Chapter 207: Escaping Cyan Forest Market, Surviving a Life-and-Death Calamity

"Not clear."

"But this group of loose cultivators looks all disheveled."

"There's no doubt that something must have happened in the shantytown."

Su Weiwei also felt that a big problem had occurred at Cyan Forest Market, otherwise, how could these loose cultivators leave the shantytown and return to this Nameless Valley?

Her face was very solemn.

Because when immortals fight, mortals suffer.

If there's an issue at Cyan Forest Market, loose cultivators are definitely the first to suffer.

Loose cultivators are also the ones with the least ability to handle risks.

"Don't worry, we'll find out once they come over."

"We'll soon know what's happened."

Jiang Fan said in a deep voice.

His heart stirred, and he activated the Life Talisman on him—the Fortune-Telling Talisman.

Suddenly, this talisman emitted golden light, and the Primordial Spiritual Power within him was rapidly consumed.

It seemed that an invisible force was penetrating the void.

Good Fortune!

He only received this message, very simple, but completely sufficient.

Clearly, the arrival of this group of loose cultivators was in some way beneficial to him.

It's just unclear exactly why it's beneficial.

Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh!!!

At this point, a group of loose cultivators arrived in the Nameless Valley, and they began to set up camp, their actions very skilled.

At this moment, Fan Wei and his family also came to Jiang Fan's house.

"Fellow Daoist Fan, why did you guys come here? Did something happen in the shantytown?"

Jiang Fan went out to meet them and asked directly.

"Ah, indeed a major issue has occurred."

"Fellow Daoist Jiang, you wouldn't know, but seven or eight days ago, numerous Golden Core Sects joined forces to explore the Nascent Soul Cave Mansion."

"At that time, someone triggered the restriction array on the periphery of the Nascent Soul Cave Mansion, causing a severe earthquake."

"Many sect cultivators were instantly killed in the quake."

"It's said that even the Golden Core Zhenren were injured by this."

"However, perhaps due to its age, the peripheral restriction array was easily broken."

"As a result, a bunch of treasures immediately flew out from inside."

"To seize these treasures, cultivators from the Golden Core Sects like the Great Sun Sword Sect started fierce combat."

"Their actions affected us loose cultivators."

"The shantytown, which was newly built not long ago, was fought to ruins, and it seems even Cyan Forest Market was destroyed."

"Us loose cultivators had to leave the shantytown to escape the disaster."

"Never thought we'd end up circling back to here."

Fan Wei spoke with much helplessness.

Originally, he thought he could peacefully cultivate at Cyan Forest Market.

Not thinking of becoming Foundation Establishment in the future, but at least reaching late-stage Qi Cultivation.

Who could have foreseen, the situation changed too fast.

Leaving no way for loose cultivators to survive.

"Are you planning to settle here temporarily?"

Jiang Fan inquired.

"No, we don't plan to stay here."

"Because the Nascent Soul Cave Mansion has only been developed at its outer area."

"The true core area hasn't been developed yet."

"Once the core area appears, even Golden Core Zhenren may step in."

"At that time, an unprecedented war will definitely erupt."

"The scale of such a war could surpass the previous wars between the two Golden Core Sects."

"After all, this time involves far too many Golden Core Zhenren."

"And that's why, led by Fellow Daoist Wu Feng, we plan to travel thousands of miles to Yunlai City."

Fan Wei said in a deep voice.

Originally, he didn't want to take risks.

But ever since witnessing the war of the Golden Core Sects, he immediately realized staying here is a dead end.

So to survive, he had to take his family and flee.

"You plan to head to Yunlai City?"

"If it's just that, you shouldn't take such risks."

"After all, this journey is extremely dangerous."

Jiang Fan felt that something must have happened to force these life-loving loose cultivators to make such a choice.

"Fellow Daoist Jiang, you are indeed insightful."

"Initially, I thought the war wouldn't affect us loose cultivators."

"But I was wrong, very wrong."

"To increase their chances of winning, those Golden Core Sects started forcing us to join the cultivator armies."

"If you don't join, you'd be considered their enemies, a dead end."

"But joining is also extremely dangerous."

"We don't want to serve as their sacrifices."

"So many loose cultivators have scattered, choosing to flee."

"Staying in this Nameless Valley is useless, once they find us, they'll still capture us for forced conscription."

"And that's why our only option left is to head to Yunlai City."

Fan Wei spoke very helplessly.

If they could, who would want to take such risks?

But now, being pressured by the major Golden Core Sects to this extent, even if they don't want to run, they have no choice.

"Right, Fellow Daoist Jiang, you should leave with us too."

"If you stay here, sooner or later you will be captured by the Great Sun Sword Sect for forced conscription."

Li Zhou also spoke up.

She felt that if this mysterious family cultivator also left with them, their journey would surely be much safer.

After all, strength in numbers.

Though there are many demons and demon beasts along the way, if there are enough cultivators, traversing thousands of miles is not impossible.

"Do you have a map to Yunlai City?"

Jiang Fan inquired.

After all, with the Ten Thousand Beasts Mountain Range so vast, without a precise map, it's quite easy to get lost.
