

Fortune 262

Chapter 262: Obtaining a Sixth-Grade Opportunity, Safely Crossing the Tribulation_2

Even a streak of bad luck.

With this, many choices made by the Wu Family would be met with the backlash of destiny.

So there was no need for Jiang Fan to take action personally; the Wu Family would naturally be destroyed by disaster.

The path of destiny is indeed profound.

Boom~~

At that moment, a message swiftly entered the depths of Jiang Fan's consciousness: "You are located in the turbulent Yunlai City; act low-key, observe the rising and falling of clouds, safely pass through a life-and-death calamity, and acquire ten thousand Luck Points and a Sixth-Grade Opportunity."

What?!

Upon sensing this message, Jiang Fan couldn't help but clench his fist, filled with immense joy.

He hadn't done anything, just stayed peacefully at home, yet he passed the calamity and received such great benefits. It was truly unbelievable.

No wonder the Fortune-Telling Talisman indicated that entering Yunlai City was a minor blessing for him.

It seems this place indeed is his Land of Blessings.

Whether it's ten thousand Luck Points or a Sixth-Grade Opportunity, both are enormous benefits.

One wouldn't know how many calamities it would take to receive such advantages.

Yet now, they were obtained effortlessly.

"But what exactly is a Sixth-Grade Opportunity?"

Jiang Fan was very curious and gently clicked on the light representing opportunity.

Immediately, another message swiftly entered his consciousness: "Proceed immediately to a residence in the Outer City District of Yunlai City, kill the remnants of the Wu Family, and you will obtain the Sixth-Grade Opportunity."

Kill the Wu Family remnants?!

Upon sensing this message, Jiang Fan immediately understood what the Sixth-Grade Opportunity meant; his Sixth-Grade Opportunity must have fallen onto the Wu Family's remnants.

After all, as a Foundation Establishment Clan, even a rotten ship has three nails; who knows how much good stuff they have hidden over the years?

Although this time they were pacified by Yunlai City, the entire clan exterminated, and many Wu Family Elders died.

But given how vast the Wu Family is, there must be some clansmen who managed to escape.

For a Foundation Establishment Clan, completely eradicating them is almost impossible.

If those clansmen manage to escape with their property, they will have the opportunity to rise again sooner or later.

It's even possible that in the future, the Wu Family might produce another Foundation Establishment Cultivator and once again become a Foundation Establishment Clan.

"In that case, it's time for revenge."

Murderous intent emanated from Jiang Fan.

On the surface, it seemed like he didn't have much hatred towards the Wu Family.

But in fact, if he hadn't been cautious enough, he would have been hunted by the Wu Family with no way to escape.

How would he have survived to the present, steadily cultivating to Foundation Establishment?

If one doesn't seize the opportunity to strike against the fallen Wu Family, then when?

Moreover, for a sinful Foundation Establishment Clan like the Wu Family, anything done to them would be justified.

Whoosh!

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan didn't hesitate; his figure flickered and he instantly left the place.

He advanced rapidly according to the direction indicated by the Sixth-Grade Opportunity.

.....

At this moment, in a residence in the Outer City District of Yunlai City.

This is where the remnants of the Wu Family are located.

Last night, the Wu Family faced a surprise attack from numerous Foundation Establishments in Yunlai City, and were nearly completely wiped out.

But a few elite members of the Wu Family managed to escape.

Especially Elder Wu Shaojun of the Wu Family, a cultivator at the Ninth-Layer Qi Cultivation level, and only forty-five years old.

At such an age, he had great hope for ascending to Foundation Establishment in the future.

In fact, he was considered the Wu Family's Foundation Establishment Seed.

When the Wu Family was on the verge of annihilation, many Wu Family Elders were willing to sacrifice themselves to find him a way to break through.

"Alas, one wrong step, every step is wrong."

"Who would have thought our Wu Family would fall to this extent."

"In the blink of an eye, we've fallen from a Foundation Establishment Clan to a bunch of stray dogs."

"If I can escape this time and succeed in advancing to Foundation Establishment, I, Wu Shaojun, will surely avenge this hatred."

Elder Wu Shaojun of the Wu Family clenched his fist, filled with intense hatred.

He had endless resentment towards Miao Heyan.

If it weren't for this person, how could the Wu Family have ended up like this, with the entire clan almost being exterminated?

Countless friends and relatives died tragically.

It's an unprecedented loss.

"Alas, why was this incident suddenly exposed? Clearly, we hadn't even taken action, yet Miao Heyan found out. Why is this?"

"Do we even need to ask? Among so many clans, surely there's a traitor who leaked our plans, which provoked Miao Heyan to come and catch us all in one go."

"Damn, which bastard was the traitor who leaked our plan? If I find out, I'll tear them to shreds."

"There's no use discussing this now. Even if we know who the traitor is, it doesn't change the fact that we're being hunted by Miao Heyan and his men. If we don't escape, we're as good as dead."

"Right, what's most important for us now is to survive. The Wu Family mustn't be destroyed by our hands."

The Wu Family cultivators were discussing it among themselves.

They were considered the surviving elite of the Wu Family.

Though other parts had branch family members surviving, these branch factions weren't talented and hadn't inherited the Wu Family's fortune, making a rise unlikely.

It was these main lineage members surviving that gave hope for the Wu Family to rise again.

Especially Wu Shaojun.

He was not only a cultivator at the Ninth-Layer Qi Cultivation level, but also had a Foundation Establishment Pill gifted by Daoist Fei Lian.

If he could find a suitable place for seclusion, he might successfully establish the Foundation and become a Foundation Establishment Cultivator.

This way, the Wu Family could rise again, still being a Foundation Establishment Clan.

"Don't worry."

"The most dangerous place is actually the safest place."

"We're currently hiding in the Outer City District of Yunlai City, disguised as ordinary Loose Cultivators."

"Unless Miao Heyan and his group conduct a carpet search, examining each Loose Cultivator."

"Otherwise, finding us would be nearly impossible."

"As long as we remain united, we'll eventually have a chance for a comeback."

Wu Shaojun reassured them.

At this critical moment, he encouraged his clansmen.

If this motivation dissipated, the Wu Family would be utterly finished.

These clansmen were the core for rebuilding the Wu Family in the future.

In fact, the Wu Family had considered that, someday, they might face an existential crisis.

Therefore, they had prepared methods for escape in advance.

"Elder Wu is right; we're temporarily safe."

"Even after annihilating several Foundation Establishment Clans, Miao Heyan and his team aren't in good shape either."

"Yes, when we retaliated desperately, we eliminated a few Foundation Establishments, and Miao Heyan was severely injured. It's unlikely they'll act hastily any time soon."

"Indeed, their main opponent is still Daoist Fei Lian. If they act rashly, Daoist Fei Lian might seize the opportunity to invade Yunlai City."

Everyone nodded in agreement.

They believed they were relatively safe for the time being.

Currently, Miao Heyan and his group didn't have time to search for the Wu Family's remnants.

They were busy dealing with the aftermath in Yunlai City.

After all, who knew if there were other traitors hiding in Yunlai City?

Whoosh!

At that moment, a figure silently appeared in front of the Wu Family cultivators.

"Who goes there?"

Suddenly, Wu Shaojun's hair stood on end, sensing a vast life-and-death crisis, and he couldn't help but shout.

He saw an unfamiliar cultivator sneaking in.

Moreover, they hadn't noticed anything before, which was perplexing.

If this person belonged to Miao Heyan's group, then they were completely doomed.

"Naturally, someone here to kill you."

"Hmm, there are fifteen Wu Family cultivators in total."

"It seems all the main lineage remnants are here; might as well send you all on your way together."

The newcomer was naturally Jiang Fan, whose Spiritual Sense lightly scanned the entire residence.

Clearly, not many Wu Family remnants had escaped.

Including Wu Shaojun, there were only fifteen.

But they were all elite, with cultivation mostly in the late-stage Qi Cultivation.

If they managed to escape, they might rise again in the future.

What?!

Wu Shaojun and the others were shocked and angry, their hair standing on end, and they were ready to attack the uninvited guest.

Even though they didn't know the person's identity or background, this mysterious cultivator before them must be an enemy.

Soul-Shaking Talisman!

In an instant, Jiang Fan's thought moved, immediately activating the power of the Soul-Shaking Talisman.

He didn't intend to give the Wu Family remnants any chance to counterattack.
