Chapter 226: Strike First to Gain the Upper Hand, Assassinate Wu Family Cultivator

"You even know such detailed things?"

Quite a few loose cultivators were dumbfounded.

Normally, this should be strictly confidential information of the Wu Family, impossible for outsiders to know.

But unexpectedly, someone had already leaked it.

"There are no walls that don't let the wind through."

"I happen to have a brother working for the Wu Family."

"That afternoon, Wu Feng and Wu Hui harbored malicious intent, trying to kill for wealth, so they ordered my brother to monitor that mysterious loose cultivator's movements."

"That's how I came to know the ins and outs of this affair."

The cultivator said smugly.

He knew the details purely by coincidence.

Who would have thought his brother was working for the Wu Family at the right time?

"Shit, those two bastards deserved to die, clearly wanting to kill for wealth and murder for treasure, but ended up being killed instead. Now the Wu Family still wants revenge, is there any shame left?"

Someone cursed angrily, thinking that mysterious cultivator did the right thing.

Clearly, it was Wu Feng and the others' fault.

If they hadn't had malicious thoughts, how could they have been killed and died an unnatural death?

Now they still want revenge, it's shameless to the extreme.

"Heh heh, the Wu Family has always acted extremely domineering."

"They can harm others, but no one can kill a Wu Family cultivator; it's extremely hypocritical."

"In fact, over the years, are there few loose cultivators harmed by the Wu Family?"

"Countless loose cultivators have died at the hands of Wu Family cultivators."

"The bandit Wu Family is already notorious in Yunlai City."

"Any loose cultivator with a bit of wealth wouldn't go to a Wu Family shop to buy things."

"Fearful of being targeted by Wu Family cultivators and thus dying an unnatural death."

"Most likely, only some newly arrived loose cultivators to Yunlai City, unaware of the Wu Family's reputation, would buy from a Wu Family shop."

"But we have no choice, as the Wu Family has a Foundation Establishment backing them."

"Heh heh, it's said that Foundation Establishment is quite old; if he were to fall, the Wu Family might be completely doomed."

"That's why the Wu Family acts so crazily, biting anyone they see, afraid others will see through their weakness."

"Yeah, the beast before death is the most terrifying, no one wants to provoke such a Wu Family."

Many loose cultivators gnashed their teeth.

Clearly, they were also very dissatisfied with the Wu Family, and many loose cultivators suffered great losses at the hands of Wu Family cultivators.

Some people's friends and family even died at the hands of Wu Family cultivators, leaving them with no recourse.

But the Wu Family is a Foundation Establishment Clan, and loose cultivators can only endure it, helpless.

Seeing their misfortune now, though, everyone clapped and cheered.

They even wanted to see the Wu Family's annihilation.

If so, there would be one less Foundation Establishment Clan oppressing loose cultivators.

"Honestly, if it were only about searching for criminals, that would be one thing, but those Wu Family cultivators are even worse; they exploit the opportunity to extort us loose cultivators in the name of hunting down criminals."

"If you don't pay up, they'll say you're an accomplice and may even directly arrest you and give you a beating."

"If you dare to resist, you might even die an unnatural death."

A loose cultivator said worriedly.

Actually, some loose cultivators have already fallen victim to Wu Family cultivators.

This matter was unrelated to them at first.

But Wu Family cultivators used this as an excuse to begin extorting loose cultivators.

If you dared to resist, you'd definitely be beaten, or even killed.

"The Wu Family is just too domineering."

"Relying on being a Foundation Establishment Clan, do they really think they can do whatever they want?"

"If the Wu Family's Foundation Establishment dies, I'd like to see if they can still be so arrogant."

"Sigh, for now, we have no choice but to endure."

"Yeah, we still can't afford to provoke the Wu Family."

"For now, let's leave the shantytown, enter the Ten Thousand Beasts Mountain Range, and hide for a while."

Many loose cultivators discussed among themselves, feeling very helpless.

Without a doubt, during this time, the Wu Family will go crazy capturing criminals.

Loose cultivators in the shantytown will suffer as a result.

But against the Wu Family's madness, they had no way, and could only silently endure.

.....

At this moment, in Jiang Fan's home.

Now he also knew what was happening outside.

But he didn't expect the Wu Family to be so crazy and make such a big fuss.

It's estimated that the deaths of Wu Feng and Wu Hui completely hit the Wu Family's sore spot, driving them mad.

The Wu Family's actions also plunged the entire shantytown into further chaos.

As for the other Foundation Establishment Clans in Yunlai City, they completely ignored such things.

After all, it's just a shantytown.

Not the internal area of Yunlai City.

So no matter how chaotic it gets, it couldn't possibly affect them.

The Wu Family may look crazy, but they know whom they can provoke and whom they can't.

They still have some sense in their actions.

Thus, what the Wu Family is doing has not aroused opposition from other Foundation Establishment Clans.

"Although my identity hasn't been exposed, with Wu Family cultivators acting so crazily, they'll come knocking sooner or later."

"If this goes on, it's possible the Wu Family will indeed find my whereabouts."

"I must find a way to make the Wu Family mess up their own plans."

"I absolutely cannot let the Wu Family do whatever they want in the shantytown."

Jiang Fan's eyes glinted with a cold light.

He instinctively knew that the Wu Family's crazy actions would bring him trouble in the future.

So he had to take precautions.

Anyway, he's already enemies with the Wu Family.
