Chapter 200: What Is the Great Sun Sword Sect? Still Slay! _2

"Impossible."

"What kind of defensive magical artifact do you have on you?"

"How can it withstand the attacks of us five sword cultivators?"

Seeing this, Wei Tongheng and his group were in disbelief, their pupils contracted.

After all, they were renowned sword cultivators known for their unmatched slaughter, claiming to be indestructible.

But now, the opponent had merely relied on a spiritual energy shield to block their sword Qi.

This was unacceptable to them.

If their sword Qi couldn't break through the defense, it meant their power was useless.

"You don't need to know, just go to hell."

Jiang Fan's eyes gleamed with coldness, without any intention of explaining anything.

He activated the life talisman within him—the Cyan Lotus Earth Fire Talisman.

This was already a tier two talisman, containing the power of the Cyan Lotus Earth Fire.

It was his strongest life talisman, extremely powerful.

Of course, having ascended to the seventh-layer Qi cultivation, the primordial spiritual power within him surged.

Thus, he could activate the Cyan Lotus Earth Fire Talisman more frequently.

At this moment, the Cyan Lotus Earth Fire Talisman vibrated, devouring a large amount of primordial spiritual power, radiating a cyan light.

Strands of Cyan Lotus Earth Fire power surged from the depths of his elixir field and sea of Qi.

Then gathered at his fingertips.

Finally forming cyan flame bullets.

What?!

Seeing this cyan flame power appear, Wei Tongheng and the others felt their hair stand on end, sensing a mortal peril, as if their lives were under immense threat.

"What's happening? This cyan flame seems familiar."

"Damn, this isn't any ordinary flame, but the Heaven and Earth Anomalous Fire—Cyan Lotus Earth Fire."

"Damn it, how could a mere loose cultivator obtain the Cyan Lotus Earth Fire, how did this kid manage it?"

"Run, we are no match for the Cyan Lotus Earth Fire."

Wei Tongheng and the others' faces changed dramatically.

They stared at the cyan flames at Jiang Fan's fingertips, immediately recalling the intelligence recorded by their sect.

After all, they had previously fought against the Five Elements Pill Sect.

The pill cultivators of the Five Elements Pill Sect were incredibly fierce.

Some pill cultivators even acquired some Heaven and Earth Spirit Fires, significantly boosting their combat power.

Oftentimes, they could leverage the power of the spirit fire to kill enemies.

So the sword cultivators of the Great Sun Sword Sect were well-versed in various Heaven and Earth Anomalous Fires.

But even among the many anomalous fires, the Cyan Lotus Earth Fire was considered one of the best, possessing boundless might.

They didn't know how this loose cultivator managed it.

No, perhaps this kid wasn't a loose cultivator.

He was likely an inner sect disciple of the Five Elements Pill Sect.

Today's event was probably a ploy, a trap.

The aim was to ambush the cultivators of the Great Sun Sword Sect.

They're done for; they fell for it this time.

Thinking of this, Wei Tongheng and the others immediately wanted to flee.

Unfortunately, by now it was too late to run.

Whoosh whoosh whoosh!!!

In an instant, Jiang Fan made his move, the Cyan Lotus Earth Fire Talisman within him erupted.

The power of the Cyan Lotus Earth Fire gathered into flame bullets.

In the next second, five cyan flame bullets shot out, like bullets being fired.

The speed surpassed the sound barrier, incredibly swift.

"It's over."

Wei Tongheng and the others initially wanted to resist, activating the defensive magical artifacts on themselves to form a spiritual energy shield, but it was futile.

Boom~~~

In just one strike, the cyan flame bullets effortlessly pierced through their spiritual energy shield, reaching their bodies and beginning to burn.

The power of the Cyan Lotus Earth Fire exploded, enveloping them entirely.

"Damn the Five Elements Pill Sect, our Great Sun Sword Sect won't let you off."

Wei Tongheng and the others couldn't help but scream in agony, utterly mistaking Jiang Fan as a cultivator from the Five Elements Pill Sect, as it was inconceivable for anyone else to wield a Heaven and Earth Anomalous Fire.

But no matter how they screamed, it was to no avail.

In just the time it takes for a breath, they were burned alive by the Cyan Lotus Earth Fire.

Their entire bodies reduced to ashes.

Even the defensive magical artifacts on them couldn't withstand it, destroyed completely.

This truly demonstrated the formidable power of the Cyan Lotus Earth Fire, unquestionably exceptional.

"The Cyan Lotus Earth Fire Talisman doesn't disappoint, its power is indeed strong enough."

"If not for insufficient spiritual power within, it could even contend with the Foundation Establishment through the talisman's power."

Jiang Fan could feel the strength of the Cyan Lotus Earth Fire Talisman, and for this reason, despite cultivating for so long, he couldn't elevate the skill level of the Cyan Lotus Earth Fire Talisman, remaining at the Beginner level.

To advance to the Proficient Level, just being at the seventh-layer Qi cultivation wouldn't suffice.

But regardless, these five sword cultivators of the Great Sun Sword Sect were slain by his hand.

Even their bodies were incinerated, leaving no remains.

"Yet, continuing to sell Detoxification Talismans seems an unlikely endeavor."

Jiang Fan felt helpless.

Earning money in the cultivation realm was exceedingly difficult.

If income was too low, it wouldn't satisfy his cultivation needs.

But if he earned too much, it could draw envy from other cultivators, even inviting disaster.

Such was the case now.

He had made over twenty thousand spirit stones in one go, attracting even sect cultivators.

Fortunately, he hadn't sold anything in the Cyan Forest Market; otherwise, he wouldn't have managed to leave.

In contrast, the black market in the shantytown, frequented by loose cultivators, made it easier to escape.

Only by blending in and making as much as other loose cultivators could he avoid attracting undue attention.

But if he wished to advance further and hasten his cultivation, making money was indispensable.

"It's not impossible to continue selling talismans."

"But after taking down these Great Sun Sword Sect cultivators, it may be impossible to continue selling for a while."

"Even entering the Cyan Forest Market to purchase elixirs is temporarily off the table."

Jiang Fan's eyes flashed with coldness.

After all, buying too many treasures would surely draw the attention of the Great Sun Sword Sect.

Could an ordinary loose cultivator afford such a vast number of treasures and elixirs?

But it didn't matter.

As long as he kept a low profile for a while, that would suffice.

With the continued unfolding of the Nascent Soul Cave Mansion incident, the Great Sun Sword Sect couldn't pursue him indefinitely.

Whoosh!

With this thought, Jiang Fan waved his hand, immediately collecting all five storage bags from the ground.

Along with the five flying swords.

After all, the thief leaves nothing behind.

Not a single treasure could be left.

In the blink of an eye, Jiang Fan used the power of the Light Body Talisman, concealing his aura, and swiftly vanished from the scene without a trace.

...

Soon after Jiang Fan left, some loose cultivators also followed up.

Because it wasn't just those five Great Sun Sword Sect cultivators tracking Jiang Fan, other loose cultivators did too.

Only, those five Great Sun Sword Sect cultivators were the fastest, snatching the advantage.

Regrettably, it wasn't a chance for wealth but a death trap.

"No way, did those five Great Sun Sword Sect disciples really get killed by that mysterious Talisman Master?"

"Unbelievably strong, I recognize one of them, it's Wei Tongheng, an inner sect disciple of the Great Sun Sword Sect, a formidable sword cultivator in the eighth-layer Qi cultivation, and he still got taken down."

"Who is this mysterious Talisman Master to dare kill sect cultivators, so brazen, isn't he afraid of angering the Great Sun Sword Sect and being hunted by the Golden Core Sect?"

"Fool, didn't you sense the anomalous fire aura permeating around us? Outside of the Five Elements Pill Sect, who can wield a Heaven and Earth Spirit Fire? So this mysterious Talisman Master is likely a Five Elements Pill Sect cultivator. It's a titanic clash among Golden Core Sect, dog eat dog. We were lucky not to charge in, or it would have been a dead end for us too."

"No way, I thought the Five Elements Pill Sect and the Great Sun Sword Sect had long made peace? How could they engage in battle again?"

"Heh, with so many friends and family dead, can they really make peace overnight? Outwardly they might appear harmonious, but who knows how many fierce battles are hidden beneath."

"Damn, we've gotten ourselves mixed into a conspiracy, let's run, or we'll be caught in the crossfire, this isn't the kind of trouble we loose cultivators can meddle in."

The faces of many loose cultivators changed dramatically.

They realized the complexity of the situation, which was not something they could provoke.

It was very likely a conspiracy.
