Chapter 224: Advancement to the Ninth-Layer Qi Cultivation, The Three Stages of Foundation Establishment

Boom~~

At this moment, Jiang Fan suddenly felt enlightened, realizing that his opportunity to advance to the Ninth-Layer Qi Cultivation had arrived.

The Primordial Spiritual Power deep within him suddenly became violent, launching an assault on the ninth meridian.

Thud!

With just one impact, the bottleneck of the ninth meridian was instantly broken through.

As if it were a matter of course.

A large amount of Primordial Spiritual Power surged towards the ninth meridian.

Ninth-Layer Qi Cultivation!

Without a doubt, at this moment, Jiang Fan finally ascended to the Ninth-Layer Qi Cultivation Realm.

He sensed that after advancing to the Ninth-Layer Qi Cultivation, his nine meridians had expanded significantly, able to contain more Primordial Spiritual Power compared to before.

At least an increase of one-half compared to before.

The mist-like Primordial Spiritual Power flowed through the nine meridians.

Like nine gaseous long rivers, it surged and roared, vast and mighty.

The Primordial Talisman deep in the Elixir Field and Sea of Qi had also enlarged considerably.

Now, he could engrave the ninth Life Talisman.

"Is this the Ninth-Layer Qi Cultivation?"

Jiang Fan operated the Mixed Element Talisman Scripture, letting the Primordial Spiritual Power flow through his meridians circle after circle.

Once the nine meridians are connected, allowing them to flow freely among each other, it would achieve Qi Cultivation Perfection.

Then he could attempt to break through, to ascend to the Foundation Establishment Realm.

This is also a realm of Fish Leaping the Dragon Gate.

Countless loose cultivators are stuck at this step, unable to break through.

"Next, it's time to engrave the ninth Life Talisman."

"Previously, I've engraved eight Life Talismans."

"Among them are talismans for defense, control, and attack."

"But there is still one type of talisman missing."

"That is a soul type talisman."

Jiang Fan squinted.

It's clear that for a cultivator, no number of attack methods would ever be too many.

Cyan Lotus Earth Fire Talisman and Golden Light Talisman are considered attack-type talismans.

But from a certain perspective, they actually belong to the Elemental Class talismans.

The enemy also has corresponding methods to defend against them.

However, soul-type talismans are different, capable of penetrating ordinary Protective Talismans completely.

Directly attacking the enemy's soul.

Such attacks are extremely covert, yet highly lethal.

More importantly, these types of talismans are very suitable for Jiang Fan.

For Jiang Fan, his strongest talent is not his Spirit Root, but his Soul Talent.

Because he has traversed from the Otherworld.

A soul of two lifetimes.

This has also led to his soul power being extremely strong, several times greater than cultivators of the same level.

If he can fully develop it, it would certainly be a trump card for him.

"In that case, the ninth talisman will be the Soul-Shaking Talisman."

Jiang Fan immediately made up his mind.

This is a soul-type talisman.

Once executed, it will inflict tremendous damage to the enemy's soul.

Like a Soul Shock.

The stronger the soul power, the more powerful this talisman becomes.

This seems like a naturally suited Life Talisman for him.

Rumble~~

Thinking this, Jiang Fan wasted no time, starting to operate the Mixed Element Talisman Scripture, engraving the Soul-Shaking Talisman.

At the same time, he actually consumed two thousand Luck Points.

At this moment, he immediately entered a state of enlightenment.

The Primordial Talisman deep in the Elixir Field and Sea of Qi began to rotate.

Its surface also showed spiritual power lines, merging into the sphere's surface.

Even the slightest mistake could lead to failure.

However, under the power of destiny, he would not make any mistakes.

Thud!

No one knows how much time has passed, the Soul-Shaking Talisman was immediately engraved on the Primordial Talisman.

Faintly, the talisman seemed to be able to mobilize all soul power deep in Jiang Fan's sea of consciousness.

Emitting a soft golden glow.

"The ninth Life Talisman is finally complete."

Jiang Fan couldn't help but show genuine joy, sensing nine Life Talismans appearing on his Primordial Talisman, making the talisman quite large.

It also contains a significant amount of Primordial Spiritual Power.

It seems like with just a slight activation, it could unleash astonishing power.

Especially the Soul-Shaking Talisman, even at a Beginner level, merely operating it seems to release strong soul waves, leaving enemies dizzy.

It could even directly shatter the enemy's soul, leading to their demise.

"Tsk tsk, I didn't expect you kid to advance to the Ninth-Layer Qi Cultivation Realm so quickly."

"It's no wonder you possess Earth Spirit Root Talent."

"Much stronger than my previous master."

"If Daoist Wan Hua had your talent back then, he wouldn't have had such a tough path."

"Becoming a Divinity Transformation Cultivator might not be an impossible task."

The Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace also sensed Jiang Fan's condition, speaking with much emotion.

It felt that Jiang Fan's foundation was laid very solidly.

Even the true disciples of the Nascent Soul Sect are no better than this.

Who would believe this guy is just a loose cultivator?

"Based on my current situation, I wonder when I can advance to the Foundation Establishment?"

Hearing this, Jiang Fan was moved, asking aloud.

He knew the Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace had previously followed Daoist Wan Hua, who was a Nascent Soul Cultivator.

It was likely quite knowledgeable about the Foundation Establishment Realm.

So in a sense, the Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace is a wise master.

Perhaps it could help solve many cultivation-related doubts.

"Successfully advancing to the Foundation Establishment Realm is actually very simple."

"It requires three transformations."
