of instantly killing the enemy.

And it would be as effortless as blowing dust.

There's also the sixth Life Talisman, the Body-Stabilizing Talisman.

Although this is a newly inscribed Life Talisman, its Skill Level has been ground to the Great Success Realm.

If it were at the Entry Level, the Body-Stabilizing Talisman could only condense three strands of invisible wind spiritual power ropes to bind the enemy's movements.

At the Skilled Level, it could condense nine strands of invisible air currents.

At the Mastery Level, it could condense twenty-seven strands of invisible air currents.

Now at the Great Success Level, it can condense sixty-four strands of invisible air currents.

Undoubtedly, this is an improvement of a qualitative nature.

Once the power of the Body-Stabilizing Talisman is unleashed, sixty-four strands of invisible air currents would instantly appear on the enemy, binding their limbs and head, as if the entire body were enveloped in a spider web.

They simply wouldn't be able to move.

The power of stabilizing surpasses the previous level by many times.

If it could be cultivated to the Perfection Level, it could condense over a hundred invisible air currents at once.

In this way, it would be invincible during the Qi Cultivation Stage.

No matter how strong the Qi Cultivation Stage cultivator is, they cannot escape the power of the Body-Stabilizing Talisman.

"What a pity, the Cyan Lotus Earth Fire Talisman is still at the Entry Level."

"Still unable to reach the Proficient Level."

Jiang Fan felt a bit regretful.

But this is an unavoidable matter; the level of the Cyan Lotus Earth Fire Talisman is simply too high.

It cannot be compared to other Life Talismans.

To improve its Skill Level naturally isn't easy and requires more time.

At this moment, Jiang Fan's heart stirred, and he immediately opened the virtual panel on himself.

[Name: Jiang Fan]

[Life Chart: Great Blessings Equal to Heaven, Attribute: A Narrow Escape Guarantees Future Blessings]

[Lifespan: 120]

[Spirit Root: Earth Spirit Root]

[Luck Points: 2560]

[Wealth: 8000 Spirit Stones]

[Cultivation Technique: Soaring Snake Technique (Incomplete), Seventh Layer (Cannot be Improved)]

[Cultivation Technique: Mixed Element Talisman Scripture, First Layer]

[Life Talisman: Cyan Lotus Earth Fire Talisman (Entry Level), Light Body Talisman (Great Success), Conceal Breath Talisman (Great Success), Protective Talisman (Great Success), Golden Light Talisman (Great Success), Body-Stabilizing Talisman (Great Success)]

[Realm: Sixth-Layer Qi Cultivation (50%)]

[Profession: Middle Grade Talisman Master (90%)]

Immediately, a series of data were displayed, detailed to the point of being exhaustive.

"Not bad, the cultivation progress has increased quite a bit."

Jiang Fan read the data above, feeling quite satisfied.

In the past two months, apart from improving the Skill Level of his Life Talismans, more importantly, the primordial spiritual power in his body also increased quite a bit.

The reason his cultivation increased so quickly is naturally thanks to those ten drops of spiritual liquid.

After devouring the energy of ten drops of spiritual liquid, his cultivation progressed rapidly.

To be honest, it's also because his foundation is too deep.

If it were an ordinary sixth-layer Qi Cultivation Stage cultivator, they would have probably advanced to the seventh layer after devouring ten drops of spiritual liquid.

However, the energy he requires is too enormous; just ten drops of spiritual liquid are entirely insufficient.

Even so, he feels his cultivation speed is quite decent.

Having come to the Cultivation Realm for such a short time, he's already cultivated to the sixth-layer Qi Cultivation Stage.

Compared to other Loose Cultivators, he can be considered to be advancing at lightning speed.

Whoosh!

After another half an hour, Jiang Fan consolidated his cultivation and then returned home.

He used the power of the Light Body Talisman, making him as fast as a bird in flight.

In no time, he returned to the Nameless Valley.

As soon as he got back, Jiang Fan noticed that all the Loose Cultivators seemed to be jubilant.

As if something great had happened.

He couldn't help but step forward to inquire, eager to know what had occurred.

"Something great has happened."

"The war between the Great Sun Sword Sect and the Five Elements Pill Sect is over."

A Loose Cultivator said excitedly.

After all, for Loose Cultivators, war is never a good thing.

If the war could end, they could return to the original market and acquire a large number of cultivation resources.

If they stayed in this shantytown, they'd have no chance of obtaining those high-tier resources.

"Has it ended? Really or just a rumor?"

Jiang Fan was stunned.

He hadn't expected the two major sects to end their conflict so abruptly and quickly.

He had originally thought it would take several years of fighting.

After all, both sides had reached a point of fierce conflict, in a life-and-death struggle.

It didn't seem like the war would end.

"Of course it's true, this news has long spread throughout the Ten Thousand Beasts Mountain Range."

"It's said that the Golden Core Zhenren from both the Great Sun Sword Sect and the Five Elements Pill Sect made a move."

"They battled in a mysterious place for three days and nights."

"In the end, neither could do anything to the other."

"Continuing to fight like this wasn't good for either major sect."

"Ultimately, it could lead to mutual destruction, allowing other Golden Core Sects to take advantage."

"So, the two Golden Core sects decided to shake hands and make peace, even jointly developing the Crimson Flame Iron Ore Vein and the Spirit Stone Ore Vein."

Many Loose Cultivators confidently said.

After all, they had many sources of information to confirm the news.

And events like this couldn't possibly be concealed.

"I see."

Jiang Fan was speechless, unsure of what to say.

In the Cultivation Realm, there really weren't any irreconcilable grudges; it was all about interests.

Previously, for the development rights of the Crimson Flame Iron Ore Vein and Spirit Stone Ore Vein, the two major sects fought a fierce battle.

No one knows how many disciples were killed or injured.

But now, in an instant, they've made peace.

Undoubtedly, for these Golden Core Sects, the lives of ordinary disciples don't mean much.

Even the lives of Foundation Establishment Elders don't mean much.

Only the lives of Golden Core Zhenren are truly important.

Their will determines the future and destiny of the sect, and no one can defy or oppose it.

"However, it must be said that both Golden Core sects suffered heavy losses this time."

"It's said that several Foundation Establishment Elders from the Great Sun Sword Sect died."

"This includes Han Zhiguang, the former Foundation Establishment Elder of Cyan Forest Market."

"To avenge Han Duan, Han Zhiguang attacked the cultivators of the Five Elements Pill Sect heavily."

"Unexpectedly, he encountered an ambush by the Five Elements Pill Sect and died on the spot."

"Of course, the Foundation Establishment Elders of the Five Elements Pill Sect didn't fare much better."

"They seemed to have been caught in an ambush by the Great Sun Sword Sect and several were killed."

"In short, continuing this war would do neither side any good, so it was better to shake hands and make peace."

Some Loose Cultivators seemed very familiar with the inside story of this war, even knowing many details.

So they could assert that this war definitely could not continue any longer.

"If that's the case, will Cyan Forest Market be rebuilt?"

Someone couldn't help asking.

Although they temporarily lived here, they still wanted to return to the original Cyan Forest Market.

One important point is that Cyan Forest Market has a Tier Two Spirit Vein.

That's why the place became a market.

If cultivating in Cyan Forest Market, the efficiency is naturally higher than in other places.

More importantly, in the market, they can purchase various high-tier cultivation resources.

After all, Loose Cultivators are still too weak.

Even if they could obtain some demon beast meat, spirit medicine, and rare ores in the Ten Thousand Beasts Mountain Range, they couldn't refine middle-grade talismans, top-grade talismans, and top-grade elixirs on their own.

Therefore, they still need to rely on the resources of Golden Core Sects.

Without these high-tier resources, they cannot advance further.

"Of course, it will be rebuilt."

"No matter what, that place is still the best location to establish a market."

"Moreover, it's so close to the Crimson Flame Iron Ore Vein."

"No Golden Core Sect would give up that Tier Two Spirit Vein."

"From what I know, this time the two Golden Core Sects will join forces to rebuild Cyan Forest Market."

"By then, the size of Cyan Forest Market will expand by at least ten times, and more houses will be built."

Many Loose Cultivators were having a lively discussion.

Apparently, some Loose Cultivators had already heard about the rebuilding plans for Cyan Forest Market.

Everyone was excitedly optimistic.

They felt like good days were finally coming.

"No way, if that's the case, then wouldn't we also have a chance to live in Cyan Forest Market?"

One Loose Cultivator couldn't help but ask.

Previously, population in Cyan Forest Market was limited because its area was too small.

The scarcity of houses meant even if you had money, you couldn't find a place to live there.

If the market were to expand, then Loose Cultivators would have the opportunity to live in it.
