Chapter 264: Soaring Snake Technique Breakthrough, Nurturing Bloodline Divine Techniques: Palm Wind_2

Jiang Fan discovered that the Foundation Establishment Wu Family indeed had rather profound roots, to possess such a Body Tempering Spirit Medicine.

Although he had obtained many spirit medicines from the Lingxi Secret Realm, they were mostly to increase spiritual power within the body. As for Body Tempering type spirit medicines, not a single one.

Unexpectedly, the Wu Family delivered them right to his doorstep.

One must know that his Body Cultivation Realm was just a step away from Foundation Establishment.

If he had the help of the Body Tempering Spirit Medicine, it would surely aid him in crossing that final step.

Once his Body Cultivation Realm advanced to the Tier Two level, his strength would certainly surge dramatically.

More importantly, his lifespan would experience tremendous growth.

This, for him, was the truly critical matter.

One could say the Sixth-Grade Opportunity did not fall short of his gains in the Lingxi Secret Realm.

Perhaps even better than that.

"Tsk tsk, how much have the Wu Family plundered from the loose cultivators."

"They actually stored so many spirit stones, spirit medicines, and various materials for talisman making and artifact refining."

"All in all, it must be worth at least 200,000 spirit stones."

Jiang Fan was quite moved.

Moreover, this was not even all of the Wu Family's assets, merely a portion of them.

After all, they fled too hastily, leaving many treasures behind.

They only managed to take some of them.

Yet even so, these treasures were enough for him to earn quite well.

"You're really walking on luck."

"A Foundation Establishment Clan was wiped out, and their foundation fell into your hands."

"Even the Foundation Establishment Pill was lost."

"Perhaps the forces in Yunlai City are currently searching for them, aiming to get the Foundation Establishment Pill."

"I bet they didn't expect you to beat them to it."

At this moment, the Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace was speechless, unsure of what to say.

It had long known the kid's luck was extraordinary but didn't expect it to be this excessive.

He did practically nothing.

The Foundation Establishment Clan, the Wu Family he offended, was somehow eliminated.

Even the treasures left on the remnants of the Wu Family fell into this kid's hands.

One could say he emptied the Wu Family, without any karma.

Even if any surviving Wu Family cultivators wanted revenge, they couldn't find a target.

In conclusion, he took all the benefits without any consequences.

This reminded it of the embittered Daoist Wan Hua.

Once upon a time, Daoist Wan Hua indeed seized many opportunities, but each brought significant consequences.

Thus, he ended up besieged and faced a tragic demise.

"Who let my luck be so good?"

"Help me refine this spirit medicine first."

Jiang Fan smiled slightly, not arguing, for his destiny indeed seemed extraordinary.

"Fine."

"Throw it over."

Unsatisfied, the Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace had long become this kid's tool treasure and could only accept its fate now.

At this time, Jiang Fan placed the Blood Coagulation Vermilion Fruit into the Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace, then activated its power to refine the spirit medicine, expelling all its impurities and toxins.

Soon after, the spirit medicine transformed into a pool of crimson liquid, akin to blood.

It resembled boiling magma, containing immense heat.

"Good stuff."

Without hesitation, Jiang Fan consumed the crimson liquid immediately.

After all, the medicinal power would certainly evaporate if left unused for long.

Therefore, once refined, it must be consumed promptly for maximum effect.

Rumble~~

Once the crimson liquid was consumed, it immediately transformed into vast medicinal power, a surge of heat quickly spreading to every corner of Jiang Fan's body, raising his body's temperature continuously.

He then operated the Soaring Snake Technique, and the Qi and Blood Power within him seemed to transform into a soaring snake, moving throughout his body.

More importantly, the Soaring Serpent Rune on each muscle began to glow, emitting golden light.

Under the effect of the Blood Coagulation Vermilion Fruit, the qi and blood started to strengthen rapidly at a visible speed.

Each muscle underwent swift fortification.

Originally, Jiang Fan's Body Cultivation Realm had reached Tier One Late Stage, just a step away from Tier Two.

The Blood Coagulation Vermilion Fruit helped him over that final step.

Boom~~

Suddenly, Jiang Fan's body trembled, and the Soaring Serpent Runes within each muscle vibrated, seemingly fusing deeply into his bloodline, merging with the qi and blood.

A total of 639 muscles, thus 639 Soaring Serpent Runes.

They fused together, forming a Divine Power Seed.

At that moment, the muscles and qi and blood throughout his body seemed to unify.

He sensed that he had advanced to Tier Two Lower Grade Body Cultivator!

Furthermore, he condensed a bloodline divine technique—Palm Wind!

"Bloodline divine technique?!"

Jiang Fan clenched his fist, feeling astounded within.

He never anticipated that the Soaring Snake Technique could be so powerful, allowing his body to birth a bloodline divine technique.

Ordinary divine techniques and bloodline divine techniques are entirely different.

Divine techniques are cultivated by cultivators themselves, reaching the peak of magic and transforming into divine techniques capable of instant manifestation.

But such divine techniques can only be used by oneself and cannot be passed on to others.

However, bloodline divine techniques are different.

This power has already been hidden deep within the bloodline, at the core of the genes.

If he could produce offspring, he would pass his bloodline to his sons and daughters.

Thus, his descendants could inherit his bloodline and might awaken the corresponding bloodline divine techniques.

In the Cultivation Realm, those terrifying demon beasts and Great Demons are like this: passing their bloodlines through generations.

Upon awakening bloodline divine techniques, they become the rulers among demon beasts, possessing formidable combat power.

This is why demon beasts are so powerful.

But now, he too had mastered bloodline divine techniques.

Even in the future, he could pass this power down.

If he wished, he could potentially establish a grand and ancient bloodline family.

Essentially, each descendant would possess decent talent.

This is the power of bloodline inheritance.

"The Soaring Snake Technique, this Ancient Martial Arts Technique is truly astonishing."

Jiang Fan increasingly found this technique extraordinary.

He had never heard of any technique that could help cultivators birth bloodline divine techniques.

This was practically a technique transforming humans into divine beings.

Even mere Qi Cultivation Chapter would evoke immense awe, feeling extraordinary.

Yet now, he wasn't pondering the origins of the Soaring Snake Technique.

For this was not a mystery he could pursue at present.

Currently, he was more concerned about the bloodline divine technique he manifested—Palm Wind.

Evidently, this bloodline divine technique's ability was straightforward, aiding him in mastering the power of the wind.

"Unbelievable."

"It's as though I've become the Child of Wind."

Jiang Fan sat cross-legged on the ground.

With a mere thought, air currents surged from all directions, effortlessly lifting his entire body, allowing him to float mid-air.

At this moment, he sensed the air currents around him were quite intimate with him.

As if he was born to control the airflow, to command the Wind Spiritual Power.

Like a fish naturally adept at swimming.

He was also naturally able to control the airflow, wield the wind's power.

Honestly, he didn't understand the principle, but he could accomplish it.

This is the power of bloodline divine techniques.

And this ability had already become part of his body, transformed into instinct.

Rumble~~

With each breath Jiang Fan took, breathing in and out.

The air currents from the world penetrated his pores, entering and exiting.

Centered around his body, seemingly forming a cloud of white mist.

His entire body became the vortex of the air currents.

"Too strong."

Jiang Fan felt he had gained a deeper understanding of the Body-Stabilizing Talisman and Light Body Talisman, knowing their power would be multiplied if used now.

He had heard of a special spirit body in the Cultivation Realm—the Wind Spirit Body. Cultivators possessing this spirit body were naturally favored by the wind and could easily control air currents.

Undoubtedly, the bloodline divine technique he awakened—Palm Wind, also had similar capabilities.
