Chapter 248: Divine Power: Emperor's Gaze, 500-Year Lifespan_2

However, for Jiang Fan, who had cultivated the Soaring Snake Technique, overcoming this barrier was as simple as eating or drinking.

His body was simply too powerful.

Like a sturdy cement barrel.

No matter how this energy battered him, it couldn't cause him any harm.

Clang~~ Clang~~ Clang~~~

In an instant, from the depths of the void, a series of bell chimes suddenly rang out, as if striking the sound of Dao.

This also instantly put Jiang Fan into a state of enlightenment.

He seemed to perceive countless truths of the world between heaven and earth.

Vaguely, he seemed to see strands of energy within the world.

The energy of calamity, the energy of fortune, the energy of evil, the energy of darkness, the energy of the emperor...

It was as if the entire heaven, the entire world, was shrouded in strands of energy.

At the same time, these energies intertwined with each other, like threads of causation.

It was these threads of causation that enveloped the entire world, thus forming a web of causation, a web of destiny.

At this moment, countless pieces of information converged together, and suddenly a Seed of Divine Power condensed.

Then this dark golden seed immediately sank into the depths of Jiang Fan's pupils.

This caused Jiang Fan's eyes to emit a dark golden glow, filled with majesty and an unfathomable aura.

As if they had transformed into eyes of mystery.

"Foundation Establishment of Dao Understanding."

"This is Foundation Establishment of Dao Understanding."

"He actually succeeded, this is truly unbelievable."

The Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace hidden deep within Jiang Fan was astonished.

It sensed such a heavenly anomaly and found it incredible.

To be honest, it followed Daoist Wan Hua for a long time.

It had also seen countless geniuses.

Even true disciples of some sects it had seen many.

But Foundation Establishment of Dao Understanding was still something that only appeared in legends.

Even if someone tried to succeed in independent Foundation Establishment, it only established a solid foundation.

The distance from Foundation Establishment of Dao Understanding was still unknown how far.

Because to achieve Foundation Establishment of Dao Understanding, it not only requires immense fortune but also extraordinary comprehension.

But this kid, no matter how you look at him, doesn't seem like someone with exceptionally comprehension.

It can only be said that this guy's fortune is unbelievably deep.

"It worked."

"Foundation Establishment of Dao Understanding was a success."

"He obtained an Innate Divine Technique: Emperor's Gaze."

Jiang Fan suddenly opened his eyes, realizing that compared to before, his eyes had undergone earth-shattering changes.

The depths of his pupils seemed to have densely packed, mysterious runes.

His eyes were no longer ordinary but immortal eyes, godly eyes, containing incredible abilities.

This was the Innate Divine Technique he obtained after Foundation Establishment of Dao Understanding.

And it was also a gift from heaven and earth.

The ability of this Divine Technique is actually very simple; it can see the energies over mountains, rivers, and countless beings, able to see the destiny upon living beings.

It can even see the energies of various treasures and spirit medicines.

If cultivated to a profound level, it could even discern an enemy's weaknesses, predicting the enemy's every move in advance.

One could say this is an extremely powerful auxiliary Divine Technique.

One must know that destiny itself is a vague and elusive force, ordinary cultivators simply cannot see it.

But Emperor's Gaze turns the mundane into the miraculous, allowing one to see the various energies upon beings, to see the fortune or misfortune upon them, it's truly marvelous beyond compare.

"With this Divine Technique, I can observe the destiny of the world."

"Even able to observe the fortune upon various opportunities."

"This is simply the Immortal Eye."

Jiang Fan was filled with joy, he had never expected to gain such great benefits.

It can only be said, no wonder it is Foundation Establishment of Dao Understanding.

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan's heart stirred, and he immediately opened his Virtual Panel.

[Name: Jiang Fan]

[Life Chart: Great Blessings Equal to Heaven, Attribute: Great Danger and Surviving, There Will Be Blessings After]

[Realm: First-Layer Foundation Establishment (1%)]

Immediately, a series of data clearly presented themselves before him.

"My lifespan actually reached five hundred years?"

"Compared to before, it increased by as much as two hundred years?"

"Ascending to the Foundation Establishment Realm is indeed a huge breakthrough."

Jiang Fan was overjoyed.

He noticed that his life force was indeed much stronger than before.

He did not expect his lifespan to reach as much as five hundred years.

After all, the lifespan of a Golden Core cultivator is just five hundred years.

He's comparable to a Golden Core cultivator while at the Foundation Establishment stage.

Even if he has low-grade spiritual root talent, if he cultivates diligently for five hundred years, becoming a Golden Core Zhenren should not be a problem.

Not to mention he has Earth Spirit Root talent.

His wealth also increased to 120,000 Spirit Stones, increasing by 20,000 Spirit Stones compared to before.

This was mostly contributed by the Five Evils of Yunlai City last time.

He managed to earn a small fortune.

"Right, I only obtained the Qi Cultivation Chapter of the Mixed Element Talisman Scripture."

"If I want the Foundation Establishment Chapter, it's still necessary to awaken the Primordial Talisman Pen."

"Perhaps now is the opportunity to refine the Primordial Talisman Pen."

At this moment, Jiang Fan thought of this.

Although he indeed obtained the Primordial Talisman Pen and received its trust, without complete refinement, the Primordial Talisman Pen could run away at any moment.

Only by complete refinement, binding it entirely, would it be safe.

"Right, it should be possible to refine it."

"Just spending 10,000 Luck Points will do it."

Jiang Fan's heart moved.

He was immensely pleased; if he completely refined the Primordial Talisman Pen, not only would he gain the full inheritance of the Primordial Talisman Sect, but also the assistance of this Top-grade Spiritual Treasure.

This is a treasure not inferior to the Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace, containing endless mysteries.

Initially, he was unable to refine the Primordial Talisman Pen.

But now, with his ascension to the Foundation Establishment realm and the assistance of Luck Points, refining the Primordial Talisman Pen became possible.

"You're truly talented beyond measure."

"Even without the Foundation Establishment Pill, you managed independent Foundation Establishment."

"And it's Foundation Establishment of Dao Understanding."

"As long as you don't die, you're destined to become a Nascent Soul Cultivator. Achieving Divinity Transformation isn't impossible either."

At this moment, the Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace was astonished, sensing that Jiang Fan's aura had completely stabilized.

Clearly, he had fully ascended to the Foundation Establishment realm.

There was no possibility of his cultivation regressing.

It had heard that every cultivator who achieved Foundation Establishment of Dao Understanding was essentially a genius, a child of destiny.

As long as they didn't fall mid-way, they were bound to become a Nascent Soul.

If it were the Ancient Era, achieving Divinity Transformation would be certain.

Unfortunately, in this era, spiritual qi is much thinner, and the resources cannot compare to the Ancient Times of the cultivation realm.

Therefore, the probability of achieving Divinity Transformation has greatly decreased.

However, even so, becoming a Nascent Soul cultivator is still not an issue.

"Child's play."

"I'd already said I'd succeed in Foundation Establishment no matter what."

"No Foundation Establishment Pill needed at all."

Jiang Fan smiled slightly.

His heart stirred, activating the Primordial Spiritual Power within, seemingly resonating with heaven and earth.

An intangible force supported his body, allowing him to float.

Standing in the void, flying through the air.

This is the symbol of a Foundation Establishment cultivator.

A realm countless cultivators dream of, yet Jiang Fan achieved it quietly.

If this news spread, it would surely shake the entire Yunlai City.

After all, even Foundation Establishment cultivators within Yunlai City number only around ten to twenty.

They are already ancestors capable of establishing a family.

As long as they don't provoke a Golden Core Zhenren, they can leisurely enjoy over two hundred years.

"This."

The Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace was speechless; it was completely convinced.

Compared to Daoist Wan Hua, this kid's talent and destiny were much stronger.

The two aren't in the same league at all.

If this kid doesn't fall midway, his achievements might surpass Daoist Wan Hua.

It thought this was indeed a good thing.

Following such a promising cultivator, maybe its own future also holds further advancement opportunities.
