Chapter 194: Troubled Times, Golden Core Sects Gather at Cyan Forest Market_2

But from now on, there's no need at all.

Just the vigorous vitality inside me is enough to burn those low-tier demons to death.

Jiang Fan's heart stirred, and he opened up the virtual panel on his body.

[Name: Jiang Fan]

"Indeed, my lifespan has increased by fifty years."

"This is already the limit of breaking through the limits of a Qi Cultivation Stage Cultivator."

"Now, I'm no longer an ordinary human."

Jiang Fan clenched his fists, overjoyed.

Previously, no matter how he cultivated, his lifespan was only one hundred and twenty years.

Unless one advanced to the Foundation Establishment Realm, it would take over two hundred and fifty years to gain such longevity.

For human cultivators, crossing a Great Realm is the only way to exceed lifespan limits.

But now, cultivating the Qi Cultivation Chapter of the Soaring Snake Technique is merely an initial stage, and my lifespan has astonishingly increased by fifty years.

Even taking some life-extending spirit medicine would be just like this.

If the realm of the Soaring Snake Technique gets further enhanced, then not only would physical constitution get a huge increase, my lifespan would also increase dramatically.

In the future, the lifespans of ordinary human cultivators simply cannot match mine.

Even if it's just a Qi Cultivation Stage's lifespan, it can rival Foundation Establishment, or even Golden Core Cultivators.

"No wonder this ancient skill is so profound and wonderful."

"Of course, wanting to successfully cultivate it is not an easy task."

Jiang Fan rubbed his chin.

Without a doubt, this Soaring Snake Technique was created by ancient great power for mortals without spirit roots.

If human cultivators had spirit roots, they couldn't cultivate this technique.

After all, to successfully cultivate this technique, one must practice the Introduction and transition from martial arts to the path, nurturing special spirit roots to align with the wonders of the Soaring Snake Technique.

If one initially had spirit roots, they couldn't cultivate the Introduction.

Thus, the cultivators of the former Primordial Talisman Sect were helpless; even having obtained the ancient skill, they couldn't cultivate it.

Of course, they didn't obtain the subsequent Chapters of the Soaring Snake Technique.

"However, the fast progress is thanks to dual cultivation with my Dao companion."

"Without Weiwei's Taiyin Qi, it probably wouldn't have succeeded so quickly."

Jiang Fan could sense Su Weiwei's extraordinarily unique physique, no wonder the top-grade spiritual treasure Primordial Talisman Pen was so amazed by Su Weiwei's physique, definitely a rare spirit body in the cultivation realm.

During dual cultivation with Su Weiwei, they were in total unity of heart and spirit.

He could sense the peculiarity of Su Weiwei's body, seeming that deep in her bloodlines, countless mysterious Taiyin runes emerged.

These special runes got integrated into the depths of her bloodline.

Only by reaching unity of heart and spirit, they can manifest.

Then strands of Taiyin Qi merged into his body.

Not only can it quickly boost his primordial spiritual power, but it can also temper his physique.

Naturally, dual cultivation with Su Weiwei also brings tremendous benefits to her.

Her cultivation during this period has skyrocketed, advancing to the Fourth-Layer Qi Cultivation.

She has become a mid-stage Qi Cultivation Stage cultivator.

Meanwhile, the number of six-winged poison bees has increased to thirty-six.

Clearly, during this period, both Su Weiwei's cultivation and combat power have greatly increased.

"Only eight thousand spirit stones left?"

Jiang Fan noticed that he indeed spent money like flowing water during this period.

After three months, a total of four thousand spirit stones were spent.

He purchased various top-grade elixirs, spiritual liquids, and materials for talisman making.

He felt like he didn't spend much.

Yet four thousand spirit stones disappeared.

For cultivators, no matter how many spirit stones, they're not enough.

Of course, the expenditure of these spirit stones is quite worthwhile.

This also increased his cultivation level to 60%.

It's not far from the eighth layer of Qi Cultivation.

Compared to other loose cultivators, his progress is quite rapid.

"Perhaps I need to find a way to earn spirit stones."

Jiang Fan thought to himself that to earn spirit stones, he had to rely on talisman drawing.

After all, the demand for talismans from cultivators is fairly large.

Moreover, he used two thousand luck points to become a top-grade talisman master.

Now he can draw top-grade talismans.

In this way, he can earn more spirit stones and have a greater profit.

"But which talismans sell the best and earn the most? It still depends on the market."

Jiang Fan wouldn't draw talismans indiscriminately.

Ordinary talisman masters draw talismans well, but if there's no demand, they can't be sold.

Only by identifying cultivators' pain points and knowing the needs of loose cultivators can talismans be swiftly sold.

To gain high profits.

Previously, the Exorcism Talisman was like this.

At that time, it made him a substantial profit.

However, opportunities like this are relatively rare.

The next morning.

Jiang Fan left Nameless Valley and arrived at Cyan Forest Market.

He noticed that another fleet of flying ships appeared above.

Many sect cultivators also gathered in Cyan Forest Market.

Not only from the Great Sun Sword Sect and Five Elements Pill Sect, disciples from other sects seemed to appear in Cyan Forest Market.

All of a sudden, Cyan Forest Market became unprecedentedly bustling.

He promptly went to inquire about the news.

"Damn it, turbulent times, really turbulent times."

"Unexpectedly, the appearance of Nascent Soul Cave Mansion has attracted so many Golden Core Sects."

"Snow Sect, White Feather Sect, Thousand Bird Palace, and other Golden Core Sects seem to have come here."

"No way, isn't this a gathering of five major Golden Core Sects? How did they come so quickly?"

"No way, after all, this is a Nascent Soul Cave Mansion, who knows how many treasures are inside, once Golden Core Zhenrens knew of this, they rushed here on flying ships immediately."

"Yeah, I heard the five major Golden Core Sects plan to jointly excavate this Nascent Soul Cave Mansion."

"When will they start excavating the Nascent Soul Cave Mansion then?"

"Haha, it's not that simple; the whole Nascent Soul Cave Mansion is covered by a Tier Four Array, even if the Nascent Soul Ancestor has fallen, without anyone hosting the Tier Four Array, Golden Core Zhenrens cannot break it."

"They say that last night, a Golden Core Zhenren attempted to crack the cave mansion's Tier Four Array but failed, almost suffered backlash from the array."

"So, in the short term, this Nascent Soul Cave Mansion should still be unreachable."

"Indeed, that's the case; during this period, we loose cultivators should be careful; so many sect cultivators have come to Cyan Forest Market in one go, any of them can kill us, and if dead, we can't avenge."

Many loose cultivators worriedly said.

Compared to gains from Nascent Soul Cave Mansion, they are more worried about the arrogant sect cultivators.

After all, they have no backing.

However, those sect cultivators rely on Golden Core Sects, if they conflict with loose cultivators, loose cultivators will definitely suffer, may even face death.

Even if the sect cultivators were killed, there might be retaliation from Golden Core Sects.

Loose cultivators are truly stuck between a rock and a hard place.

It's as if a bunch of aristocratic offspring has arrived here, ordinary people can't provoke them.

"Cyan Forest Market has indeed become increasingly dangerous."

"Still need to find a way to leave here."

Jiang Fan clenched his fists.

Thinking of this, he quickly arrived at Hundred Pills Workshop and found the shopkeeper Kong Chang.

After all, he traded with him many times before, knowing he's a trustworthy businessman.

Moreover, he has broad connections, seeming to do any business.

Of course, he also changed appearance many times, so Kong Chang didn't know his true identity.

"Fellow Daoist Kong."

"I want to go to Yunlai City, do you have a way?"

Jiang Fan asked directly.

He knew shopkeeper Kong Chang was a cultivator from the Great Sun Sword Sect, and had more connections than himself.

"To Yunlai City?"

"Just in time, our Great Sun Sword Sect has a flying ship."

"It can go to Yunlai City in two months."

"But the ticket price is expensive, can you afford it?"

Shopkeeper Kong Chang said smilingly.

He looked at Jiang Fan and immediately knew he must be a big client, and he could seize the chance to earn big.
