

Fortune 263

Chapter 263: Breakthrough of the Soaring Snake Technique, Fostering Bloodline Divine Techniques:
Palm Wind

After advancing to the Foundation Establishment Realm, the power of the Soul-Shaking Talisman increased exponentially.

Especially when unleashed by Jiang Fan, its power is even more terrifying.

A terrifying wave of soul power swept across, silent and invisible, as though ripples appeared in the air.

Moreover, the speed was unbelievably fast.

In a single thought, it could strike this group of Wu Family cultivators.

This is the unique ability of the Soul-Shaking Talisman.

Massive power, secretive in its execution, and completely silent.

It is truly an assassination masterstroke.

Especially when wielded by a cultivator like Jiang Fan, born with a strong soul, it adds wings to a tiger.

Rumble~~

Wu Shaojun and the other Wu Family cultivators didn't know what happened; they never expected to suffer an assassination by a Foundation Establishment cultivator, such a run of bad luck.

They were merely Qi Cultivation Stage cultivators, yet ambushed by a Foundation Establishment cultivator. How could they deserve such a fate?

"It's over."

Wu Shaojun and others were ashen, feeling as if their end had arrived. At this moment, they sensed their heads being hit by a mysterious force.

Their defensive magical artifacts, and magic robes, could not provide any defense.

It was as if they had no defense.

A terrifying wave of soul power struck their souls.

With just one hit, their souls instantly shattered, splitting apart.

Thud, thud!!!

In the next second, within the entire manor, fifteen Wu Family cultivators, under the attack of the Soul-Shaking Talisman, had their souls shattered, dying on the spot, unable even to scream, turning immediately into corpses.

Their bodies fell to the ground, eyes empty, bleeding from seven orifices.

Obviously, the vitality of their bodies had completely dissipated.

Without this group of Wu Family elites, the entire Wu Family was not much different from being thoroughly destroyed.

Even if they wanted to rise again in the future, it was basically impossible.

"As expected of the Soul-Shaking Talisman."

"Even if it's an ordinary talisman, when used by someone powerful enough, it can still unleash astonishing power."

Seeing this scene, Jiang Fan was very satisfied.

Like a Martial Arts Grandmaster, even knowing just the Grand Ancestor Long Fist can match the seventy-two ultimate techniques of the Shaolin Temple.

The important thing is not the martial arts, but the person.

The same principle applies now.

Even though the Soul-Shaking Talisman is just an ordinary talisman, when used by a Foundation Establishment cultivator, it is still very impressive.

It unleashes a peculiar force that shakes the soul, rendering Qi Cultivation Stage cultivators completely helpless.

With a single strike, it's enough to shatter their souls.

In fact, not to mention Qi Cultivation Stage cultivators, even Foundation Establishment cultivators facing the power of the Soul-Shaking Talisman would become dizzy, inevitably losing focus for a moment.

In this way, during Foundation Establishment battles, it becomes a fatal flaw.

"If its skill level is improved further, even Foundation Establishment cultivators could be shaken to death."

Jiang Fan felt the Soul-Shaking Talisman had endless potential.

The reason some cultivators think the Soul-Shaking Talisman is ordinary is just because their souls are weak.

But he is different; his soul power is several times stronger than cultivators of the same rank.

Therefore, when such a talisman is used by him, it naturally adds wings to a tiger.

Boom~~

Jiang Fan waved his big hand, and a few fireballs appeared in his hand, smashing onto the corpses of the Wu Family cultivators.

Instantly, these Wu Family corpses were completely burned to ashes.

He was already very skilled in such corpse-destroying acts.

The entire manor was now empty, with no other Wu Family cultivators.

Whoosh!

Jiang Fan had no intention to stay here any longer; he took the storage bags left by Wu Shaojun and others and quickly left the place, without leaving any trace.

Not long after, Jiang Fan returned home, as if he had never left.

He was carefully examining the storage bags he had obtained this time.

After all, these people were remnants of the Wu Family, carrying the Wu Family's property, which must yield quite the harvest.

"This is a fortune, a real fortune."

"This kid actually had a genuine Foundation Establishment Pill?!"

"He hadn't even taken it yet?"

Jiang Fan's eyes instantly brightened with excitement.

He initially thought that the Wu Family had obtained a Foundation Establishment Pill and should have taken it already.

But upon reflection, the opponent probably didn't even have time to take the pill and was destroyed.

Hence, this Foundation Establishment Pill fell into his hands.

It's important to know that Foundation Establishment Pills are divided by grade: Inferior Foundation Establishment Pill, Genuine Foundation Establishment Pill, Top-grade Foundation Establishment Pill, Perfect Foundation Establishment Pill, and so on.

The vast majority of cultivators only obtain Genuine Foundation Establishment Pills.

After all, the alchemist's skill is apparent.

Trying to refine a Top-grade Foundation Establishment Pill is almost impossible.

As for a Perfect Foundation Establishment Pill, that's even more absurd; it's hardly ever seen.

Because a Perfect-level Foundation Establishment Pill means no elixir poison, which is extremely difficult to achieve.

But Jiang Fan is different; he can entirely use the power of the Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace to fully refine this Genuine Foundation Establishment Pill into a perfect Foundation Establishment Pill.

This would enhance the medicinal power of this pill several times.

Once successful, the chance of Su Weiwei successfully establishing her foundation could reach seventy or eighty percent.

"Wait, this seems to be the Body Tempering Spirit Medicine, Blood Coagulation Vermilion Fruit."

"If I take this spirit medicine, my Soaring Snake Technique could likely achieve a breakthrough."
