Chapter 193: Troubled Times, Golden Core Sects Gather at Cyan Forest Market

It didn't take long for Jiang Fan, who had gathered the information, to return home.

"What? A Nascent Soul cave mansion has emerged?"

"Doesn't that mean this place is going to become chaotic soon?"

Upon hearing this news, Su Weiwei's face changed dramatically.

The first thing she thought about was not the opportunities contained within the Nascent Soul cave mansion but the great danger it held.

After all, with so many people eyeing the Nascent Soul cave mansion, it's certainly impossible for loose cultivators to gain any benefits.

On the contrary, the emergence of the cave mansion will attract a large number of sect cultivators.

At that time, Cyan Forest Market will certainly become the vortex's center.

Ordinary loose cultivators lacking strength will inevitably meet untimely deaths within such a vortex.

Even if they hide in the Nameless Valley, they probably won't escape the repercussions either.

"It is indeed going to become chaotic soon."

Jiang Fan nodded.

Without a doubt, the emergence of the Nascent Soul cave mansion will surely attract a lot of attention from Golden Core sects.

It may even attract Golden Core cultivators.

As for Foundation Establishment cultivators and Qi Cultivation Stage cultivators, that goes without saying.

He couldn't imagine how many cultivators and how many forces would gather in this place in the future.

"Husband, if that's the case, then we need to find a way to leave here."

Su Weiwei couldn't help but say.

She felt this place was no longer safe.

In a place where great figures clash, even the aftershocks could crush little minnows like them who are Qi Cultivation Stage cultivators.

Of course, maybe some loose cultivators think they can snatch chestnuts from the fire or fish in troubled waters.

But most loose cultivators are just cannon fodder.

"I've already investigated."

"The Ten Thousand Beasts Mountain Range is vast, seemingly boundless."

"Cyan Forest Market is just a common market among them."

"The nearest to Cyan Forest Market is an Immortal City — Yunlai City."

"It's said to be a city of independent cultivators, almost like a paradise for them."

"Because the one who controls this city is Daoist Yunlai, who is himself a Golden Core loose cultivator."

"Thus, he takes great care of loose cultivators."

"Due to Daoist Yunlai's powerful strength, he's established in the Ten Thousand Beasts Mountain Range for three hundred years, with influence no lesser than those Golden Core sects."

"Unfortunately, Yunlai City is three thousand kilometers away from our Cyan Forest Market."

Jiang Fan said in a deep voice.

To be honest, at his speed, a mere three thousand kilometers wouldn't be much, roughly seven or eight days of flying would suffice, but the problem is this is the Ten Thousand Beasts Mountain Range.

It's filled with steep mountains.

And along the way, who knows how many demons and demon beasts are lying in ambush.

Including Tier Two demon beasts, and even Tier Three demon beasts.

If one encounters these terrifying demon beasts, mere Qi Cultivation Stage cultivators would undoubtedly meet certain death.

Therefore, only Golden Core sects using the power of flying ships can cross the thousands of kilometers.

As for loose cultivators, if they really dare to walk across thousands of kilometers, it's basically a near-death journey.

"But that's okay."

"I previously heard news."

"Usually, there are flying ships traveling between major markets and Immortal City."

"If we can buy a ticket, then we should be able to go to Yunlai City."

"Tomorrow, I'll inquire about this and hopefully get news about the tickets."

Jiang Fan said in a deep voice.

He also felt that continuing to stay in Cyan Forest Market isn't a good idea.

After all, this area is becoming increasingly chaotic and is no longer suitable for ordinary loose cultivators to reside.

Staying here will only become more dangerous.

He originally thought staying here was good for cultivation, rich in resources, and safe.

But the emergence of the Nascent Soul cave mansion completely changed this situation.

This also forces him to consider his future.

"Hmm."

Su Weiwei nodded.

...

At night.

Cultivation Room.

Jiang Fan sat cross-legged on the ground, practicing the Soaring Snake Technique.

After three months of arduous cultivation, he had engraved countless Soaring Snake Runes into every muscle of his body.

Today, he finally succeeded in engraving 213 muscles.

Boom~~

When the last muscle successfully integrated the Soaring Serpent Rune, he sensed his entire body being enveloped in a faint cyan glow, and all his muscles were reinforced.

It was as if an innate rune array had appeared within him.

Constantly tempering his physique.

Thus causing the Qi and blood, and strength within him to increase and elevate geometrically.

"Finally reached the Qi Cultivation Stage in body cultivation."

Jiang Fan was overjoyed.

He sensed the sudden surge of power within him, reaching at least a hundred thousand pounds of force.

Every move felt like he was an ancient demon beast.

The Qi and blood in his body were like flames.

Any drop of fresh blood that fell to the ground would ignite a blazing fire.

If ordinary demons approached, they would be thoroughly incinerated by the flourishing Qi and blood, turning into ashes.

Vaguely, it felt as if a Soaring Snake roamed within him.

The densely packed Soaring Snake Runes wandered in the depths of his muscles, constantly flickering with cyan light.

Seemingly holding boundless mysteries of the Soaring Snake.

"Nice."

Jiang Fan felt very satisfied.

He knew the Qi Cultivation Chapter in the Soaring Snake Technique has three realms, namely Early-stage, Middle-stage, and Late-stage.

As long as the muscles can integrate 213 Soaring Snake Runes, then it is Early-stage Qi Cultivation.

If 426 Soaring Snake Runes can be integrated, then it is Middle-stage Qi Cultivation.

Once 639 Soaring Snake Runes are integrated, then it is Late-stage Qi Cultivation.

This will also cause his physical qualities to geometrically enhance.

Previously, when dealing with demons, he needed to use Exorcism Talismans, or perhaps Cyan Lotus Earth Fire Talismans.
