Chapter 255: Promoted to Tier Two Rune Master, The Calamity of the Shantytown

That same night.

Jiang Fan and Su Weiwei divided up this Tier Two Black-Scaled Beast and obtained a large amount of Tier Two materials, as well as two to three tons of Tier Two Demon Beast Meat.

Without a doubt, just the corpse of this Tier Two Demon Beast is quite valuable.

If it were to be sold, who knows how many Spirit Stones it would be worth.

Of course, he wouldn't sell it off.

After all, this Tier Two Demon Beast Meat is something that even Spirit Stones might not be able to buy.

If consumed long-term, it brings tremendous benefits to the body and can also rapidly increase spiritual power cultivation.

"Husband, this truly deserves to be Tier Two Demon Beast Meat, it's incredibly delicious."

Su Weiwei roasted this demon beast meat and ate it. She felt it melt in her mouth with a wonderfully exquisite taste that couldn't be compared to the Tier One Demon Beast Meat she had before.

Moreover, this Tier Two Demon Beast Meat contains vast energy.

Once in the stomach, it immediately transforms into a powerful warmth that floods into every corner of the body.

This also makes her body feel warm, and her inner spiritual power increases significantly.

"It's not just about being delicious."

"The benefits for cultivators are undeniable."

"Especially for Body Cultivators, it's practically equivalent to those Body Tempering Elixirs."

Jiang Fan sensed that after eating this Tier Two Demon Beast Meat, his whole body felt warm as if every corner of his body was being tempered, continuously enhancing his physical strength.

If he continues to eat it, he feels he could soon become a Tier Two Body Cultivator.

Then he could cultivate the Foundation Establishment Chapter of the Soaring Snake Technique.

Afterward, his lifespan would undoubtedly increase again.

"Husband, I feel like my body is getting very hot."

Not long after eating the demon beast meat, Su Weiwei felt her cheeks turn rosy, her body flushed with a heat that seemed to run wild all over, causing her body temperature to rise.

Her beautiful eyes were filled with endless allure, and her body, like a seductive snake, wrapped around Jiang Fan's, unreservedly revealing her enchanting figure, truly mesmerizing.

Smelling the fragrance emanating from his Dao Companion, Jiang Fan could no longer hold back.

Soon, the cave residence resounded with delightful sounds, seemingly unable to cease for a while.

.....

In the blink of an eye, more than ten days passed.

During this time, the Nameless Valley remained calm and quiet.

Jiang Fan and Su Weiwei did not leave, choosing to stay here to cultivate.

Obviously, with the Tier Two Demon Beast Meat and some elixirs acquired, Su Weiwei's cultivation made rapid progress, suddenly advancing to the Seventh-Layer Qi Cultivation Realm, naturally a step up.

After all, Su Weiwei's talent was already top-notch, not only possessing top-grade spirit root talent but also having a special constitution, coupled with abundant resources, her speed of improvement was exceptionally fast.

Of course, Jiang Fan's progress was also impressive.

Not only did he consolidate his First-Layer Foundation Establishment Realm.

He also expended a vast number of Luck Points to elevate his Talisman Master Realm to a Tier Two level.

Which means, he is now already a Tier Two Rune Master.

"Is this the Tier Two Talisman?"

At this moment, Jiang Fan personally crafted seven or eight Tier Two Lower-grade Talismans.

Each one was extremely perfect, containing tremendous power.

The power of Tier Two Talismans is far stronger compared to Tier One Talismans.

Of course, the patterns of the talismans are also more complex.

In the Cultivation Realm, Tier One Talisman Masters are many, but Tier Two Rune Masters are rare.

Even Foundation Establishment Cultivators cannot confidently claim that they will become a Tier Two Rune Master.

Without sufficient accumulation and insight, it's impossible to become a Tier Two Rune Master or master the craft of refining Tier Two Talismans.

"If Tier One Talismans only consume the spiritual power left within them, then Tier Two Talismans can easily invoke the Power of Heaven and Earth, multiplying their power several times over."

"This is already somewhat akin to the prototype of an array."

"Once a Tier Two Talisman is activated, it can invoke the Power of Heaven and Earth, unleashing incredible power."

"Because of this, Tier Two Talismans are extremely valuable."

"A single Tier Two Talisman could be worth thousands of Spirit Stones, and yet still be in demand."

Jiang Fan touched his chin.

He thinks that in the future, he might not lack Spirit Stones anymore.

If there's ever a shortage of Spirit Stones, he could simply draw some Tier Two Talismans and definitely earn a substantial amount of Spirit Stones.

In terms of money-making ability, Tier Two Rune Masters naturally cannot compare to Tier Two Alchemists.

But the Rune Master's cost is very low.

Unlike alchemists, although Tier Two Elixirs are indeed valuable, there's a high rate of failure.

If it fails, then it's completely destroyed.

In contrast, the cost for Tier Two Rune Masters is much lower and the success rate is higher.

Because of this, Tier Two Rune Masters can accumulate more wealth than Tier Two Alchemists.

At this moment, Jiang Fan's heart stirred, and he opened his Virtual Panel.
