Chapter 230: Acquiring Centennial Spirit Medicine, Breakthrough in Soaring Snake Technique, Lifespan of 300

It didn't take long for Jiang Fan to arrive at the location of the Seventh-Grade Opportunity.

It was an abandoned wooden house in a slum area.

He gently pushed open the door of the wooden house, finding it empty and covered in dust.

It seemed to have been uninhabited for a long time.

At this moment, following the hint of opportunity, he came to a bedroom in the wooden house.

Then he saw a gray ring lying in the corner of the bedroom.

It was surprisingly a Space Ring.

He was a bit taken aback, wondering who would leave a Space Ring in this place.

However, he also knew that there were many wooden houses in the slum area.

These wooden houses were inhabited by countless Loose Cultivators.

A large number of Loose Cultivators come and go.

It's hard to say whether these Loose Cultivators might meet with accidents in the Ten Thousand Beasts Mountain Range and die untimely deaths.

Therefore, these wooden houses could also be leaving behind the treasures of those Loose Cultivators.

Such things happen from time to time in the slum area and are nothing unusual.

Of course, without the hint of opportunity, he wouldn't have known there was a treasure here.

After all, the houses in the slum area are so simple that most of them couldn't possibly contain any opportunities.

"Is this the Seventh-Grade Opportunity?"

Jiang Fan didn't hesitate and immediately picked up the gray ring.

Soon after, he quickly left the place as if he had never been there.

The Seventh-Grade Opportunity was thus easily obtained.

After returning home, Jiang Fan used his Spiritual Sense to penetrate the Space Ring, checking the treasures inside.

"What's this?"

"It seems to be the Centennial Spirit Medicine, Blood Essence Flame Fruit."

Jiang Fan's eyes immediately lit up.

He saw within the Space Ring a wooden box, inside which was a fist-sized red fruit, burning like a flame and emitting immense heat.

Undoubtedly, this was an extraordinary Spirit Medicine.

"Tsk, tsk, your luck isn't bad, kid."

"This is quite a good Body Tempering Spirit Medicine."

"After consuming it, the whole body gets tempered by the Blood Spirit Fire, similar to Washing Marrow and Cutting Meridians."

"For a Body Cultivator, it's undoubtedly a valuable Spirit Medicine."

"But how did you know there was a treasure in that place, kid?"

The Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace asked in puzzlement.

It always felt as if this kid could foresee things.

Just wandering around, and he could find treasures.

This guy's luck is simply off the charts.

You should know, its previous owner, Daoist Wan Hua, would risk his life and engage in battles with other cultivators to obtain treasures.

But this kid needed not pay much cost, obtaining treasures silently and unscathed. Why is the gap between people so large?

It's really unreasonable.

"I don't know, it's just my intuition."

"I felt there was a treasure there, so I went to search."

Jiang Fan said earnestly.

"This."

The Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace was speechless, not knowing what to say.

But it could only explain it this way.

This kid surely possesses a special physique, probably able to sense the presence of treasures.

Thus, he could easily obtain opportunities one after another.

However, this is also a good thing.

After all, this kid is considered its new master, and the stronger his cultivation, the better.

"Blood Essence Flame Fruit? In this case, perhaps I can cultivate the Soaring Snake Technique to the late stage of the Qi Cultivation Chapter."

Jiang Fan clenched his fists.

Undoubtedly, if he wants to advance to Foundation Establishment, he will surely need to overcome the Physique Barrier.

That is, his body must be very strong to withstand the baptism of the Essence of Heaven and Earth.

He felt his foundation was already very robust.

If the physique wasn't strong enough, it might not withstand it.

Therefore, cultivating the Soaring Snake Technique to the late stage of the Qi Cultivation Chapter was imperative.

Fortunately, he now possessed the Blood Essence Flame Fruit, such a Heaven and Earth Spirit Medicine.

If supplemented with a large amount of Luck Points, he could greatly shorten the time of arduously cultivating the Soaring Snake Technique.

Thinking of this, he did not hesitate, immediately throwing the fruit into the Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace, asking it to help refine and purify the most potent medicinal liquid, removing impurities.

After all, even Spirit Medicine, without removing impurities, would still contain toxins.

Some Spirit Medicine, if not processed, might be harmful to the cultivator's body.

Boom~~

In an instant, the Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace started operating, swiftly refining the Spirit Fruit into drop after drop of red medicinal liquid, extremely hot, like molten lava.

All its impurities had been completely refined by the Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace, leaving only the most pure essence.

Gulp~~

Jiang Fan immediately took a drop of the red medicinal liquid and swallowed it.

He felt as if his throat was flowing with lava, then it passed through the channel into his stomach.

Soon, this drop of medicinal liquid erupted like a volcano.

A strong, violent power suddenly exploded and quickly spread through his whole body.

At this moment, he sensed that his body seemed to be burning in flames, as if the muscles, bones, meridians, and every part were being tempered by fire.

At the same time, this power contained endless vitality.

After the destruction, rebirth quickly followed.

His body was being strengthened bit by bit.

Meanwhile, the Qi and Blood Power in his body visibly increased rapidly.

"Indeed, the Centennial Spirit Medicine, Blood Essence Flame Fruit, has incredibly strong medicinal power."

"Ordinary Loose Cultivators probably can't withstand this intense medicinal power."
